XXXVIII. In addition to the penalty of two thousand Rupees (and whether such penalty shall have been recovered or not), the said Company shall forfeit the sum of two hundred Rupees (to be recovered in like manner) for each day during which such washing or other substance shall be brought or shall flow as aforesaid, or the act by which such water shall be fouled shall continue after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when notice of the offence shall have been served on the said Company, by the person into whose water such washing or other substance shall be brought or shall flow, or whose water shall be fouled thereby, and such penalty shall be paid to such last mentioned person.

Daily penalty during escape of Gas after notice.

XXXIX. Whenever any Gas shall escape from any pipe laid down or set up by or belonging to the said Company, they shall, immediately after receiving notice thereof in writing, prevent such Gas from escaping; and in case the said Company shall not, within twenty-four hours next after service of such notice, effectually prevent the Gas from escaping, and wholly remove the cause of complaint, they shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of fifty Rupees for each day during which the Gas shall be suffered to escape, after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the service of such notice.

Penalty if water contaminated by Gas.

XL. Whenever any water shall be fouled by the Gas of the said Company, they shall forfeit to the person whose water shall be so fouled, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and a further sum, not exceeding one hundred Rupees, for each day during which the offence shall continue, after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the service of notice of such offence.

Power to examine Gas pipes to ascertain cause of contamination, if notice be given of the same.

XLI. For the purpose of ascertaining whether such water be fouled by the Gas of the said Company, the person to whom the water supposed to be fouled shall belong may dig up the ground, and examine the pipes, conduits, and works of the said Company; provided that such person, before proceeding so to dig and examine, shall give twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the said Company of the time at which such digging and examination is intended to take place, and shall give the like notice to the persons having the control or management of the road, pavement, or place where such digging is to take place, and they shall be subject to the like obligation of re-instating the said road and pavement, and the same penalties for delay, or any nonfeasance or misfeasance therein, as are hereinbefore provided with respect to roads and pavements broken up by the said Company, for the purpose of laying their pipes.

Expenses to abide result of examination.

XLII. If upon any such examination, it appear that such water has been fouled by any Gas belonging to the said Company, the expenses of the digging, examination, and repair of the street or place disturbed in any such examination shall be paid by the said Company; but if upon such examination it appear that the water has not been fouled by the Gas of the said Company, the person causing such examination to be made shall pay all such expenses, and shall also make good to the said Company any injury which may be occasioned to their works by such examination.

How expenses to be ascertained.

XLIII. The amount of the expenses of every such examination and repair, and of any injury done to the said Company, shall, in case of any dispute about the same, together with the costs of ascertaining and recovering the same, be ascertained and recovered in the same manner as damages for the ascertaining and recovery whereof no special provision is made, are to be ascertained and recovered.

No exemption from indictments.

XLIV. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the said Company from being liable to an indictment for nuisance, or to any other legal proceedings to which they may be liable in consequence of making or supplying Gas.

All penalties and damages not otherwise provided for may be recovered before Magistrate or Justice of the Peace.

XLV. All penalties imposed by this Act, and all damages the recovery of which is not specially provided for, may be recovered by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having jurisdiction, and on complaint being made to any such Justice or Magistrate, he shall issue his summons, requiring the party complained against to appear before him, at a time and place to be named in such summons; and every such summons shall be served on the party offending, either in person or by leaving the same at his usual or last known place of abode;

Form of procedure.

and upon the appearance of the party complained against, or, in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, which complaint shall be reduced to writing, and upon proof of the offence, or of the damage or expense having been incurred, either by the confession of the party complained against, or upon the oath of one credible witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Magistrate to convict the offender or party summoned as aforesaid, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty or damage incurred under the provisions of this Act, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such Justice or Magistrate shall think fit, which penalty or damage and costs so adjudged may be levied by distress.

Manner of executing distress.

XLVI. Where in this Act any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same, and the overplus arising from such goods and chattels, after satisfying such sum of money and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned on demand to the party whose goods shall have been distrained; or instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of any penalties, damages, or expenses imposed or incurred under the provisions of this Act, the person claiming such penalty or damage may sue the person liable to pay such penalty, damage, or expenses, or any part thereof, in the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, or other Court of competent jurisdiction.

No distress unlawful for want of form, &c.

XLVII. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall any such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such defect or irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case in Her Majesty's said Supreme Court, or in the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, or other Court of competent jurisdiction.

Power to Justice to summon witnesses.

XLVIII. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate to summon any person to appear before him as a witness, in any matter in which such Justice or Magistrate shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, and require from him, on oath or solemn affirmation, that he will testify the truth in such matter; and if any person so summoned shall,

Penalty for not appearing without reasonable cause, refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, if, from distance or any other cause, he shall be lawfully entitled to claim such expenses, or if any person appearing shall refuse to be examined on his oath or solemn affirmation according to Law, or to give evidence before such Justice or Magistrate, every such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or, at the discretion of such Justice, shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month.

Duration of Act.

XLIX. This Act shall continue and be in force until the day of 18 .

Interpretation.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 4th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 4th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 8th of October next:—

A Bill to provide for the better lighting of the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a Company has been established for the purpose of supplying Gas to the Town of Calcutta, and it is expedient that the public streets should be lighted with Gas wherever pipes may be laid down for that purpose at the desire or with the concurrence of the Municipal Commissioners and the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and also that the parts of the Town in which Gas pipes are not laid down should be better lighted with oil lamps than they are at present; and whereas it is expedient that, to provide means for these purposes, a lighting rate should be assessed on the occupiers of houses and buildings within the said Town, and that occupiers of houses paying more than a certain sum in monthly rent should no longer be compelled to keep up a lighted lamp at their own doors: It is enacted as follows:—

Portions of Acts repealed.

I. Section L of Act No. XII of 1852, and so much of Section LXV of Act No. X of 1852 as requires, or may be understood to require, that any portion of the proceeds of the assessment imposed by the last mentioned Act on the owners of houses, buildings, and grounds in the said Town shall be applied to lighting the streets, are repealed.

Commissioners to determine what streets shall be lighted with Gas.

II. The Commissioners for the improvement of the Town of Calcutta, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall determine in what roads, streets, lanes, and thoroughfares Gas lights are required, and upon main-pipes being laid down therein by the Gas Company, the public lamps shall be lighted with Gas; and it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to take care that the Gas lights are in such number, and so disposed, as to ensure the efficient lighting of the said roads, streets, lanes, and thoroughfares at the smallest possible expense.

And to provide sufficient oil lamps in other streets.

III. In those roads, streets, lanes, and parts of the Town in which Gas pipes may not be at first laid down, the Commissioners shall provide and maintain such a number of oil lamps as may be sufficient for the due lighting thereof. The number of those lamps shall not be less than the aggregate number of public lamps and gate-lamps of the kind prescribed by Section IV Act No. XII of 1852 hitherto existing in such roads, streets, lanes, and parts of the Town. Provided always that the Commissioners shall distribute the total number of lamps in such places and in such manner as they shall think best suited for the proper lighting of the whole.

Lighting rate to be assessed on occupiers.

IV. An assessment, to be called a lighting rate, shall be made, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, on the occupiers of all houses, buildings, and grounds in the said town, the gross monthly rental whereof shall exceed the sum of five Rupees. The assessment shall be at such rates as shall be sufficient to pay all the expenses of lighting the public roads, streets, and lanes of the said Town with Gas and with oil, and no more, and shall not exceed four per centum on the gross monthly rental in roads, streets, and lanes lighted with Gas, and two per centum on the gross monthly rental in roads, streets, and lanes lighted with oil.

Rates of assessment how fixed.

V. The rates of assessment shall be fixed from time to time by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal on the report of the Commissioners for the improvement of the said Town. Provided always that the rate for roads, streets, and lanes, which at the time of this Act first coming into force, or at any future period, may be lighted with Gas, shall be double the rate for roads, streets, and lanes lighted with oil.

Assessment by whom made.

VI. The rates fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, as provided in the last preceding Section, shall be assessed on the rate-payers by the Justices of the Peace in and for the said Town of Calcutta; and all houses, buildings, and grounds liable to the rates shall be included in the assessment, whether they be occupied or unoccupied at the time when the assessment is made.

Assessment how to be made when occupier is owner.

VII. When the occupier of any house, building, or grounds is also the owner, the assessment shall be made on the gross monthly rental at which the same, in the estimation of the said Justices, might reasonably be expected to let.

In what cases assessment to be made on owner.

VIII. If the gross monthly rent of any house, building, or grounds be less than ten Rupees, or if any house or building be let by the owner in floors or apartments, or to tenants holding from week to week, or from month to month, the assessment shall be made upon the owner instead of the occupier or occupiers thereof.

Occupiers to pay rates only for the time of their occupation.

IX. Occupiers shall be liable to payment of rates only for the time of their occupation, and no rate shall be charged on any person on account of unoccupied houses or buildings for the time during which they may remain unoccupied.

X. The first assessment under this Act shall be made immediately upon the Act coming into force, or as soon after as may be practicable, and shall have effect from the date of the Act coming into force to the close of the current quarter of the official year. In like manner an assessment shall be made at the commencement of the next and every succeeding quarter, and shall be in force during that quarter. Provided that the assessment may be revised at any time within the quarter with respect to any particular holding, on sufficient cause shown to the satisfaction of the Justices, or with respect to any change of rate which may be prescribed either for the whole Town, or any part thereof, under the provisions of Section V of this Act.

Assessments when to be made.

Proviso for revision.

XI. Sections XXXIX to LIV, both inclusive, and Sections LVI to LXIV, both inclusive, of Act No. X of 1852, respecting the making of assessments, the collection of rates and taxes, the penalty for resistance to the Commissioners, and the liability of the Commissioners for acts performed by them, shall be applicable to the assessments to be made, the rates to be collected, and the acts to be performed by the Commissioners under this Act. Provided however that the rates assessed under this Act on the monthly rental of houses, buildings, and grounds, shall be due and payable from and after the end of each month, and may be collected by the Commissioners monthly or quarterly at their discretion. Provided also that the provisions of Sections LI and LIV, respecting the issue of process to owners and the distraint of their goods and chattels, shall be applicable also to process issued to occupiers and distraint of their goods and chattels, on account of any sum due from them as arrears of assessment made under this Act. Provided further that all goods and chattels which shall be found upon any premises rated under this Act, shall be liable to be distrained for any arrears of rates assessed in respect thereof, and if the arrear, or any portion thereof, be due from any person other than the owner of the said goods and chattels, such owner may recover any sum paid by or levied from him, on account of the arrear due from such other person, by suit against that person in the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, as for money paid in his behalf.

Application to this Act of certain Sections of Act No. X of 1852

Proviso for monthly collection.

For issue of process to occupiers.

And for distraint of all goods and chattels found on the premises.

XII. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after a date to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, when the arrangements for lighting a portion of the said Town with Gas shall have been completed; and notice of such date, and of the rates to be assessed under Section V, shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette at least one month previously.

Act when to come in force.

India Board, 26th May 1855.

SIR JAMES MELVILL, K C. B.,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

I am desired by the Commissioners for the Affairs of India to transmit to you copy of a letter received from the Board of Trade, dated 21st instant, referring to certain privileges conceded by the Emperor of Japan in a Treaty recently concluded with His Majesty, and to certain documents which will be required by Ships resorting to the Port of Japan; and I am desired to request that you will move the Court of Directors to issue instructions to the Indian Governments in the manner pointed out in Mr. Booth's letter; and to cause the transmission of 20 copies of the documents (which are herewith enclosed) for the use of the Registrars of Shipping in India.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) T. N. REDINGTON.

No. 2876.

Office of Committee of Privy Council for Trade, Whitehall, 21st May 1855.

SIR T. N. REDINGTON, K. C. B.,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

I am directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade to acquaint you, for the information of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, that the Earl of Clarendon has recently brought under the consideration of my Lords the provisions of the Treaty recently concluded between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Japan, whereby the latter agrees to open the Japanese Ports of Nagasaki and Hakodadi to British Ships, for the purpose of effecting repairs and obtaining fresh water, provisions, and other supplies of any sort that they may absolutely require, provided that they are furnished with a given Stamp or Licence; and that, in order to meet the above requirement, it has been arranged with Lord Clarendon's concurrence that the Certificate of Registry of the Ship bearing the Royal Arms, shall bear or constitute such Licence.

My Lords have accordingly caused a Notice to this effect to be inserted in the Gazette, at the same time pointing out that all Certificates of Registry, issued under the Merchant Shipping Act 1854, will be printed in such form as to be recognized as bearing such Stamp or Licence; and that for the purpose of meeting the case of Ships already registered, a new and special form of Certificate of Registry has been prepared, which will, on application to any Registrar of Shipping, be given in exchange for the existing Certificate of Registry, and will be in such form as to be recognized by the Japanese Authorities.

As regards Ships to be hereafter registered in the British Possessions abroad, the new form of Certificate of Registry already circulated, will therefore answer the required purpose. But as regards Ships already registered, it will be necessary to send a limited supply of the special forms, abovementioned, to each of the Presidencies in India and to Hong-Kong, which are, as my Lords are given to understand, the only Possessions in which it is likely that they will be applied for.

The forms of Certificates (of each of which 60 copies are herewith sent) are of three kinds, viz.:

No. 1—For a Sailing Ship admeasured under the Act 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 55.

No. 2—For a Sailing Ship admeasured under the more recent Act 8th and 9th Victoria, Cap. 89, Section XVI.

No. 3—For a Steamer measured under the provisions of the last-mentioned Act.

I am therefore to request that you will move the Commissioners for the Affairs of India to direct the transmission of 20 copies of each of these forms to the Government of each of the three Presidencies in India, for the use of the Registrars of Shipping in those Possessions; and my Lords would suggest that instructions should at the same time be given to those Governments to give public notice of the provisions of the Treaty with Japan and of the measures to be adopted by those persons who may wish to obtain the document necessary in order to enable them to avail themselves of the privilege of entering the Japanese Ports of Nagasaki and Hakodadi.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) JAMES BOOTH.

General Order, Governor General, No. 974, dated 25th November 1853.
General Order, Governor General, No. 587, dated 31st May 1854.

I. When the deposits of Soldiers reach the sum of Rupees 1,500 (one thousand and five hundred) the amount shall be invested by the Secretary to the Government Savings Bank, after communication with the Conductors of the Regimental Banks in 3¾ per cent. Treasury Notes, in the manner laid down in the Government General Order No. 389, of the 10th October 1848.

II. It shall be the duty of the Officers immediately responsible for the business of the Regimental Savings Banks to require every Depositor whose savings reach the prescribed limit of (1,500) one thousand and five hundred Rupees, to signify his wishes in regard to the disposal of the amount, giving him distinctly to understand that, unless withdrawn or otherwise appropriated, the money will be invested in Treasury Notes and become no longer available in the Regimental Bank. If the Depositor decide in favor of the investment, advice of the same shall be immediately communicated to the Government Savings Bank in Calcutta, care being taken that no portion of the amount notified for investment is withdrawn. If, on the other hand, the Depositor be averse to the investment of his savings, he shall be required to withdraw such portion as may be in excess of the prescribed maximum, the withdrawal being promptly notified to the Government Savings Bank at Calcutta, in the usual manner.

III. The interest upon all sums in deposit shall be added to the Principal annually on 1st May, and shall thenceforward bear interest.

IV. No interest shall be allowed on Deposits which exceed the prescribed limit of Rupees (1,500) one thousand and five hundred.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 4th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 4th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 8th of November next:—

A Bill to explain and amend Act No. XXXIII. of 1852.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether, when application is made to a Court to enforce or execute the judgment of another Court under the provisions of Act No. XXXIII of 1852, the Court to which the application is made has power to inquire into the validity of the judgment; and it is expedient to remove such doubts, and to prevent any such Court from inquiring into the validity of a judgment in respect of which it has no appellate jurisdiction, and to provide for a stay of execution when such Court thinks it reasonable that the validity of the judgment should be inquired into: It is enacted as follows:—

Court to which application to enforce a judgment of another Court is made, not to inquire into the validity of the judgment.

I. The Court to which application is made to enforce or execute a judgment of another Court under the provisions of Act No. XXXIII of 1852, shall not have power to inquire into the validity of such judgment, unless it appear, upon the face of such judgment, that the Court by which the judgment was given had no jurisdiction to pronounce the same.

Proviso.

Such Court may, in certain cases, stay execution of judgment.

II. When application is made to any Court to execute or enforce the judgment of another Court under the provisions of the said Act, the Court to which the application is made may, upon reasonable cause being shown, stay the execution of the judgment for a reasonable time, to enable the judgment debtor to apply to the Court by which the judgment was given, or to any Court having appellate jurisdiction in respect of the judgment or execution thereof, for an order to stay the execution, or for any other order relating to the judgment or the execution thereof, which such Court of first instance or Court of Appeal might have made if execution had been issued by the Court of first instance, or if application for execution had been made to such Court; and in case the property or person of the judgment debtor shall have been seized under an execution, the Court which issued the execution may order restitution of the property, or the discharge of the person of the debtor, in the mean time.

Court may in such cases take security &c. from judgment debtor.

III. The Court to which application is made to execute or enforce a judgment may, before making an order to stay execution, or for the restitution of property, or the discharge of the judgment debtor under this Act, require such security from, or impose such conditions upon, the judgment debtor, as it may deem reasonable.

Order of Court pronouncing judgment to be binding upon Court enforcing the same &c.

IV. Any order of the Court in which the judgment was given, or of such Court of Appeal as aforesaid, shall be binding upon the Court to which the application for execution was made, and shall be a sufficient indemnity for all persons acting in execution of process issued by such last mentioned Court.

Defendant discharged under this Act liable to be re-taken in execution of the judgment.

V. No discharge of a defendant under the provisions of this Act shall prevent him from being re-taken in execution of the judgment.

Act to form part of Act XXXIII of 1852.

VI. This Act shall be read with, and taken as part of Act No. XXXIII of 1852.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 4th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 4th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 8th of November next :—

A Bill for incorporating the Oriental Gas Company.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient, in order to promote the comfort and convenience of the inhabitants of the various Towns and localities in India, that encouragement should be given to the establishment of Gas works, for supplying and lighting such Towns and localities with Gas ; and whereas a Joint Stock Company hath been lately formed for the purpose of establishing, prosecuting, and extending the introduction of such Gas works into India, with a capital of 50,000 Pounds Sterling, in 50,000 shares of 1 Pound Sterling each, which Company hath been duly registered in England pursuant to the Act of Parliament 7 and 8 Victoria, c. 110, under the name of the "Oriental Gas Company," and the said Company is already engaged in the erection of Gas works on land granted for that purpose by Government in the vicinity of the Town of Calcutta, and in the preparation and importation of apparatus and materials for the manufacture and supply of Gas for lighting the said Town : And whereas more than three-fourths of the said 50,000 shares in the said Company have been already subscribed for, and appropriated, and the proprietors have actually paid up 37,500 Pounds Sterling and upwards of the said capital of 50,000 Pounds Sterling ; and the several present subscribers are willing, at their own expense, to carry out the establishment of Gas works and the manufacture and supply of Gas as aforesaid, and it would tend much to the convenience and advantage, as well of the said subscribers as of the public, that they should be incorporated in the manner hereinafter mentioned and provided : And whereas the said Company has been constituted under the provisions of a Deed of Association bearing date the 25th day of April 1853, and made and executed in London between the several persons whose names and seals are subscribed and affixed to a certain Schedule thereto annexed of the first part, and Francis Kearsey therein described of the second part : And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for vesting, continuing, and establishing in, for, and against the corporate body hereby created (after and notwithstanding their Incorporation) all such property, rights, contracts, and liabilities whatsoever as the said existing Society or Company are, or but for such Incorporation would be possessed of, entitled, or liable to : It is enacted as follows :—

"Oriental Gas Company" incorporated.

I. The several persons whose names and seals are already subscribed and affixed to the said Deed of Association, and all other persons and corporations who have subscribed to, or become sharers in, and all such persons as shall hereafter subscribe to, or become sharers in the said undertaking, and their several and respective successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, shall be, and they are hereby united into a Company for the purposes herein declared, and shall constitute and be one body corporate, by the name and style of the "Oriental Gas Company," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name shall and may sue and be sued.

Business of the Company.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Company to carry on the general business of a Gas manufacturing and Gas Lighting Company, and to supply Gas for public, domestic, and other purposes at and in the said Town of Calcutta and its environs, and at such other Towns, Cities, and places within the Territories of the East India Company as to the Governor General in Council, or to the Governors or Lieutenant-Governors of such Territories respectively, shall seem fit ; and for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, to make and enter into any such sub-contracts or sub-contract with any other Gas Company or Companies in Great Britain or elsewhere, or with any private individuals or individual, upon and subject to such terms and conditions as to the said Oriental Gas Company may seem fit and expedient ; and for the purposes of erecting Gas works, or other purposes connected with the manufacture of Gas, to take and hold any such grants or leases, or to make any such purchases of any absolute or other interest in or acquisitions of land, in perpetuity or for any term of years, as the said Company shall think expedient and advisable, with full power to the said Company from time to time to sell, dispose of, assign, or exchange the same respectively, and to form, erect, and make all such establishments, buildings, works, and conveniences as to the said Company shall seem fit and proper, and generally to use all such other ways and means as to the said Company shall seem meet for carrying into effect the objects aforesaid.

Capital of the Company.

III. The capital of the said Company shall consist of Company's Rupees 5,00,000, to be contributed in 50,000 shares of Company's Rupees 10 each, which shall be the original capital of the said Company, and of such further sum as may be raised by the creation and sale of new shares as hereinafter provided for. Provided always that it shall and may be lawful for the said Company, at any time and from time to time, to increase the capital of the said Company to any amount not exceeding Company's Rupees 30,00,000 altogether, by the issue of fresh shares of Company's Rupees 10 each, upon such terms as to them shall seem fit.

Proviso.

Power to raise money by loan.

IV. It shall not be lawful for the said Company to raise money by way of loan to a greater amount altogether than one-fifth of the paid-up capital for the time being of the said Company.

All property vested in the incorporated Company.

V. All and every the grants or purchases of land made, obtained, or contracted for by the said Company, in the names or name of any Directors or Director thereof, or of any person or persons in trust for the said Company, and the erections, plant, and works made and erected thereon, and tunnels and excavations made therein, and all offices, ware-houses, and buildings, and all fixed and moveable machinery, mains, pipes, and articles whatsoever, upon or appertaining thereto, or used therewith, and all property, real and personal, goods, articles, and things whatsoever, purchased, taken, brought, produced, or otherwise acquired for the purposes of the said Company, and all the estate right, title, and interest whatsoever therein, both at Law and in Equity, to all intents and purposes, shall henceforth vest in and belong to the said "Oriental Gas Company," and their successors in their corporate capacity, and no individual subscriber or shareholder thereof shall, as such, have or pretend to any estate, ownership, or right of property therein.

Power to make Bye-laws. Bye-laws contained in Deed of Association to continue in force.

VI. The said Company shall have full power to make and constitute any Bye-laws, Rules, and Regulations not repugnant to Law or to this Act, for and relating to the government and affairs of the said Company, and for the government and guidance of the Directors and Officers, and from time to time to rescind, alter, and vary the same, and the provisions of the said Deed of Association shall, until duly altered or abrogated, constitute and be deemed the first Bye-Laws, Rules, and Regulations of the said Company, and shall have and take effect as such, so far and in such particulars as the same are not repugnant to Law or to this Act.

Meetings held within six months after passing of Act under Bye-Laws.

VII. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to render illegal or invalid any general or other Meeting of the said Company, or of the managing body thereof, or any election, resolution, or other proceeding whatsoever, which has been, or shall be held, made or passed within six months after the passing of this Act, so as that the same shall have been held, made, or passed, under and in accordance with the Bye-Laws, Rules, and Regulations contained in the said Deed of Association.

Time and mode of holding general and extraordinary Meetings.

VIII. A General Meeting of the said Company shall be held at the principal office or place of business of the said Company at Calcutta, twice at the least in every year, and oftener when and if need shall be; the time of holding which periodical Meetings, and the form and mode of requisition for holding special or extraordinary Meetings, and of advertizing and giving notice thereof respectively, shall be settled and determined by Bye-Law or Rule of the said Company; and at all such General Meetings, whether periodical or special, every proprietor holding one share and less than 10 shares shall be entitled to one vote, 10 and less than 20 shares to two votes, each additional 10 shares entitling each proprietor so holding the same to an additional vote until his shares shall amount to 50; and each proprietor holding 50 shares and less than 100 shall be entitled to six votes, and so on, each additional 50 shares entitling the proprietor so holding the same to an additional vote until he hold 500 shares; and any shareholder holding 500 shares, and not more than 600 shares, shall be entitled to 15 votes; and every shareholder holding more than 600 shares shall also be entitled to one vote for every 100 shares above 600 in addition to the 15 votes aforesaid; but no proprietor shall be entitled to more than 25 votes altogether. Provided always, that votes given by proxy, according to any Bye-Law, Rule, or Regulation of the said Company, shall be deemed to be as valid and effectual as if given in person.

Number of Votes.

Votes by proxy.

Account books and balance sheet to be produced at General Meetings.

IX. At all such periodical Meetings as aforesaid, the books and accounts of the said Company shall be produced and exhibited for the inspection, examination, and approval of the subscribers or shareholders at large; and at each of such periodical Meetings, there shall be produced and presented, by the Directors or other Officers of the said Company for the time being, a true account in abstract and balance sheet, showing the whole of the receipts, disbursements, and operations of the said Company, commencing from the date of their next preceding periodical Meeting, and account brought down to the date of holding such periodical Meeting at which the same shall be produced, or as near thereto as conveniently may be; and such abstract account and balance sheet, when examined, approved, or passed by such or any subsequent Meeting, shall immediately be published in the Government Gazette at Calcutta, and in the Calcutta Exchange Gazette, and also in the London Gazette.

Balance sheet to be published in Gazette.

Saving of payments heretofore made on account of shares.

X. All payments already made on account of the shares subscribed for in the said Company shall be deemed valid and effectual payments, and are hereby acknowledged and confirmed.

Certificate of share.

XI. A certificate, signed by three Directors of the said Company, shall, upon request, be delivered to every proprietor or shareholder of the said Company; and any share of the said Company shall be transferable by endorsement made on the certificate representing such share or shares respectively by the holder thereof, provided that such endorsement shall specify the name of the party to whom such transfer is made. Provided always that no such endorsement shall be effectual to transfer any share or shares, until compliance with the Bye-Laws, Rules, and Regulations of the said Company, and until the transfer shall have been registered in a registry to be kept for that purpose at the principal office in Calcutta of the said Company (if such transfer be made in India), or in London (if such transfer be made in Great Britain), and until a note of such registration, and of the date thereof, shall have been made on the back of the endorsed certificate, under the hand of the Secretary of the said Company for the time being, at the place where such transfer shall have been made, or of such other Officer as shall be appointed by the said Company for that purpose. Provided that if, at the place where such transfer shall be made, there be no such Secretary or Officer, the same (if such transfer be made in India) shall be made by the Secretary or other Officer appointed in that behalf at Calcutta, or, if in Great Britain, by the Secretary or other Officer in that behalf appointed in London.

Share to be transferred by deed, &c.

Proviso.

Registry of transfer.

Shares to be deemed personal property.

XII. The shares of and in the said Company shall, as between the several proprietors thereof, and their real and personal representatives, and all other persons claiming under them, be deemed to be personal estate to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and be transmitted and transmissible and disposed of accordingly. And if any party possessed of such share or shares shall die in India, it shall not be necessary for his representatives, in order to make a valid transfer thereof, to take out probate or letters of administration in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, or any other Ecclesiastical Court in England; but such share or shares shall be deemed assets within the Presidency within which such shareholder died.

Shares of parties dying in India to be deemed assets within Presidency.

XIII. For the purpose of satisfying any demands upon the said Company, or for the purpose of raising any further capital that shall become requisite for the purposes aforesaid, the several subscribers or shareholders shall pay up the whole or any part of the unpaid amount of their respective shares by instalments, to be called for by such persons in such manner, and to be paid at such times and places and manner as shall be appointed for that purpose by any Bye-Law or Regulation of the said Company.

Bye-Laws to direct the mode of payment by instalments of unpaid shares.

XIV. It shall be lawful for the said Company, by Bye-Law or Rule, to provide that, if any such instalment be not paid on or before the day fixed for the payment thereof, interest, after any legal rate to be appointed by such Bye-Law or Rule, shall be paid upon such instalment from such day up to the day when the same shall be actually paid; and the amount of any such call with interest shall be a debt due to the said Company, recoverable as well by set-off in account as otherwise; and it shall be lawful for the said Company, in like manner, to make any provision or provisions for the forfeiture of any share or shares on the non-payment of any such instalment and interest, or the restoration of any such forfeited share or shares. Provided that no such forfeiture shall be incurred until after default shall have been made for at least six calendar months.

Bye-Laws may direct interest to be charged on unpaid instalments or forfeiture of shares.

Proviso.

XV. The said Company shall have the benefit of, and shall be bound by, all the contracts, acts, deeds, matters, and things, which, up to the passing of this Act, or within six months after the passing hereof, shall have been or may be done, executed, or performed by the said Oriental Gas Company, under the said Deed of Association of the Twenty-fifth day of April 1853, for the purpose of forming and establishing the said Oriental Gas Company, or by or with their or any their order, direction, or sanction in regard thereto or to the business or the funds or property thereof, or in any wise relating thereto; and the said Company shall and may, in manner herein mentioned and provided in that behalf, sue and be sued thereon and in respect thereof, and shall have and be subject to the like rights and liabilities in respect thereof, as if this Act had been passed and referred to at the time of the making or doing of such contracts, acts, deeds, matters, and things respectively.

Contracts, &c. made prior to this Act, or within six months thereafter, to be binding.

XVI. A copy of the original Deed of Association of the said Oriental Gas Company, and of all and every the Rules, Orders, Bye-Laws, Regulations, or proceedings of the said Company, or other instruments whatsoever, whereby any change shall have been, or at any time shall be made, by the authority of the said Company, in the provisions of the said original Deed of Settlement, shall be kept at the office of the said Company in Calcutta, and another copy thereof at the office of the said Oriental Gas Company in London, and the same respectively shall there respectively be open to the inspection of all persons during the usual hours of business of the said offices, and a copy of such original Deed of Settlement, and a copy of each and every such Rule, Order, Bye-Law, Regulation, proceeding, or instrument as aforesaid, shall also be deposited by the said Company, as soon as it can be done after the passing of this Act, or after the making of any such Rule, Order, Bye-Law, Regulation, proceeding, or instrument hereafter to be made, in the office of the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William aforesaid, and shall be there filed, and be and remain open to the inspection of all persons during the usual office hours of such office; and an examined copy of any such filed copy as aforesaid, certified by and under the hand of the Prothonotary for the time being of the said Supreme Court, shall be good and sufficient evidence of each such original Deed, Rule, Order, Bye-Law, Regulation, proceeding, or instrument, in all actions, suits, and proceedings whatsoever, whether Civil or Criminal, to be had in any Court of Justice, or before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, or Revenue or other Officer, and whether acting judicially or in any proceeding preliminary to a judicial inquiry, throughout the Territories for which the Governor General in Council has power to legislate.

Copies of the original Deed of Association and of all Rules, &c. to be kept for inspection at the offices of the Company in Calcutta and London, and in the Prothonotary's Office at the Supreme Court, Fort William.

XVII. The said Company shall cause the name of each and every Director of the said Company, and also the name and proper official description of each and every Officer of the said Company, and of every person acting and officiating for the time being as such Officer, to be entered in a book to be kept at the said principal offices in Calcutta and in London, respectively, of the said Company, to be there respectively open to the inspection of all persons during the usual hours of business of the said offices; and shall also, on the 1st day of January in each and every year after the passing of this Act, cause an annual Memorial of the name and description of such Directors and Officers respectively to be enrolled in the said office of the Prothonotary of the said Supreme Court; and such annual Memorial shall be signed by the Secretary or other Chief Officer or Officers for the time being in Calcutta of the said Company, and duly verified by Affidavit of one of such Officer or Officers sworn before the Master of the Supreme Court, or a Commissioner by the said Supreme Court in that behalf appointed.

Names of Directors and Officers to be entered in a book at the office, and to be enrolled from time to time in the Prothonotary's office.

Names of shareholders and all transfers of shares to be registered.

XVIII. The said Company shall cause the names, places of residence, and descriptions of the business, profession, or employment of the proprietors of shares in the said capital stock, and the number of shares held by each proprietor, to be registered in two several books and to be numbered therein in a regular consecutive series, beginning with No. 1, one of which books shall be kept at the said office in Calcutta, and the other thereof at the office in London of the said Company, which books respectively shall be open to the inspection of all persons during the usual hours of business, and each successive transfer or change of ownership of the said shares respectively shall be entered in the manner abovementioned, with the like particulars as abovementioned, in the said books respectively; and against the original entry of such share or shares shall be entered, in such two books respectively, a note of every such change of ownership or transfer, with a sufficient reference to the place or places in such book wherein is or are made the entry or entries of the name or names, place or places of residence, and descriptions of the proprietor or proprietors to whom, or in whose favor, such transfer or change, transfers or changes, shall have been made or had, from time to time, as aforesaid.

Company how to sue and be sued, &c.

Process to be only against the corporate Stock, &c.

XIX. The said Company shall sue and be sued in and by its said corporate name and not otherwise, in all proceedings whatsoever, whether civil or of a penal or criminal character, and whether the same be the proceedings of any Court, or of any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Revenue or other Officer executing any inquiry either preliminary to, or in the nature of a judicial investigation or inquiry, and shall, for all purposes of jurisdiction, be capable of suing and proceeding, and be liable to be sued and proceeded against in its said corporate name, character, and capacity in and before any such Court, Justice, Magistrate, or Revenue or other Officer, within any of the Territories for which the Governor General in Council has power to legislate, in respect of all matters and things over which such Court, Justice, Magistrate, or Officer respectively may have jurisdiction, and to the extent of such jurisdiction, in like manner as the same may, for the time being, be there had by or against any British subject or subjects within the said Territory. Provided always that no process or proceedings whatsoever, whether of a mesne or final or other nature, shall be had against the person or property of any individual members, shareholders, or subscribers of the said Company, either for the purpose of giving notice of any suit or proceeding, or of effecting any appearance to any suit or proceeding, or of obtaining payment or satisfaction of any debt, claim, or demand against the said Company, or of levying any fine or penalty awarded against the said Company, or of obtaining payment or satisfaction of any judgment, decree, award, order, or determination against the said Company, or for any the like purpose; but that all such process and proceedings of what nature soever shall be had solely against the corporate stock, property, and effects of the said Company.

Proviso.

Service of process, &c., on Secretary sufficient.

XX. All services of mesne or other process, and all notices whatsoever, which, by Law or by the practice of any Court wherein the said Company shall sue or be sued, are required to be made, served, or given for any purpose whatsoever to the said Company, shall and may be made, served, and given, in addition to all ways and means by which the same may otherwise be legally made, served, and given, upon or to the Secretary for the time being of the said Company resident in Calcutta, or the Officer or other person or persons acting and officiating as such, or by leaving the same addressed to such Secretary or person acting and officiating as such, at the principal office in Calcutta of the said Company.

Power to break up streets, &c. under superintendence, and to open drains.

XXI. In the Town of Calcutta and its environs, and in any other Town or place to which the provisions of this Act may hereafter be extended, the Oriental Gas Company, under such superintendence as is hereinafter specified, may open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets and bridges, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets and bridges, and lay down and place within the same limits pipes, conduits, service-pipes, and other works, and from time to time repair, alter, or remove the same, and also make any sewers that may be necessary for carrying off the washings and waste liquids which may arise in the making of the Gas; and, for the purposes aforesaid, may remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and bridges, and they may in such streets erect any pillars, lamps, and other works, and do all other acts which the said Company shall from time to time deem necessary for supplying Gas to the inhabitants of the said Town of Calcutta, or other Town or place as aforesaid, doing as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers hereby granted, and making compensation for any damage which may be done in the execution of such powers.

Not to enter on private land without consent.

XXII. Provided always that nothing herein shall authorize or empower the said Company to lay down or place any pipe or other works into, through, or against any building, or in any land not dedicated to public use, without the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof; except that the said Company may at any time enter upon and lay or place any new pipe in the place of an existing pipe, in any land wherein any pipe hath been already lawfully laid down or placed in pursuance of this Act, and may repair or alter any pipe so laid down.

Notice to be served on persons having control, &c. before breaking up streets or opening drains.

XXIII. Before the said Company proceed to open or break up any street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel, they shall give to the Commissioners for the improvement of the Town of Calcutta, or other persons under whose control or management the same may be, or to their Clerk, Surveyor, or other Officer, notice in writing of their intention to open or break up the same, not less than three clear days before beginning such work; except in cases of emergency arising from defects in any of the pipes or other works, and then so soon as is possible after the beginning of the work, or the necessity for the same shall have arisen

Streets or drains not to be broken up, except under superin-

XXIV. No such street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel shall, except in the cases of emergency aforesaid, be opened or broken up, except tendence of persons having control of the same.

under the superintendence of the persons having the control or management thereof, or of their officer, and according to such plan as shall be approved of by such persons or their officer, or in case of any difference respecting such plan, then according to such plan as shall be determined by a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and such Justice or Magistrate may, on the application of the persons having the control or management of any such sewer or drain, or their Officer, require the said Company to make such temporary or other works as they may think necessary for guarding against any interruption of the drainage during the execution of any works which interfere with any such sewer or drain. Provided always,

If persons having the control, &c., fail to superintend, Company may proceed without them.

that, if the persons having such control or management as aforesaid, and their officer, fail to attend at the time fixed for the opening of any such street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel, after having had such notice of the said Company's intention as aforesaid, or shall not propose any plan for breaking up or opening the same, or shall refuse or neglect to superintend the operation, the said Company may perform the work specified in such notice without the superintendence of such persons or their officer.

XXV. When the said Company open or break up the road or pavement of any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, they shall, with all convenient speed, complete the work for which the same shall be broken up, and fill in the ground, and re-instate and make good the road or pavement, or the sewer, drain, or tunnel so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall at all times, whilst any such road or pavement shall be so opened or broken up, cause the same to be fenced and guarded, and shall cause a light, sufficient for the warning of passengers, to be set up and maintained against or near such road or pavement where the same shall be open or broken up, every night during which the same shall be continued open or broken up, and shall keep the road or pavement which has been so broken up in good repair for three months after replacing and making good the same, and for such further time, if any, not being more than twelve months in the whole, as the soil so broken up shall continue to subside.

Streets, &c., broken up to be re-instated without delay

XXVI. If the said Company open or break up any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, without giving such notice as aforesaid, or in a manner different from that which shall have been approved of or determined as aforesaid, or without making such temporary or other works as aforesaid, when so required, except in the cases in which the said Company are hereby authorized to perform such works without any superintendence or notice, or if the said Company make any delay in completing any such work, or in filling in the ground or re-instating and making good the road or pavement, or the sewer, drain, or tunnel so opened or broken up, or in carrying away the rubbish occasioned thereby, or if they neglect to cause the place where such road or pavement has been broken up to be fenced, guarded, and lighted, or neglect to keep the road or pavement in repair for the space of three months next after the same shall have been made good, or such further time as aforesaid, they shall forfeit to the persons having the control or management of the street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel, in respect of which such default is made, a sum not exceeding rupees fifty for every such offence, and they shall forfeit an additional sum of rupees twenty for each day during which any such delay as aforesaid shall continue after they shall have received notice thereof.

Penalty for delay in re-instating streets, &c.

XXVII. If any such delay or omission as aforesaid take place, the persons having the control or management of the street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel in respect of which such delay or omission shall take place, may cause the work so delayed or omitted to be executed; and the expense of executing the same shall be repaid to such persons by the said Company, and such expenses may be recovered in the same manner as damages are recoverable under this Act.

In case of delay, other parties may re-instate and recover the expenses.

XXVIII. The said Company may, from time to time, enter into any contract with any person for lighting or supplying with Gas any public or private building, or for providing any person with pipes, burners, meters, and lamps, and for the repair thereof; and may also, from time to time, enter into any contract with the Commissioners, or other persons having the control of the streets, for lighting the same or any of them with Gas, and for providing such Commissioners or persons with lamps, lamp-posts, burners, and pipes for such purpose, and for the repairs thereof, in such manner and upon such terms as shall be agreed upon between the said Company and the said Commissioners, or other persons.

Power of the Company to contract for lighting streets, &c.

XXIX. The said Company may let for hire

Power to let meters.

any meter for ascertaining the quantity of Gas consumed or supplied, and any fittings for the Gas, for such remuneration in money as shall be agreed upon between the said Company and any person to whom the same may be so let, and such remuneration shall be recoverable in the same manner as the rents or sums due to the said Company for Gas; and such meters and fittings shall not be subject to distress for rent of the premises where the same may be used, nor be taken in execution under any process of a Court of Law or Equity, or any proceeding in Insolvency against the person in whose possession the same may be.

Meters not liable to distraint for rent, &c.

XXX. The Clerk, Engineer, or other Officer

Power to enter buildings for ascertaining quantities of Gas consumed.

duly appointed for the purpose by the said Company, may, at all reasonable times, enter any buildings or place lighted with Gas supplied by the said Company, in order to inspect the meters, fittings, and works for regulating the supply of Gas, and for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of Gas consumed or supplied; and if any person hinder such Officer as aforesaid from entering and making such inspection as aforesaid at any reasonable time, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit to the said Company a sum not exceeding fifty Rupees.

XXXI. If any person supplied with Gas by vir-

Recovery of rents due for Gas.

tue of this Act, neglect to pay the rent due for the same to the said Company, the said Company may stop the Gas from entering the premises of such person, by cutting off the service-pipes, or by such means as the said Company shall think fit, and recover the rent due from such person, together with the expenses of cutting off the Gas, by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Power to take away pipes, &c. when supply of Gas discontinued.

XXXII. In all cases in which the said Company are authorized to cut off and take away the supply of Gas from any House or Building or Premises under the provisions of this Act, the said Company, their agents or workmen, after giving twenty-four hours' previous notice to the occupier, may enter into any such House, Building, or Premises, between the hours of nine in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, and remove and carry away any pipe, meter, fittings, or other works, the property of the said Company.

Penalty for fraudulently using Gas.

XXXIII. Every person who shall lay, or cause to be laid, any pipe to communicate with any pipe belonging to the said Company, without their consent, or shall fraudulently injure any such meter as aforesaid, or who, in case the Gas supplied by the said Company is not ascertained by meter, shall use any burner other than such as has been provided or approved of by the said Company, or of larger dimensions than he has contracted to pay for, or shall keep the lights burning for a longer time than he has contracted to pay for, or shall otherwise improperly use or burn the Gas, or shall supply any other person with any part of the Gas supplied to him by the said Company, shall forfeit to the said Company the sum of fifty Rupees for every such offence, and also the sum of twenty Rupees for every day such pipe shall so remain, or such works or burner shall be so used, or such excess be so committed or continued, or such supply furnished; and the said Company may take off the Gas from the house and premises of the person so offending, notwithstanding any contract which may have been previously entered into.

Penalty for wilfully damaging pipes.

XXXIV. Every person who shall wilfully remove, destroy, or damage any pipe, pillar, post, plug, lamp, or other work of the said Company for supplying Gas, or who shall wilfully extinguish any of the public lamps or lights, or waste or improperly use any of the Gas supplied by the said Company, shall, for each such offence, forfeit to the said Company any sum not exceeding fifty Rupees, in addition to the amount of the damage done.

Satisfaction for accidentally damaging pipes.

XXXV. Every person who shall carelessly or accidentally break, throw down, or damage any pipe, pillar, or lamp belonging to the said Company, or under their control, shall pay such sum of money by way of satisfaction to the said Company for the damage done, not exceeding fifty Rupees, as any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate shall think reasonable.

Penalty for causing water to be corrupted

XXXVI. If the said Company shall at any time cause or suffer to be brought, or to flow into any stream, reservoir, aqueduct, pond, or place of water, or into any drain communicating therewith, any washing or other substance produced in making or supplying Gas, or shall wilfully do any act connected with the making or supplying of Gas, whereby the water in any such stream, reservoir, aqueduct, pond, or place for water shall be fouled, the said Company shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of two thousand Rupees.

Penalty to be sued for within six months.

XXXVII. The said penalty of two thousand Rupees shall be recovered with full costs of suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction, by the person into whose water such washing or other substance shall be conveyed, or shall flow, or whose water shall be fouled by any such act as aforesaid, but such penalty shall not be recoverable unless it be sued for during the continuance of the offence, or within six months after it shall have ceased.

Daily penalty during the continuance of the offence.

XXXVIII. In addition to the penalty of two thousand Rupees (and whether such penalty shall have been recovered or not), the said Company shall forfeit the sum of two hundred Rupees (to be recovered in like manner) for each day during which such washing or other substance shall be brought or shall flow as aforesaid, or the act by which such water shall be fouled shall continue after the expiration of twenty four hours from the time when notice of the offence shall have been served on the said Company, by the person into whose water such washing or other substance shall be brought or shall flow, or whose water shall be fouled thereby, and such penalty shall be paid to such last mentioned person.

Daily penalty during escape of Gas after notice.

XXXIX. Whenever any Gas shall escape from any pipe laid down or set up by or belonging to the said Company, they shall, immediately after receiving notice thereof in writing, prevent such Gas from escaping; and in case the said Company shall not, within twenty-four hours next after service of such notice, effectually prevent the Gas from escaping, and wholly remove the cause of complaint, they shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of fifty Rupees for each day during which the Gas shall be suffered to escape, after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the service of such notice.

Penalty if water contaminated by Gas.

XL. Whenever any water shall be fouled by the Gas of the said Company, they shall forfeit to the person whose water shall be so fouled, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and a further sum, not exceeding one hundred Rupees, for each day during which the offence shall continue, after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the service of notice of such offence.

Power to examine Gas pipes to ascertain cause of contamination, if notice be given of the same.

XLI. For the purpose of ascertaining whether such water be fouled by the Gas of the said Company, the person to whom the water supposed to be fouled shall belong may dig up the ground, and examine the pipes, conduits, and works of the said Company; provided that such person, before proceeding so to dig and examine, shall give twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the said Company of the time at which such digging and examination is intended to take place, and shall give the like notice to the persons having the control or management of the road, pavement, or place where such digging is to take place, and they shall be subject to the like obligation of re-instating the said road and pavement, and the same penalties for delay, or any nonfeasance or misfeasance therein, as are hereinbefore provided with respect to roads and pavements broken up by the said Company, for the purpose of laying their pipes.

Expenses to abide result of examination.

XLII. If upon any such examination, it appear that such water has been fouled by any Gas belonging to the said Company, the expenses of the digging, examination, and repair of the street or place disturbed in any such examination shall be paid by the said Company; but if upon such examination it appear that the water has not been fouled by the Gas of the said Company, the person causing such examination to be made shall pay all such expenses, and shall also make good to the said Company any injury which may be occasioned to their works by such examination.

How expenses to be ascertained.

XLIII. The amount of the expenses of every such examination and repair, and of any injury done to the said Company, shall, in case of any dispute about the same, together with the costs of ascertaining and recovering the same, be ascertained and recovered in the same manner as damages for the ascertaining and recovery whereof no special provision is made, are to be ascertained and recovered.

No exemption from indictments.

XLIV. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the said Company from being liable to an indictment for nuisance, or to any other legal proceedings to which they may be liable in consequence of making or supplying Gas.

All penalties and damages not otherwise provided for may be recovered before Magistrate or Justice of the Peace.

XLV. All penalties imposed by this Act, and all damages the recovery of which is not specially provided for, may be recovered by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having jurisdiction, and on complaint being made to any such Justice or Magistrate, he shall issue his summons, requiring the party complained against to appear before him, at a time and place to be named in such summons; and every such summons shall be served on the party offending, either in person or by leaving the same at his usual or last known place of abode;

Form of procedure.

and upon the appearance of the party complained against, or, in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, which complaint shall be reduced to writing, and upon proof of the offence, or of the damage or expense having been incurred, either by the confession of the party complained against, or upon the oath of one credible witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Magistrate to convict the offender or party summoned as aforesaid, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty or damage incurred under the provisions of this Act, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such Justice or Magistrate shall think fit, which penalty or damage and costs so adjudged may be levied by distress.

Manner of executing distress.

XLVI. Where in this Act any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same, and the overplus arising from such goods and chattels, after satisfying such sum of money and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned on demand to the party whose goods shall have been distrained; or instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of any penalties, damages, or expenses imposed or incurred under the provisions of this Act, the person claiming such penalty or damage may sue the person liable to pay such penalty, damage, or expenses, or any part thereof, in the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, or other Court of competent jurisdiction.

No distress unlawful for want of form, &c.

XLVII. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall any such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such defect or irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case in Her Majesty's said Supreme Court, or in the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, or other Court of competent jurisdiction.

Power to Justice to summon witnesses.

XLVIII. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate to summon any person to appear before him as a witness, in any matter in which such Justice or Magistrate shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, and require from him, on oath or solemn affirmation, that he will testify the truth in such matter; and if any person so summoned shall, without reasonable cause, refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, if, from distance or any other cause, he shall be lawfully entitled to claim such expenses, or if any person appearing shall refuse to be examined on his oath or solemn affirmation according to Law, or to give evidence before such Justice or Magistrate, every such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or, at the discretion of such Justice, shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month.

Penalty for not appearing

Duration of Act.

XLIX. This Act shall continue and be in force until the day of 18 .

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 4th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 4th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 8th of October next:—

A Bill to provide for the better lighting of the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a Company has been established for the purpose of supplying Gas to the Town of Calcutta, and it is expedient that the public streets should be lighted with Gas wherever pipes may be laid down for that purpose at the desire or with the concurrence of the Municipal Commissioners and the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and also that the parts of the Town in which Gas pipes are not laid down should be better lighted with oil lamps than they are at present; and whereas it is expedient that, to provide means for these purposes, a lighting rate should be assessed on the occupiers of houses and buildings within the said Town, and that occupiers of houses paying more than a certain sum in monthly rent should no longer be compelled to keep up a lighted lamp at their own doors: It is enacted as follows:—

Portions of Acts repealed.

I. Section L of Act No. XII of 1852, and so much of Section LXV of Act No. X of 1852 as requires, or may be understood to require, that any portion of the proceeds of the assessment imposed by the last mentioned Act on the owners of houses, buildings, and grounds in the said Town shall be applied to lighting the streets, are repealed.

Commissioners to determine what streets shall be lighted with Gas.

II. The Commissioners for the improvement of the Town of Calcutta, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall determine in what roads, streets, lanes, and thoroughfares Gas lights are required, and upon main-pipes being laid down therein by the Gas Company, the public lamps shall be lighted with Gas; and it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to take care that the Gas lights are in such number, and so disposed, as to ensure the efficient lighting of the said roads, streets, lanes, and thoroughfares at the smallest possible expense.

And to provide sufficient oil lamps in other streets.

III. In those roads, streets, lanes, and parts of the Town in which Gas pipes may not be at first laid down, the Commissioners shall provide and maintain such a number of oil lamps as may be sufficient for the due lighting thereof. The number of those lamps shall not be less than the aggregate number of public lamps and gate-lamps of the kind prescribed by Section IV Act No. XII of 1852 hitherto existing in such roads, streets, lanes, and parts of the Town. Provided always that the Commissioners shall distribute the total number of lamps in such places and in such manner as they shall think best suited for the proper lighting of the whole.

Lighting rate to be assessed on occupiers.

IV. An assessment, to be called a lighting rate, shall be made, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, on the occupiers of all houses, buildings, and grounds in the said town, the gross monthly rental whereof shall exceed the sum of five Rupees. The assessment shall be at such rates as shall be sufficient to pay all the expenses of lighting the public roads, streets, and lanes of the said Town with Gas and with oil, and no more, and shall not exceed four per centum on the gross monthly rental in roads, streets, and lanes lighted with Gas, and two per centum on the gross monthly rental in roads, streets, and lanes lighted with oil.

Rates of assessment how fixed.

V. The rates of assessment shall be fixed from time to time by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal on the report of the Commissioners for the improvement of the said Town. Provided always that the rate for roads, streets, and lanes, which at the time of this Act first coming into force, or at any future period, may be lighted with Gas, shall be double the rate for roads, streets, and lanes lighted with oil.

Assessment by whom made.

VI. The rates fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, as provided in the last preceding Section, shall be assessed on the rate-payers by the Justices of the Peace in and for the said Town of Calcutta; and all houses, buildings, and grounds liable to the rates shall be included in the assessment, whether they be occupied or unoccupied at the time when the assessment is made.

Assessment how to be made when occupier is owner.

VII. When the occupier of any house, building, or grounds is also the owner, the assessment shall be made on the gross monthly rental at which the same, in the estimation of the said Justices, might reasonably be expected to let.

In what cases assessment to be made on owner.

VIII. If the gross monthly rent of any house, building, or grounds be less than ten Rupees, or if any house or building be let by the owner in floors or apartments, or to tenants holding from week to week, or from month to month, the assessment shall be made upon the owner instead of the occupier or occupiers thereof.

Occupiers to pay rates only for the time of their occupation.

IX. Occupiers shall be liable to payment of rates only for the time of their occupation, and no rate shall be charged on any person on account of unoccupied houses or buildings for the time during which they may remain unoccupied.

Assessments when to be made.

X. The first assessment under this Act shall be made immediately upon the Act coming into force, or as soon after as may be practicable, and shall have effect from the date of the Act coming into force to the close of the current quarter of the official year. In like manner an assessment shall be made at the commencement of the next and every succeeding quarter, and shall be in force during that quarter.

Proviso for revision.

Provided that the assessment may be revised at any time within the quarter with respect to any particular holding, on sufficient cause shown to the satisfaction of the Justices, or with respect to any change of rate which may be prescribed either for the whole Town, or any part thereof, under the provisions of Section V of this Act.

Application to this Act of certain Sections of Act No. X of 1852.

XI. Sections XXXIX to LIV, both inclusive, and Sections LVI to LXIV, both inclusive, of Act No. X of 1852, respecting the making of assessments, the collection of rates and taxes, the penalty for resistance to the Commissioners, and the liability of the Commissioners for acts performed by them, shall be applicable to the assessments to be made, the rates to be collected, and the acts to be performed by the Commissioners under this Act.

Proviso for monthly collection.

Provided however that the rates assessed under this Act on the monthly rental of houses, buildings, and grounds, shall be due and payable from and after the end of each month, and may be collected by the Commissioners monthly or quarterly at their discretion.

For issue of process to occupiers.

Provided also that the provisions of Sections LI and LIV, respecting the issue of process to owners and the distraint of their goods and chattels, shall be applicable also to process issued to occupiers and distraint of their goods and chattels, on account of any sum due from them as arrears of assessment made under this Act.

And for distraint of all goods and chattels found on the premises.

Provided further that all goods and chattels which shall be found upon any premises rated under this Act, shall be liable to be distrained for any arrears of rates assessed in respect thereof, and if the arrear, or any portion thereof, be due from any person other than the owner of the said goods and chattels, such owner may recover any sum paid by or levied from him, on account of the arrear due from such other person, by suit against that person in the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, as for money paid in his behalf.

Act when to come in force.

XII. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after a date to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, when the arrangements for lighting a portion of the said Town with Gas shall have been completed; and notice of such date, and of the rates to be assessed under Section V, shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette at least one month previously.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 24th July 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XIX. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient, for the better administration of justice, to amend the law relating to District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort St. George, it is enacted as follows :—

Certain parts of Regulation VI of 1816 of the Madras Code repealed.

I. Clause 3rd Section VII ; Clause 1st Section XII ; and so much of Clause 2nd of the same Section as prohibits District Moonsiffs from trying suits in which persons employed in their Cutcherries may be parties ; Section XXIX ; and Section XL Regulation VI of 1816 of the Madras Code—are repealed.

Clause 1st Section XI of the same Regulation modified.

II. Clause 1st Section XI of the said Regulation is modified as follows :—Any suit cognizable by a District Moonsiff's Court may be heard and determined by any such Court to which it may be preferred, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the Defendant, at the time of the commencement of the suit, shall reside, as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court ; provided that, if an action be brought against several Defendants, of whom one shall be resident, as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

Power of District Moonsiffs to require security from Defendants, &c.

III. Section XXII of the said Regulation is modified as follows :—District Moonsiffs are empowered, when they think fit, to require security from Defendants, in preference to attaching their property under the circumstances described in the aforesaid Section, and to release property attached, on sufficient security being tendered by Defendants.

Powers of subordinate Zillah Courts for enforcing the attendance of witnesses may be exercised by District Moonsiffs.

IV. All powers which may be lawfully exercised by subordinate Zillah Courts for enforcing the attendance of witnesses summoned to appear in such Courts, may be exercised by District Moonsiffs for enforcing the attendance of witnesses summoned to appear in their Courts.

Penalty for resisting process.

V. On a complaint made to a District Moonsiff, on oath or solemn affirmation, that any person within his jurisdiction has resisted any process of his Court, the District Moonsiff may summon such person to answer to the charge, and, if the offence be proved to his satisfaction, may adjudge the offender to pay a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month in the Civil Jail, or in any place appointed by the Executive Government for the confinement of prisoners in civil cases.

Clauses 2, 3, and 4 Section X Regulation XV of 1816 of the Madras Code extended to District Moonsiffs' Courts.

VI. Clauses 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Section X Regulation XV of 1816 of the said Code shall be applicable to the Courts of District Moonsiffs.

VII. Clause 2nd Section VI Regulation XV of 1816 of the said Code, relating to reviews of judgment, shall be applicable to the Courts of District Moonsiffs, except that the petition for a review need not be written upon stamped paper. Provided that, if a District Moonsiff shall be of opinion that a review of his judgment ought to be granted, he shall report the case to the Judge of the Zillah, who may permit such review, under the same rules as are prescribed in regard to similar applications to the Court of Sudder Adawlut.

Also part of Clause 2 Section VI of the above Regulation.

Proviso.

VIII. All orders which may be passed by a District Moonsiff under this Act are open to appeal to the Zillah Judge, if preferred within the time fixed for regular appeals.

All orders of District Moonsiffs under this Act open to appeal.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 24th July 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XX. of 1855.

An Act for the establishment and maintenance of Boundary-marks in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS it is desirable, with a view to the better definition and security of landed property, the prevention of encroachments and disputes, and the identification of lands assessed to, or exempted from the public revenue in the Presidency of Fort St. George, that provision should be made for the establishment and maintenance of permanent marks to distinguish the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates, and villages, It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful within the said Presidency for a Collector of Land Revenue, or person exercising the powers of Collector, or any Revenue Officer appointed by the Government for the purpose, to fix the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and to require that marks be formed and maintained by the owners or occupants on the boundaries, of such materials, and in such number and manner, as may appear to such Officer sufficient for distinguishing the limits of such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, whenever he may be of opinion that such demarcation is necessary for the prevention or adjustment of disputes.

Collectors, &c. to fix boundaries of fields, &c., and to require owners or occupants to form and maintain boundary-marks.

II. Notices shall be served on the persons owning or occupying the conterminous fields, holdings, estates, or villages, requiring them to form or repair such boundary-marks within ten days from the date of the notice ; and in the event of these persons not being found in their village, the said requisition shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the owners or occupants were not correctly named or designated in the said notice.

Notices for the purpose when and how to be served.

III. In default of the owners or occupants of the fields, holdings, estates, or villages complying with such requisition, the said officer may give directions for the erection and repair of such boundary-marks, the cost of which shall be equitably apportioned on the fields, holdings, estates, or villages which they serve to distinguish, and shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and shall be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

In default of compliance, officer may order erection or repair of necessary marks at the expense of the owners or occupants.

IV. In the case of unoccupied fields, the cost shall be charged to Government.

In the case of unoccupied fields, cost to be charged to Government.

V. Any person convicted before a Magistrate of wilfully, and without lawful excuse, erasing, removing, or injuring such boundary-marks, or any survey-marks set up by an Officer of Government, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or injured, one-half of which fine may be awarded to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark. Whenever it may not be possible to detect the person who erased, removed, or injured such boundary or survey-marks, the Collector or other Revenue Officer aforesaid may give directions for the restoration or repair of such marks, and may order the cost thereof to be charged to the owners or occupants of the adjacent lands, or apportioned among the ryots of the village in proportion to their pottahs, as he may consider just and equitable, and to be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

Penalty for erasing, &c. marks—a moiety of which to be awarded to informer.

Costs how to be recovered when offender is not known or unable to pay the fine.

VI. Any person objecting to a boundary proposed to be fixed under Section I, may prefer a complaint to the Collector or other Revenue Officer, who shall dispose of the same in the manner prescribed by Regulation XII of 1816.

Party objecting may complain to Collector, &c.

VII. Any occupant or owner of land refusing or failing to attend when summoned by the Collector or other Revenue Officer, at the measurement and demarcation of his field, holding, or estate, or of the village boundary, shall be liable, by order of the Collector or other such Officer, to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, to be levied by the same process as an arrear of land revenue.

Penalty for refusing or neglecting to attend when summoned.

VIII. The proceedings of Officers imposing charges under Sections III and V, or fines under Section VII of this Act, shall be recorded in writing, and shall be subject to appeal to the Revenue authorities to whom they are subordinate.

Proceedings under Sections III, V, and VII, to be recorded in writing, and appealable to the superior Revenue authorities.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 22nd of November next:—

A Bill to enable Magistrates to take cognizance of certain offences without requiring a written complaint.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Magistrates to take cognizance of all bailable offences which affect the public health, safety, convenience, morals, decency, and good order, without requiring a complaint in writing or the attendance of a complainant, It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. So much of Section V Regulation IX. 1793, of Section V Regulation VI. 1803, of Section VI Regulation IX 1807 of the Bengal Code, and so much of Sections XII and XV Regulation IX. 1816 of the Madras Code, and so much of any other enactment as require a complaint in writing to be preferred to a Magistrate or the attendance of a complainant before taking cognizance of any offence which affects the public health, safety, convenience, morals, decency, and good order—are hereby repealed.

Laws repealed.

II. A Magistrate or other Officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate may, on the information of a Police Officer or other person to be given on oath, or on his own personal knowledge, having first recorded the grounds thereof in his own hand-writing, proceed against any person for any of the said offences in the same manner as if a complaint in writing had been preferred and sworn or duly deposed to.

Magistrate may proceed against persons for certain offences without written complaint.

III. All proceedings under this Act, of Magistrates and Officers exercising the powers of a Magistrate, shall be subject to the like appeal as other proceedings of such Magistrates and Officers.

Appeal from proceedings under this Act.

Notification.—The Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council is pleased to publish, for general information, the following Treaty of Friendship and Commerce concluded with the Siamese Government by Sir J. Bowring, Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary in China.

CECIL BEADON,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

COPY.

HER MAJESTY the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and all its Dependencies, and their Majesties Phra Bard Somdetch Phra Paramendo Maha Mongkut Phra Choni Klau Chan Yu Hua, the first King of Siam, and Phra Bard Somdetch Phra Pawarendo Ramese Mahiswarese Phra Pin Klau Chan Yu Hua, the second King of Siam, desiring to establish, upon firm and lasting foundations, the relations of Peace and Friendship existing between the two Countries, and to secure the best interests of their respective subjects, by encouraging, facilitating and regulating their industry and trade, have resolved to conclude a Treaty of Amity and Commerce for this purpose, and have therefore named as their Plenipotentiaries; that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Sir John Bowring, Knight, Doctor of Laws, &c., &c.

And their Majesties the first and second Kings of Siam, His Royal Highness Krom Hluang Wongsa Dhiraj Snidh; His Excellency Somdetch Chan Phaya Param Maha Puyura Wongse; His Excellency Somdetch Chan Phaya Param Maha Bijaineate; His Excellency Chan Phaya Sri Suriwongse Samuha Phra Kralahome; and His Excellency Chan Phaya, Acting Phraklang.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, and found them to be in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:

Article I.—There shall henceforward be perpetual Peace and Friendship between Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Her successors, and their Majesties the first and second Kings of Siam and their successors. All British subjects coming to Siam shall receive from the Siamese Government full protection and assistance to enable them to reside in Siam in all security, and trade with every facility, free from oppression or injury on the part of the Siamese. And all Siamese subjects going to an English country shall receive from the British Government the same complete protection and assistance that shall be granted to British subjects by the Government of Siam.

Article II.—The interests of all British subjects coming to Siam shall be placed under the regulation and control of a Consul who will be appointed to reside at Bangkok. He will himself conform to, and will enforce the observance by British subjects of all the provisions of this Treaty, and such of the former Treaty negotiated by Captain Burney in 1826 as shall still remain in operation. He shall also give effect to all Rules or Regulations as are now or may hereafter be enacted for the government of British subjects in Siam, the conduct of their trade, and for the prevention of violations of the Laws of Siam. Any disputes arising between British and Siamese subjects shall be heard and determined by the Consul in conjunction with the proper Siamese Officers; and criminal offences will be punished, in the case of English offenders, by the Consul, according to English Laws, and in the case of Siamese offenders, by their own Laws, through the Siamese authorities. But the Consul shall not interfere in any matters referring solely to Siamese, neither will the Siamese authorities interfere in questions which only concern the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty.

It is understood, however, that the arrival of the British Consul at Bangkok shall not take place before the ratification of this Treaty, nor until ten vessels owned by British subjects, sailing under British colors and with British papers, shall have entered the Port of Bangkok for the purposes of trade, subsequent to the signing of this Treaty.

Article III.—If Siamese, in the employ of British subjects, offend against the Laws of their country, or if any Siamese having so offended, or desiring to desert, take refuge with a British subject in Siam, they shall be searched for, and upon proof of their guilt or desertion, shall be delivered up by the Consul to the Siamese authorities. In like manner, any British offenders, resident or trading in Siam, who may desert, escape to, or hide themselves in Siamese Territory, shall be apprehended and delivered over to the British Consul on his requisition. Chinese not able to prove themselves to be British subjects shall not be considered as such by the British Consul nor, be entitled to his protection.

Article IV.—British subjects are permitted to trade freely in all the sea-ports of Siam, but may reside permanently only at Bangkok, or within the limits assigned by this Treaty. British subjects coming to reside at Bangkok may rent land and buy or build houses, but cannot purchase lands within a circuit of 200 Seng (not more than 4 miles English) from the City walls, until they shall have lived in Siam for ten years, or shall obtain special authority from the Siamese Government to enable them to do so. But with the exception of this limitation, British residents in Siam may at any time buy or rent houses, lands or plantations situated any where within a distance of twenty-four hours' journey from the City of Bangkok, to be computed by the rate at which boats of the country can travel. In order to obtain possession of such lands or houses, it will be necessary that the British subject shall, in the first place, make application through the Consul to the proper Siamese Officer, and the Siamese Officer and the Consul having satisfied themselves of the honest intentions of the applicant, will assist him in settling, upon equitable terms, the amount of the purchase-money, will make out and fix the boundaries of the property, and will convey the same to the British purchaser under sealed Deeds, whereupon he and his property shall be placed under the protection of the Governor of the District and that of the particular local authorities: he shall conform in ordinary matters to any just directions given him by them, and will be subject to the same taxation that is levied on Siamese subjects. But if, through negligence, the want of capital, or other cause, a British subject should fail to commence the cultivation or improvements of the lands so acquired within a term of three years from the date of receiving possession thereof, the Siamese Government shall have the power of resuming the property upon returning to the British subject the purchase-money paid by him for the same.

Article V.—All British subjects intending to reside in Siam shall be registered at the British Consulate. They shall not go out to sea, nor proceed beyond the limits assigned by this Treaty for the residence of British subjects, without a passport from the Siamese authorities, to be applied for by the British Consul, nor shall they leave Siam if the Siamese authorities show to the British Consul that legitimate objections exist to their quitting the country. But within the limits appointed under the preceding Article, British subjects are at liberty to travel to and fro, under the protection of a Pass, to be furnished them by the British Consul, and counter-sealed by the proper Siamese Officer, stating, in the Siamese character, their names, calling, and description. The Siamese Officers at the Government Stations in the interior may, at any time, call for the production of this Pass; and, immediately on its being exhibited, they must allow the parties to proceed, but it will be their duty to detain those persons who, by travelling without a Pass from the Consul, render themselves liable to the suspicion of their being deserters; and such detention shall be immediately reported to the Consul.

Article VI.—All British subjects visiting or residing in Siam shall be allowed the free exercise of the Christian Religion, and liberty to build Churches in such localities as shall be consented to by the Siamese Cuthorities. The Siamese Government will place no restrictions upon the employment, by the English, of Siamese subjects as servants, or in any other capacity. But wherever a Siamese subject belongs or owes service to some particular master, the servant who engages himself to a British subject without the consent of his master may be reclaimed by him, and the Siamese Government will not enforce an Agreement between a British subject and any Siamese in his employ, unless made with the knowledge and consent of the master who has a right to dispose of the services of the person engaged.

Article VII.—British Ships of War may enter the river and anchor at Paknam, but they shall not proceed above Paknam unless with the consent of the Siamese authorities, which shall be given where it is necessary that a ship shall go into Dock for repairs. Any British Ship of War conveying to Siam a public functionary, accredited by the British Government to the Court of Bangkok, shall be allowed to come up to Bangkok, but shall not pass the Forts called Phrachamit and Pit-pach-nuck, unless expressly permitted to do so by the Siamese Government. But in the absence of a British Ship of War, the Siamese authorities engage to furnish the Consul with a force sufficient to enable him to give effect to his authority over British subjects and to enforce discipline among British Shipping.

Article VIII.—The Measurement duty hitherto paid by British vessels trading to Bangkok under the Treaty of 1826 shall be abolished from the date of this Treaty coming into operation; and British Shipping or Trade will thenceforth be only subject to the payment of Import and Export duties on the goods landed or shipped.

On all Articles of Import, the duty shall be three per cent., payable at the option of the importer, either in kind or money, calculated upon the market value of the goods. Drawback of the full amount of duty shall be allowed upon goods found unsaleable and re-exported. Should the British Merchant and the Custom House Officers disagree as to the value to be set upon imported articles, such disputes shall be referred to the Consul and proper Siamese Officer, who shall each have the power to call in an equal number of Merchants as assessors, not exceeding two on either side, to assist them in coming to an equitable decision.

Opium may be imported free of duty, but can only be sold to the Opium Farmer or his Agents. In the event of no arrangement being effected with them for the sale of the Opium, it shall be re-exported, and no impost or duty shall be levied thereon. Any infringement of this Regulation shall subject the Opium to seizure and confiscation.

Articles of Export, from the time of production to the date of shipment, shall pay one impost only, whether this be levied under the name of Inland tax, Transit duty, or duty on exportation. The tax or duty to be paid on each article of Siamese produce, previous to or upon exportation, is specified in the Tariff attached to this Treaty; and it is distinctly agreed, that goods or produce that pay any description of tax in the interior shall be exempted from any further payment of duty on exportation. English Merchants are to be allowed to purchase directly from the producer the articles in which they trade, and in like manner to sell their goods directly to the parties wishing to purchase the same, without the interference in either case of any other person.

The rates of duty laid down in the Tariff attached to this Treaty are those that are now paid upon goods or produce shipped in Siamese or Chinese vessels or junks; and it is agreed that British Shipping shall enjoy all the privileges now exercised by, or which hereafter may be granted to Siamese or Chinese vessels or junks.

British subjects will be allowed to build ships in Siam on obtaining permission to do so from the Siamese authorities.

Whenever a scarcity may be apprehended of Salt, Rice, and Fish, the Siamese Government reserve to themselves the right of prohibiting, by public Proclamation, the exportation of these articles.

Bullion or personal effects may be imported or exported free of charge.

Article IX.—The Code of Regulations appended to this Treaty shall be enforced by the Consul with the co-operation of the Siamese authorities, and they, the said authorities and Consul, shall be enabled to introduce any further Regulations which may be found necessary in order to give effect to the objects of this Treaty.

All fines and penalties inflicted for infraction of the provisions and regulations of this Treaty shall be paid to the Siamese Government.

Until the British Consul shall arrive at Bangkok and enter upon his functions, the consignees of British vessels shall be at liberty to settle with the Siamese authorities all questions relating to their trade.

Article X.—The British Government and its subjects will be allowed free and equal participation in any privileges that may have been, or may hereafter be granted by the Siamese Government to the Government or subjects of any other nation.

Article XI.—After the lapse of ten years from the date of the ratification of this Treaty, upon the desire of either the British or Siamese Government, and on twelve months' notice given by either party, the present, and such portions of the Treaty of 1826 as remain unrevoked by this Treaty, together with the Tariff and Regulations thereunto annexed, or those that may hereafter be introduced, shall be subject to revision by Commissioners appointed on both sides for this purpose, who will be empowered to decide on and insert therein such amendments as experience shall prove to be desirable.

Article XII.—This Treaty, executed in English and Siamese, both versions having the same meaning and intention, and the ratifications thereof having been previously exchanged, shall take effect from the 6th day of April in the year 1856 of the Christian Era, corresponding to the first day of the fifth month of the One thousand two hundred and eighteenth year of the Siamese Civil Era.

In witness whereof the above-named Plenipotentiaries have signed and sealed the present Treaty in quadruplicate at Bangkok on the eighteenth day of April, in the year 1855 of the Christian Era, corresponding to the second day of the sixth month of the One thousand two hundred and seventeenth year of the Siamese Civil Era.

General Regulations under which British Trade is to be conducted in Siam.

Regulation I.—The Master of every English ship coming to Bangkok to trade must, either before or after entering the river, as may be found convenient, report the arrival of his vessel at the Custom House at Paknam, together with the number of his crew and guns, and the port from whence he comes. Upon anchoring his vessel at Paknam, he will deliver into the custody of the Custom House Officers all his guns and ammunition, and a Custom House Officer will then be appointed to the vessel and will proceed in her to Bangkok.

Regulation II.—A vessel passing Paknam without discharging her guns and ammunition, as directed in the foregoing Regulation, will be sent back to Paknam to comply with its provisions, and will be fined eight-hundred ticals for having so disobeyed. After delivery of her guns and ammunition, she will be permitted to return to Bangkok to trade.

Regulation III.—When a British vessel shall have cast anchor at Bangkok, the Master, unless a Sunday should intervene, will, within four-and-twenty hours after arrival, proceed to the British Consulate, and deposit there his Ship's Papers, Bills of Lading, &c., together with a true Manifest of his Import Cargo; and upon the Consul's reporting these particulars to the Custom House, permission to break bulk will at once be given by the latter.

For neglecting so to report his arrival, or for presenting a false Manifest, the Master will subject himself, in each instance, to a penalty of four-hundred ticals; but he will be allowed to correct, within twenty-four hours after delivery of it to the Consul, any mistake he may discover in his Manifest, without incurring the above-mentioned penalty.

Regulation IV.—A British vessel breaking bulk and commencing to discharge before due permission shall be obtained, or smuggling, either when in the river or outside the Bar, shall be subject to the penalty of eight-hundred ticals and confiscation of the goods so smuggled or discharged.

Regulation V.—As soon as a British vessel shall have discharged her cargo and completed her outward lading, paid all her duties, and delivered a true Manifest of her outward cargo to the British Consul, a Siamese Port Clearance shall be granted her on application from the Consul, who, in the absence of any legal impediment to her departure, will then return to the Master his Ship's Papers and allow the vessel to leave. A Custom House Officer will accompany the vessel to Paknam, and on arriving there, she will be inspected by the Custom House Officers of that Station, and will receive from them the guns and ammunition previously delivered into their charge.

Regulation VI.—Her Britannic Majesty's Plenipotentiary having no knowledge of the Siamese language, the Siamese Government have agreed, that the English text of these Regulations, together with the Treaty of which they form a portion, and the Tariff hereunto annexed, shall be accepted as conveying in every respect their true meaning and intention.

Tariff of Export and Inland Duties to be levied on Articles of Trade.

Candidat s for Warrants in the Ordnance Commissariat, who may be ordered to the Artillery School of Instruction at Meerut, for the purpose of undergoing the requisite instruction and probation, will be allowed to retain any pay and staff allowance of which they may be in receipt at the time of their transfer to the School.

Their pay and allowances, while attached to the School, will be drawn in abstract by the Director of the School.

They will, however, be considered to have actually vacated their old appointments, and, in case of their being eventually reported unfit to hold Warrant, will become supernumeraries in their respective grades until vacancies may occur.

The same Rule will hold good with regard to Non-Commissioned Officers and others who may study (at the School) for admission as Laboratorymen to the Ordnance Department.

A Soldier of any branch of the Army may be selected to fill the situation of an artificer in case of none of the Laboratory-men being qualified for the vacant appointment. The Soldier thus selected will not be required to undergo any examination, excepting as regards the duties of his proposed situation, and in reading, writing and simple arithmetic.

But he will be strictly confined to the position in which he may be placed, and will not be removed to any other without passing the School.

The Commissary whose Magazine he may first join will, at the end of six months, report to the Inspector General whether he is well fitted for his duty; and in case of the report being unfavorable, he will be remanded to his former position.

AT a Marine Court assembled on Saturday, the 4th day of August, One thousand Eight-hundred and Fifty-five, under Act XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Acting Mate Pilot George Thomas was tried on the following Charge:—

CHARGE.

Mr. Acting Mate Pilot George Thomas placed under arrest by order of the Superintendent of Marine on the following Charge:—

Unskilfulness in the performance of his duty whilst in pilotage charge of the inward-bound Ship Robert Barbour upon or about the 19th day of this present month, July, whereby that Vessel grounded and remained on shore in Bedford's Channel, and became a total wreck.

(Signed) JAS. SUTHERLAND,
Officiating Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM;
Marine Superintendent's Office,
The 31st July 1855.

FINDING.

The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the Prosecution, together with that adduced on the Defence, is of opinion that the Defendant, Mr. Acting Mate Pilot George Thomas, is Guilty of the Charge preferred against him.

SENTENCE.

The Court having found Mr. Acting Mate Pilot George Thomas Guilty of the Charge preferred against him, do adjudge that he be mulcted two months' pay, to be deducted from his pay in such monthly sums as the Government may determine.

(Signed) H. PIDDINGTON,
President.

The 10th August 1855.

(Signed) T. HILL,
Judge Advocate.

2nd. The proceedings having been submitted to Government, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has been pleased to confirm the Finding, and approve Sentence of the Court.

3rd. The Master Attendant has accordingly been requested to release Mr. Acting Mate Pilot George Thomas from arrest, allow him to return to his duty, and enforce payment of the fine imposed upon him by monthly deductions of one-third of his salary for the next six months.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND,
Officiating Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM,
The 20th August 1855.

Samuel Smith and Co., for the execution of the Government Printing Work, all Public Officers under the Government of India at the Presidency are hereby directed not to employ any other Printing Establishment for the execution of Government Work.*

CECIL BEADON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 24th July 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XIX. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient, for the better administration of justice, to amend the law relating to District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort St. George, It is enacted as follows :—

Certain parts of Regulation VI of 1816 of the Madras Code repealed.

I. Clause 3rd Section VII ; Clause 1st Section XII ; and so much of Clause 2nd of the same Section as prohibits District Moonsiffs from trying suits in which persons employed in their Cutcherries may be parties ; Section XXIX ; and Section XL. Regulation VI of 1816 of the Madras Code—are repealed.

Clause 1st Section XI of the same Regulation modified.

II. Clause 1st Section XI of the said Regulation is modified as follows :—Any suit cognizable by a District Moonsiff's Court may be heard and determined by any such Court to which it may be preferred, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the Defendant, at the time of the commencement of the suit, shall reside, as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court ; provided that, if an action be brought against several Defendants, of whom one shall be resident, as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

Power of District Moonsiffs to require security from Defendants, &c.

III. Section XXII of the said Regulation is modified as follows :—District Moonsiffs are empowered, when they think fit, to require security from Defendants, in preference to attaching their property under the circumstances described in the aforesaid Section, and to release property attached, on sufficient security being tendered by Defendants.

Powers of subordinate Zillah Courts for enforcing the attendance of witnesses may be exercised by District Moonsiffs.

IV. All powers which may be lawfully exercised by subordinate Zillah Courts for enforcing the attendance of witnesses summoned to appear in such Courts, may be exercised by District Moonsiffs for enforcing the attendance of witnesses summoned to appear in their Courts.

Penalty for resisting process.

V. On a complaint made to a District Moonsiff, on oath or solemn affirmation, that any person within his jurisdiction has resisted any process of his Court, the District Moonsiff may summon such person to answer to the charge, and, if the offence be proved to his satisfaction, may adjudge the offender to pay a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month in the Civil Jail, or in any place appointed by the Executive Government for the confinement of prisoners in civil cases.

Clauses 2, 3, and 4 Section X Regulation XV of 1816 of the Madras Code extended to District Moonsiffs' Courts.

VI. Clauses 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Section X Regulation XV of 1816 of the said Code shall be applicable to the Courts of District Moonsiffs.

VII. Clause 2nd Section VI Regulation XV of 1816 of the said Code, relating to reviews of judgment, shall be applicable to the Courts of District Moonsiffs, except that the petition for a review need not be written upon stamped paper. Provided that, if a District Moonsiff shall be of opinion that a review of his judgment ought to be granted, he shall report the case to the Judge of the Zillah, who may permit such review, under the same rules as are prescribed in regard to similar applications to the Court of Sudler Adawlut.

Also part of Clause 2 Section VI of the above Regulation.

Proviso.

VIII. All orders which may be passed by a District Moonsiff under this Act are open to appeal to the Zillah Judge, if preferred within the time fixed for regular appeals.

All orders of District Moonsiffs under this Act open to appeal.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 24th July 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XX. of 1855.

An Act for the establishment and maintenance of Boundary-marks in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful within the said Presidency for a Collector of Land Revenue, or person exercising the powers of Collector, or any Revenue Officer appointed by the Government for the purpose, to fix the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and to require that marks be formed and maintained by the owners or occupants on the boundaries, of such materials, and in such number and manner, as may appear to such Officer sufficient for distinguishing the limits of such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, whenever he may be of opinion that such demarcation is necessary for the prevention or adjustment of disputes.

Collectors, &c. to fix boundaries of fields, &c., and to require owners or occupants to form and maintain boundary-marks.

II. Notices shall be served on the persons owning or occupying the conterminous fields, holdings, estates, or villages, requiring them to form or repair such boundary-marks within ten days from the date of the notice ; and in the event of these persons not being found in their village, the said requisition shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the owners or occupants were not correctly named or designated in the said notice.

Notices for the purpose when and how to be served.

III. In default of the owners or occupants of the fields, holdings, estates, or villages complying with such requisition, the said officer may give directions for the erection and repair of such boundary-marks, the cost of which shall be equitably apportioned on the fields, holdings, estates, or villages which they serve to distinguish, and shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and shall be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

In default of compliance, officer may order erection or repair of necessary marks at the expense of the owners or occupants.

IV. In the case of unoccupied fields, the cost shall be charged to Government.

In the case of unoccupied fields, cost to be charged to Government.

V. Any person convicted before a Magistrate of wilfully, and without lawful excuse, erasing, removing, or injuring such boundary-marks, or any survey-marks set up by an Officer of Government, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or injured, one-half of which fine may be awarded to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark. Whenever it may not be possible to detect the person who erased, removed, or injured such boundary or survey-marks, the Collector or other Revenue Officer aforesaid may give directions for the restoration or repair of such marks, and may order the cost thereof to be charged to the owners or occupants of the adjacent lands, or apportioned among the ryots of the village in proportion to their pottahs, as he may consider just and equitable, and to be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

Penalty for erasing, &c. marks—a moiety of which to be awarded to informer.

Costs how to be recovered when offender is not known or unable to pay the fine.

VI. Any person objecting to a boundary proposed to be fixed under Section I, may prefer a complaint to the Collector or other Revenue Officer, who shall dispose of the same in the manner prescribed by Regulation XII of 1816.

Party objecting may complain to Collector, &c.

VII. Any occupant or owner of land refusing or failing to attend when summoned by the Collector or other Revenue Officer, at the measurement and demarcation of his field, holding, or estate, or of the village boundary, shall be liable, by order of the Collector or other such Officer, to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, to be levied by the same process as an arrear of land revenue.

Penalty for refusing or neglecting to attend when summoned.

VIII. The proceedings of Officers imposing charges under Sections III and V, or fines under Section VII of this Act, shall be recorded in writing, and shall be subject to appeal to the Revenue authorities to whom they are subordinate.

Proceedings under Sections III, V, and VII, to be recorded in writing, and appealable to the superior Revenue authorities.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 22nd of November next:—

A Bill to enable Magistrates to take cognizance of certain Offences without requiring a written complaint.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Magistrates to take cognizance of all bailable offences which affect the public health, safety, convenience, morals, decency, and good order, without requiring a complaint in writing or the attendance of a complainant, It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. So much of Section V Regulation IX. 1793 of Section V Regulation VI. 1803, of Section VI Regulation IX. 1807 of the Bengal Code, and so much of Sections XII and XV Regulation IX. 1816 of the Madras Code, and so much of any other enactment as require a complaint in writing to be preferred to a Magistrate or the attendance of a complainant before taking cognizance of any offence which affects the public health, safety, convenience, morals, decency, and good order—are hereby repealed.

Laws repealed.

II. A Magistrate or other Officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate may, on the information of a Police Officer or other person to be given on oath, or on his own personal knowledge, having first recorded the grounds thereof in his own hand-writing, proceed against any person for any of the said offences in the same manner as if a complaint in writing had been preferred and sworn or duly deposed to.

Magistrate may proceed against persons for certain offences without written complaint.

III All proceedings under this Act, of Magistrates and Officers exercising the powers of a Magistrate, shall be subject to the like appeal as other proceedings of such Magistrates and Officers.

Appeal from proceedings under this Act.

No. 1059.

Fort William, Home Department,
The 10th August 1855.

RULES RELATING TO THE REGISTRATION OF LETTERS SENT THROUGH THE POST OFFICE.

Approved of by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 10th August 1855.

1. THE system of Registration is applicable to all descriptions of Letters without distinction, but in the case of Letters for Foreign Countries from India, extends only to the port of despatch.

2. A Post Master, Deputy Post Master, Receiver, or other Officer, on being applied to to register a Letter, will demand a Registry Fee of Four Annas, and will write distinctly, on the front of the Letter, "Registered Letter;" he will also stamp the Letter plainly, and enter the address and number of it on the left hand side of the Receipt Book with which he is furnished; he will next enter the number and address of the Letter upon the Receipt, so as to correspond with the entry in the counterpart. The Receipt will then be stamped with the dated Office Seal, torn out of the book, and given to the Poster.

3. The Registration Fee of Four Annas must be paid before a Receipt is given.

4. The full address of Registered Letters must be entered on the Letter Chellaun, and the Letter itself must be enclosed in one of the green printed covers that are furnished for the purpose.

5. This green cover must be enclosed, unsealed, in the Bag or Packet addressed to the Delivering Office, or, when a Sorting Office intervenes, in the Packet in which Letters for the Delivering Office are usually sent.

6. No Letter can be received in order to be Registered, unless it is brought to the Post Office half an hour before the closing of the Box for the particular Mail or Bag by which it is to be despatched.

7. When, from any cause, a Registered Letter cannot be delivered, it must be sent back, without delay, with the original green cover, to be returned to the sender. When a Registered Letter has to be re-directed, and forwarded, the original green cover must be returned to the Office of Despatch, and the Letter sent to its new address with a fresh cover. The full direction of the Letter must also be entered in the Letter Chellaun with which it may be forwarded.

8. On the delivery of a Registered Letter to the party to whom it is addressed, a Receipt in duplicate must be taken by the Delivery Peon or Letter Carrier, one of which Receipts must be returned to the Posting Office by the first post, the duplicate must be carefully preserved by the Post Master of the Delivering Office as the voucher for the safe delivery of the Letter; he will be held responsible for it if he cannot, when required, produce the Receipt as proof of the delivery.

9. The portion of the cover returned to the Posting Office must bear a clear impression of the dated Office Stamp, showing the day on which the Registered Letter reached the Post Master's hands; it may be sent open in the Bag or Packet.

10. No Letters can be refused to be registered, provided they are posted in sufficient time, and the Registration Fee is paid in advance, and that the other Regulations in force with each class of Letters are duly complied with.

11. Any neglect of these Regulations, which shall involve the loss of a Registered Letter, will not only render the party guilty of such neglect liable to be called on to make good the amount of the loss sustained in consequence, but will be punished by dismissal from the Service.

12. That there may be no misconception as regards the course to be pursued with Registered Letters, it must be distinctly understood, that the person to whose possession such Letter is last traced will be held responsible for it, as a matter of course, until he shall have discharged himself of the responsibility by a satisfactory explanation.

13. It will therefore be necessary for every Officer, on opening a Bag or Packet, immediately to seek the Letter Bill, and in the event of a Registered Letter being entered on it to certify its arrival, by attaching his initials to such entry; he will then place the Letter in its proper channel for disposal, taking an acknowledgment, by initials or otherwise, from the person into whose hands it may be given for delivery or despatch; each Officer who may receive the Registered Letter will pursue the same course, until it reaches the party for whom it is intended, when the usual Official Receipt is obtained on its delivery.

14. Should any entry be made on the Letter Bill of a Registered Letter, and such Letter (although it ought from its being separate from the others to be distinctly seen) cannot be found in the Bag, the opener of the Bag must immediately report the circumstance, calling in, if possible, another person to verify the fact, before he has touched the other Letters.

15. With regard to the despatch of Registered Letters, the same precautions must be observed, the Clerk who receives the Letter for despatch from the Poster must obtain a discharge from the Officer to whom he delivers it, and this Officer, and all others through whose hands it may pass, must pursue the same course. The Despatching Clerk will enter the Letter on the Bill, carefully checking it into the Bag or Packet, and will be only exonerated from his liability by the signature of the Receiving Clerk at the Office to which the Bag is addressed.

16. Every irregularity connected with Registered Letters must be instantly reported to the Inspecting Post Master, and by that day's Post to the Post-master General, in order that innocent parties may not be involved in heavy responsibilities, which in reality do not attach to them.

17. Each Post Master will be responsible that every party employed in any Office in his Division is made acquainted with these Regulations, and will take their signatures as an acknowledgment of having perused and understood them.

No. 1060.

The 21st August 1855.

Notification.—The following Resolution, passed on the 27th ultimo by the Hon'ble the President in Council in communication with the Most Noble the Governor General, is published for general information:—

Resolution.—The Hon'ble the President in Council is of opinion that, in like manner as the Military Establishment of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal is, as a Service, immediately under the Governor General of India in Council, to whom have been transferred, by Statute 17th and 18th, Vic. cap. 77, all the powers of the Governor of Bengal not for the time being transferred to one of the Lieutenant-Governors of either Division of that Presidency, so also all other Service Establishments of that Presidency, not being exclusively attached to one or other of those Divisions, ought to be, as Services, immediately under the Governor General of India in Council.

2. The President in Council is therefore pleased to resolve, that from henceforth the Civil Servants and the Chaplains on the Bengal Establishment shall, as Services, be under the direct orders and control of the Governor General of India in Council; and that all Orders affecting either class of Officers as Members of a Service, as distinguished from Orders incidental to their employment under any Local Government, shall emanate from the Government of India.

3. His Honor in Council accordingly determines, that in future the arrival of newly appointed Civil Servants and Chaplains shall be reported to and notified by the Government of India in this Department; that the Government of India in the same Department shall regulate the promotion of Chaplains from the rank of Assistant, to that of full Chaplain, and the grant of Furloughs both to Civil Servants and Chaplains; that as heretofore it shall attach, as required, to the several Provinces, the services of Officers of both these classes, and shall receive and deal with their applications to resign the Service of the East India Company; and that all reports of departure to and arrival from Europe (except by Civil Servants on leave granted by the Local Governments under Chapters II. and III. of the Absentee Rules) shall be made to and gazetted in this Department.

4. Civil Servants on the Bengal Establishment, before they are reported qualified for the Public Service, and whenever at any time they are not placed under the orders of one of the Lieutenant-Governors or of one of the Officers in charge of any of the Provinces immediately under the Administration of the Government of India, shall be under the direct control and superintendence of the Governor General in Council.

5. The Board of Examiners in Calcutta, constituted by Orders of the Government of Bengal dated the 24th January 1854, shall, in respect to the control of newly appointed Civil Servants, to their examination by the qualification test and for honors, and to the performance of all duties formerly discharged by the Examiners and Secretary of the College of Fort William, be subject to the direct authority and orders of the Governor General in Council, and the Secretary to the Board and the Stipendiary Members thereof shall hereafter be appointed by the Governor General in Council. All Reports and Returns relative to such matters, heretofore made by the Board to the Government of Bengal, will now be made direct to the Government of India in the Home Department.

6. Whenever an unpassed Civil Servant is permitted, or required to prosecute his studies under a Civil authority, at a Station in the interior, he will be placed temporarily under the orders of the Government or other controlling authority of that division of the Presidency in which the Station to which he may be sent is situated.

7. His Honor in Council resolves that every application for Furlough, or for permission to resign the Service, whether from Chaplains or Civil Servants, shall be made through the Government or Chief Civil authority at whose disposal the services of the applicant are placed.

Calcutta Collectorate Notice.

THE settlement of the Ground Rent of the Town of Calcutta, under the provisions of Act XXIII. of 1850, having been completed, it is hereby notified, 1st.—That owners of Holdings should lose no time in applying to the Collector for Pottahs.

2*nd*.—That no fee or gratuity of any kind is leviable or demandable for the preparation or delivery of Pottahs, after settlement.

3*rd*.—That a petition on plain and not stampt paper, to be presented in person or by Agent, and if by Agent, he must be empowered by a Mooktearnamah written upon a stampt paper of the value of 8 annas, is all that is necessary.

4*th*.—That on presentation of the petition, a Notice will be published on the Holding and another in the Police Office.

5*th*.—That on the expiration of a month, after the date of Notice, should there be no claimants, and should it appear that the applicant's name is recorded as owner in the Settlement Register, a Pottah will be immediately granted.

6*th*.—That in the event of the applicant's name not being found in the Settlement Register, he will be required to connect his Title with that of the party whose name is recorded in the Register, and to exhibit his own Title Deeds, which will be returned to him on the very day that they are exhibited, and a note thereof will be kept in a book, when a Pottah will be granted.

7*th*.—That in cases when two or more persons apply for Pottah of the same Holding, the party in possession will be entitled to the Pottah, and in cases where the possession of either party appears to be doubtful, or it cannot be satisfactorily ascertained, no Pottah will be issued, the parties being at liberty to contest their rights in the Courts.

8*th*.—That in case where a Transfer Pottah is applied for, that is, when a Pottah is to be cancelled and a new Pottah granted to a purchaser or descendant of a deceased Holder, a fee of Sicca Rupees 4-0-0 or Company's Rupees 4-4-3 will be taken from the applicant, under the Revenue Board's letter, No. 24, of the 27th June 1851.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 24th July 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XIX. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient, for the better administration of justice, to amend the law relating to District Moonsiffs in the Presidency of Fort St. George, It is enacted as follows :—

Certain parts of Regulation VI of 1816 of the Madras Code repealed.

I. Clause 3rd Section VII ; Clause 1st Section XII ; and so much of Clause 2nd of the same Section as prohibits District Moonsiffs from trying suits in which persons employed in their Cutcherries may be parties ; Section XXIX ; and Section XL Regulation VI of 1816 of the Madras Code—are repealed.

Clause 1st Section XI of the same Regulation modified.

II. Clause 1st Section XI of the said Regulation is modified as follows :—Any suit cognizable by a District Moonsiff's Court may be heard and determined by any such Court to which it may be preferred, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the Defendant, at the time of the commencement of the suit, shall reside, as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court ; provided that, if an action be brought against several Defendants, of whom one shall be resident, as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

Power of District Moonsiffs to require security from Defendants, &c.

III. Section XXII of the said Regulation is modified as follows :—District Moonsiffs are empowered, when they think fit, to require security from Defendants, in preference to attaching their property under the circumstances described in the aforesaid Section, and to release property attached, on sufficient security being tendered by Defendants.

Powers of subordinate Zillah Courts for enforcing the attendance of witnesses may be exercised by District Moonsiffs.

IV. All powers which may be lawfully exercised by subordinate Zillah Courts for enforcing the attendance of witnesses summoned to appear in such Courts, may be exercised by District Moonsiffs for enforcing the attendance of witnesses summoned to appear in their Courts.

Penalty for resisting process.

V. On a complaint made to a District Moonsiff, on oath or solemn affirmation, that any person within his jurisdiction has resisted any process of his Court, the District Moonsiff may summon such person to answer to the charge, and, if the offence be proved to his satisfaction, may adjudge the offender to pay a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month in the Civil Jail, or in any place appointed by the Executive Government for the confinement of prisoners in civil cases.

Clauses 2, 3, and 4 Section X Regulation XV of 1816 of the Madras Code extended to District Moonsiffs' Courts.

VI. Clauses 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Section X Regulation XV of 1816 of the said Code shall also be applicable to the Courts of District Moonsiffs.

VII. Clause 2nd Section VI Regulation XV of 1816 of the said Code, relating to reviews of judgment, shall be applicable to the Courts of District Moonsiffs, except that the petition for a review need not be written upon stamped paper. Provided that, if a District Moonsiff shall be of opinion that a review of his judgment ought to be granted, he shall report the case to the Judge of the Zillah, who may permit such review, under the same rules as are prescribed in regard to similar applications to the Court of Sudder Adawlut.

Also part of Clause 2 Section VI of the above Regulation.

Proviso.

VIII. All orders which may be passed by a District Moonsiff under this Act are open to appeal to the Zillah Judge, if preferred within the time fixed for regular appeals.

All orders of District Moonsiffs under this Act open to appeal.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 24th July 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855) and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XX. of 1855.

An Act for the establishment and maintenance of Boundary-marks in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful within the said Presidency for a Collector of Land Revenue, or person exercising the powers of Collector, or any Revenue Officer appointed by the Government for the purpose, to fix the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and to require that marks be formed and maintained by the owners or occupants on the boundaries, of such materials, and in such number and manner, as may appear to such Officer sufficient for distinguishing the limits of such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, whenever he may be of opinion that such demarcation is necessary for the prevention or adjustment of disputes.

Collectors, &c. to fix boundaries of fields, &c., and to require owners or occupants to form and maintain boundary-marks.

II. Notices shall be served on the persons owning or occupying the conterminous fields, holdings, estates, or villages, requiring them to form or repair such boundary-marks within ten days from the date of the notice ; and in the event of these persons not being found in their village, the said requisition shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the owners or occupants were not correctly named or designated in the said notice.

Notices for the purpose when and how to be served.

III. In default of the owners or occupants of the fields, holdings, estates, or villages complying with such requisition, the said officer may give directions for the erection and repair of such boundary-marks, the cost of which shall be equitably apportioned on the fields, holdings, estates, or villages which they serve to distinguish, and shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and shall be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

In default of compliance, officer may order erection or repair of necessary marks at the expense of the owners or occupants.

IV. In the case of unoccupied fields, the cost shall be charged to Government.

In the case of unoccupied fields, cost to be charged to Government.

V. Any person convicted before a Magistrate of wilfully, and without lawful excuse, erasing, removing, or injuring such boundary-marks, or any survey-marks set up by an Officer of Government, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or injured, one-half of which fine may be awarded to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark. Whenever it may not be possible to detect the person who erased, removed, or injured such boundary or survey-marks, the Collector or other Revenue Officer aforesaid may give directions for the restoration or repair of such marks, and may order the cost thereof to be charged to the owners or occupants of the adjacent lands, or apportioned among the ryots of the village in proportion to their pottahs, as he may consider just and equitable, and to be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

Penalty for erasing, &c. marks—a moiety of which to be awarded to informer.

Costs how to be recovered when offender is not known or unable to pay the fine.

VI. Any person objecting to a boundary proposed to be fixed under Section I, may prefer a complaint to the Collector or other Revenue Officer, who shall dispose of the same in the manner prescribed by Regulation XII of 1816.

Party objecting may complain to Collector, &c.

VII. Any occupant or owner of land refusing or failing to attend when summoned by the Collector or other Revenue Officer, at the measurement and demarcation of his field, holding, or estate, or of the village boundary, shall be liable, by order of the Collector or other such Officer, to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, to be levied by the same process as an arrear of land revenue.

Penalty for refusing or neglecting to attend when summoned.

VIII. The proceedings of Officers imposing charges under Sections III and V, or fines under Section VII of this Act, shall be recorded in writing, and shall be subject to appeal to the Revenue authorities to whom they are subordinate.

Proceedings under Sections III, V, and VII, to be recorded in writing, and appealable to the superior Revenue authorities.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 18th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 18th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 22nd of November next:—

A Bill to enable Magistrates to take cognizance of certain Offences without requiring a written complaint.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Magistrates to take cognizance of all bailable offences which affect the public health, safety, convenience, morals, decency, and good order, without requiring a complaint in writing or the attendance of a complainant, It is enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed.

I. So much of Section V Regulation IX. 1793, of Section V Regulation VI. 1803, of Section VI Regulation IX. 1807 of the Bengal Code, and so much of Sections XII and XV Regulation IX. 1816 of the Madras Code, and so much of any other enactment as require a complaint in writing to be preferred to a Magistrate or the attendance of a complainant before taking cognizance of any offence which affects the public health, safety, convenience, morals, decency, and good order—are hereby repealed.

Magistrate may proceed against persons for certain offences without written complaint.

II. A Magistrate or other Officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate may, on the information of a Police Officer or other person to be given on oath, or on his own personal knowledge, having first recorded the grounds thereof in his own hand-writing, proceed against any person for any of the said offences in the same manner as if a complaint in writing had been preferred and sworn or duly deposed to.

Appeal from proceedings under this Act.

III. All proceedings under this Act, of Magistrates and Officers exercising the powers of a Magistrate, shall be subject to the like appeal as other proceedings of such Magistrates and Officers.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 25th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 25th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 29th of November next:—

A Bill to alter and amend the Laws relating to certain of the Municipal Taxes in the Presidency Town of Bombay, and to legalize certain proceedings connected with the collection of the Shop and Stall Tax.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish a certain tax on shops and stalls within the Presidency Town of Bombay, which was imposed under Section IX of Regulation XIX of 1827 and Section V of Act XI of 1845, but at the same time to enact and declare that the persons assessed under the said laws, who have not yet paid the amount due under such assessment, shall be liable for the same to distress; and further to declare that certain process issued in the collection of the said tax shall not be made the subject of any Civil action: It is enacted as follows:—

Repeal of Section IX Regulation XIX. 1827 and Section V Act XI of 1845, except as to arrears of shop and stall tax.

I. Section IX of Regulation XIX of 1827 and Section V of Act XI of 1845 are hereby repealed, save as regards the recovering any arrears of the shop and stall tax, which may, at the time of passing of this Act, be due.

Appointment of Assessor and Collector.

II. Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Town and Island of Bombay in Sessions assembled, or such other persons as may be vested with the control of the Municipal Fund by the Government of Bombay, shall nominate and appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council of Bombay, one or more person or persons to be Assessor or Assessors, and one or more person or persons to be Collector or Collectors of the Municipal Taxes, who shall respectively receive such salaries and be allowed such establishments as may be fit and necessary, and who shall assess and collect the tax hereinafter imposed.

Affirmation to be made by Assessor.

III. Every such Assessor, before he shall execute the office of such Assessor, shall make and subscribe a solemn affirmation before a Magistrate of Police, or the Court of Petty Sessions, in the form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A.

The occupation rate.

IV. The said Justices in Sessions assembled shall, from time to time, make an equal assessment, for the benefit of the Municipal Fund, on all occupiers of any house, building, or grounds within the Presidency Town of Bombay of the assessed annual value of forty-eight Rupees and upwards, not exceeding in the year three and one-eighth per centum on the rent payable by them by reason of such occupancy—such assessment to be called the "occupation rate."

Proviso.

V. Provided always, that no person occupying his or her own house, building, or grounds shall, by reason of his or her paying the house and ground rate thereon, be exempted from payment of the occupation rate hereby imposed, and such assessment shall be made in such cases upon the estimated amount for which the said house, building, or grounds might, in the estimation of the said Justices, be reasonably expected to be let. Provided also, that all middlemen or contractors renting any house, building, or ground from the owners thereof, and sub-letting the same in apartments or portions to persons who, by reason of the rent they respectively pay being under the yearly rent of forty-eight Rupees, are not assessable under the foregoing Section, shall be assessed thereto respectively on the aggregate rent they pay to the proprietors of such house, building, or grounds, if amounting to the yearly rent of forty-eight Rupees or upwards.

Public notice to be given requiring lists to be furnished to Assessor.

VI. It shall be lawful for the said Justices in Sessions assembled, or such other persons as may be vested with the control of the Municipal Fund, from time to time to direct the Assessor of the above-named tax to cause notices to be affixed to places of public resort, requiring all occupiers or tenants of any house, building, or grounds in the said Presidency Town, and who are hereby required so to do, to make out and deliver to the said Assessor, within one month after the date of such notices, such lists or declarations as are hereinafter required; and such general notices shall, from time to time, when the same shall be affixed in manner aforesaid, be deemed sufficient notice to all persons residing in the said Town of the time within which such return shall be required to be made; and every person wilfully tearing or defacing any notice so affixed, shall forfeit for every such offence, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees; provided always, that such lists and declarations may also be called for by any public proclamation or notice.

Particulars to be contained in lists.

VII. Every occupier or tenant of any house, building, or grounds in the said Presidency Town shall, upon the penalties hereinafter stated, within one month from the date of such notice, cause to be prepared and delivered to the Assessor to be appointed under this Act, true and particular lists or declarations in writing, signed by such person or by some other person on his behalf, which shall contain a particular list of all dwelling-houses, offices, manufactories, shops, and other buildings and grounds in his own occupation, or in the occupation, wholly or in part, of his tenants, specifying whether such dwelling-houses, offices, manufactories, shops, and other buildings and grounds are owned by himself (and in that case specifying the estimated value at which the same might reasonably be expected to be let,) or rented from or let in part or in whole to any other, and what person and at what rent; and such lists must be delivered to the Assessor appointed under this Act, under the penalty hereinafter stated.

Penalty on neglecting to furnish lists, or furnishing incorrect ones.

VIII. If any person liable to pay the aforesaid tax, shall neglect to deliver a list or declaration according to the directions of this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly omit any person or any description or any thing which ought to be contained therein according to this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly make an untrue return of any particular therein, such person shall, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred Rupees; and a proportion, not exceeding one-half, of such penalty imposed, may, at the discretion of the Court, be given to the informer.

Assessment to be according to such list

IX. It shall be lawful for the said Justices to assess and charge every person liable to pay the above tax according to the last assessment, until new lists are called for and made out, provided they are satisfied regarding its accuracy; and if the Assessor shall find, upon due examination, that any list delivered by a rate-payer is inaccurate, and that any person, description, or thing which ought to be contained in such list is omitted therefrom or untruly stated therein, or that, since the time of delivering the said list, the person chargeable is chargeable in respect of other property, or has ceased to become chargeable in respect of the property specified in the list, or any part thereof, he shall be authorized to make a true assessment upon every such person of the real charge which ought to be imposed on such person according to the intent and meaning of this Act.

Penalty on obstructing Assessor or other Officer, &c.

X. If any person shall wilfully obstruct any Assessor or Collector, or any person duly authorized by him or them, in making such assessments or collections, or in the performance of any duty imposed upon him or them by the provisions of this Act, such person shall, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Estimate of rate to be made

XI. The said Justices, before proceeding to make any occupation rate under this Act, shall cause an estimate to be prepared, showing the amount intended to be raised by such rate, the period for which the rate is made, the proportion which such amount bears to the whole amount of the Municipal Funds intended to be raised during the same period, the rateable value of the property in respect of the occupation of which the rate is to be made, and the amount of rate which it is necessary to make upon each Rupee of such value; and the estimate so made shall forthwith, after being approved of by the said Justices in Sessions assembled, be entered in the rate-book and be kept in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, open to public inspection during office-hours thereat.

Notice of rate.

XII. The public notice of the intention to make any occupation rate, and of the time at which it is intended to make the same, and of the place where a statement of the proposed rate is deposited for inspection, shall be given by the Assessor at least six weeks previously to the day on which the rate is intended to be made.

Rate to be open to inspection.

XIII. Any person interested in, or assessed to any occupation rate under this Act, may inspect the same and any estimate made previously thereto, and may take copies of or extracts therefrom, without fee or reward; and whosoever, having the custody of such estimate or rate, shall refuse to allow or shall not permit such inspection, or such copies or extracts to be taken, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Rate, if not complained against, to be final.

XIV. In case no complaint shall be made against such occupation rate at the meeting of the Justices in Sessions assembled, held for the purpose of making such rate in pursuance of such notice, such occupation rate and the assessment of the several parties named in the said rate in the several sums and in respect of the properties therein mentioned, shall be final and conclusive on all parties whomsoever; but in case of any complaint of inequality in or non-liability to pay the said occupation rate, the said Justices shall in such Sessions, or at some adjournment thereof, proceed to investigate the same by the examination of such witnesses as the parties interested therein shall respectively produce, or by the examination of such other witnesses as shall seem right; and their decision as regards such occupation rate, and the assessment thereof upon the parties respectively, shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Provided always, that the said Justices may, if they shall so think fit, state a case for the opinion of Her Majesty's Judges of the Supreme Court.

Rates to be collected quarterly in advance.

XV. The said tax by this Act authorized to be made and assessed shall be assessed at such time as such Justices shall think fit, and shall be levied and collected quarterly, and shall become due and payable on and after the first day of each quarter, for the current quarter.

Proportionable abatement may be made in certain cases.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the said Justices in Sessions assembled, if in their discretion they shall so think fit, in the case of any person who, during the current quarter, has ceased to occupy any house, building, or ground in respect of which he has been assessed under this Act, to allow to such person a proportionable abatement in respect thereof, if such assessment shall be unpaid, or if paid, to order a return of the amount thereof, or an allowance for the same to be made in the next ensuing assessment upon such person.

Collector to send bill of rates chargeable.

XVII. When the aforesaid tax shall be due and payable, or as soon after as convenient, the Collector shall send to the persons severally liable to pay such tax, a bill of the sums respectively due from such persons in respect thereof; and such sums when collected shall be received in the first instance by such person or persons as the said Collector shall appoint, such security having been first taken by the Collector from such person or persons for the due performance of his or their duties as may be deemed sufficient; and for each payment made, a receipt signed by the Collector shall be given by the person or persons receiving the amount.

Proceedings when rate unpaid after demand made.

XVIII. In case of the non-payment of any assessment, or of any surcharge which shall become due under this Act, or of any assessment or surcharge which shall have become due before the passing of this Act under Act XI of 1845 Section V, for the period of eight days after payment of the same shall have been demanded, then, upon proof upon oath before any Justice of the Peace that such assessment or surcharge has been duly made, and such demand made, such Justice is hereby authorized and required to levy the same on warrant under his hand, by distress and sale of the defaulter's goods and chattels; and the overplus of the money raised, after deducting the amount due and the expenses of distress and sale, shall be rendered to the owner.

On non-payment of fines, &c. offender may be imprisoned.

XIX. All fines and penalties imposed under this Act shall, in case of non-payment, be leviable by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under warrant of the Court of Petty Sessions or Magistrate of Police; and if no such property shall be found, or if the same shall not be sufficient to satisfy the fine or penalty so imposed, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Petty Sessions or for a Magistrate of Police, by warrant, to commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three calendar months where the amount of the fine or penalty unpaid shall not exceed one hundred Rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months where the amount of the fine or penalty unpaid shall exceed that sum; the commitment to be determined in either of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount.

Where name of owner or occupier unknown.

XX. Whenever the name of any occupier liable to be rated under this Act is unknown to the Assessor appointed under this Act, it shall be sufficient to assess and designate such person in the rate as "the occupier" of the premises in respect of which the assessment is made, without further description; and the like designation shall be sufficient in any bill, summons, or other proceeding of any kind whatsoever with respect to the aforesaid tax to be issued to him.

Distress not to be deemed unlawful by reason of defect of form, &c.

XXI. No distress levied under the authority of this Act shall be unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, bill, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall he be a trespasser from the beginning on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him.

Protection of Justices and other persons acting under this Act.

XXII. No writ or process shall be sued out against or served upon any Justice or his Clerk, or upon any Magistrate of Police or his Clerk, or upon any Assessor, or Collector, or other officer or person whomsoever acting under the direction of the aforesaid Justices, Magistrate, Assessor, or Collector, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered to the Clerk of such Justice or Magistrate, or (when the action shall be against such other officer or persons) shall have been delivered to him or left at his office or place of abode, explicitly stating the cause of action and the name and place of abode of the intended Plaintiff, and of his Attorney or Agent in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action, the Plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action except such as is stated in the notice so delivered; and unless such notice shall be proved, judgment shall be given for the Defendant; and every such action shall be brought or commenced within six months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards; and the Defendant shall be at liberty to plead the general issue, and give this Act and all special matter in evidence; and it shall be lawful for any person to whom any such notice of action is given as aforesaid, to tender amends to the Plaintiff, his Attorney, or Agent, at any time within one month after service of such notice; and in case the same be not accepted, to plead such tender in bar and (by leave of the Court) with the general issue or other plea or pleas; and if upon issue joined upon any plea pleaded to the whole action, a verdict is found generally for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff be non-suited or discontinue, or if judgment be given for the Defendant, then the Defendant shall be entitled to full costs of suit, and have judgment accordingly; and in case amends have not been tendered as aforesaid, or in case the amends tendered be insufficient, it shall be lawful for the Defendant, by leave of the Court, at any time before trial, to pay into Court under plea such sum of money as he may think proper, and by the like leave to plead the general issue or other plea or pleas, any rule of Court or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. All distresses and sales heretofore made for arrears of the shop and stall tax due from certain persons under the said Act XI of 1845 Section V, shall be deemed to have been made by competent authority, and shall be taken to be valid and legal to all intents and purposes; and no action, suit, or other proceeding whatever shall be brought or maintained in any Court of Law or Equity against any person whomsoever for anything done in respect of such distress or sale.

No action maintainable for any distress under the shop and stall tax Act.

XXIV. The following words and expressions are intended to have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, so far as such meanings are not excluded by the context or by the nature of the subject matter, that is to say, words denoting the singular number are to be understood to apply also to a plurality of persons or things, and words denoting the masculine gender shall include females. The words "Presidency Town" shall be taken to include the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

Interpretation.

SCHEDULE A.

The form of the affirmation required to be made by Assessors before they act in execution of this Act:—

Form of affirmation, &c. to be made by Assessor.

I, A. B., do solemnly "affirm" that I will diligently execute the office of an Assessor, to which I am appointed by authority of this Act; and that in the assessments which I am required to make by this or any other Act or Acts, levying taxes to be assessed under the Regulation of this or any other Act, I will faithfully and honestly act, without favor or affection, according to the best of my skill and knowledge.

Notifications, Appointments, &c.

No. 1066.

Fort William, Home Department,

The 24th August 1855.

Notification.—With reference to the Notification issued by the Government of Bengal, under date the 9th March 1852, No. 458, the Hon'ble the President in Council has been pleased to determine that Burmese shall be reckoned as one of the languages in which Candidates for the Reward of Rs. 1,000, granted by the Hon'ble Court of Directors to Military Officers for proficiency in two or more native languages, may be examined.

The test books in Burmese are to be—

1. Latter's Selections.
2. Laws of Manoo.
3. Janek-ka.
4. Way-than-da-ya.

And in all other respects the Examination will be conducted precisely in the manner prescribed in the Notification above referred to, that is to say as follows:—

"The Candidate will of course not be permitted "to have access to any Dictionary or other book, or "to receive any kind of assistance in the performance of his exercises, either written or oral.

"The written exercises are to consist of—

"1. A paper not less than an ordinary octavo "page in length, printed in the language in which "the Examination is held, to be translated into "English.

"2. A paper in English of the same length to "be translated into the selected language, in such "a manner as to evince a decided familiarity with "the language and some elegance of style.

"3. A paper of short sentences in English, "the greater part on professional subjects, to be "rendered into the language of examination "accurately and idiomatically.

"The Candidate will then be called upon to "read fluently, and translate correctly, portions of "any of the test books, and also a fairly, but not "very clearly written manuscript in the language "selected; and, when that is still a spoken lan"guage of the country, he shall further be required "to carry on a conversation with the examiners, or "with one or more natives, in presence of the examiners, on such subjects proposed by them as are "calculated to test his colloquial facility, both as "regards scholar-like expression and knowledge of "the terms and phrases commonly used by the "poorer and uneducated classes."

The Examinations in Burmese under these orders will be conducted by a Committee to be constituted by the Commissioner of Pegu.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 25th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 25th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 29th of November next:—

A Bill to alter and amend the Laws relating to certain of the Municipal Taxes in the Presidency Town of Bombay, and to legalize certain proceedings connected with the collection of the Shop and Stall Tax.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish a certain tax on shops and stalls within the Presidency Town of Bombay, which was imposed under Section IX of Regulation XIX of 1827 and Section V of Act XI of 1845, but at the same time to enact and declare that the persons assessed under the said laws, who have not yet paid the amount due under such assessment, shall be liable for the same to distress; and further to declare that certain process issued in the collection of the said tax shall not be made the subject of any Civil action: It is enacted as follows:—

Repeal of Section IX Regulation XIX. 1827 and Section V Act XI of 1845, except as to arrears of shop and stall tax.

I. Section IX of Regulation XIX of 1827 and Section V of Act XI of 1845 are hereby repealed, save as regards the recovering any arrears of the shop and stall tax, which may, at the time of passing of this Act, be due.

Appointment of Assessor and Collector.

II. Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Town and Island of Bombay in Sessions assembled, or such other persons as may be vested with the control of the Municipal Fund by the Government of Bombay, shall nominate and appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council of Bombay, one or more person or persons to be Assessor or Assessors, and one or more person or persons to be Collector or Collectors of the Municipal Taxes, who shall respectively receive such salaries and be allowed such establishments as may be fit and necessary, and who shall assess and collect the tax hereinafter imposed.

Affirmation to be made by Assessor.

III. Every such Assessor, before he shall execute the office of such Assessor, shall make and subscribe a solemn affirmation before a Magistrate of Police, or the Court of Petty Sessions, in the form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A.

The occupation rate.

IV. The said Justices in Sessions assembled shall, from time to time, make an equal assessment, for the benefit of the Municipal Fund, on all occupiers of any house, building, or grounds within the Presidency Town of Bombay of the assessed annual value of forty-eight Rupees and upwards, not exceeding in the year three and one-eighth per centum on the rent payable by them by reason of such occupancy—such assessment to be called the "occupation rate."

Proviso.

V. Provided always, that no person occupying his or her own house, building, or grounds shall, by reason of his or her paying the house and ground rate thereon, be exempted from payment of the occupation rate hereby imposed, and such assessment shall be made in such cases upon the estimated amount for which the said house, building, or grounds might, in the estimation of the said Justices, be reasonably expected to be let. Provided also, that all middlemen or contractors renting any house, building, or ground from the owners thereof, and sub-letting the same in apartments or portions to persons who, by reason of the rent they respectively pay being under the yearly rent of forty-eight Rupees, are not assessable under the foregoing Section, shall be assessed thereto respectively on the aggregate rent they pay to the proprietors of such house, building, or grounds, if amounting to the yearly rent of forty-eight Rupees or upwards.

Public notice to be given requiring lists to be furnished to Assessor.

VI. It shall be lawful for the said Justices in Sessions assembled, or such other persons as may be vested with the control of the Municipal Fund, from time to time to direct the Assessor of the above-named tax to cause notices to be affixed to places of public resort, requiring all occupiers or tenants of any house, building, or grounds in the said Presidency Town, and who are hereby required so to do, to make out and deliver to the said Assessor, within one month after the date of such notices, such lists or declarations as are hereinafter required; and such general notices shall, from time to time, when the same shall be affixed in manner aforesaid, be deemed sufficient notice to all persons residing in the said Town of the time within which such return shall be required to be made; and every person wilfully tearing or defacing any notice so affixed, shall forfeit for every such offence, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees; provided always, that such lists and declarations may also be called for by any public proclamation or notice.

Particulars to be contained in lists.

VII. Every occupier or tenant of any house, building, or grounds in the said Presidency Town shall, upon the penalties hereinafter stated, within one month from the date of such notice, cause to be prepared and delivered to the Assessor to be appointed under this Act, true and particular lists or declarations in writing, signed by such person or by some other person on his behalf, which shall contain a particular list of all dwelling-houses, offices, manufactories, shops, and other buildings and grounds in his own occupation, or in the occupation, wholly or in part, of his tenants, specifying whether such dwelling-houses, offices, manufactories, shops, and other buildings and grounds are owned by himself (and in that case specifying the estimated value at which the same might reasonably be expected to be let,) or rented from or let in part or in whole to any other, and what person and at what rent; and such lists must be delivered to the Assessor appointed under this Act, under the penalty hereinafter stated.

Penalty on neglecting to furnish lists, or furnishing incorrect ones.

VIII. If any person liable to pay the aforesaid tax, shall neglect to deliver a list or declaration according to the directions of this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly omit any person or any description or any thing which ought to be contained therein according to this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly make an untrue return of any particular therein, such person shall, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred Rupees; and a proportion, not exceeding one-half, of such penalty imposed, may, at the discretion of the Court, be given to the informer.

Assessment to be according to such list.

IX. It shall be lawful for the said Justices to assess and charge every person liable to pay the above tax according to the last assessment, until new lists are called for and made out, provided they are satisfied regarding its accuracy; and if the Assessor shall find, upon due examination, that any list delivered by a rate-payer is inaccurate, and that any person, description, or thing which ought to be contained in such list is omitted therefrom or untruly stated therein, or that, since the time of delivering the said list, the person chargeable is chargeable in respect of other property, or has ceased to become chargeable in respect of the property specified in the list, or any part thereof, he shall be authorized to make a true assessment upon every such person of the real charge which ought to be imposed on such person according to the intent and meaning of this Act.

Penalty on obstructing Assessor or other Officer, &c.

X. If any person shall wilfully obstruct any Assessor or Collector, or any person duly authorized by him or them, in making such assessments or collections, or in the performance of any duty imposed upon him or them by the provisions of this Act, such person shall, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Estimate of rate to be made.

XI. The said Justices, before proceeding to make any occupation rate under this Act, shall cause an estimate to be prepared, showing the amount intended to be raised by such rate, the period for which the rate is made, the proportion which such amount bears to the whole amount of the Municipal Funds intended to be raised during the same period, the rateable value of the property in respect of the occupation of which the rate is to be made, and the amount of rate which it is necessary to make upon each Rupee of such value; and the estimate so made shall forthwith, after being approved of by the said Justices in Sessions assembled, be entered in the rate-book and be kept in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, open to public inspection during office-hours thereat.

Notice of rate.

XII. The public notice of the intention to make any occupation rate, and of the time at which it is intended to make the same, and of the place where a statement of the proposed rate is deposited for inspection, shall be given by the Assessor at least six weeks previously to the day on which the rate is intended to be made.

Rate to be open to inspection.

XIII. Any person interested in, or assessed to any occupation rate under this Act, may inspect the same and any estimate made previously thereto, and may take copies of or extracts therefrom, without fee or reward; and whosoever, having the custody of such estimate or rate, shall refuse to allow or shall not permit such inspection, or such copies or extracts to be taken, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Rate, if not complained against, to be final.

XIV. In case no complaint shall be made against such occupation rate at the meeting of the Justices in Sessions assembled, held for the purpose of making such rate in pursuance of such notice, such occupation rate and the assessment of the several parties named in the said rate in the several sums and in respect of the properties therein mentioned, shall be final and conclusive on all parties whomsoever; but in case of any complaint of inequality in or non-liability to pay the said occupation rate, the said

Justices shall in such Sessions, or at some adjournment thereof, proceed to investigate the same by the examination of such witnesses as the parties interested therein shall respectively produce, or by the examination of such other witnesses as shall seem right; and their decision as regards such occupation rate, and the assessment thereof upon the parties respectively, shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Provided always, that the said Justices may, if they shall so think fit, state a case for the opinion of Her Majesty's Judges of the Supreme Court.

Rates to be collected quarterly in advance.

XV. The said tax by this Act authorized to be made and assessed shall be assessed at such time as such Justices shall think fit, and shall be levied and collected quarterly, and shall become due and payable on and after the first day of each quarter, for the current quarter.

Proportionable abatement may be made in certain cases.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the said Justices in Sessions assembled, if in their discretion they shall so think fit, in the case of any person who, during the current quarter, has ceased to occupy any house, building, or ground in respect of which he has been assessed under this Act, to allow to such person a proportionable abatement in respect thereof, if such assessment shall be unpaid, or if paid, to order a return of the amount thereof, or an allowance for the same to be made in the next ensuing assessment upon such person.

Collector to send bill of rates chargeable.

XVII. When the aforesaid tax shall be due and payable, or as soon after as convenient, the Collector shall send to the persons severally liable to pay such tax, a bill of the sums respectively due from such persons in respect thereof; and such sums when collected shall be received in the first instance by such person or persons as the said Collector shall appoint, such security having been first taken by the Collector from such person or persons for the due performance of his or their duties as may be deemed sufficient; and for each payment made, a receipt signed by the Collector shall be given by the person or persons receiving the amount.

Proceedings when rate unpaid after demand made.

XVIII. In case of the non-payment of any assessment, or of any surcharge which shall become due under this Act, or of any assessment or surcharge which shall have become due before the passing of this Act under Act XI of 1845 Section V, for the period of eight days after payment of the same shall have been demanded, then, upon proof upon oath before any Justice of the Peace that such assessment or surcharge has been duly made, and such demand made, such Justice is hereby authorized and required to levy the same on warrant under his hand, by distress and sale of the defaulter's goods and chattels; and the overplus of the money raised, after deducting the amount due and the expenses of distress and sale, shall be rendered to the owner.

On non-payment of fines, &c. offender may be imprisoned.

XIX. All fines and penalties imposed under this Act shall, in case of non-payment, be leviable by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under warrant of the Court of Petty Sessions or Magistrate of Police; and if no such property shall be found, or if the same shall not be sufficient to satisfy the fine or penalty so imposed, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Petty Sessions or for a Magistrate of Police, by warrant, to commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three calendar months where the amount of the fine or penalty unpaid shall not exceed one hundred Rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months where the amount of the fine or penalty unpaid shall exceed that sum; the commitment to be determined in either of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount.

Where name of owner or occupier unknown.

XX. Whenever the name of any occupier liable to be rated under this Act is unknown to the Assessor appointed under this Act, it shall be sufficient to assess and designate such person in the rate as "the occupier" of the premises in respect of which the assessment is made, without further description; and the like designation shall be sufficient in any bill, summons, or other proceeding of any kind whatsoever with respect to the aforesaid tax to be issued to him.

Distress not to be deemed unlawful by reason of defect of form, &c.

XXI. No distress levied under the authority of this Act shall be unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, bill, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall he be a trespasser from the beginning on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him.

Protection of Justices and other persons acting under this Act.

XXII. No writ or process shall be sued out against or served upon any Justice or his Clerk, or upon any Magistrate of Police or his Clerk, or upon any Assessor, or Collector, or other officer or person whomsoever acting under the direction of the aforesaid Justices, Magistrate, Assessor, or Collector, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered to the Clerk of such Justice or Magistrate, or (when the action shall be against such other officer or persons) shall have been delivered to him or left at his office or place of abode, explicitly stating the cause of action and the name and place of abode of the intended Plaintiff, and of his Attorney or Agent in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action, the Plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action except such as is stated in the notice so delivered; and unless such notice shall be proved, judgment shall be given for the Defendant; and every such action shall be brought or commenced within six months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards; and the Defendant shall be at liberty to place the general issue, and give this Act and all special matter in evidence; and it shall be lawful for any person to whom any such notice of action is given as aforesaid, to tender amends to the Plaintiff, his Attorney, or Agent, at any time within one month after service of such notice; and in case the same be not accepted, to plead such tender in bar and (by leave of the Court) with the general issue or other plea or pleas; and if upon issue joined upon any plea pleaded to the whole action, a verdict is found generally for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff be non-suited or discontinue, or if judgment be given for the Defendant, then the Defendant shall entitled to full costs of suit, and have judgment accordingly; and in case amends have not been tendered as aforesaid, or in case the amends tendered be insufficient, it shall be lawful for the Defendant, by leave of the Court, at any time before trial, to pay into Court under plea such sum of money as he may think proper, and by the like leave to plead the general issue or other plea or pleas, any rule of Court or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

No action maintainable for any distress under the shop and stall tax Act.

XXIII. All distresses and sales heretofore made for arrears of the shop and stall tax due from certain persons under the said Act XI of 1845 Section V, shall be deemed to have been made by competent authority, and shall be taken to be valid and legal to all intents and purposes; and no action, suit, or other proceeding whatever shall be brought or maintained in any Court of Law or Equity against any person whomsoever for anything done in respect of such distress or sale.

Interpretation.

XXIV. The following words and expressions are intended to have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, so far as such meanings are not excluded by the context or by the nature of the subject matter, that is to say, words denoting the singular number are to be understood to apply also to a plurality of persons or things, and words denoting the masculine gender shall include females. The words "Presidency Town" shall be taken to include the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

SCHEDULE A.

Form of affirmation, &c. to be made by Assessor.

The form of the affirmation required to be made by Assessors before they act in execution of this Act:—

I, A. B., do solemnly "affirm" that I will diligently execute the office of an Assessor, to which I am appointed by authority of this Act; and that in the assessments which I am required to make by this or any other Act or Acts, levying taxes to be assessed under the Regulation of this or any other Act, I will faithfully and honestly act, without favor or affection, according to the best of my skill and knowledge.

Notification.—The Honorable the President in Council is pleased to publish for general information, the following Translation of a Proclamation issued by Maharajah Scindiah, abolishing the levy of Transit Duties along the entire length of the Agra and Bombay Road, passing within the Gwalior Territory.

By order of the Honorable the President in Council,

CECIL BEADON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Translation of a Proclamation issued by order of His Highness Maharajah Jyajee Scindiah, abolishing Sayer Duties on the Agra, Indore, and Bombay Road, and on the Saugor, Indore, and Bombay Road, within His Highness' Territory, dated 21st Ramzan 1271 Hijree, corresponding with 7th June 1855.

It is hereby notified, or proclaimed for public information, that the Government of His Highness Maharajah Scindiah, with a view to the relief of Merchants and Travellers, have, from the commencement of the present Sumbut year 1912, corresponding with 21st Ramzan 1271 Hijree, and 7th June 1855 A. D., abolished entirely the Sayer Duties hitherto levied upon the two following Roads, viz.:

First.—The portion of the Agra, Indore, and Bombay Road from the Ghauts of Kenthree in Raighat, upon the Chumbul, on the Frontiers of Gwalior and Dholepore, passing thence by Bingonah, Chounda, Dhunailah, Bamore, Gwalior, Nyagaon, Ghateegaon, Sipree, Kolarus, Munniah, Goonah, Bujrunghur, Ragoghur, Chachurda, on the Omerghur Frontier; Muksee and Touk towards Indore; and secondly, upon the portion of the Saugor, Indore, and Bombay Road from Rahutghur, on the British and Gwalior Frontiers, to Bagrode, Gyraspore, Bhilsa, and the new bridge on the Betwa, and thence by Bhopal towards Indore.

From the above-mentioned date, no one passing along those two Roads will suffer the least impediment or detention on account of Sayer Duties; but be it known, at the same time, that the Sayer Duties hitherto levied on merchandise entering the Cities and Towns upon or near those Roads have not been remitted.

It is hereby also proclaimed, that, for the further relief of Merchants and Travellers passing from Agra by Gwalior to Indore and Bombay, the Government of His Highness Maharajah Jyagee Rao Scindiah have, for the present, remitted all Sayer Duties hitherto levied upon the Road from the Bohur Ghaut, upon the Chumbul, on the British and Gwalior Frontiers, passing thence by Umbah, Mirgaon, and Rotwal to Gwalior; so that Merchants and Travellers may proceed from Agra by the route of Shumsabad, the Ootungun River, and the Rehghanton, the Chumbul in the British Pergunna of Purnahut, and pass directly thence by the Rohurghaut into the Gwalior Territory, en route to Indore and Bombay, without entering the Territory of Dholepore or of any other State.

Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept., with the Governor General.

General Orders by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council.

Fort William, 30th August 1855.

No. 879 of 1855.—The following Notification from the Home Department is published in General Orders:—

No. 1066, dated 24th August 1855.—With reference to the Notification issued by the Government of Bengal, under date the 9th March 1852, No. 458, the Hon'ble the President in Council has been pleased to determine that Burmese shall be reckoned as one of the languages in which Candidates for the Reward of Rs. (1,000) one thousand, granted by the Hon'ble Court of Directors to Military Officers for proficiency in two or more Native languages, may be examined.

The test books in Burmese are to be—

1. Latter's Selections.
2. Laws of Manoo.
3. Janek-ka.
4. Way-than-da-ya.

And in all other respects the Examination will be conducted precisely in the manner prescribed in the Notification above referred to, that is to say as follows:—

"The Candidate will of course not be permitted to have access to any Dictionary or other book, or to receive any kind of assistance in the performance of his exercises, either written or oral.

"The written exercises are to consist of—

"1. A paper not less than an ordinary octavo page in length, printed in the language in which the Examination is held, to be translated into English.

"2. A paper in English of the same length to be translated into the selected language, in such a manner as to evince a decided familiarity with the language and some elegance of style.

"3. A paper of short sentences in English, the greater part on professional subjects, to be rendered into the language of examination accurately and idiomatically.

"The Candidate will then be called upon to read fluently, and translate correctly, portions of any of the test books, and also a fairly but not very clearly-written manuscript in the language selected; and, when that is still a spoken language of the country, he shall further be required to carry on a conversation with the Examiners, or with one or more Natives, in presence of the Examiners, on such subjects proposed by them as are calculated to test his colloquial facility, both as regards scholar-like expression and knowledge of the terms and phrases commonly used by the poorer and uneducated classes."

The Examination in Burmese under these orders will be conducted by a Committee to be constituted by the Commissioner of Pegu.

An Act for making better provision for the education of Male Minors and the marriage of Male and Female Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the existing laws are found insufficient to insure the proper education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, and it is expedient to make further and better provision for the education of such persons and their younger brothers, and for the exercise of a control over the marriages of all Minors under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

General control and superintendence of the education of Male Minor Wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

I. The general superintendence and control of the education of every Male Minor, whose property has been, or shall be brought, under the management of the Court of Wards, in, and for any part of the Presidency of Fort St. George, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is, or hereafter shall be, in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards, in the Zillah or District wherein such Minor's estate is situate ; or, if such Minor is possessed of immoveable property in different districts, in such one of the Collectors of Revenue of such districts as the said Court of Wards shall select.

Collectors to have power to cause Male Minor Wards to be educated at any School or College.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any Minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such Minor shall reside, either with or without his guardian, at the Sudder Station of the district, or at any other place within the said Presidency, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such School or College as to the said Collector may seem expedient ; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said Minor whilst attending such School or College.

Or in certain cases to cause such Wards to be educated by a private tutor.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such Minor at a School or College, he shall cause such Minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such Minor, or at the Sudder Station, or elsewhere within the said Presidency, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such Minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act to be paid out of the profits of the Ward's estate.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any Male Minor Ward under the provisions of this Act, for College or School fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home, or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate, in the same manner as other expenses incurred under the authority, or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the Minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards.

Court of Wards to have power to remove guardians for disobedience to orders passed by a Collector under this Act.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship, and every guardian, appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities, as persons originally appointed to be guardians of Minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

Continued liability of guardian removed: powers and responsibilities of new guardian.

VII. The right to the custody of the person of any Male Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is hereby vested in the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such Minor, or, in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such Minor under the provisions of this Act.

The right to the custody of the person of a Male Minor to be vested in guardian appointed by the Court of Wards, or, failing him, in the Collector.

VIII. Whenever a Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, has a younger brother or brothers entitled to maintenance at the charge of the estate, all the powers and provisions hereinbefore contained for promoting the education of such Minor are hereby declared and made applicable to such younger brother or brothers.

The foregoing Sections applicable also to the younger brothers of Wards.

IX. Whoever knowingly aids or abets the marriage of any Minor, whose property is under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or the marriage of a younger brother or sister of such Minor, without the leave of the Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards to such marriage first had and obtained, shall, on conviction before a Court of Session, upon the prosecution of such Collector, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand Rupees, or to imprisonment not exceeding the term of six months, with or without hard labour.

Penalty for abetting marriage of Ward without leave of Collector.

X. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Court of Wards.

Appeal from the orders of a Collector to lie to a Court of Wards.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXII. OF 1855.

An Act for the Regulation of Ports and Port-dues.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the safety of Vessels, and for the convenience of traffic in the several Ports within the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, and in navigable Rivers and Channels leading to such Ports, and for the improvement, maintenance, and good government of such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; also to regulate the levy of Port-dues, or charges in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels, in order to defray the cost of such improvement, maintenance, and good government; and to punish the unlawful use of certain flags and colors in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; and whereas it is expedient to abolish the Anchorage dues heretofore levied in the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Section XXI. of Act I. of 1852 and Schedule C. appended to that Act are hereby repealed.

Repeal of part of Act I. of 1852.

II. Regulation VII. 1801 of the Bengal Code; so much of Regulation II of 1810 of the Bombay Code as is still in force; Section XII Regulation III. 1833 of the Bengal Code; Act XIII of 1839; Section XXXIX of Act I of 1852; Sections XLII and XLIII of Act XIII of 1852; and Act XI of 1853, so far as it relates to the removal of any obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance affecting, or likely to affect, the navigation of the Port of Bombay—shall cease to be in force in any Port, River, or Channel in which the same respectively are now in force, from the time when such Port, River, or Channel shall be declared to be subject to this Act.

Operation of certain laws to cease in Ports, &c. declared subject to this Act.

III. The Local Government of any part of the said Territories may, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, declare any Port within that part of the said Territories to be subject to this Act; and any navigable River or Channel leading to that Port to be subject to this Act. When any such Port or navigable River or Channel has been so declared to be subject to this Act, all the provisions of this Act, except such as are hereinafter made specially applicable to certain Ports by order of the Local Government, shall have effect in that Port or navigable River or Channel.

To what places this Act applies.

IV. Every declaration, by which any Port, navigable River, or Channel shall be made subject to this Act, shall define the limits of such Port, navigable River, or Channel; and such limits shall extend always up to high-water mark, and may include any piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, and other works made for any of the purposes mentioned in the preamble of this Act,

Limits of such places how to be fixed.

whether within or without the line of high-water mark, and (subject to any rights of private property therein) any portion of the shore or bank within fifty yards of high-water mark.

Limits how to be altered.

V. The Local Government may from time to time, with the sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, alter the limits of such Port, River, or Channel.

Appointment of Conservator.

VI. The Local Government shall appoint an Officer to be Conservator of every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act. In Ports where there is a Master Attendant, such Master Attendant shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there is no Master Attendant, but where there is a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there are both a Master Attendant and a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master and his Assistants shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of the Master Attendant and his Assistants. The Conservator shall be subject to the control of the Local Government, or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

Local Government empowered to make Port-rules.

VII. The Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may from time to time make such Port-rules, not inconsistent with this Act, as it may think necessary for any of the following purposes, namely,

Entering or leaving Port.

1. For regulating the time at which, and the manner in which, vessels shall enter into or go out of any Port subject to this Act.

Berths of vessels.

2. For regulating the berths and stations to be occupied by vessels in any such port.

Striking yards, &c.

3. For striking the yards and top-masts, and for rigging in the jib and driver-booms, of vessels in any such Port, whenever it may be proper so to do.

Removal of anchors, &c.

4. For the removal or proper hanging or placing of anchors, spars, and other things, in or attached to vessels in any such Port.

Taking in or discharging ballast.

5. For regulating vessels whilst taking in or discharging ballast or cargo, or any particular kind of cargo, in any such Port, River, or Channel, and the stations to be occupied by vessels whilst so engaged.

Keeping free passage.

6. For keeping free passages of such width as may be deemed necessary within any such Port, River, or Channel, and along or near to the piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, moorings, and other works in or adjoining to the same; and for marking out the spaces so to be kept free.

Regulating the anchoring.

7. For regulating the anchoring, fastening, mooring, and unmooring of vessels in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Moving and warping.

8. For regulating the moving and warping of all vessels within any such Port, and the use of warps therein.

Use of mooring buoys

9. For regulating the use of the mooring buoys, chain and other moorings in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Rates for use of mooring buoys.

10. For fixing, from time to time, the rates to be paid for the use of such moorings, when belonging to the East India Company, or of any boat, hawser, or other thing belonging to the said Company.

Cargo Boats, &c.

11. For regulating cargo and other boats, and catamarans plying for hire in any such Port. Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorize the Local Government to fix the price to be charged for the use of any such boat or catamaran.

Fires and lights.

12. For regulating the use of fires and lights within any such Port.

Signal light.

13. For enforcing and regulating the use of signal lights by vessels at night in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Publication of Orders of a Local Government.

VIII. Every declaration and order of a Local Government, which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be published in the Official Gazette of that Government, or, where there is no Official Gazette, in such other public manner as that Government may order; and a copy thereof shall be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Office of the Conservator of every Port to which such order shall relate, and in the Custom House, if any, of every such Port.

Penalty for disobedience to rules.

IX. If any person shall disobey any such order, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every offence.

Conservator empowered to give directions for certain specified purposes.

X. The Conservator of any Port subject to this Act may, in respect of any vessel within such Port, River, or Channel, give directions for carrying into effect any Port-rule in force within such Port.

Penalties for disobedience to orders of Conservator.

XI. If any person shall wilfully, and without lawful excuse, refuse or neglect to obey any lawful direction of such Conservator after notice thereof shall have been given to him, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and a further sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every day on which he shall wilfully continue to disobey such direction; and in case of such refusal or neglect, it shall be lawful for the said Conservator to do, or to cause to be done all such acts as shall be reasonable or necessary for the purpose of carrying such direction into execution, and to hire and employ proper persons for that purpose; and all reasonable expenses, which shall be incurred in doing such acts, shall be paid and borne by the person or persons so offending. Any written notice of a direction given under this Act, which shall be left for the Master of any vessel with any person employed on board thereof, or which shall be affixed on a conspicuous place on board of such vessel, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been given to the Master thereof.

Expenses caused thereby to be paid by the person offending.

Service of written notice.

Special Rule.
Vessels in certain cases not to be moved without having a pilot, &c., or the permission of the Harbour Master.

XII. In every Port subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by any order of the Local Government, it shall be unlawful to move any vessel of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards, without having a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master on board; or to move a vessel of any burthen less than 200 tons and exceeding 100 tons, without having on board a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master, unless authority in writing so to do has been obtained from the Conservator or some Officer empowered by such Conservator to give such authority; and if any vessel shall, except in a case of urgent necessity, be removed contrary to the provisions of this Section, the Master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence, unless the Master of the vessel shall, upon application to the proper Officer, be unable to procure a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master to go on board the said vessel.

Exception.

Penalty.

Master to permit warps to be made fast to his vessel.

XIII. The Master of any vessel in any Port subject to this Act shall, when required so to do by the Conservator, permit warps to be made fast to such vessel, for the purpose of warping any other vessel in the Port, and shall not allow any such warp to be let go, until required so to do; and any Master offending against the provisions of this Section shall be liable, for every such offence, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty.

Penalty for leaving out hawser, &c. after sun-set.

XIV. If the Master of any vessel shall cause or suffer any warp or hawser, attached to his vessel, to be left out in any such Port after sun-set, in such a manner as to endanger the safety of any boat or other vessel navigating in the said Port, he shall be liable to a penalty for every such offence not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Conservator may, in case of necessity, cut ropes, &c.

XV. The Conservator of any such Port may, in case of urgent necessity, cut, or cause or to be cut, any warp, rope, cable, or hawser, which shall endanger the safety of any vessel in such Port, or at or near to the entrance thereof.

Penalties for causing obstruction or public nuisance.

XVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, cause any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, or shall cause any public nuisance affecting or likely to affect such navigation, every such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and also to pay all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in abating or removing such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment; and the Conservator, or any Magistrate having jurisdiction over the offence, may cause such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment to be abated and removed.

Any floating timber, &c., or any obstruction on shore within the limits of the Port, to be removed at the expense of owner.

XVII. The Conservator may remove, or cause to be removed, any timber or raft, floating or being in any part of any such Port, which shall impede the free navigation of such Port; or any thing which shall obstruct or impede the lawful use of any pier, jetty, landing-place, wharf, quay, dock, mooring, or other work, on any part of the shore or bank which has been declared to be within the limits of such Port, and is not private property; and the owner of any such timber or raft or other thing shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of such removal.

Expenses of removal may be recovered as a penalty.

XVIII. If the owner of any such timber or raft, or the person who has caused any such obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance as in either of the two last preceding Sections mentioned, shall neglect to pay the expense of the removal thereof, within one week after demand, or within fourteen days after such removal shall have been notified in the Official Gazette of the Presidency, or in such other manner as the Local Government by any general or special order may direct, such expenses may be recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and the Conservator may cause such timber, raft, or other thing, or the materials of any nuisance or obstruction so removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by Public Auction, and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of such sale; and shall pay the surplus of such proceeds, or deliver so much of the said timber or other materials as shall remain unsold, to the owner or other person entitled to receive the same; and, if no such person appear, shall cause the same to be kept and deposited in such manner as the Local Government shall direct; and may, if necessary, from time to time, realize the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of such sale, by a further sale of so much of the said timber or other materials as may remain unsold.

Timber, &c. may be sold.

Proceeds how to be dealt with.

Obstructions lawfully made, how to be removed.

XIX. If any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel, subject to this Act, shall have been lawfully made, or shall have become lawful by reason of the long continuance of such obstruction or impediment or otherwise, the Conservator shall report the same for the information of the Local Government and shall, with the sanction of such Government, cause the same to be removed or altered, making to the person or persons who suffer damage by such removal or alteration reasonable compensation for the same. If any dispute arise concerning such compensation, the matter in dispute shall be determined according to the laws now or hereafter to be in force in the Presidency or place within which such Port, River, or Channel is situate relating to the determination of like disputes in the case of land required for public purposes.

Compensation how to be determined.

Penalty for injuring buoys, &c.

XX. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse lift, injure, loosen, or set adrift any buoy, beacon, or mooring, fixed or laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, he shall for every such offence be liable, in addition to the payment of the amount of damages done, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Notice to be given to Conservator, if vessel gets foul of Government moorings.

XXI. If any vessel shall hook or get foul of any of the buoys or mooring laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any such Port, River, or Channel, the Master of such vessel shall not, nor shall any other person, except in the case of emergency, lift such buoy or mooring for the purpose of unhooking or getting clear from the same, without the assistance of the Conservator, and the Conservator, immediately on receiving notice of such accident, shall assist and superintend the clearing of such vessel: and the Master of such vessel shall, upon demand, pay such reasonable expense as may be incurred in clearing the same. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty.

Penalty for wilfully loosening a vessel from its moorings.

XXII. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse loosen or remove from its moorings any vessel within any such Port, River, or Channel, without leave or authority from the owner or Master of such vessel, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Conservator may raise any wreck, &c., impeding navigation within the Port.

XXIII. If any vessel shall be wrecked, stranded, or sunk, in any such Port, River, or Channel, so as to impede or be likely to impede the navigation thereof, the Conservator may cause the same to be raised, removed, or destroyed; and, unless the expense of such work shall be repaid within one month after the completion thereof, may recover the same on behalf of the Local Government in the manner provided by Section XXXIX of this Act.

Expense how recoverable.

Penalty for improperly discharging ballast, &c.

XXIV. If any ballast or rubbish, or if any other thing likely to form a bank or shoal, or to be detrimental to navigation, shall, without lawful excuse, be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, or into or upon any place on shore, from which the same shall be liable to be washed into any such Port, River, or Channel, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or land-floods, the person who shall so cast or throw the same, or cause the same to be so cast or thrown as aforesaid, and the Master of any vessel from which the same shall be cast or thrown, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees over and above any expenses which may be incurred in removing the same; but this provision shall not extend to any case in which such ballast or other thing shall be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, with the consent in writing of any Conservator, or within any limits within which such act may be authorized by Government.

Proviso.

Penalty for graving &c., vessel within prohibited limits.

XXV. If any person shall grave, bream, or smoke any vessel in any such Port, contrary to the directions of the Conservator, or at any time or within any limits at or within which such act shall be prohibited by any order of the Local Government, every such person, and also the Master of such vessel, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for boiling pitch, &c., on board a vessel within prohibited limits.

XXVI. If any person shall boil or heat any pitch, tar, resin, dammer, turpentine oil, or other such combustible matter on board any vessel within any such Port, at any place where such act shall be prohibited by order of the Local Government or contrary to the order or directions of the Conservator, every such person, and also the Master of any vessel on board which such offence shall be committed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for drawing spirits by candle-light, &c.

XXVII. If any person shall, by candle-light, or other artificial light, draw off spirits on board any vessel within any such Port, every such person, and also the Master of every such vessel, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.

Vessels above 200 tons to be provided with a force-pump, &c.

XXVIII. In every such Port to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, every vessel exceeding the burthen of 200 tons shall be provided with a proper force-pump, hose, and appurtenances, for the purpose of extinguishing any fire that may occur on board; and the Master of every such vessel who, after having been required by the Conservator to comply with such provision, shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse so to do for the space of seven days after such requisition, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees.

Penalty.

Vessels not to have powder, &c. exceeding 50 lbs. on board within certain limits to be fixed by Government.

XXIX. The Local Government may, by order, fix the limits within which vessels shall be prohibited from having on board, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any quantity of gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding altogether fifty pounds in weight, whether manifested for delivery or not; and in such case the Local Government shall appoint a proper place of deposit for such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition in excess of the quantity above allowed, and an Officer to receive the same.

Government to appoint place of deposit for powder.

Government to fix the time and manner of landing and shipping powder, &c.

XXX. The Local Government may, in such case, by order, fix the times at or within which, and the manner in which such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition shall be landed and deposited by any vessel inward-bound, and also the times at or within which, and the manner in which the same shall be taken on board any vessel from such place of deposit.

XXXI. The Master of such vessel shall upon such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition being deposited, make and sign a declaration in writing that there is not then, to his knowledge or belief, on board such vessel, any gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition exceeding the weight of fifty pounds; and in case such Master shall knowingly make any false declaration with respect to any of the matters aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Master to make declaration.

Penalty.

XXXII. The Officer with whom such gunpowder or other combustible ammunition shall be deposited, shall give a receipt for the same to the Master or other person making the deposit, and he shall be accountable to such Master or other person for the re-delivery of the same.

Officer to give receipt and to account for powder deposited.

XXXIII. If any vessel shall be prevented by stress of weather from landing or depositing such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, in excess of the quantity allowed as aforesaid, the Master or owner of such vessel shall, so soon as the weather may permit, land and deposit the same at the place so appointed as aforesaid, or shall forthwith give notice to the Conservator, or other Officer who shall be named for that purpose by any order of the Local Government, of his having such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition on board, and shall obey his directions relating to the same.

If by stress of weather powder is not landed, notice must be given thereof.

XXXIV. The Local Government may also, in respect to such Port, by order, fix the times and places at which, and the manner in which, vessels outward-bound, requiring to take in any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding the quantity above-mentioned, shall take in the same, whether such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, shall have been previously landed from such vessel or not.

Time, &c., for vessels outward-bound to take in powder may be fixed by Government.

XXXV. The Master of any vessel which shall have on board any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence; and all gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition which shall be on board any vessel, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be forfeited to Government, and may be seized by the Conservator, or by any Collector of Customs, or by any Custom House Officer, or other Officer authorized in that behalf by any general or special order of the Local Government, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any gunpowder, rockets or other ammunition belonging to Government, or carried for the use of troops of Her Majesty or of the Honorable East India Company on board of any such vessel.

Penalties for having prohibited powder, &c. on board.

Exception.

XXXVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, discharge any gun, musket, or other fire-arm in any Port subject to this Act, or on or from the landing-places, piers, wharfs, or quays thereof, except a gun loaded only with gunpowder for the purpose of making a signal of distress, or for such other purpose as may be allowed by the Local Government, such person shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

Guns not to be discharged in Port.

Exception.

Penalty.

XXXVII. In every Port, River, or Channel, subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, unless duly authorized by the Conservator, shall creep or sweep for anchors, cables, or other stores, lost or supposed to be lost, in such Port, River, or Channel. Every person offending against this provision shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.
Unauthorized person not to search for lost anchors or stores.

Penalty.

XXXVIII. If any anchors, wreck, stores, or other property shall be recovered by any Officer employed by the Local Government for that purpose, from the bed of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, the Local Government shall be entitled to receive a reasonable sum for salvage, having regard to the place of recovery. A registry shall be kept of all anchors, wreck, or other property so recovered, in such manner, and at such place or places as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall be opened to public inspection at reasonable office hours, except on Sundays and such holidays as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall contain a description of such property, and of the times and places where the same shall have been recovered.

Salvage payable for wreck, &c.

Register to be kept.

XXXIX. If the property recovered under the last preceding Section, or by a Conservator acting under Section XXIII of this Act, is unclaimed, or if the person claiming the same refuses to pay the amount due to the Local Government in respect thereof, such property, if of a perishable nature, may be sold forthwith; and if not of a perishable nature, may be sold at any period, not less than six months after the recovery thereof, by public Auction; and on the realization of the proceeds, the amount due to the Local Government for salvage, or for the expenses incurred under Section XXIII as aforesaid, shall be deducted therefrom, and credited to the Local Government, and the balance shall be paid to the person entitled to the property recovered, or if no such person shall appear and claim the same, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to any person who may thereafter establish his right to the same.

Property recovered may in certain cases be sold.

Proceeds how to be applied.

XL. In every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, without the permission of the Conservator, shall remove or carry away any rock, stones, shingle, gravel, or soil, or any artificial protection from any part of the Bank or Shore of such Port, River, or Channel; and no person shall sink or bury in any part of such Bank or Shore, whether the same be public or private property, any mooring-post, anchor, or any other thing which is likely to injure, or to be used so as to injure such Bank or Shore, except with the permission of the said Conservator, and with the aid or under the inspection of such person or persons (if any) as he may appoint to take part in or overlook the performance of such work. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence, and to pay the expenses of repairing the injury (if any) done to such Bank or Shore.

Special Rule.
Removing stones, &c., or injuring shores of Port, prohibited.

Penalty.

XLI. The dues and fees now usually collected at the several Ports within the said Territories may, during the period of one year from the time of the passing of this Act, be collected at such Ports respectively. No Port-dues or fees shall hereafter be levied in any such Port, except under the authority of this Act or of an Act hereafter to be passed for fixing the amount thereof; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the levy, as heretofore, of light-duties under Regulation VI of 1831 of the Bombay Code and Act XIII of 1854, or of fines or duties payable under Act XXVII of 1850.

Levy of Port-dues.

XLII. The Local Government may, from time to time, vary the rate at which Port-dues and fees shall be levied in any such Port, River, or Channel, in such manner as, having regard to the receipts and charges on account of that port, it may deem expedient, by reducing or raising the dues and fees, or any of them; provided that the rates shall not in any case exceed the amount authorised to be taken by this or any subsequent Act.

Local Government may vary the Port-dues.

Proviso.

XLIII. The Local Government may also, during the period of one year after the passing of this Act, remit altogether or reduce the rate of dues and fees now usually collected on any particular description of vessels.

Local Government may also remit or reduce Port-dues on any vessels during the period of one year after the passing of this Act.

XLIV. For every Port at which Port-dues shall be levied under this or any subsequent Act, a distinct account, to be called the Account of the Port Fund of the Port to which it relates, shall be kept by such Officer as the Local Government may appoint for that purpose. This account shall show in complete detail the receipts and charges of the Port; and an abstract statement of every such account shall be published annually, as soon after the 1st of May of each year as may be practicable, in which statement the balance at the close of the year at the credit or debit of the Port shall be shown. If, for any of the purposes of this Act, an advance of money shall have been or shall be made by Government on account of any Port subject to this Act, simple interest upon that advance, or upon so much of it as remains or shall remain unrepaid, at such rate as the Governor General in Council may determine, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account thereof; all expenses, including the pay and allowances of all persons upon the establishment of the Port, the cost of buoys, beacons, lights, and all other works maintained chiefly for the benefit of vessels being in, or entering, or leaving the Port, or passing through the Rivers or Channels leading thereto, but excluding receipts and expenses on account of Pilotage, incurred for the sake of every such Port, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account of that Port. And all money, including salvage money, proceeds of waifs, and fines, received under this Act, at or on account of every such Port, shall be credited in the Port Fund Account of that Port.

Distinct accounts of Port-dues to be kept, and an abstract thereof to be published.

XLV. The Collector of Customs at every such Port, or such other Officer as the Local Government shall appoint, shall collect the Port-dues above-mentioned. The Officer to whom any such Port-dues shall be paid shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing under his hand, describing the name of his office, the port or place at which the same shall be paid, and the name, tonnage, and other proper description of the vessel in respect of which such payment shall have been made.

Collection of Port-dues.

Voucher to be given.

XLVI. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival, within the limits of any such Port, of any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the Master of such vessel shall report such arrival to the Conservator of such Port; and if any Master of a vessel shall, without lawful excuse, fail to make such report within the time aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Master to report the arrival of vessel to Harbour Master.

Penalty.

XLVII. If any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act shall be in any such Port, without proper marks on the stem and stern posts thereof for denoting the draught of such vessel, the Conservator may, in any case in which it shall be necessary to ascertain the draught of such vessel, cause the same to be ascertained by means of the operation of hooking, and the Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such operation.

Conservator may in certain cases ascertain the draught, and charge the expense thereof to the Master.

XLVIII. In order to ascertain the tonnage of any vessel liable to pay Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the following Rules shall be observed:—

Tonnage of vessel liable to Port-dues how to be ascertained.

Clause 1.—If such vessel be a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, the Conservator may require the owner or Master of such vessel, or any person having possession of the register of such vessel, to produce such register for inspection; and if any such Master or other person shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to produce such register as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees. If any such owner, Master, or other person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the Conservator as to what is the true tonnage of the vessel in respect of which such Port-dues shall be payable, it shall be lawful for the Conservator to cause such vessel to be measured, and the tonnage thereof to be ascertained; and in such case, the owner or Master of such vessel shall also be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement.

If registered.

Clause 2.—If such vessel be not a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, and the owner or Master thereof shall fail to satisfy the Conservator as to what is the true tonnage of such vessel, according to the mode of measurement prescribed by the law in force for the time being for regulating the measurement of British registered vessels, the Conservator shall cause such vessel to be measured, and the tonnage thereof, according to the mode aforesaid, to be ascertained; and in such case, the owner or Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement.

If not registered.

XLIX. If the Master of any vessel, in respect of which any Port-dues, fees, or charges shall be payable under this or any subsequent Act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same, or any part thereof, on demand, the Collector of Customs, or other person authorized to collect such Port-dues or charges, may distrain or arrest, of his own authority, such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount due shall be paid; and in case any part of the said Port-dues or charges, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, shall remain unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment so made, the Collector of Customs, or other such person as aforesaid, may cause the vessel or other thing so distrained or arrested to be sold, and with the proceeds of such sale may satisfy the Port-dues, charges, and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid, rendering the surplus (if any) to the Master of such vessel, upon demand.

On refusal to pay Port-dues, &c., the Collector may distrain and sell.

L. The Officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant a Port clearance for any vessel, shall not grant such Port clearance, until the owner, agent, or Master of that vessel, or some other person, shall have paid all Port-dues, fees, and charges to which such vessel, or the owner or Master of such vessel in respect thereof shall be liable under this or any subsequent Act.

No Port clearance to be granted until dues, &c., are paid.

LI. The Conservator or any of his Assistants may, whenever he shall suspect that any offence has been or is about to be committed in any vessel contrary to this Act, or whenever it is necessary for him so to do in the discharge of any duty imposed upon him by this Act; and the Collector of Customs or other Officer appointed to collect any Port-dues or other charges payable in respect of any vessel under this or any subsequent Act, may, whenever it is necessary so to do, for the performance of any duty imposed upon such Collector or other Officer under this Act, either alone or with any other person or persons, go on board any vessel within the limits of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act.

Conservator, &c. may go on board any vessel in discharge of his duty.

If the Master or other person in charge of such vessel shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to allow any such Conservator, or any of his Assistants, or any such Collector of Customs, or other Officer or person, to enter such vessel for the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Act, he shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for preventing entry.

LII. If any person shall wilfully obstruct or hinder any Officer in the execution of any duty imposed, or power conferred by this Act, or shall assault or ill-treat him in the discharge of such duty, or in the exercise of such power, such person shall, for every such offence, be subject to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for obstructing Officer in discharge of his duty &c.,

LIII. All acts, orders, or directions by this Act authorized to be done or given by any Conservator, may, subject to his control, be done or given by any Harbour Master or any Assistant of such Conservator or Harbour Master. And any person hereby authorized to do any act may call to his aid such assistance as may be necessary.

Powers of Assistant Conservator, of Harbour Master, and of Assistant Harbour Master.

LIV. If any vessel belonging to any of Her Majesty's subjects, or sailing under British colors, shall hoist, carry, or wear, within the limits of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any flag, jack, pendant, or colors, the use whereof on board such vessel shall have been prohibited by the Statute 17 and 18 Victoria Chapter 104, or any other Statute now or hereafter to be in force, or by any Proclamation made or to be made in pursuance of any such Statute, or by any of Her Majesty's Regulations in force for the time being, the Master of such vessel shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees; and such penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty which may be recoverable under the said Statute, or any future Statute to be made in that behalf; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Indian Navy, within the limits of such Port, River, or Channel, or for the Conservator of such Port, to enter on board any such vessel, and to seize and take away any flag, jack, pendant, or color so unlawfully hoisted, carried, or worn on board the same.

Penalty for hoisting unlawful colors in Port.

LV. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate. And in additon to the means prescribed by Act II of 1839, the provisions of which are hereby extended to all penalties imposed under this Act, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate, by Warrant under his hand, to cause the amount of any such penalty imposed upon the owner or Master of any vessel for any offence committed on board of such vessel, or in the management thereof, or otherwise in relation thereto, whereof such owner or Master shall be convicted, to be levied by distress and sale of such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture thereof, or so much thereof as shall be necessary.

Offences how punishable and penalties how to be recovered.

LVI. In case of any conviction under this Act, the convicting Magistrate may order the offender to pay the costs of such conviction, in addition to any penalty or expenses to which he may be liable. Such costs may be assessed by the Magistrate, and may be levied and recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Costs of conviction.

LVII. In every case in which any person shall be liable, under the provisions of this Act, to pay any sum of money, damages, or expenses not exceeding One Thousand Rupees, the same may be recovered and levied in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and, if necessary, the amount thereof may be fixed and assessed by the Magistrate before whom the case shall be tried.

Damages, &c. payable under this Act, how to be ascertained and recovered.

LVIII. In any case in which any penalty, damages, or expenses shall be levied under this Act, by distress and sale, the costs of such distress and sale may be levied in addition to such penalty, damages, or expenses, and in the same manner.

Costs of Distress.

LIX. If any dispute shall arise concerning the amount leviable by any distress or arrestment by virtue of this Act, or the charges or costs payable under the last preceding Section, the person making such distress or using such arrestment may detain the goods distrained or arrested, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, until the amount to be levied shall have been determined by a Magistrate, who, upon application made to him for that purpose, shall have power to determine such amount, and to award such costs to be paid by either of the parties to the other of them, as he shall think reasonable; and payment of such costs, if not paid on demand, shall be enforced in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Magistrate to determine the amount to be levied in case of dispute.

LX. Nothing in this Act shall extend to any vessel belonging to, or in the service of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, or to any vessel of war belonging to any Foreign Prince or State; nor to deprive any person of any right of property or other private right, except as hereinbefore expressly provided; nor to affect any law or regulation relative to the Customs; nor any order or direction which shall have been lawfully made or given in pursuance of the provisions of any such law or regulation.

Act not to extend to vessels of war, nor to affect any private right of property, nor any Customs law or regulation.

LXI. The East India Company shall not be answerable for any act or default of any Master Attendant, Harbour Master, or other Conservator of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act; or of any Pilot; or of any Deputy, or Assistant of any of the Officers above-mentioned; or of any person acting under the authority or directions of any such Officer or Assistant; done within the limits of such Port, River, or Channel; nor for any damage or injury sustained by any vessel in consequence of any defect in any of the moorings, hawsers, or other things belonging to the said Company, within the said limits, which may be used by such vessel. Provided that nothing in this Section shall protect the East India Company from an action in respect of any act done by or under the express order or sanction of Government.

Indemnity to East India Company against default of Harbour Master, Pilot, &c.

Proviso.

LXII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Justice of the Peace of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, or for the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, a Joint Magistrate, and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and also any Deputy or Assistant Magistrate to the extent of the powers of such Deputy or Assistant Magistrate.

Interpretation of word "Magistrate" in this Act.

LXIII. Whereas divers Ports and navigable Rivers may be situated partly within the jurisdiction of one Magistrate, and partly within that of another, by reason whereof doubts may arise upon questions of jurisdiction over offences which may be committed contrary to this Act; it is therefore enacted that, if any person shall be guilty of an offence against the provisions of this Act, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, such offence shall be punishable by any Magistrate having jurisdiction over any district or place adjoining such Port, River, or Channel, or adjoining either side of that part of the navigable River or Channel in which such offence shall be committed; and that such Magistrate may exercise all the powers of a Magistrate under this Act, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such offence had been committed locally within the limits of his jurisdiction, notwithstanding the offence may not have been committed locally within such limits; and in case any such Magistrate shall exercise the jurisdiction hereby vested in him, the offence shall be deemed, for all purposes, to have been committed locally within the limits of his jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction over offences beyond the local limits of jurisdiction.

LXIV. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LXV. In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in any special provision thereof, or in the context, repugnant to such construction, the words "Local Government" shall be deemed to mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company in which the Port, River, or Channel in question is situated. The word "Vessel" shall include any thing made for the conveyance by water of human beings or of property. The word "Master," when used in relation to any vessel, shall mean and include any person having for the time being the charge, or command, or control of such vessel.

Construction of Act.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXIII. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the administration of the Estates of deceased persons charged with money by way of Mortgage.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Law, under which the real and personal assets of deceased persons subject to the English Law are administered, should be amended ; It is enacted as follows :—

Mortgage debts on property descending or devised, how to be discharged.

I. After this Act shall have come into operation, if any person shall die seised of, or entitled to any estate or interest in any land or other hereditaments within the Territories in the possession of, and under the Government of the East India Company, which shall, at the time of his death, be charged with the payment of any sum or sums of money by way of mortgage, and such person shall not by his will or deed or other document have signified any contrary or other intention, the heir or devisee to whom such land or hereditaments shall descend or be devised shall not be entitled to have the mortgage debt discharged or satisfied out of the personal estate or any other real estate of such person, but the land or hereditaments so charged shall, as between the different persons claiming through or under the deceased person, be primarily liable to the payment of all mortgage-debts with which the same shall be charged, every part thereof according to its value, bearing a proportionate part of the mortgage-debts charged on the whole thereof: Provided always,

Proviso as to the right of mortgagee to full satisfaction from the personal estate of the deceased.

that nothing herein contained shall affect or diminish any right of the mortgagee of such lands or hereditaments to obtain full payment or satisfaction of his mortgage-debt, either out of the personal estate of the person so dying as aforesaid or otherwise : Provided also that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any person claiming under, or by virtue of any will, deed, or document already made, or to be made, before this Act shall have come into operation.

Proviso as to claims made prior to this Act.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council,

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXIV. OF 1855.

An Act to substitute penal servitude for the punishment of Transportation in respect of European and American Convicts, and to amend the Law relating to the removal of such Convicts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by reason of the difficulty of providing a place to which Europeans or Americans can, with safety to their health, be sent for the purpose of undergoing sentences of transportation or of imprisonment for long terms, it has become expedient to substitute other punishment for that of Transportation, and to amend the law relating to the removal of European and American Convicts for the purpose of imprisonment ; It is enacted as follows :—

No European or American to be sentenced to transportation.

I. After the commencement of this Act, no European or American shall be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any Court within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, to be transported.

Terms of penal servitude instead of the present terms of transportation.

II. Any person who, but for the passing of this Act, would, by any Law now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, in any part of the said territories, be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any such Court, to be transported, shall, if a European, or American, be liable to be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude for such term as hereinafter mentioned.

The terms of penal servitude to be awarded by any sentence or order, instead of the term of transportation to which any such offender would, but for the passing of this Act, be liable, shall be as follows : (that is to say)—

Instead of transportation for seven years, or for a term not exceeding seven years, penal servitude for the term of four years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding seven years and not exceeding ten years, penal servitude for any term not less than four and not exceeding six years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding ten years and not exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding eight years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding ten years.

Instead of transportation for the term of life, penal servitude for the term of life. And in every case where, at the discretion of the Court, one of any two or more of the terms of transportation hereinbefore mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like discretion to award one of the two or more terms of penal servitude hereinbefore mentioned, in relation to such terms of transportation.

Discretion of Courts as to alternative punishments not to be affected

III. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall interfere with or affect the authority or discretion of any Court in respect of any punishment which such Court may now award or pass on any offender other than transportation ; but where such other punishment may be awarded at the discretion of the Court instead of transportation or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded instead of, or (as the case may be) in addition to, the punishment substituted for transportation by this Act.

Effect of pardon granted upon condition of penal servitude.

IV. If any offender sentenced by any Court within the said territories to the punishment of death shall have mercy extended to him, upon condition of his being kept in penal servitude for life, or for any term of years, all the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such offender in the same manner as if he had been lawfully sentenced under this Act to the term of penal servitude specified in the conditions.

The Executive Government may direct Europeans or Americans under sentence of transportation to be kept in penal servitude.

V. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, or for the person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of any Presidency or place in which a European or American has been lawfully sentenced by any Court to be transported, to order such person to be kept in penal servitude for the shortest term of penal servitude substituted by this Act for a term of transportation of the same extent as that to which the offender was sentenced, or that portion thereof which he shall not have undergone, provided that no person shall be kept in penal servitude under the provisions of this Section after the expiration of the term of transportation to which he was sentenced.

Term of penal servitude in such case.

Persons under sentence of penal servitude where to be sent and how to be dealt with.

VI. Every person who, under this Act, shall be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, may, during the term of the sentence or order, be confined in any such prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories as the Governor General of India in Council shall, by any General Order, from time to time direct; and may, during such time, be kept to hard labour; and such person may, until he can conveniently be removed to such prison or place of confinement, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, and dealt with in all other respects in the same manner as persons sentenced by the convicting Court to imprisonment with hard labour may, for the time being, by law be dealt with. Provided that the time of such intermediate imprisonment, and the time of removal from one prison to another, shall be taken and reckoned in discharge or part discharge of the term of the sentence.

Intermediate imprisonment.

Proviso.

All Acts, &c., respecting convicts under sentence of transportation or imprisonment with hard labour made applicable for the purposes of this Act.

VII. All Acts and Regulations now in force within any part of the said territories, with respect to convicts under order or sentence of transportation, or under order or sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, shall, so far as may be consistent with the express provisions of this Act, be construed to extend and be applicable to persons under any order or sentence of penal servitude made or passed under this Act.

Removal of European or American convicts under sentence of imprisonment from one prison to another.

VIII. The person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of the Presidency or place in which any European or American convict is imprisoned, under a sentence or order of imprisonment, for a term exceeding one year, whether with or without hard labour, may, with the consent of the Governor General of India in Council, order the removal of such prisoner from the prison or place in which he is confined to any other public prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories; and such order shall be a sufficient authority for imprisoning the convict during the remainder of the term mentioned in the sentence, or any part of such term, in the Jail to which the prisoner is removed.

Governor General in Council may grant a license to be at large to any convict under sentence of penal servitude.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to grant to any convict who may hereafter be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, a license to be at large within the said territories, or in such part thereof as in such license shall be expressed, during such portion of his term of servitude, and upon such conditions in all respects as to the Governor General of India in Council shall seem fit; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council at any time to revoke or alter such license by a like order.

Holder of such license not to be imprisoned, &c.

X. So long as such license shall continue in force and unrevoked, such convict shall not be liable to imprisonment or penal servitude by reason of his sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the terms of such license.

If license revoked, the convict may be apprehended and committed to prison.

XI. In case of the revocation of any such license as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for one of the Secretaries to the Government of India, by order in writing, to signify to any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate that such license has been revoked, and to require such Justice or Magistrate to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the convict to whom such license was granted, and such Justice or Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly; and such warrant may be executed by any officer to whom it may be directed or delivered for that purpose in any part of the said territories, and shall have the same force and effect in any place within such Territories as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice or Magistrate, or other lawful authority having jurisdiction in the place where the same shall be executed; and such convict, when apprehended under such warrant, shall be brought, as soon as he conveniently may be, before the Justice or Magistrate by whom the said warrant shall have been issued, or some other Justice or Magistrate of the same place, or before a Magistrate or Justice having jurisdiction in the zillah or district in which such convict shall be apprehended, and such Justice or Magistrate shall thereupon make out his warrant, under his hand and seal, for the re-commitment of such convict to the prison or place of confinement from which he was released by virtue of the said license, and such convict shall be re-committed accordingly, and shall thereupon be liable to be kept in penal servitude for such further period as, with the time during which he may have been imprisoned under the original sentence or order, and the time during which he may have been at large under an unrevoked license, shall be equal to the period mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Penalty for breach of condition of the license.

XII. If a license be granted under Section IX. of this Act upon any condition specified therein, and the convict to whom the license is granted violate any such condition, or shall go beyond the limits specified in the license, or, knowing of the revocation of such license, shall neglect forthwith to surrender himself, or shall conceal himself, or endeavour to avoid being apprehended, he shall be liable upon conviction to be sentenced to penal servitude for a term not exceeding the full term of penal servitude mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Act not to affect the provisions of certain English Statutes.

XIII. Nothing in this Act is intended to alter or affect the provisions of the 12 and 13 Victoria Chapter 43, or any Act of Parliament passed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland since the 28th of August 1833, or which may hereafter be passed.

What to be deemed proof that a person is a European or an American.

XIV. Any sentence or order upon any person describing him as a European or American shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be conclusive of the fact that such person is a European or American within the meaning of this Act.

Construction of Act.

XV. The word "European," as used in this Act, shall be understood to include any person usually designated a European British subject. Words in the singular number or the masculine gender shall be understood to include several persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction.

Commencement of Act.

XVI. This Act shall commence from and after the first day of November 1855.

ll, W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 25th August 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 25th August 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 29th of November next:—

A Bill to alter and amend the Laws relating to certain of the Municipal Taxes in the Presidency Town of Bombay, and to legalize certain proceedings connected with the collection of the Shop and Stall Tax.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish a certain tax on shops and stalls within the Presidency Town of Bombay, which was imposed under Section IX of Regulation XIX of 1827 and Section V of Act XI of 1845, but at the same time to enact and declare that the persons assessed under the said laws, who have not yet paid the amount due under such assessment, shall be liable for the same to distress; and further to declare that certain process issued in the collection of the said tax shall not be made the subject of any Civil action: It is enacted as follows:—

Repeal of Section IX Regulation XIX. 1827 and Section V Act XI of 1845, except as to arrears of shop and stall tax.

I. Section IX of Regulation XIX of 1827 and Section V of Act XI of 1845 are hereby repealed, save as regards the recovering any arrears of the shop and stall tax, which may, at the time of passing of this Act, be due.

Appointment of Assessor and Collector.

II. Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Town and Island of Bombay in Sessions assembled, or such other persons as may be vested with the control of the Municipal Fund by the Government of Bombay, shall nominate and appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council of Bombay, one or more person or persons to be Assessor or Assessors, and one or more person or persons to be Collector or Collectors of the Municipal Taxes, who shall respectively receive such salaries and be allowed such establishments as may be fit and necessary, and who shall assess and collect the tax hereinafter imposed.

Affirmation to be made by Assessor.

III. Every such Assessor, before he shall execute the office of such Assessor, shall make and subscribe a solemn affirmation before a Magistrate of Police, or the Court of Petty Sessions, in the form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A.

The occupation rate.

IV. The said Justices in Sessions assembled shall, from time to time, make an equal assessment, for the benefit of the Municipal Fund, on all occupiers of any house, building, or grounds within the Presidency Town of Bombay of the assessed annual value of forty-eight Rupees and upwards, not exceeding in the year three and one-eighth per centum on the rent payable by them by reason of such occupancy—such assessment to be called the "occupation rate."

Proviso.

V. Provided always, that no person occupying his or her own house, building, or grounds shall, by reason of his or her paying the house and ground rate thereon, be exempted from payment of the occupation rate hereby imposed, and such assessment shall be made in such cases upon the estimated amount for which the said house, building, or grounds might, in the estimation of the said Justices, be reasonably expected to be let. Provided also, that all middlemen or contractors renting any house, building, or ground from the owners thereof, and sub-letting the same in apartments or portions to persons who, by reason of the rent they respectively pay being under the yearly rent of forty-eight Rupees, are not assessable under the foregoing Section, shall be assessed thereto respectively on the aggregate rent they pay to the proprietors of such house, building, or grounds, if amounting to the yearly rent of forty-eight Rupees or upwards.

Public notice to be given requiring lists to be furnished to Assessor.

VI. It shall be lawful for the said Justices in Sessions assembled, or such other persons as may be vested with the control of the Municipal Fund, from time to time to direct the Assessor of the above-named tax to cause notices to be affixed to places of public resort, requiring all occupiers or tenants of any house, building, or grounds in the said Presidency Town, and who are hereby required so to do, to make out and deliver to the said Assessor, within one month after the date of such notices, such lists or declarations as are hereinafter required; and such general notices shall, from time to time, when the same shall be affixed in manner aforesaid, be deemed sufficient notice to all persons residing in the said Town of the time within which such return shall be required to be made; and every person wilfully tearing or defacing any notice so affixed, shall forfeit for every such offence, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees; provided always, that such lists and declarations may also be called for by any public proclamation or notice.

Particulars to be contained in lists.

VII. Every occupier or tenant of any house, building, or grounds in the said Presidency Town shall, upon the penalties hereinafter stated, within one month from the date of such notice, cause to be prepared and delivered to the Assessor to be appointed under this Act, true and particular lists or declarations in writing, signed by such person or by some other person on his behalf, which shall contain a particular list of all dwelling-houses, offices, manufactories, shops, and other buildings and grounds in his own occupation, or in the occupation, wholly or in part, of his tenants, specifying whether such dwelling-houses, offices, manufactories, shops, and other buildings and grounds are owned by himself (and in that case specifying the estimated value at which the same might reasonably be expected to be let,) or rented from or let in part or in whole to any other, and what person and at what rent; and such lists must be delivered to the Assessor appointed under this Act, under the penalty hereinafter stated.

Penalty on neglecting to furnish lists, or furnishing incorrect ones.

VIII. If any person liable to pay the aforesaid tax, shall neglect to deliver a list or declaration according to the directions of this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly omit any person or any description or any thing which ought to be contained therein according to this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly make an untrue return of any particular therein, such person shall, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred Rupees; and a proportion, not exceeding one-half, of such penalty imposed, may, at the discretion of the Court, be given to the informer.

Assessment to be according to such list.

IX. It shall be lawful for the said Justices to assess and charge every person liable to pay the above tax according to the last assessment, until new lists are called for and made out, provided they are satisfied regarding its accuracy; and if the Assessor shall find, upon due examination, that any list delivered by a ratepayer is inaccurate, and that any person, description, or thing which ought to be contained in such list is omitted therefrom or untruly stated therein, or that, since the time of delivering the said list, the person chargeable is chargeable in respect of other property, or has ceased to become chargeable in respect of the property specified in the list, or any part thereof, he shall be authorized to make a true assessment upon every such person of the real charge which ought to be imposed on such person according to the intent and meaning of this Act.

Penalty on obstructing Assessor or other Officer, &c.

X. If any person shall wilfully obstruct any Assessor or Collector, or any person duly authorized by him or them, in making such assessments or collections, or in the performance of any duty imposed upon him or them by the provisions of this Act, such person shall, on conviction before the Court of Petty Sessions, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Estimate of rate to be made.

XI. The said Justices, before proceeding to make any occupation rate under this Act, shall cause an estimate to be prepared, showing the amount intended to be raised by such rate, the period for which the rate is made, the proportion which such amount bears to the whole amount of the Municipal Funds intended to be raised during the same period, the rateable value of the property in respect of the occupation of which the rate is to be made, and the amount of rate which it is necessary to make upon each Rupee of such value; and the estimate so made shall forthwith, after being approved of by the said Justices in Sessions assembled, be entered in the rate-book and be kept in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, open to public inspection during office-hours thereat.

Notice of rate.

XII. The public notice of the intention to make any occupation rate, and of the time at which it is intended to make the same, and of the place where a statement of the proposed rate is deposited for inspection, shall be given by the Assessor at least six weeks previously to the day on which the rate is intended to be made.

Rate to be open to inspection.

XIII. Any person interested in, or assessed to any occupation rate under this Act, may inspect the same and any estimate made previously thereto, and may take copies of or extracts therefrom, without fee or reward; and whosoever, having the custody of such estimate or rate, shall refuse to allow or shall not permit such inspection, or such copies or extracts to be taken, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Rate, if not complained against, to be final.

XIV. In case no complaint shall be made against such occupation rate at the meeting of the Justices in Sessions assembled, held for the purpose of making such rate in pursuance of such notice, such occupation rate and the assessment of the several parties named in the said rate in the several sums and in respect of the properties therein mentioned, shall be final and conclusive on all parties whomsoever; but in case of any complaint of inequality in or non-liability to pay the said occupation rate, the said Justices shall in such Sessions, or at some adjournment thereof, proceed to investigate the same by the examination of such witnesses as the parties interested therein shall respectively produce, or by the examination of such other witnesses as shall seem right; and their decision as regards such occupation rate, and the assessment thereof upon the parties respectively, shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes whatsoever. Provided always, that the said Justices may, if they shall so think fit, state a case for the opinion of Her Majesty's Judges of the Supreme Court.

Rates to be collected quarterly in advance.

XV. The said tax by this Act authorized to be made and assessed shall be assessed at such time as such Justices shall think fit, and shall be levied and collected quarterly, and shall become due and payable on and after the first day of each quarter, for the current quarter.

Proportionable abatement may be made in certain cases.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the said Justices in Sessions assembled, if in their discretion they shall so think fit, in the case of any person who, during the current quarter, has ceased to occupy any house, building, or ground in respect of which he has been assessed under this Act, to allow to such person a proportionable abatement in respect thereof, if such assessment shall be unpaid, or if paid, to order a return of the amount thereof, or an allowance for the same to be made in the next ensuing assessment upon such person.

Collector to send bill of rates chargeable.

XVII. When the aforesaid tax shall be due and payable, or as soon after as convenient, the Collector shall send to the persons severally liable to pay such tax, a bill of the sums respectively due from such persons in respect thereof; and such sums when collected shall be received in the first instance by such person or persons as the said Collector shall appoint, such security having been first taken by the Collector from such person or persons for the due performance of his or their duties as may be deemed sufficient; and for each payment made, a receipt signed by the Collector shall be given by the person or persons receiving the amount.

Proceedings when rate unpaid after demand made.

XVIII. In case of the non-payment of any assessment, or of any surcharge which shall become due under this Act, or of any assessment or surcharge which shall have become due before the passing of this Act under Act XI of 1845 Section V, for the period of eight days after payment of the same shall have been demanded, then, upon proof upon oath before any Justice of the Peace that such assessment or surcharge has been duly made, and such demand made, such Justice is hereby authorized and required to levy the same on warrant under his hand, by distress and sale of the defaulter's goods and chattels; and the overplus of the money raised, after deducting the amount due, and the expenses of distress and sale, shall be rendered to the owner.

On non-payment of fines, &c. offender may be imprisoned.

XIX. All fines and penalties imposed under this Act shall, in case of non-payment, be leviable by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under warrant of the Court of Petty Sessions or Magistrate of Police; and if no such property shall be found, or if the same shall not be sufficient to satisfy the fine or penalty so imposed, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Petty Sessions or for a Magistrate of Police, by warrant, to commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three calendar months where the amount of the fine or penalty unpaid shall not exceed one hundred Rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months where the amount of the fine or penalty unpaid shall exceed that sum; the commitment to be determined in either of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount.

Where name of owner or occupier unknown.

XX. Whenever the name of any occupier liable to be rated under this Act is unknown to the Assessor appointed under this Act, it shall be sufficient to assess and designate such person in the rate as "the occupier" of the premises in respect of which the assessment is made, without further description; and the like designation shall be sufficient in any bill, summons, or other proceeding of any kind whatsoever with respect to the aforesaid tax to be issued to him.

Distress not to be deemed unlawful by reason of defect of form, &c.

XXI. No distress levied under the authority of this Act shall be unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, bill, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall he be a trespasser from the beginning on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him.

Protection of Justices and other persons acting under this Act.

XXII. No writ or process shall be sued out against or served upon any Justice or his Clerk, or upon any Magistrate of Police or his Clerk, or upon any Assessor, or Collector, or other officer or person whomsoever acting under the direction of the aforesaid Justices, Magistrate, Assessor, or Collector, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered to the Clerk of such Justice or Magistrate, or (when the action shall be against such other officer or persons) shall have been delivered to him or left at his office or place of abode, explicitly stating the cause of action and the name and place of abode of the intended Plaintiff, and of his Attorney or Agent in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action, the Plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action except such as is stated in the notice so delivered; and unless such notice shall be proved, judgment shall be given for the Defendant; and every such action shall be brought or commenced within six months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards; and the Defendant shall be at liberty to plead the general issue, and give this Act and all special matter in evidence; and it shall be lawful for any person to whom any such notice of action is given as aforesaid, to tender amends to the Plaintiff, his Attorney, or Agent, at any time within one month after service of such notice; and in case the same be not accepted, to plead such tender in bar and (by leave of the Court) with the general issue or other plea or pleas; and if upon issue joined upon any plea pleaded to the whole action, a verdict is found generally for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff be non-suited or discontinue, or if judgment be given for the Defendant, then the Defendant shall be entitled to full costs of suit, and have judgment accordingly; and in case amends have not been tendered as aforesaid, or in case the amends tendered be insufficient, it shall be lawful for the Defendant, by leave of the Court, at any time before trial, to pay into Court under plea such sum of money as he may think proper, and by the like leave to plead the general issue or other plea or pleas, any rule of Court or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

No action maintainable for any distress under the shop and stall tax Act.

XXIII. All distresses and sales heretofore made for arrears of the shop and stall tax due from certain persons under the said Act XI of 1845 Section V, shall be deemed to have been made by competent authority, and shall be taken to be valid and legal to all intents and purposes; and no action, suit, or other proceeding whatever shall be brought or maintained in any Court of Law or Equity against any person whomsoever for anything done in respect of such distress or sale.

Interpretation.

XXIV. The following words and expressions are intended to have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, so far as such meanings are not excluded by the context or by the nature of the subject matter, that is to say, words denoting the singular number are to be understood to apply also to a plurality of persons or things, and words denoting the masculine gender shall include females. The words "Presidency Town" shall be taken to include the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

SCHEDULE A.

Form of affirmation, &c. to be made by Assessor.

The form of the affirmation required to be made by Assessors before they act in execution of this Act:—

I, A. B., do solemnly "affirm" that I will diligently execute the office of an Assessor, to which I am appointed by authority of this Act; and that in the assessments which I am required to make by this or any other Act or Acts, levying taxes to be assessed under the Regulation of this or any other Act, I will faithfully and honestly act, without favor or affection, according to the best of my skill and knowledge.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of November next:—

A Bill for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, Lunatics, and other disqualified persons, in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, Lunatics, and other disqualified persons, not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards: It is enacted as follows:—

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800; Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805; Section V Regulation XVII. 1805; and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors or other disqualified proprietors—are repealed. Regulation V. 1827 is declared subject to the modification hereinafter prescribed.

Persons and property of disqualified proprietors subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying revenue to Government, who may be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors, Lunatics, and other persons, not being European British subjects, who may be incapable of managing their affairs, and the charge of their property, of whatsoever description it may be and whensoever acquired, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

General Administrator to be appointed.

III. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces respectively, to constitute the public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act No. XIX of 1841, to be General Administrator; or if no public Curator has been appointed, to appoint a General Administrator for any District or number of Districts; the General Administrator shall give such security as may be prescribed by Government for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Executors and Administrators must apply for Certificate.

IV. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor or other disqualified proprietor, or to have the care of the persons of Minors or other disqualified proprietors, under a Will or other Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, shall apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate, and until he shall have obtained such Certificate, shall be incompetent to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge, or to give any legal discharge to the debtors of such estate. Should any such person, having charge of property of value exceeding five hundred Rupees, fail to apply for a Certificate within the period of six months from the date on which he took charge thereof; or, in the case of persons now holding such charge, from the date of this Act coming into force; the Court, upon the application of the General Administrator, or other information, shall summon such person, and if the failure be not satisfactorily accounted for, shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator, and shall compel the late Executor or Administrator, or other person in charge of the estate, to make over the property in his hands to the General Administrator, and account to that officer for all monies received and disbursed by him.

Court how to proceed on failure of parties to make application.

If no application be made, General Administrator to apply.

V. Whenever any person shall die, leaving assets of a value exceeding five hundred Rupees, and his legal heir or heirs may be disqualified, by minority, idiotism, or other cause, from taking charge of the estate, if no person shall, within two months after the death of the late proprietor, have applied to the Civil Court for a Certificate, the General Administrator shall make application. When application shall have been made, either by a person interested in the estate, or by the General Administrator, the Court shall inquire summarily into the circumstances, and if it shall appear that the deceased has left a Will, and that the Executors named by him are willing to undertake the trust, or if the next of kin or nearest male relative shall claim a right to administer to the estate, and no objection to such claimant, on the score of incompetency, bad character, or other sufficient ground, be preferred and maintained, the Court shall grant Certificate to such Executor or near relative, and the expenses of the General Administrator, if any, shall be paid out of the estate. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will, or by reason of nearness of kin, the Court shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator.

Inquiry to be made by Court on application.

Application for Certificate to be made in case of lunacy or idiotism.

VI. Whenever any person in possession, or entitled to the possession of property of value exceeding five hundred Rupees, shall be incapable of managing it, by reason of lunacy, idiotism, or other disqualifying natural infirmity, if no application shall have been made to the Court by the next of kin or nearest male relative, the General Administrator shall apply for Certificate. When application shall have been made by any of the aforesaid persons, the Court shall proceed to institute the inquiry prescribed in the next following Section, and if the alleged disqualification shall be established, shall grant Certificate either to the next of kin or nearest male relative, if claim be advanced on the part of such person and no sufficient objection be preferred and maintained; or if such claim be not advanced, or being advanced, be disallowed by the Court—to the General Administrator.

Court how to proceed on application.

VII. When any person shall be alleged to be disqualified on the ground of lunacy or idiotism, or, in the case of a supposed Minor, if the fact of minority be disputed, the Court shall make inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining the existence of the alleged disqualification, and such inquiry shall be made with the aid of a jury of four respectable inhabitants of the District.

Inquiry in case of lunacy, &c., to be made with aid of a jury.

VIII. If the jury be unanimous, or if a majority concur in their finding, the finding of the jury shall be the decision of the Court. If the jury are equally divided, the Judge shall declare his own opinion, and the opinion of the Judge shall rule the decision. The decision of the Court under this Section shall be final and not open to appeal, unless the ground of appeal be a question of law.

Decision of the Court.

IX. First.—Persons not born in a state of idiotism, but who may have been declared by the Civil Court disqualified as Lunatics, shall (unless confined in a Public Lunatic Asylum,) be produced annually before the Judge, or oftener if he shall think fit; and if in any case, after hearing anything that may be urged by the person in charge of the estate, the Judge shall be of opinion that the cause of disqualification is removed, he shall cancel the Certificate, and cause the estate to be delivered over to the proprietor.

Lunatics to be produced annually before the Civil Court.

Second.—Any person who may have been adjudged disqualified, and who may deem the ground of his disqualification removed, or any relative or friend on his behalf, may represent the circumstances by petition to the Civil Court; the Court shall thereupon inquire into the case, and pass such orders, with respect to the charge of the estate, as it may think proper.

Disqualified person, or any one on his behalf, may petition the Court.

X. The General Administrator may refrain, at his discretion, from applying for a Certificate, when he may deem such a measure unnecessary or inexpedient. But it shall be competent to the Court, in all cases in which sufficient cause may be shown, to issue a Certificate to the General Administrator, and to require him, by precept, to proceed thereupon in like manner as if he had applied for a Certificate.

General Administrator may refrain from applying for Certificate, but Court may require him to administer.

XI. Notice of every Certificate granted by the Civil Court to any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, or to the General Administrator, shall be published in the Calcutta or Agra Gazette, as the case may be, and in the Vernacular Gazette; and the expense of publication shall be charged to the estate.

Notice of grant of Certificates to be published.

XII. Whenever the Judge of a Civil Court shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator, he shall, at the same time, appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the disqualified proprietor. In making such appointment, the Judge may, at his discretion, call upon the General Administrator to nominate a fit person for the office, or may make the selection himself. If the person selected be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Judge may fix such an allowance for the Guardian as, under the circumstances of the case, he may think suitable.

When Certificate is granted to General Administrator, Guardian to be appointed.

XIII. Whenever the estate to be administered to shall consist, in whole or in part, of landed property, the Judge may, at his discretion, grant a Certificate to the Collector on his application, instead of to the General Administrator; and the Collector, on obtaining such Certificate, shall, with the sanction of the Civil Court, appoint a Guardian to take care of the person of the disqualified proprietor.

When the estate consists of landed property, Certificate may be granted to Collector, who shall appoint a Guardian.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situated, shall represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Judge of the Court, unless he see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the share or shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall, in such case, appoint a Guardian for the care of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section. If the estate be situated in more than one District, the representation to the Civil Court shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the estate under the Court of Wards, and the orders of the Court of that District shall regulate the course to be followed by the Courts of other Districts, in which portions of the property may be situated. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this and the last preceding Sections, shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities, in the same manner as are his proceedings in the case of landed property attached by order of the Civil Court.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XV. Whenever the Judge may deem it proper to provide for the administration and management of landed property, under the provisions of Section V Regulation V. 1799 and Clause 5 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, it shall be lawful for him to direct the General Administrator to take charge of such property, anything contained in Regulation V. 1827 notwithstanding. Provided that, if the Collector shall make application to be placed in charge of the property, or the Judge shall, for any reason, think proper to place it under his management, the Judge may, at his discretion, issue a precept to the Collector, and the Collector shall proceed thereupon, in accordance with the provisions of Section III of the last mentioned Regulation.

Judge may order General Administrator to take charge of certain property.

Proviso.

XVI. Every Executor and Administrator appointed under this Act, except the Collector, shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, exhibit and deliver, in open Court, an inventory of the landed property, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things, as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And every Executor and Administrator, other than the Collector and the General Administrator, shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If the account of any estate shall not be furnished within the period above prescribed, the General Administrator shall report to the Court, and the Court shall issue an order to the defaulter for delivery of the account within a certain specified time. The General Administrator shall audit the accounts submitted by Executors and Administrators, and shall receive a commission of one per centum on the sum credited therein. If he finds the accounts to be correct, he shall file them in Court within one month from the date of receiving them, and they shall be open to the inspection of any person who may desire to see them. If he shall see reason to question the accuracy of any accounts, he shall submit them to the Court, with a statement of his objections thereto; and the Court shall inquire summarily into the matter, and pass such orders as it may think proper.

Inventory of property to be submitted. Annual accounts of executions and administrations to be furnished, and audited by General Administrator.

XVII. The General Administrator shall keep separate accounts of each estate, and in every year, on such date as the Court may direct, shall exhibit and deliver in open Court a true Schedule, showing the gross amount of all sums of money received or paid by him on account of each estate in his charge, and the balances remaining in his hands on the day next before the day of delivering such Schedule. An Abstract of the Schedule shall be published in the Calcutta or Agra Gazette as the case may be, and in the Vernacular Gazette. The Civil Court shall, from time to time, with the sanction of the Local Government, appoint an Auditor or Auditors to examine the accounts of the General Administrator, and report to the Court whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the assets are duly invested. If the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to question the accuracy of the accounts, he or they shall report accordingly to the Court, specifying the substance of his or their objections thereto, and the Court shall proceed thereupon as prescribed in the last preceding Section. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this and the last preceding Sections shall preclude any interested party from suing for an account, either by petition as hereinafter provided, or by regular suit, against the General Administrator, or against any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, or against his or their personal representatives.

Accounts of General Administrator to be published, and Auditors appointed to examine them.

XVIII. All sums received by the General Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the disqualified proprietor, or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities. In like manner, if it shall appear, on the audit of the accounts or at any other time, that there is a considerable balance in the hands of any Executor or Administrator, other than the General Administrator, it shall be competent to the Court to direct the same to be invested in the public Securities.

General Administrator to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any agent, relative, or near friend of any disqualified person as aforesaid, or for any public officer, with the sanction of the Civil Court, at any time during the term of such person's disqualification, to petition the Judge of the Court within whose jurisdiction the land or other property, or the greater part thereof, may be situate, for an account from any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian appointed under this Act, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the estates then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estates.

Any party interested may petition the Court for an account.

XX. On receipt of the petition, the Judge shall summon the opposite party, and inquire into the case in a summary manner, according to the rules of procedure prescribed for the Court of Small Causes by Act No. of 1855, so far as the same may be applicable.

Mode of procedure.

XXI. Having concluded the inquiry, the Judge shall pass such orders as he may think just and proper, and may enforce the same under the general rules in force for the execution of decrees. Every order passed under this Section shall be open to a summary appeal; but if not appealed from within the term limited for such appeals, the original order, or if appeal be preferred, the order passed in appeal, shall be final, and not open to revision or alteration in a regular suit.

Order to be executed as a decree of Court. To be open to summary appeal, and not liable to alteration in regular suit.

XXII. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for any such person to continue the prosecution of such suit on his own behalf.

Continuance of suit after disqualification shall have ceased.

XXIII. The Civil Court may impose a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, on any Executor or Administrator, except the Collector, who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

Civil Court may remove Executors, &c.

XXIV. The Civil Court, upon proof of incompetency, delinquency, or other sufficient cause established, may remove any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, not being the Collector of the District or the General Administrator, and may appoint the General Administrator or another person in his room; and may compel the person removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him.

Removal of General Administrator.

XXV. No General Administrator shall be removed from office otherwise than by order of Government. If the Judge of any District shall be of opinion that a charge has been established against a General Administrator, which requires his removal from office, he shall report his proceedings to the Sudder Court, and the Sudder Court, if it concur with the Judge, shall refer the case for the orders of Government.

Civil Court may permit resignation of Executors, &c.: resignation of General Administrator to be reported to Government.

XXVI. The Civil Court may permit any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, not being the Collector of the District or the General Administrator, to resign his trust, and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands. If the General Administrator should desire to resign his office, the Judge shall submit his resignation for the orders of Government.

Remuneration of General Administrator.

XXVII. The General Administrator shall be entitled to a commission of five per centum upon all sums received by him—that is to say, after the audit and passing of his accounts, he shall be allowed to appropriate to himself five per centum annually upon the sum shown by the accounts to have been disbursed by him or paid into the public treasury on account of the estates; provided, however, that it shall be competent to the Local Government to allow the General Administrator a fixed salary, and to direct the amount of the commissions receivable by him to be carried to the public credit.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education. Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

XXVIII. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of Minors, shall be bound to provide for their education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act No. XXVI of 1854, for making better provision for the education of Male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Guardians to have the custody of their Wards. Provision to this effect in Act XXVI. need to be enforced by Magistrate.

XXIX. The right to the custody of the persons of Minors, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is, by Section VII Act No. XXVI of 1854, vested in the Guardian appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards. The same right shall extend to Guardians appointed under this Act; and it is hereby declared that the right so conferred by Act No. XXVI of 1854 and by this Act may, and shall, be enforced by the Magistrate on the application of a duly appointed Guardian or his authorized agent.

Judge may refer cases to Subordinate Courts. Provisions for appeal.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Zillah Judge to refer to any of the subordinate Courts of the District having general jurisdiction, any investigation or inquiry which the Judge or the Civil Court is required or authorized to hold under this Act; and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, all orders and decisions passed by a Judge, or by any subordinate Court, under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of the Judge and the subordinate Courts.

Commencement of Act.

XXXI. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the day of

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of November next:—

A Bill to explain and amend Regulation X of 1793 and Regulation LII of 1803.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards extends to the property or shares in property of every description, belonging to a disqualified proprietor of an entire estate paying revenue immediately to Government, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed; and whereas it is also expedient that the process prescribed in Section V Regulation X. 1793, and Section IX. Regulation LII. 1803, of the Bengal Code, relative to inquiries into the alleged disqualification of proprietors, should be amended and simplified: It is declared and enacted as follows:—

Parts of Regulations repealed.

I. Clauses 2, 3, 5, and 6 Section V Regulation X. 1793, and Clause 2 and the four following Clauses, Section IX Regulation LII. 1803, are repealed.

Jurisdiction of Court of Wards declared to extend to all property of disqualified proprietors.

II. The jurisdiction of the Court of Wards and the provisions contained in Regulation X. 1793 and Regulation LII. 1803, as extended by Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section XXXVI Regulation XII. 1805, and Section 11 Regulation VI. 1822, of the Bengal Code, are hereby declared to extend to every description of property, whether moveable or immoveable, belonging to a Ward of the said Court; and the provisions of Section XXV Regulation VII. 1799, and Section XLI Regulation LII. 1803, as extended by Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section

XXXVI Regulation XII. 1805, and Section II Regulation VI. 1822, shall be applicable to all such immoveable property. Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of joint undivided estates, or portions of such estates, of which any such Ward may be a co-proprietor, in respect of the laws for the recovery of the public revenue and all other demands on the part of Government, recoverable by the same process as arrears of revenue.

Causes of disqualification how to be inquired into.

III. Whenever a Collector shall report the proprietor of an entire estate paying revenue immediately to Government to be disqualified on the ground of minority, and the proprietor or any person on his behalf shall deny that he is under age, and whenever the proprietor of such an estate shall be deemed disqualified on the ground of lunacy, idiotism, or other disqualifying infirmity, the proprietor or other person in his behalf in the one case, and the Collector in the other case, shall represent the circumstances to the Civil Court of the District in which the estate or the greater part thereof may be situated, and the Court shall proceed to make inquiry and pass orders thereon in the manner prescribed in Sections VII and VIII Act No. of 1855; and if the Court adjudge the proprietor to be disqualified, the Collector, on the part of the Court of Wards, shall at once take charge of the person and estate of such proprietor.

Section IX Act No. of 1855 applicable to lunatics under Court of Wards.

IV. The provisions of Section IX Act No. of 1855 shall be applicable to persons adjudged disqualified on the ground of lunacy under this Act.

Letter dated 5th April 1855, No. 82.

Submit the question whether as Officers are, on their first application for leave of absence on Furlough, to declare whether they will abide by the old or accept the new Furlough Rules, Staff Officers who apply for leave to the Hills or elsewhere in India are to vacate their Offices like those who take leave to the Cape or elsewhere beyond sea. Government observe, that if this were so, the Rule would have the effect of debarring such Officers from all leave, however short, in excess of the privileged leave of one month in six.

7. Staff Officers applying for leave in India are not required, by the new Furlough Rules, to vacate their Staff appointments. We therefore approve and confirm the view you have taken of this question.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 9th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXI. OF 1855.

An Act for making better provision for the education of Male Minors and the marriage of Male and Female Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the existing laws are found insufficient to insure the proper education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, and it is expedient to make further and better provision for the education of such persons and their younger brothers, and for the exercise of a control over the marriages of all Minors under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

General control and superintendence of the education of Male Minor Wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

I. The general superintendence and control of the education of every Male Minor, whose property has been, or shall be brought, under the management of the Court of Wards, in, and for any part of the Presidency of Fort St. George, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is, or hereafter shall be, in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards, in the Zillah or District wherein such Minor's estate is situate ; or, if such Minor is possessed of immoveable property in different districts, in such one of the Collectors of Revenue of such districts as the said Court of Wards shall select.

Collectors to have power to cause Male Minor Wards to be educated at any School or College.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any Minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such Minor shall reside, either with or without his guardian, at the Sudder Station of the district, or at any other place within the said Presidency, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such School or College as to the said Collector may seem expedient ; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said Minor whilst attending such School or College.

Or in certain cases to cause such Wards to be educated by a private tutor.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such Minor at a School or College, he shall cause such Minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such Minor, or at the Sudder Station, or elsewhere within the said Presidency, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such Minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act to be paid out of the profits of the Ward's estate.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any Male Minor Ward under the provisions of this Act, for College or School fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home, or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate, in the same manner as other expenses incurred under the authority, or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the Minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards.

Court of Wards to have power to remove guardians for disobedience to orders passed by a Collector under this Act.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship, and every guardian, appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities, as persons originally appointed to be guardians of Minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

Continued liability of guardian removed: powers and responsibilities of new guardian.

VII. The right to the custody of the person of any Male Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is hereby vested in the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such Minor, or, in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such Minor under the provisions of this Act.

The right to the custody of the person of a Male Minor to be vested in guardian appointed by the Court of Wards, or, failing him, in the Collector.

VIII. Whenever a Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, has a younger brother or brothers entitled to maintenance at the charge of the estate, all the powers and provisions hereinbefore contained for promoting the education of such Minor are hereby declared and made applicable to such younger brother or brothers.

The foregoing Sections applicable also to the younger brothers of Wards.

IX. Whoever knowingly aids or abets the marriage of any Minor, whose property is under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or the marriage of a younger brother or sister of such Minor, without the leave of the Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards to such marriage first had and obtained, shall, on conviction before a Court of Session, upon the prosecution of such Collector, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand Rupees, or to imprisonment not exceeding the term of six months, with or without hard labour.

Penalty for abetting marriage of Ward without leave of Collector.

X. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Court of Wards.

Appeal from the orders of a Collector to lie to a Court of Wards.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXII. OF 1855.

An Act for the Regulation of Ports and Port-dues.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the safety of Vessels, and for the convenience of traffic in the several Ports within the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, and in navigable Rivers and Channels leading to such Ports, and for the improvement, maintenance, and good government of such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; also to regulate the levy of Port-dues, or charges in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels, in order to defray the cost of such improvement, maintenance, and good government; and to punish the unlawful use of certain flags and colors in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; and whereas it is expedient to abolish the Anchorage dues heretofore levied in the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Section XXI. of Act I. of 1852 and Schedule C. appended to that Act are hereby repealed.

Repeal of part of Act I. of 1852.

II. Regulation VII. 1801 of the Bengal Code; so much of Regulation II of 1810 of the Bombay Code as is still in force; Section XII Regulation III. 1833 of the Bengal Code; Act XIII of 1839; Section XXXIX of Act I of 1852; Sections XLII and XLIII of Act XIII of 1852; and Act XI of 1853, so far as it relates to the removal of any obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance affecting, or likely to affect, the navigation of the Port of Bombay—shall cease to be in force in any Port, River, or Channel in which the same respectively are now in force, from the time when such Port, River, or Channel shall be declared to be subject to this Act.

Operation of certain laws to cease in Ports, &c. declared subject to this Act.

III. The Local Government of any part of the said Territories may, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, declare any Port within that part of the said Territories to be subject to this Act; and any navigable River or Channel leading to that Port to be subject to this Act. When any such Port or navigable River or Channel has been so declared to be subject to this Act, all the provisions of this Act, except such as are hereinafter made specially applicable to certain Ports by order of the Local Government, shall have effect in that Port or navigable River or Channel.

To what places this Act applies.

IV. Every declaration, by which any Port, navigable River, or Channel shall be made subject to this Act, shall define the limits of such Port, navigable River, or Channel; and such limits shall extend always up to high-water mark, and may include any piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, and other works made for any of the purposes mentioned in the preamble of this Act,

Limits of such places how to be fixed.

whether within or without the line of high-water mark, and (subject to any rights of private property therein) any portion of the shore or bank within fifty yards of high-water mark.

Limits how to be altered.

V. The Local Government may from time to time, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, alter the limits of such Port, River, or Channel.

Appointment of Conservator.

VI. The Local Government shall appoint an Officer to be Conservator of every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act. In Ports where there is a Master Attendant, such Master Attendant shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there is no Master Attendant, but where there is a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there are both a Master Attendant and a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master and his Assistants shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of the Master Attendant and his Assistants. The Conservator shall be subject to the control of the Local Government, or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

Local Government empowered to make Port-rules.

VII. The Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may from time to time make such Port-rules, not inconsistent with this Act, as it may think necessary for any of the following purposes, namely,

Entering or leaving Port.

1. For regulating the time at which, and the manner in which, vessels shall enter into or go out of any Port subject to this Act.

Berths of vessels.

2. For regulating the berths and stations to be occupied by vessels in any such port.

Striking yards, &c.

3. For striking the yards and top-masts, and for rigging in the jib and driver-booms, of vessels in any such Port, whenever it may be proper so to do.

Removal of anchors, &c.

4. For the removal or proper hanging or placing of anchors, spars, and other things, in or attached to vessels in any such Port.

Taking in or discharging ballast.

5. For regulating vessels whilst taking in or discharging ballast or cargo, or any particular kind of cargo, in any such Port, River, or Channel, and the stations to be occupied by vessels whilst so engaged.

Keeping free passage.

6. For keeping free passages of such width as may be deemed necessary within any such Port, River, or Channel, and along or near to the piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, moorings, and other works in or adjoining to the same; and for marking out the spaces so to be kept free.

Regulating the anchoring.

7. For regulating the anchoring, fastening, mooring, and unmooring of vessels in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Moving and warping.

8. For regulating the moving and warping of all vessels within any such Port, and the use of warps therein.

Use of mooring buoys.

9. For regulating the use of the mooring buoys, chain and other moorings in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Rates for use of mooring buoys.

10. For fixing, from time to time, the rates to be paid for the use of such moorings, when belonging to the East India Company, or of any boat, hawser, or other thing belonging to the said Company.

Cargo Boats, &c.

11. For regulating cargo and other boats, and catamarans plying for hire in any such Port. Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorize the Local Government to fix the price to be charged for the use of any such boat or catamaran.

Fires and lights.

12. For regulating the use of fires and lights within any such Port.

Signal light.

13. For enforcing and regulating the use of signal lights by vessels at night in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Publication of Orders of a Local Government.

VIII. Every declaration and order of a Local Government, which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be published in the Official Gazette of that Government, or, where there is no Official Gazette, in such other public manner as that Government may order; and a copy thereof shall be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Office of the Conservator of every Port to which such order shall relate, and in the Custom House, if any, of every such Port.

Penalty for disobedience to rules.

IX. If any person shall disobey any such order, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every offence.

Conservator empowered to give directions for certain specified purposes.

X. The Conservator of any Port subject to this Act may, in respect of any vessel within such Port, River, or Channel, give directions for carrying into effect any Port-rule in force within such Port.

Penalties for disobedience to orders of Conservator.

XI. If any person shall wilfully, and without lawful excuse, refuse or neglect to obey any lawful direction of such Conservator after notice thereof shall have been given to him, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and a further sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every day on which he shall wilfully continue to disobey such direction; and in case of such refusal or neglect, it shall be lawful for the said Conservator to do, or to cause to be done all such acts as shall be reasonable or necessary for the purpose of carrying such direction into execution, and to hire and employ proper persons for that purpose; and all reasonable expenses, which shall be incurred in doing such acts, shall be paid and borne by the person or persons so offending. Any written notice of a direction given under this Act, which shall be left for the Master of any vessel with any person employed on board thereof, or which shall be affixed on a conspicuous place on board of such vessel, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been given to the Master thereof.

Expenses caused thereby to be paid by the person offending.

Service of written notice.

Special Rule.
Vessels in certain cases not to be moved without having a pilot, &c., or the permission of the Harbour Master.

XII. In every Port subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by any order of the Local Government, it shall be unlawful to move any vessel of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards, without having a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master on board; or to move a vessel of any burthen less than 200 tons and exceeding 100 tons, without having on board a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master, unless authority in writing so to do has been obtained from the Conservator or some Officer empowered by such Conservator to give such authority; and if any vessel shall, except in a case of urgent necessity, be removed contrary to the provisions of this Section, the Master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence, unless the Master of the vessel shall, upon application to the proper Officer, be unable to procure a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master to go on board the said vessel.

Exception.

Penalty.

Master to permit warps to be made fast to his vessel.

XIII. The Master of any vessel in any Port subject to this Act shall, when required so to do by the Conservator, permit warps to be made fast to such vessel, for the purpose of warping any other vessel in the Port, and shall not allow any such warp to be let go, until required so to do; and any Master offending against the provisions of this Section shall be liable, for every such offence, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty.

Penalty for leaving out hawser, &c. after sun-set.

XIV. If the Master of any vessel shall cause or suffer any warp or hawser, attached to his vessel, to be left out in any such Port after sun-set, in such a manner as to endanger the safety of any boat or other vessel navigating in the said Port, he shall be liable to a penalty for every such offence not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Conservator may, in case of necessity, cut ropes, &c.

XV. The Conservator of any such Port may, in case of urgent necessity, cut, or cause to be cut, any warp, rope, cable, or hawser, which shall endanger the safety of any vessel in such Port, or at or near to the entrance thereof.

Penalties for causing obstruction or public nuisance.

XVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, cause any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, or shall cause any public nuisance affecting or likely to affect such navigation, every such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and also to pay all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in abating or removing such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment; and the Conservator, or any Magistrate having jurisdiction over the offence, may cause such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment to be abated and removed.

Any floating timber, &c., or any obstruction on shore within the limits of the Port, to be removed at the expense of owner.

XVII. The Conservator may remove, or cause to be removed, any timber or raft, floating or being in any part of any such Port, which shall impede the free navigation of such Port; or any thing which shall obstruct or impede the lawful use of any pier, jetty, landing-place, wharf, quay, dock, mooring, or other work, on any part of the shore or bank which has been declared to be within the limits of such Port, and is not private property; and the owner of any such timber or raft or other thing shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of such removal.

Expenses of removal may be recovered as a penalty.

XVIII. If the owner of any such timber or raft, or the person who has caused any such obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance as in either of the two last preceding Sections mentioned, shall neglect to pay the expense of the removal thereof, within one week after demand, or within fourteen days after such removal shall have been notified in the Official Gazette of the Presidency, or in such other manner as the Local Government by any general or special order may direct, such expenses may be recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and the Conservator may cause such timber, raft, or other thing, or the materials of any nuisance or obstruction so removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by Public Auction, and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of such sale; and shall pay the surplus of such proceeds, or deliver so much of the said timber or other materials as shall remain unsold, to the owner or other person entitled to receive the same; and, if no such person appear, shall cause the same to be kept and deposited in such manner as the Local Government shall direct; and may, if necessary, from time to time, realize the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of such sale, by a further sale of so much of the said timber or other materials as may remain unsold.

Timber, &c. may be sold.

Proceeds how to be dealt with.

Obstructions lawfully made, how to be removed.

XIX. If any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel, subject to this Act, shall have been lawfully made, or shall have become lawful by reason of the long continuance of such obstruction or impediment or otherwise, the Conservator shall report the same for the information of the Local Government and shall, with the sanction of such Government, cause the same to be removed or altered, making to the person or persons who suffer damage by such removal or alteration reasonable compensation for the same. If any dispute arise concerning such compensation, the matter in dispute shall be determined according to the laws now or hereafter to be in force in the Presidency or place within which such Port, River, or Channel is situate relating to the determination of like disputes in the case of land required for public purposes.

Compensation how to be determined.

Penalty for injuring buoys, &c.

XX. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse lift, injure, loosen, or set adrift any buoy, beacon, or mooring, fixed or laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, he shall for every such offence be liable, in addition to the payment of the amount of damages done, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Notice to be given to Conservator, if vessel gets foul of Government moorings.

XXI. If any vessel shall hook or get foul of any of the buoys or mooring laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any such Port, River, or Channel, the Master of such vessel shall not, nor shall any other person, except in the case of emergency, lift such buoy or mooring for the purpose of unhooking or getting clear from the same, without the assistance of the Conservator, and the Conservator, immediately on receiving notice of such accident, shall assist and superintend the clearing of such vessel; and the Master of such vessel shall, upon demand, pay such reasonable expense as may be incurred in clearing the same. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty.

Penalty for wilfully loosening a vessel from its moorings.

XXII. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse loosen or remove from its moorings any vessel within any such Port, River, or Channel, without leave or authority from the owner or Master of such vessel, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Conservator may raise any wreck, &c., impeding navigation within the Port.

XXIII. If any vessel shall be wrecked, stranded, or sunk, in any such Port, River, or Channel, so as to impede or be likely to impede the navigation thereof, the Conservator may cause the same to be raised, removed, or destroyed; and, unless the expense of such work shall be repaid within one month after the completion thereof, may recover the same on behalf of the Local Government in the manner provided by Section XXXIX of this Act.

Expense how recoverable.

Penalty for improperly discharging ballast, &c.

XXIV. If any ballast or rubbish, or if any other thing likely to form a bank or shoal, or to be detrimental to navigation, shall, without lawful excuse, be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, or into or upon any place on shore, from which the same shall be liable to be washed into any such Port, River, or Channel, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or land-floods, the person who shall so cast or throw the same, or cause the same to be so cast or thrown as aforesaid, and the Master of any vessel from which the same shall be cast or thrown, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees over and above any expenses which may be incurred in removing the same; but this provision shall not extend to any case in which such ballast or other thing shall be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, with the consent in writing of any Conservator, or within any limits within which such act may be authorized by Government.

Proviso.

Penalty for graving &c., vessel within prohibited limits.

XXV. If any person shall grave, bream, or smoke any vessel in any such Port, contrary to the directions of the Conservator, or at any time or within any limits at or within which such act shall be prohibited by any order of the Local Government, every such person, and also the Master of such vessel, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for boiling pitch, &c., on board a vessel within prohibited limits.

XXVI. If any person shall boil or heat any pitch, tar, resin, dammer, turpentine, oil, or other such combustible matter on board any vessel within any such Port, at any place where such act shall be prohibited by order of the Local Government or contrary to the order or directions of the Conservator, every such person, and also the Master of any vessel on board which such offence shall be committed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for drawing spirits by candle-light, &c.

XXVII. If any person shall, by candle-light, or other artificial light, draw off spirits on board any vessel within any such Port, every such person, and also the Master of every such vessel, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.

Vessels above 200 tons to be provided with a force-pump, &c.

XXVIII. In every such Port to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, every vessel exceeding the burthen of 200 tons shall be provided with a proper force-pump, hose, and appurtenances, for the purpose of extinguishing any fire that may occur on board; and the Master of every such vessel who, after having been required by the Conservator to comply with such provision, shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse so to do for the space of seven days after such requisition, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees.

Penalty.

Vessels not to have powder, &c. exceeding 50 lbs. on board within certain limits to be fixed by Government.

XXIX. The Local Government may, by order, fix the limits within which vessels shall be prohibited from having on board, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any quantity of gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding altogether fifty pounds in weight, whether manifested for delivery or not; and in such case the Local Government shall appoint a proper place of deposit for such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition in excess of the quantity above allowed, and an Officer to receive the same.

Government to appoint place of deposit for powder.

Government to fix the time and manner of landing and shipping powder, &c.

XXX. The Local Government may, in such case, by order, fix the times at or within which, and the manner in which such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition shall be landed and deposited by any vessel inward-bound, and also the times at or within which, and the manner in which the same shall be taken on board any vessel from such place of deposit.

XXXI. The Master of such vessel shall upon such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition being deposited, make and sign a declaration in writing that there is not then, to his knowledge or belief, on board such vessel, any gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition exceeding the weight of fifty pounds; and in case such Master shall knowingly make any false declaration with respect to any of the matters aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Master to make declaration.

Penalty.

XXXII. The Officer with whom such gunpowder or other combustible ammunition shall be deposited, shall give a receipt for the same to the Master or other person making the deposit, and he shall be accountable to such Master or other person for the re-delivery of the same.

Officer to give receipt and to account for powder deposited.

XXXIII. If any vessel shall be prevented by stress of weather from landing or depositing such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, in excess of the quantity allowed as aforesaid, the Master or owner of such vessel shall, so soon as the weather may permit, land and deposit the same at the place so appointed as aforesaid, or shall forthwith give notice to the Conservator, or other Officer who shall be named for that purpose by any order of the Local Government, of his having such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition on board, and shall obey his directions relating to the same.

If by stress of weather powder is not landed, notice must be given thereof.

XXXIV. The Local Government may also, in respect to such Port, by order, fix the times and places at which, and the manner in which, vessels outward-bound, requiring to take in any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding the quantity above-mentioned, shall take in the same, whether such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, shall have been previously landed from such vessel or not.

Time, &c., for vessels outward-bound to take in powder may be fixed by Government.

XXXV. The Master of any vessel which shall have on board any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence; and all gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition which shall be on board any vessel, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be forfeited to Government, and may be seized by the Conservator, or by any Collector of Customs, or by any Custom House Officer, or other Officer authorized in that behalf by any general or special order of the Local Government, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any gunpowder, rockets or other ammunition belonging to Government, or carried for the use of troops of Her Majesty or of the Honorable East India Company on board of any such vessel.

Penalties for having prohibited powder, &c. on board.

Exception.

XXXVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, discharge any gun, musket, or other fire-arm in any Port subject to this Act, or on or from the landing-places, piers, wharfs, or quays thereof, except a gun loaded only with gunpowder for the purpose of making a signal of distress, or for such other purpose as may be allowed by the Local Government, such person shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

Guns not to be discharged in [illegible]

Exception.

Penalty.

XXXVII. In every Port, River, or Channel, subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, unless duly authorized by the Conservator, shall creep or sweep for anchors, cables, or other stores, lost or supposed to be lost, in such Port, River, or Channel. Every person offending against this provision shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.
Unauthorized person not to search for lost anchors or stores.

Penalty.

XXXVIII. If any anchors, wreck, stores, or other property shall be recovered by any Officer employed by the Local Government for that purpose, from the bed of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, the Local Government shall be entitled to receive a reasonable sum for salvage, having regard to the place of recovery. A registry shall be kept of all anchors, wreck, or other property so recovered, in such manner, and at such place or places as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall be open to public inspection at reasonable office hours, except on Sundays and such holidays as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall contain a description of such property, and of the times and places where the same shall have been recovered.

Salvage payable for wreck, &c.

Register to be kept.

XXXIX. If the property recovered under the last preceding Section, or by a Conservator acting under Section XXIII of this Act, is unclaimed, or if the person claiming the same refuses to pay the amount due to the Local Government in respect thereof, such property, if of a perishable nature, may be sold forthwith; and if not of a perishable nature, may be sold at any period, not less than six months after the recovery thereof, by public Auction; and on the realization of the proceeds, the amount due to the Local Government for salvage, or for the expenses incurred under Section XXIII as aforesaid, shall be deducted therefrom, and credited to the Local Goverment, and the balance shall be paid to the person entitled to the property recovered, or if no such person shall appear and claim the same, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to any person who may thereafter establish his right to the same.

Property recovered may in certain cases be sold.

Proceeds how to be applied

XL. In every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, without the permission of the Conservator, shall remove or carry away any rock, stones, shingle, gravel, or soil, or any artificial protection from any part of the Bank or Shore of such Port, River, or Channel; and no person shall sink or bury in any part of such Bank or Shore, whether the same be public or private property, any mooring-post, anchor, or any other thing which is likely to injure, or to be used so as to injure such Bank or Shore, except with the permission of the said Conservator, and with the aid or under the inspection of such person or persons (if any) as he may appoint to take part in or overlook the performance of such work. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence, and to pay the expenses of repairing the injury (if any) done to such Bank or Shore.

Special Rule.
Removing stones, &c., or injuring shores of Port, prohibited.

Penalty.

XLI. The dues and fees now usually collected at the several Ports within the said Territories may, during the period of one year from the time of the passing of this Act, be collected at such Ports respectively. No Port-dues or fees shall hereafter be levied in any such Port, except under the authority of this Act or of an Act hereafter to be passed for fixing the amount thereof; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the levy, as heretofore, of light-duties under Regulation VI of 1831 of the Bombay Code and Act XIII of 1854, or of fines or duties payable under Act XXVII of 1850.

Levy of Port-dues.

XLII. The Local Government may, from time to time, vary the rate at which Port-dues and fees shall be levied in any such Port, River, or Channel, in such manner as, having regard to the receipts and charges on account of that port, it may deem expedient, by reducing or raising the dues and fees, or any of them; provided that the rates shall not in any case exceed the amount authorised to be taken by this or any subsequent Act.

Local Government may vary the Port-dues.

Proviso.

XLIII. The Local Government may also, during the period of one year after the passing of this Act, remit altogether or reduce the rate of dues and fees now usually collected on any particular description of vessels.

Local Government may also remit or reduce Port-dues on any vessels during the period of one year after the passing of this Act.

XLIV. For every Port at which Port-dues shall be levied under this or any subsequent Act, a distinct account, to be called the Account of the Port Fund of the Port to which it relates, shall be kept by such Officer as the Local Government may appoint for that purpose. This account shall show in complete detail the receipts and charges of the Port; and an abstract statement of every such account shall be published annually, as soon after the 1st of May of each year as may be practicable, in which statement the balance at the close of the year at the credit or debit of the Port shall be shown. If, for any of the purposes of this Act, an advance of money shall have been or shall be made by Government on account of any Port subject to this Act, simple interest upon that advance, or upon so much of it as remains or shall remain unrepaid, at such rate as the Governor General in Council may determine, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account thereof; all expenses, including the pay and allowances of all persons upon the establishment of the Port, the cost of buoys, beacons, lights, and all other works maintained chiefly for the benefit of vessels being in, or entering, or leaving the Port, or passing through the Rivers or Channels leading thereto, but excluding receipts and expenses on account of Pilotage, incurred for the sake of every such Port, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account of that Port. And all money, including salvage money, proceeds of waifs, and fines, received under this Act, at or on account of every such Port, shall be credited in the Port Fund Account of that Port.

Distinct accounts of Port-dues to be kept, and an abstract thereof to be published.

XLV. The Collector of Customs at every such Port, or such other Officer as the Local Government shall appoint, shall collect the Port-dues above-mentioned. The Officer to whom any such Port-dues shall be paid shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing under his hand, describing the name of his office, the port or place at which the same shall be paid, and the name, tonnage, and other proper description of the vessel in respect of which such payment shall have been made.

Collection of Port-dues.

Voucher to be given.

XLVI. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival, within the limits of any such Port, of any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the Master of such vessel shall report such arrival to the Conservator of such Port; and if any Master of a vessel shall, without lawful excuse, fail to make such report within the time aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Master to report the arrival of vessel to Harbour Master.

Penalty.

XLVII. If any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act shall be in any such Port, without proper marks on the stem and stern posts thereof for denoting the draught of such vessel, the Conservator may, in any case in which it shall be necessary to ascertain the draught of such vessel, cause the same to be ascertained by means of the operation of hooking, and the Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such operation.

Conservator may in certain cases ascertain the draught, and charge the expense thereof to the Master.

XLVIII. In order to ascertain the tonnage of any vessel liable to pay Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the following Rules shall be observed:—

Tonnage of vessel liable to Port-dues how to be ascertained.

Clause 1.—If such vessel be a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, the Conservator may require the owner or Master of such vessel, or any person having possession of the register of such vessel, to produce such register for inspection; and if any such Master or other person shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to produce such register as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees. If any such owner, Master, or other person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the Conservator as to what is the true tonnage of the vessel in respect of which such Port-dues shall be payable, it shall be lawful for the Conservator to cause such vessel to be measured, and the tonnage thereof to be ascertained; and in such case, the owner or Master of such vessel shall also be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement.

If registered.

Clause 2.—If such vessel be not a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, and the owner or Master thereof shall fail to satisfy the Conservator as to what is the true tonnage of such vessel, according to the mode of measurement prescribed by the law in force for the time being for regulating the measurement of British registered vessels, the Conservator shall cause such vessel to be measured, and the tonnage thereof, according to the mode aforesaid, to be ascertained; and in such case, the owner or Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement.

If not registered.

XLIX. If the Master of any vessel, in respect of which any Port-dues, fees, or charges shall be payable under this or any subsequent Act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same, or any part thereof, on demand, the Collector of Customs, or other person authorized to collect such Port-dues or charges, may distrain or arrest, of his own authority, such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount due shall be paid; and in case any part of the said Port-dues or charges, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, shall remain unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment so made, the Collector of Customs, or other such person as aforesaid, may cause the vessel or other thing so distrained or arrested to be sold, and with the proceeds of such sale may satisfy the Port-dues, charges, and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid, rendering the surplus (if any) to the Master of such vessel, upon demand.

On refusal to pay Port-dues, &c., the Collector may distrain and sell.

L. The Officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant a Port clearance for any vessel, shall not grant such Port clearance, until the owner, agent, or Master of that vessel, or some other person, shall have paid all Port-dues, fees, and charges to which such vessel, or the owner or Master of such vessel in respect thereof shall be liable under this or any subsequent Act.

No Port clearance to be granted until dues, &c., are paid.

LI. The Conservator or any of his Assistants may, whenever he shall suspect that any offence has been or is about to be committed in any vessel contrary to this Act, or whenever it is necessary for him so to do in the discharge of any duty imposed upon him by this Act; and the Collector of Customs or other Officer appointed to collect any Port-dues or other charges payable in respect of any vessel under this or any subsequent Act, may, whenever it is necessary so to do, for the performance of any duty imposed upon such Collector or other Officer under this Act, either alone or with any other person or persons, go on board any vessel within the limits of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act.

Conservator, &c. may go on board any vessel in discharge of his duty.

If the Master or other person in charge of such vessel shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to allow any such Conservator, or any of his Assistants, or any such Collector of Customs, or other Officer or person, to enter such vessel for the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Act, he shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for preventing entry.

LII. If any person shall wilfully obstruct or hinder any Officer in the execution of any duty imposed, or power conferred by this Act, or shall assault or ill-treat him in the discharge of such duty, or in the exercise of such power, such person shall, for every such offence, be subject to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for obstructing Officer in discharge of his duty &c.,

LIII. All acts, orders, or directions by this Act authorized to be done or given by any Conservator, may, subject to his control, be done or given by any Harbour Master or any Assistant of such Conservator or Harbour Master. And any person hereby authorized to do any act may call to his aid such assistance as may be necessary.

Powers of Assistant Conservator, of Harbour Master, and of Assistant Harbour Master.

LIV. If any vessel belonging to any of Her Majesty's subjects, or sailing under British colors, shall hoist, carry, or wear, within the limits of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any flag, jack, pendant, or colors, the use whereof on board such vessel shall have been prohibited by the Statute 17 and 18 Victoria Chapter 104, or any other Statute now or hereafter to be in force, or by any Proclamation made or to be made in pursuance of any such Statute, or by any of Her Majesty's Regulations in force for the time being, the Master of such vessel shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees; and such penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty which may be recoverable under the said Statute, or any future Statute to be made in that behalf; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Indian Navy, within the limits of such Port, River, or Channel, or for the Conservator of such Port, to enter on board any such vessel, and to seize and take away any flag, jack, pendant, or color so unlawfully hoisted, carried, or worn on board the same.

Penalty for hoisting unlawful colors in Port.

LV. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate. And in additon to the means prescribed by Act II of 1839, the provisions of which are hereby extended to all penalties imposed under this Act, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate, by Warrant under his hand, to cause the amount of any such penalty imposed upon the owner or Master of any vessel for any offence committed on board of such vessel, or in the management thereof, or otherwise in relation thereto, whereof such owner or Master shall be convicted, to be levied by distress and sale of such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture thereof, or so much thereof as shall be necessary.

Offences how punishable and penalties how to be recovered.

LVI. In case of any conviction under this Act, the convicting Magistrate may order the offender to pay the costs of such conviction, in addition to any penalty or expenses to which he may be liable. Such costs may be assessed by the Magistrate, and may be levied and recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Costs of conviction.

LVII. In every case in which any person shall be liable, under the provisions of this Act, to pay any sum of money, damages, or expenses not exceeding One Thousand Rupees, the same may be recovered and levied in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and, if necessary, the amount thereof may be fixed and assessed by the Magistrate before whom the case shall be tried.

Damages, &c. payable under this Act, how to be ascertained and recovered.

LVIII. In any case in which any penalty, damages, or expenses shall be levied under this Act, by distress and sale, the costs of such distress and sale may be levied in addition to such penalty, damages, or expenses, and in the same manner.

Costs of Distress.

LIX. If any dispute shall arise concerning the amount leviable by any distress or arrestment by virtue of this Act, or the charges or costs payable under the last proceding Section, the person making such distress or using such arrestment may detain the goods distrained or arrested, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, until the amount to be levied shall have been determined by a Magistrate, who, upon application made to him for that purpose, shall have power to determine such amount, and to award such costs to be paid by either of the parties to the other of them, as he shall think reasonable; and payment of such costs, if not paid on demand, shall be enforced in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Magistrate to determine the amount to be levied in case of dispute.

LX. Nothing in this Act shall extend to any vessel belonging to, or in the service of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, or to any vessel of war belonging to any Foreign Prince or State; nor to deprive any person of any right of property or other private right, except as hereinbefore expressly provided; nor to affect any law or regulation relative to the Customs; nor any order or direction which shall have been lawfully made or given in pursuance of the provisions of any such law or regulation.

Act not to extend to vessels of war, nor to affect any private right of property, nor any Customs law or regulation.

LXI. The East India Company shall not be answerable for any act or default of any Master Attendant, Harbour Master, or other Conservator of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act; or of any Pilot; or of any Deputy, or Assistant of any of the Officers above-mentioned; or of any person acting under the authority or directions of any such Officer or Assistant; done within the limits of such Port, River, or Channel; nor for any damage or injury sustained by any vessel in consequence of any defect in any of the moorings, hawsers, or other things belonging to the said Company, within the said limits, which may be used by such vessel. Provided that nothing in this Section shall protect the East India Company from an action in respect of any act done by or under the express order or sanction of Government.

Indemnity to East India Company against default of Harbour Master, Pilot, &c.

Proviso.

LXII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Justice of the Peace of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, or for the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, a Joint Magistrate, and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and also any Deputy or Assistant Magistrate to the extent of the powers of such Deputy or Assistant Magistrate.

Interpretation of word "Magistrate" in this Act.

LXIII. Whereas divers Ports and navigable Rivers may be situated partly within the jurisdiction of one Magistrate, and partly within that of another, by reason whereof doubts may arise upon questions of jurisdiction over offences which may be committed contrary to this Act; it is therefore enacted that, if any person shall be guilty of an offence against the provisions of this Act, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, such offence shall be punishable by any Magistrate having jurisdiction over any district or place adjoining such Port, River, or Channel, or adjoining either side of that part of the navigable River or Channel in which such offence shall be committed; and that such Magistrate may exercise all the powers of a Magistrate under this Act, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such offence had been committed locally within the limits of his jurisdiction, notwithstanding the offence may not have been committed locally within such limits; and in case any such Magistrate shall exercise the jurisdiction hereby vested in him, the offence shall be deemed, for all purposes, to have been committed locally within the limits of his jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction over offences beyond the local limits of jurisdiction.

LXIV. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LXV. In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in any special provision thereof, or in the context, repugnant to such construction, the words "Local Government" shall be deemed to mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company in which the Port, River, or Channel in question is situated. The word "Vessel" shall include any thing made for the conveyance by water of human beings or of property. The word "Master," when used in relation to any vessel, shall mean and include any person having for the time being the charge, or command, or control of such vessel.

ACT No. XXIII. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the administration of the Estates of deceased persons charged with money by way of Mortgage.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Law, under which the real and personal assets of deceased persons subject to the English Law are administered, should be amended ; It is enacted as follows :—

Mortgage debts on property descending or devised, how to be discharged.

I. After this Act shall have come into operation, if any person shall die seised of, or entitled to any estate or interest in any land or other hereditaments within the Territories in the possession of, and under the Government of the East India Company, which shall, at the time of his death, be charged with the payment of any sum or sums of money by way of mortgage, and such person shall not by his will or deed or other document have signified any contrary or other intention, the heir or devisee to whom such land or hereditaments shall descend or be devised shall not be entitled to have the mortgage debt discharged or satisfied out of the personal estate or any other real estate of such person, but the land or hereditaments so charged shall, as between the different persons claiming through or under the deceased person, be primarily liable to the payment of all mortgage-debts with which the same shall be charged, every part thereof, according to its value, bearing a proportionate part of the mortgage-debts charged on the whole thereof: Provided always,

Proviso as to the right of mortgagee to full satisfaction from the personal estate of the deceased.

that nothing herein contained shall affect or diminish any right of the mortgagee of such lands or hereditaments to obtain full payment or satisfaction of his mortgage-debt, either out of the personal estate of the person so dying as aforesaid or otherwise : Provided also that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any person claiming under, or by virtue of any will, deed, or document already made, or to be made, before this Act shall have come into operation.

Proviso as to claims made prior to this Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council,

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXIV. OF 1855.

An Act to substitute penal servitude for the punishment of Transportation in respect of European and American Convicts, and to amend the Law relating to the removal of such Convicts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by reason of the difficulty of providing a place to which Europeans or Americans can, with safety to their health, be sent for the purpose of undergoing sentences of transportation or of imprisonment for long terms, it has become expedient to substitute other punishment for that of Transportation, and to amend the law relating to the removal of European and American Convicts for the purpose of imprisonment; It is enacted as follows :—

No European or American to be sentenced to transportation.

I. After the commencement of this Act, no European or American shall be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any Court within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, to be transported.

Terms of penal servitude instead of the present terms of transportation.

II. Any person who, but for the passing of this Act, would, by any Law now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, in any part of the said territories, be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any such Court, to be transported, shall, if a European, or American, be liable to be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude for such term as hereinafter mentioned.

The terms of penal servitude to be awarded by any sentence or order, instead of the term of transportation to which any such offender would, but for the passing of this Act, be liable, shall be as follows : (that is to say)—

Instead of transportation for seven years, or for a term not exceeding seven years, penal servitude for the term of four years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding seven years and not exceeding ten years, penal servitude for any term not less than four and not exceeding six years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding ten years and not exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding eight years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding ten years.

Instead of transportation for the term of life, penal servitude for the term of life. And in every case where, at the discretion of the Court, one of any two or more of the terms of transportation hereinbefore mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like discretion to award one of the two or more terms of penal servitude hereinbefore mentioned, in relation to such terms of transportation.

Discretion of Courts as to alternative punishments not to be affected

III. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall interfere with or affect the authority or discretion of any Court in respect of any punishment which such Court may now award or pass on any offender other than transportation ; but where such other punishment may be awarded at the discretion of the Court instead of transportation or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded instead of, or (as the case may be) in addition to, the punishment substituted for transportation by this Act.

Effect of pardon granted upon condition of penal servitude.

IV. If any offender sentenced by any Court within the said territories to the punishment of death shall have mercy extended to him, upon condition of his being kept in penal servitude for life, or for any term of years, all the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such offender in the same manner as if he had been lawfully sentenced under this Act to the term of penal servitude specified in the condition.

The Executive Government may direct Europeans or Americans under sentence of transportation to be kept in penal servitude.

V. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, or for the person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of any Presidency or place in which a European or American has been lawfully sentenced by any Court to be transported, to order such person to be kept in penal servitude for the shortest term of penal servitude substituted by this Act for a term of transportation of the same extent as that to which the offender was sentenced, or that portion thereof which he shall not have undergone, provided that no person shall be kept in penal servitude under the provisions of this Section after the expiration of the term of transportation to which he was sentenced.

Term of pena servitude in such case.

Persons under sentence of penal servitude where to be sent and how to be dealt with.

VI. Every person who, under this Act, shall be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, may, during the term of the sentence or order, be confined in any such prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories as the Governor General of India in Council shall, by any General Order, from time to time direct; and may, during such time, be kept to hard labour; and such person may, until he can conveniently be removed to such prison or place of confinement, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, and dealt with in all other respects in the same manner as persons sentenced by the convicting Court to imprisonment with hard labour may, for the time being, by law be dealt with. Provided that the time of such intermediate imprisonment, and the time of removal from one prison to another, shall be taken and reckoned in discharge or part discharge of the term of the sentence.

Intermediate imprisonment.

Proviso.

All Acts, &c., respecting convicts under sentence of transportation or imprisonment with hard labour made applicable for the purposes of this Act.

VII. All Acts and Regulations now in force within any part of the said territories, with respect to convicts under order or sentence of transportation, or under order or sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, shall, so far as may be consistent with the express provisions of this Act, be construed to extend and be applicable to persons under any order or sentence of penal servitude made or passed under this Act.

Removal of European or American convicts under sentences of imprisonment from one prison to another.

VIII. The person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of the Presidency or place in which any European or American convict is imprisoned, under a sentence or order of imprisonment, for a term exceeding one year, whether with or without hard labour, may, with the consent of the Governor General of India in Council, order the removal of such prisoner from the prison or place in which he is confined to any other public prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories; and such order shall be a sufficient authority for imprisoning the convict during the remainder of the term mentioned in the sentence, or any part of such term, in the Jail to which the prisoner is removed.

Governor General in Council may grant a license to be at large to any convict under sentence of penal servitude.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to grant to any convict who may hereafter be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, a license to be at large within the said territories, or in such part thereof as in such license shall be expressed, during such portion of his term of servitude, and upon such conditions in all respects as to the Governor General of India in Council shall seem fit; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council at any time to revoke or alter such license by a like order.

Holder of such license not to be imprisoned, &c.

X. So long as such license shall continue in force and unrevoked, such convict shall not be liable to imprisonment or penal servitude by reason of his sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the terms of such license.

If license revoked, the convict may be apprehended and committed to prison.

XI. In case of the revocation of any such license as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for one of the Secretaries to the Government of India, by order in writing, to signify to any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate that such license has been revoked, and to require such Justice or Magistrate to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the convict to whom such license was granted, and such Justice or Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly; and such warrant may be executed by any officer to whom it may be directed or delivered for that purpose in any part of the said territories, and shall have the same force and effect in any place within such Territories as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice or Magistrate, or other lawful authority having jurisdiction in the place where the same shall be executed; and such convict, when apprehended under such warrant, shall be brought, as soon as he conveniently may be, before the Justice or Magistrate by whom the said warrant shall have been issued, or some other Justice or Magistrate of the same place, or before a Magistrate or Justice having jurisdiction in the zillah or district in which such convict shall be apprehended, and such Justice or Magistrate shall thereupon make out his warrant, under his hand and seal, for the re-commitment of such convict to the prison or place of confinement from which he was released by virtue of the said license, and such convict shall be re-committed accordingly, and shall thereupon be liable to be kept in penal servitude for such further period as, with the time during which he may have been imprisoned under the original sentence or order, and the time during which he may have been at large under an unrevoked license, shall be equal to the period mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Penalty for breach of condition of the license.

XII. If a license be granted under Section IX. of this Act upon any condition specified therein, and the convict to whom the license is granted violate any such condition, or shall go beyond the limits specified in the license, or, knowing of the revocation of such license, shall neglect forthwith to surrender himself, or shall conceal himself, or endeavour to avoid being apprehended, he shall be liable upon conviction to be sentenced to penal servitude for a term not exceeding the full term of penal servitude mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Act not to affect the provisions of certain English Statutes.

XIII. Nothing in this Act is intended to alter or affect the provisions of the 12 and 13 Victoria Chapter 43, or any Act of Parliament passed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland since the 28th of August 1833, or which may hereafter be passed.

What to be deemed proof that a person is a European or an American.

XIV. Any sentence or order upon any person describing him as a European or American shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be conclusive of the fact that such person is a European or American within the meaning of this Act.

Construction of Act.

XV. The word "European," as used in this Act, shall be understood to include any person usually designated a European British subject. Words in the singular number or the masculine gender shall be understood to include several persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction

Commencement of Act.

XVI. This Act shall commence from and after the first day of November 1855.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of November next:—

A Bill for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, Lunatics, and other disqualified persons, in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, Lunatics, and other disqualified persons, not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards: It is enacted as follows:—

Regulations repealed

I. Regulation I. 1800; Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805; Section V Regulation XVII. 1805; and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors or other disqualified proprietors—are repealed. Regulation V. 1827 is declared subject to the modification hereinafter prescribed.

Persons and property of disqualified proprietors subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying revenue to Government, who may be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors, Lunatics, and other persons, not being European British subjects, who may be incapable of managing their affairs, and the charge of their property, of whatsoever description it may be and whensoever acquired, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

General Administrator to be appointed.

III. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces respectively, to constitute the public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act No. XIX of 1841, to be General Administrator; or if no public Curator has been appointed, to appoint a General Administrator for any District or number of Districts; the General Administrator shall give such security as may be prescribed by Government for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Executors and Administrators must apply for Certificate.

IV. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor or other disqualified proprietor, or to have the care of the persons of Minors or other disqualified proprietors, under a Will or other Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, shall apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate, and until he shall have obtained such Certificate, shall be incompetent to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge, or to give any legal discharge to the debtors of such estate. Should any such person, having charge of property of value exceeding five hundred Rupees, fail to apply for a Certificate within the period of six months from the date on which he took charge thereof; or, in the case of persons now holding such charge, from the date of this Act coming into force; the Court, upon the application of the General Administrator, or other information, shall summon such person, and if the failure be not satisfactorily accounted for, shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator, and shall compel the late Executor or Administrator, or other person in charge of the estate, to make over the property in his hands to the General Administrator, and account to that officer for all monies received and disbursed by him.

Court how to proceed on failure of parties to make application.

If no application be made, General Administrator to apply.

V. Whenever any person shall die, leaving assets of a value exceeding five hundred Rupees, and his legal heir or heirs may be disqualified, by minority, idiotism, or other cause, from taking charge of the estate, if no person shall, within two months after the death of the late proprietor, have applied to the Civil Court for a Certificate, the General Administrator shall make application. When application shall have been made, either by a person interested in the estate, or by the General Administrator, the Court shall inquire summarily into the circumstances, and if it shall appear that the deceased has left a Will, and that the Executors named by him are willing to undertake the trust, or if the next of kin or nearest male relative shall claim a right to administer to the estate, and no objection to such claimant, on the score of incompetency, bad character, or other sufficient ground, be preferred and maintained, the Court shall grant Certificate to such Executor or near relative, and the expenses of the General Administrator, if any, shall be paid out of the estate. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will, or by reason of nearness of kin, the Court shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator.

Inquiry to be made by Court on application.

VI. Whenever any person in possession, or entitled to the possession of property of value exceeding five hundred Rupees, shall be incapable of managing it, by reason of lunacy, idiotism, or other disqualifying natural infirmity, if no application shall have been made to the Court by the next of kin or nearest male relative, the General Administrator shall apply for Certificate. When application shall have been made by any of the aforesaid persons, the Court shall proceed to institute the inquiry prescribed in the next following Section, and if the alleged disqualification shall be established, shall grant Certificate either to the next of kin or nearest male relative, if claim be advanced on the part of such person and no sufficient objection be preferred and maintained; or if such claim be not advanced, or being advanced, be disallowed by the Court—to the General Administrator.

Application for Certificate to be made in case of lunacy or idiotism.

Court how to proceed on application.

VII. When any person shall be alleged to be disqualified on the ground of lunacy or idiotism, or, in the case of a supposed Minor, if the fact of minority be disputed, the Court shall make inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining the existence of the alleged disqualification, and such inquiry shall be made with the aid of a jury of four respectable inhabitants of the District.

Inquiry in case of lunacy, &c., to be made with aid of a jury.

VIII. If the jury be unanimous, or if a majority concur in their finding, the finding of the jury shall be the decision of the Court. If the jury are equally divided, the Judge shall declare his own opinion, and the opinion of the Judge shall rule the decision. The decision of the Court under this Section shall be final and not open to appeal, unless the ground of appeal be a question of law.

Decision of the Court.

IX. First.—Persons not born in a state of idiotism, but who may have been declared by the Civil Court disqualified as Lunatics, shall (unless confined in a Public Lunatic Asylum,) be produced annually before the Judge, or oftener if he shall think fit; and if in any case, after hearing anything that may be urged by the person in charge of the estate, the Judge shall be of opinion that the cause of disqualification is removed, he shall cancel the Certificate, and cause the estate to be delivered over to the proprietor.

Lunatics to be produced annually before the Civil Court.

Second.—Any person who may have been adjudged disqualified, and who may deem the ground of his disqualification removed, or any relative or friend on his behalf, may represent the circumstances by petition to the Civil Court; the Court shall thereupon inquire into the case, and pass such orders, with respect to the charge of the estate, as it may think proper.

Disqualified person, or any one on his behalf, may petition the Court.

X. The General Administrator may refrain, at his discretion, from applying for a Certificate, when he may deem such a measure unnecessary or inexpedient. But it shall be competent to the Court, in all cases in which sufficient cause may be shown, to issue a Certificate to the General Administrator, and to require him, by precept, to proceed thereupon in like manner as if he had applied for a Certificate.

General Administrator may refrain from applying for Certificate, but Court may require him to administer.

XI. Notice of every Certificate granted by the Civil Court to any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, or to the General Administrator, shall be published in the Calcutta or Agra Gazette, as the case may be, and in the Vernacular Gazette; and the expense of publication shall be charged to the estate.

Notice of grant of Certificates to be published.

XII. Whenever the Judge of a Civil Court shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator, he shall, at the same time, appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the disqualified proprietor. In making such appointment, the Judge may, at his discretion, call upon the General Administrator to nominate a fit person for the office, or may make the selection himself. If the person selected be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Judge may fix such an allowance for the Guardian as, under the circumstances of the case, he may think suitable.

When Certificate is granted to General Administrator, Guardian to be appointed.

XIII. Whenever the estate to be administered to shall consist, in whole or in part, of landed property, the Judge may, at his discretion, grant a Certificate to the Collector on his application, instead of to the General Administrator; and the Collector, on obtaining such Certificate, shall, with the sanction of the Civil Court, appoint a Guardian to take care of the person of the disqualified proprietor.

When the estate consists of landed property, Certificate may be granted to Collector, who shall appoint a Guardian.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situated, shall represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Judge of the Court, unless he see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the share or shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall, in such case, appoint a Guardian for the care of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section. If the estate be situated in more than one District, the representation to the Civil Court shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the estate under the Court of Wards, and the orders of the Court of that District shall regulate the course to be followed by the Courts of other Districts, in which portions of the property may be situated. The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this and the last preceding Sections, shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities, in the same manner as are his proceedings in the case of landed property attached by order of the Civil Court.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

XV. Whenever the Judge may deem it proper to provide for the administration and management of landed property, under the provisions of Section V Regulation V. 1799 and Clause 5 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, it shall be lawful for him to direct the General Administrator to take charge of such property, anything contained in Regulation V. 1827 notwithstanding. Provided that, if the Collector shall make application to be placed in charge of the property, or the Judge shall, for any reason, think proper to place it under his management, the Judge may, at his discretion, issue a precept to the Collector, and the Collector shall proceed thereupon, in accordance with the provisions of Section III of the last mentioned Regulation.

Judge may order General Administrator to take charge of certain property.

Proviso.

XVI. Every Executor and Administrator appointed under this Act, except the Collector, shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, exhibit and deliver, in open Court, an inventory of the landed property, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things, as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And every Executor and Administrator, other than the Collector and the General Administrator, shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If the account of any estate shall not be furnished within the period above prescribed, the General Administrator shall report to the Court, and the Court shall issue an order to the defaulter for delivery of the account within a certain specified time. The General Administrator shall audit the accounts submitted by Executors and Administrators, and shall receive a commission of one per centum on the sum credited therein. If he finds the accounts to be correct, he shall file them in Court within one month from the date of receiving them, and they shall be open to the inspection of any person who may desire to see them. If he shall see reason to question the accuracy of any accounts, he shall submit them to the Court, with a statement of his objections thereto; and the Court shall inquire summarily into the matter, and pass such orders as it may think proper.

Inventory of property to be submitted. Annual accounts of executions and administrations to be furnished, and audited by General Administrator.

XVII. The General Administrator shall keep separate accounts of each estate, and in every year, on such date as the Court may direct, shall exhibit and deliver in open Court a true Schedule, showing the gross amount of all sums of money received or paid by him on account of each estate in his charge, and the balances remaining in his hands on the day next before the day of delivering such Schedule. An Abstract of the Schedule shall be published in the Calcutta or Agra Gazette as the case may be, and in the Vernacular Gazette. The Civil Court shall, from time to time, with the sanction of the Local Government, appoint an Auditor or Auditors to examine the accounts of the General Administrator, and report to the Court whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the assets are duly invested. If the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to question the accuracy of the accounts, he or they shall report accordingly to the Court, specifying the substance of his or their objections thereto, and the Court shall proceed thereupon as prescribed in the last preceding Section. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this and the last preceding Sections shall preclude any interested party from suing for an account, either by petition as hereinafter provided, or by regular suit, against the General Administrator, or against any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, or against his or their personal representatives.

Accounts of General Administrator to be published, and Auditors appointed to examine them.

XVIII. All sums received by the General Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the disqualified proprietor, or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities. In like manner, if it shall appear, on the audit of the accounts or at any other time, that there is a considerable balance in the hands of any Executor or Administrator, other than the General Administrator, it shall be competent to the Court to direct the same to be invested in the public Securities.

General Administrator to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any agent, relative, or near friend of any disqualified person as aforesaid, or for any public officer, with the sanction of the Civil Court, at any time during the term of such person's disqualification, to petition the Judge of the Court within whose jurisdiction the land or other property, or the greater part thereof, may be situate, for an account from any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian appointed under this Act, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the estates then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estates.

Any party interested may petition the Court for an account.

XX. On receipt of the petition, the Judge shall summon the opposite party, and inquire into the case in a summary manner, according to the rules of procedure prescribed for the Court of Small Causes by Act No. of 1853, so far as the same may be applicable.

Mode of procedure.

XXI. Having concluded the inquiry, the Judge shall pass such orders as he may think just and proper, and may enforce the same under the general rules in force for the execution of decrees. Every order passed under this Section shall be open to a summary appeal; but if not appealed from within the term limited for such appeals, the original order, or if appeal be preferred, the order passed in appeal, shall be final, and not open to revision or alteration in a regular suit.

Order to be executed as a decree of Court. To be open to summary appeal, and not liable to alteration in regular suit.

XXII. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for any such person to continue the prosecution of such suit on his own behalf.

Continuance of suit after disqualification shall have ceased.

XXIII. The Civil Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, on any Executor or Administrator, except the Collector, who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXIV. The Civil Court, upon proof of incompetency, delinquency, or other sufficient cause established, may remove any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, not being the Collector of the District or the General Administrator, and may appoint the General Administrator or another person in his room; and may compel the person removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him.

Civil Court may remove Executors, &c.

XXV. No General Administrator shall be removed from office otherwise than by order of Government. If the Judge of any District shall be of opinion that a charge has been established against a General Administrator, which requires his removal from office, he shall report his proceedings to the Sudder Court, and the Sudder Court, if it concur with the Judge, shall refer the case for the orders of Government.

Removal of General Administrator.

XXVI. The Civil Court may permit any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, not being the Collector of the District or the General Administrator, to resign his trust, and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands. If the General Administrator should desire to resign his office, the Judge shall submit his resignation for the orders of Government.

Civil Court may permit resignation of Executors, &c.: resignation of General Administrator to be reported to Government

XXVII. The General Administrator shall be entitled to a commission of five per centum upon all sums received by him—that is to say, after the audit and passing of his accounts, he shall be allowed to appropriate to himself five per centum annually upon the sum shown by the accounts to have been disbursed by him or paid into the public treasury on account of the estate; provided, however, that it shall be competent to the Local Government to allow the General Administrator a fixed salary, and to direct the amount of the commissions receivable by him to be carried to the public credit.

Remuneration of General Administrator.

XXVIII. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of Minors, shall be bound to provide for their education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act No. XXVI of 1854, for making better provision for the education of Male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education. Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

XXIX. The right to the custody of the persons of Minors, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is, by Section VII Act No. XXVI of 1854, vested in the Guardian appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards. The same right shall extend to Guardians appointed under this Act; and it is hereby declared that the right so conferred by Act No. XXVI of 1854 and by this Act may, and shall, be enforced by the Magistrate on the application of a duly appointed Guardian or his authorized agent.

Guardians to have the custody of their Wards. Provision to this effect in Act XXVI. 1854 to be enforced by Magistrate.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Zillah Judge to refer to any of the subordinate Courts of the District having general jurisdiction, any investigation or inquiry which the Judge or the Civil Court is required or authorized to hold under this Act; and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, all orders and decisions passed by a Judge, or by any subordinate Court, under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of the Judge and the subordinate Courts.

Judge may refer cases to Subordinate Courts. Provisions for appeal.

XXXI. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the day of Commencement of Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of November next:—

A Bill to explain and amend Regulation X of 1793 and Regulation LII of 1803.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards extends to the property or shares in property of every description, belonging to a disqualified proprietor of an entire estate paying revenue immediately to Government, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed; and whereas it is also expedient that the process prescribed in Section V Regulation X. 1793, and Section IX Regulation LII. 1803 of the Bengal Code, relative to inquiries into the alleged disqualification of proprietors, should be amended and simplified: It is declared and enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Clauses 2, 3, 5, and 6 Section V Regulation X. 1793, and Clause 2 and the four following Clauses, Section IX Regulation LII. 1803, are repealed.

Parts of Regulations repealed.

II. The jurisdiction of the Court of Wards and the provisions contained in Regulation X. 1793 and Regulation LII. 1803, as extended by Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section XXXVI

Jurisdiction of Court of Wards declared to extend to all property of disqualified proprietors.

Regulation XII. 1805, and Section II Regulation VI. 1822, of the Bengal Code, are hereby declared to extend to every description of property, whether moveable or immoveable, belonging to a Ward of the said Court; and the provisions of Section XXV Regulation VII. 1799, and Section XLI Regulation LII. 1803, as extended by Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section XXXVI Regulation XII. 1805, and Section II Regulation VI. 1822, shall be applicable to all such immoveable property. Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of joint undivided estates, or portions of such estates, of which any such Ward may be a co-proprietor, in respect of the laws for the recovery of the public revenue and all other demands on the part of Government, recoverable by the same process as arrears of revenue.

Causes of disqualification how to be inquired into.

III. Whenever a Collector shall report the proprietor of an entire estate paying revenue immediately to Government to be disqualified on the ground of minority, and the proprietor or any person on his behalf shall deny that he is under age, and whenever the proprietor of such an estate shall be deemed disqualified on the ground of lunacy, idiotism, or other disqualifying infirmity, the proprietor or other person in his behalf in the one case, and the Collector in the other case, shall represent the circumstances to the Civil Court of the District in which the estate or the greater part thereof may be situated, and the Court shall proceed to make inquiry and pass orders thereon in the manner prescribed in Sections VII and VIII Act No. of 1855; and if the Court adjudge the proprietor to be disqualified, the Collector, on the part of the Court of Wards, shall at once take charge of the person and estate of such proprietor.

Section IX Act No. of 1855 applicable to lunatics under Court of Wards.

IV. The provisions of Section IX Act No. of 1855 shall be applicable to persons adjudged disqualified on the ground of lunacy under this Act.

Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for Constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be ½ per cent.

HOURS OF BUSINESS.

From and after Wednesday, the 1st August, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., except on Saturday, when the Bank will be closed at 1 P. M.

FRANCIS R. NEILSON,

London and Eastern Banking Corporation.

REFERRING to the Government Notification No. 5, dated Fort William, Financial Department, 24th January 1855, giving notice of the intention of Government to withdraw the authority hitherto granted to the Government Agent at Fort William, and to the Accountants General and the Sub-Treasurers at Fort Saint George and Bombay, to act as Agents on behalf of Proprietors of Government Securities, or Shares in the Capital Stock of the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay respectively.

THE LONDON AND EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION offers to receive charge and undertake the safe custody of any Government Securities and Certificates of Shares in the Bank of Bengal, and other local stock, which the Proprietors may wish to deposit with the Bank; and will receive the interest on such Government Securities, and the dividend on such Bank-share certificates, and other local stock, as it falls due, and either remit the amount of such Interest and Dividend to England in Bills of the Bank, or pay the amount as Proprietors may desire.

The London and Eastern Banking Corporation will also receive remittances for investment in Government Securities, Bank of Bengal Shares and other stock, and will negotiate the sale of such Securities and stock, when required to do so.

One quarter per cent. commission will be charged on the sale or purchase of Government Securities and Bank stock, &c., and on realizing Interest and Dividends. But when the proceeds of Government Paper or other stock, or the Interest or Dividends on the same, are to be remitted through the Bank, no commission will be charged.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 9th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXI. OF 1855.

An Act for making better provision for the education of Male Minors and the marriage of Male and Female Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS the existing laws are found insufficient to insure the proper education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, and it is expedient to make further and better provision for the education of such persons and their younger brothers, and for the exercise of a control over the marriages of all Minors under the superintendence of the Court of Wards; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. The general superintendence and control of the education of every Male Minor, whose property has been, or shall be brought, under the management of the Court of Wards, in, and for any part of the Presidency of Fort St. George, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is, or hereafter shall be, in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards, in the Zillah or District wherein such Minor's estate is situate ; or, if such Minor is possessed of immoveable property in different districts, in such one of the Collectors of Revenue of such districts as the said Court of Wards shall select.

General control and superintendence of the education of Male Minor Wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any Minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such Minor shall reside, either with or without his guardian, at the Sudder Station of the district, or at any other place within the said Presidency, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such School or College as to the said Collector may seem expedient ; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said Minor whilst attending such School or College.

Collectors to have power to cause Male Minor Wards to be educated at any School or College.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such Minor at a School or College, he shall cause such Minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such Minor, or at the Sudder Station, or elsewhere within the said Presidency, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such Minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Or in certain cases to cause such Wards to be educated by a private tutor.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any Male Minor Ward under the provisions of this Act, for College or School fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home, or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate, in the same manner as other expenses incurred under the authority, or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act to be paid out of the profits of the Ward's estate.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the Minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards.

Court of Wards to have power to remove guardians for disobedience to orders passed by a Collector under this Act.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship, and every guardian, appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities, as persons originally appointed to be guardians of Minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

Continued liability of guardian removed: powers and responsibilities of new guardian.

VII. The right to the custody of the person of any Male Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is hereby vested in the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such Minor, or, in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such Minor under the provisions of this Act.

The right to the custody of the person of a Male Minor to be vested in guardian appointed by the Court of Wards, or, failing him, in the Collector.

VIII. Whenever a Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, has a younger brother or brothers entitled to maintenance at the charge of the estate, all the powers and provisions hereinbefore contained for promoting the education of such Minor are hereby declared and made applicable to such younger brother or brothers.

The foregoing Sections applicable also to the younger brothers of Wards.

IX. Whoever knowingly aids or abets the marriage of any Minor, whose property is under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or the marriage of a younger brother or sister of such Minor, without the leave of the Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards to such marriage first had and obtained, shall, on conviction before a Court of Session, upon the prosecution of such Collector, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand Rupees, or to imprisonment not exceeding the term of six months, with or without hard labour.

Penalty for abetting marriage of Ward without leave of Collector.

X. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Court of Wards.

Appeal from the orders of a Collector to lie to a Court of Wards.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXII. OF 1855.

An Act for the Regulation of Ports and Port-dues.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the safety of Vessels, and for the convenience of traffic in the several Ports within the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, and in navigable Rivers and Channels leading to such Ports, and for the improvement, maintenance, and good government of such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; also to regulate the levy of Port-dues, or charges in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels, in order to defray the cost of such improvement, maintenance, and good government; and to punish the unlawful use of certain flags and colors in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; and whereas it is expedient to abolish the Anchorage dues heretofore levied in the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Section XXI. of Act I. of 1852 and Schedule C. appended to that Act are hereby repealed.

Repeal of part of Act I. of 1852.

II. Regulation VII. 1801 of the Bengal Code; so much of Regulation II of 1810 of the Bombay Code as is still in force; Section XII Regulation III. 1833 of the Bengal Code; Act XIII of 1839; Section XXXIX of Act I of 1852; Sections XLII and XLIII of Act XIII of 1852; and Act XI of 1853, so far as it relates to the removal of any obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance affecting, or likely to affect, the navigation of the Port of Bombay—shall cease to be in force in any Port, River, or Channel in which the same respectively are now in force, from the time when such Port, River, or Channel shall be declared to be subject to this Act.

Operation of certain laws to cease in Ports, &c. declared subject to this Act.

III. The Local Government of any part of the said Territories may, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, declare any Port within that part of the said Territories to be subject to this Act; and any navigable River or Channel leading to that Port to be subject to this Act. When any such Port or navigable River or Channel has been so declared to be subject to this Act, all the provisions of this Act, except such as are hereinafter made specially applicable to certain Ports by order of the Local Government, shall have effect in that Port or navigable River or Channel.

To what places this Act applies.

IV. Every declaration, by which any Port, navigable River, or Channel shall be made subject to this Act, shall define the limits of such Port, navigable River, or Channel; and such limits shall extend always up to high-water mark, and may include any piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, and other works made for any of the purposes mentioned in the preamble of this Act,

Limits of such places how to be fixed.

whether within or without the line of high-water mark, and (subject to any rights of private property therein) any portion of the shore or bank within fifty yards of high-water mark.

Limits how to be altered.

V. The Local Government may from time to time, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, alter the limits of such Port, River, or Channel.

Appointment of Conservator.

VI. The Local Government shall appoint an Officer to be Conservator of every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act. In Ports where there is a Master Attendant, such Master Attendant shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there is no Master Attendant, but where there is a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there are both a Master Attendant and a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master and his Assistants shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of the Master Attendant and his Assistants. The Conservator shall be subject to the control of the Local Government, or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

Local Government empowered to make Port-rules.

VII. The Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may from time to time make such Port-rules, not inconsistent with this Act, as it may think necessary for any of the following purposes, namely,

Entering or leaving Port.

1. For regulating the time at which, and the manner in which, vessels shall enter into or go out of any Port subject to this Act.

Berths of vessels.

2. For regulating the berths and stations to be occupied by vessels in any such port,

Striking yards, &c.

3. For striking the yards and top-masts, and for rigging in the jib and driver-booms, of vessels in any such Port, whenever it may be proper so to do.

Removal of anchors, &c.

4. For the removal or proper hanging or placing of anchors, spars, and other things, in or attached to vessels in any such Port.

Taking in or discharging ballast.

5. For regulating vessels whilst taking in or discharging ballast or cargo, or any particular kind of cargo, in any such Port, River, or Channel, and the stations to be occupied by vessels whilst so engaged.

Keeping free passage.

6. For keeping free passages of such width as may be deemed necessary within any such Port, River, or Channel, and along or near to the piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, moorings, and other works in or adjoining to the same; and for marking out the spaces so to be kept free.

Regulating the anchoring.

7. For regulating the anchoring, fastening, mooring, and unmooring of vessels in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Moving and warping.

8. For regulating the moving and warping of all vessels within any such Port, and the use of warps therein.

Use of mooring buoys.

9. For regulating the use of the mooring buoys, chain and other moorings in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Rates for use of mooring buoys.

10. For fixing, from time to time, the rates to be paid for the use of such moorings, when belonging to the East India Company, or of any boat hawser, or other thing belonging to the said Company.

Cargo Boats, &c.

11. For regulating cargo and other boats, and catamarans plying for hire in any such Port: Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorize the Local Government to fix the price to be charged for the use of any such boat or catamaran.

Fires and lights.

12. For regulating the use of fires and lights within any such Port.

Signal light.

13. For enforcing and regulating the use of signal lights by vessels at night in any such Port, River, or Channel.

Publication of Orders of a Local Government.

VIII. Every declaration and order of a Local Government, which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be published in the Official Gazette of that Government, or, where there is no Official Gazette, in such other public manner as that Government may order; and a copy thereof shall be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Office of the Conservator of every Port to which such order shall relate, and in the Custom House, if any, of every such Port.

Penalty for disobedience to rules.

IX. If any person shall disobey any such order, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every offence.

Conservator empowered to give directions for certain specified purposes.

X. The Conservator of any Port subject to this Act may, in respect of any vessel within such Port, River, or Channel, give directions for carrying into effect any Port-rule in force within such Port.

Penalties for disobedience to orders of Conservator.

XI. If any person shall wilfully, and without lawful excuse, refuse or neglect to obey any lawful direction of such Conservator after notice thereof shall have been given to him, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and a further sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every day on which he shall wilfully continue to disobey such direction; and in case of such refusal or neglect, it shall be lawful for the said Conservator to do, or to cause to be done all such acts as shall be reasonable, or necessary for the purpose of carrying such direction into execution, and to hire and employ proper persons for that purpose; and all reasonable expenses, which shall be incurred in doing such acts, shall be paid and borne by the person or persons so offending. Any written notice of a direction given under this Act, which shall be left for the Master of any vessel with any person employed on board thereof, or which shall be affixed on a conspicuous place on board of such vessel, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been given to the Master thereof.

Expenses caused thereby to be paid by the person offending.

Service of written notice.

Special Rule.

Vessels in certain cases not to be moved without having a pilot, &c., or the permission of the Harbour Master.

XII In every Port subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by any order of the Local Government, it shall be unlawful to move any vessel of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards, without having a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master on board; or to move a vessel of any burthen less than 200 tons and exceeding 100 tons, without having on board a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master, unless authority in writing so to do has been obtained from the Conservator or some Officer empowered by such Conservator to give such authority; and if any vessel shall, except in a case of urgent necessity, be removed contrary to the provisions of this Section, the Master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence, unless the Master of the vessel shall, upon application to the proper Officer, be unable to procure a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master to go on board the said vessel.

Exception.

Penalty.

Master to permit warps to be made fast to his vessel.

XIII. The Master of any vessel in any Port subject to this Act shall, when required so to do by the Conservator, permit warps to be made fast to such vessel, for the purpose of warping any other vessel in the Port, and shall not allow any such warp to be let go, until required so to do; and any Master offending against the provisions of this Section shall be liable, for every such offence, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty.

Penalty for leaving out hawser, &c. after sun-set.

XIV. If the Master of any vessel shall cause or suffer any warp or hawser, attached to his vessel, to be left out in any such Port after sun-set, in such a manner as to endanger the safety of any boat or other vessel navigating in the said Port, he shall be liable to a penalty for every such offence not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Conservator may, in case of necessity, cut ropes, &c.

XV. The Conservator of any such Port may, in case of urgent necessity, cut, or cause to be cut, any warp, rope, cable, or hawser, which shall endanger the safety of any vessel in such Port, or at or near to the entrance thereof.

Penalties for causing obstruction or public nuisance.

XVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, cause any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, or shall cause any public nuisance affecting or likely to affect such navigation, every such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and also to pay all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in abating or removing such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment; and the Conservator, or any Magistrate having jurisdiction over the offence, may cause such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment to be abated and removed.

Any floating timber, &c., or any obstruction on shore within the limits of the Port, to be removed at the expense of owner.

XVII. The Conservator may remove, or cause to be removed, any timber or raft, floating or being in any part of any such Port, which shall impede the free navigation of such Port; or any thing which shall obstruct or impede the lawful use of any pier, jetty, landing-place, wharf, quay, dock, mooring, or other work, on any part of the shore or bank which has been declared to be within the limits of such Port, and is not private property; and the owner of any such timber or raft or other thing shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of such removal.

Expenses of removal may be recovered as a penalty.

XVIII. If the owner of any such timber or raft, or the person who has caused any such obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance as in either of the two last preceding Sections mentioned, shall neglect to pay the expense of the removal thereof, within one week after demand, or within fourteen days after such removal shall have been notified in the Official Gazette of the Presidency, or in such other manner as the Local Government by any general or special order may direct, such expenses may be recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and the Conservator may cause such timber, raft, or other thing, or the materials of any nuisance or obstruction so removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by Public Auction, and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of such sale; and shall pay the surplus of such proceeds, or deliver so much of the said timber or other materials as shall remain unsold, to the owner or other person entitled to receive the same; and, if no such person appear, shall cause the same to be kept and deposited in such manner as the Local Government shall direct; and may, if necessary, from time to time, realize the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of such sale, by a further sale of so much of the said timber or other materials as may remain unsold.

Timber, &c. may be sold.

Proceeds how to be dealt with.

Obstructions lawfully made, how to be removed.

XIX. If any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel, subject to this Act, shall have been lawfully made, or shall have become lawful by reason of the long continuance of such obstruction or impediment or otherwise, the Conservator shall report the same for the information of the Local Government and shall, with the sanction of such Government, cause the same to be removed or altered, making to the person or persons who suffer damage by such removal or alteration reasonable compensation for the same. If any dispute arise concerning such compensation, the matter in dispute shall be determined according to the laws now or hereafter to be in force in the Presidency or place within which such Port, River, or Channel is situate relating to the determination of like disputes in the case of land required for public purposes.

Compensation how to be determined.

Penalty for injuring buoys, &c.

XX. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse lift, injure, loosen, or set adrift any buoy, beacon, or mooring, fixed or laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, he shall for every such offence be liable, in addition to the payment of the amount of damages done, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Notice to be given to Conservator, if vessel gets foul of Government moorings.

XXI. If any vessel shall hook or get foul of any of the buoys or mooring laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any such Port, River, or Channel, the Master of such vessel shall not, nor shall any other person, except in the case of emergency, lift such buoy or mooring for the purpose of unhooking or getting clear from the same, without the assistance of the Conservator, and the Conservator, immediately on receiving notice of such accident, shall assist and superintend the clearing of such vessel; and the Master of such vessel shall, upon demand, pay such reasonable expense as may be incurred in clearing the same. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty.

Penalty for wilfully loosening a vessel from its moorings.

XXII. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse loosen or remove from its moorings any vessel within any such Port, River, or Channel, without leave or authority from the owner or Master of such vessel, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Conservator may cause any wreck, &c., impeding navigation within the Port.

XXIII. If any vessel shall be wrecked, stranded, or sunk, in any such Port, River, or Channel, so as to impede or be likely to impede the navigation thereof, the Conservator may cause the same to be raised, removed, or destroyed; and, unless the expense of such work shall be repaid within one month after the completion thereof, may recover the same on behalf of the Local Government in the manner provided by Section XXXIX of this Act.

Expense how recoverable.

Penalty for improperly discharging ballast, &c.

XXIV. If any ballast or rubbish, or if any other thing likely to form a bank or shoal, or to be detrimental to navigation, shall, without lawful excuse, be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, or into or upon any place on shore, from which the same shall be liable to be washed into any such Port, River, or Channel, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or land-floods, the person who shall so cast or throw the same, or cause the same to be so cast or thrown as aforesaid, and the Master of any vessel from which the same shall be cast or thrown, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees over and above any expenses which may be incurred in removing the same; but this provision shall not extend to any case in which such ballast or other thing shall be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, with the consent in writing of any Conservator, or within any limits within which such act may be authorized by Government.

Proviso.

Penalty for graving &c., vessel within prohibited limits.

XXV. If any person shall grave, bream, or smoke any vessel in any such Port, contrary to the directions of the Conservator, or at any time or within any limits at or within which such act shall be prohibited by any order of the Local Government, every such person, and also the Master of such vessel, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for boiling pitch, &c., on board a vessel within prohibited limits.

XXVI. If any person shall boil or heat any pitch, tar, resin, dammer, turpentine, oil, or other such combustible matter on board any vessel within any such Port, at any place where such act shall be prohibited by order of the Local Government or contrary to the order or directions of the Conservator, every such person, and also the Master of any vessel on board which such offence shall be committed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for drawing spirits by candle-light, &c.

XXVII. If any person shall, by candle-light, or other artificial light, draw off spirits on board any vessel within any such Port, every such person, and also the Master of every such vessel, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.

Vessels above 200 tons to be provided with a force-pump, &c.

XXVIII. In every such Port to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, every vessel exceeding the burthen of 200 tons shall be provided with a proper force-pump, hose, and appurtenances, for the purpose of extinguishing any fire that may occur on board; and the Master of every such vessel who, after having been required by the Conservator to comply with such provision, shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse so to do for the space of seven days after such requisition, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees.

Penalty.

Vessels not to have powder, &c. exceeding 50 lbs. on board within certain limits to be fixed by Government.

XXIX. The Local Government may, by order, fix the limits within which vessels shall be prohibited from having on board, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any quantity of gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding altogether fifty pounds in weight, whether manifested for delivery or not; and in such case the Local Government shall appoint a proper place of deposit for such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition in excess of the quantity above allowed, and an Officer to receive the same.

Government to appoint place of deposit for powder.

Government to fix the time and manner of landing and shipping powder, &c.

XXX. The Local Government may, in such case, by order, fix the times at or within which, and the manner in which such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition shall be landed and deposited by any vessel inward-bound, and also the times at or within which, and the manner in which the same shall be taken on board any vessel from such place of deposit.

XXXI. The Master of such vessel shall upon such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition being deposited, make and sign a declaration in writing that there is not then, to his knowledge or belief, on board such vessel, any gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition exceeding the weight of fifty pounds; and in case such Master shall knowingly make any false declaration with respect to any of the matters aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Master to make declaration.

Penalty.

XXXII. The Officer with whom such gunpowder or other combustible ammunition shall be deposited, shall give a receipt for the same to the Master or other person making the deposit, and he shall be accountable to such Master or other person for the re-delivery of the same.

Officer to give receipt and to account for powder deposited.

XXXIII. If any vessel shall be prevented by stress of weather from landing or depositing such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, in excess of the quantity allowed as aforesaid, the Master or owner of such vessel shall, so soon as the weather may permit, land and deposit the same at the place so appointed as aforesaid, or shall forthwith give notice to the Conservator, or other Officer who shall be named for that purpose by any order of the Local Government, of his having such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition on board, and shall obey his directions relating to the same.

If by stress of weather powder is not landed, notice must be given thereof.

XXXIV. The Local Government may also, in respect to such Port, by order, fix the times and places at which, and the manner in which, vessels outward-bound, requiring to take in any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding the quantity above-mentioned, shall take in the same, whether such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, shall have been previously landed from such vessel or not.

Time, &c., for vessels outward-bound to take in powder may be fixed by Government.

XXXV. The Master of any vessel which shall have on board any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence; and all gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition which shall be on board any vessel, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be forfeited to Government, and may be seized by the Conservator, or by any Collector of Customs, or by any Custom House Officer, or other Officer authorized in that behalf by any general or special order of the Local Government, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any gunpowder, rockets or other ammunition belonging to Government, or carried for the use of troops of Her Majesty or of the Honorable East India Company on board of any such vessel.

Penalties for having prohibited powder, &c. on board.

Exception.

XXXVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, discharge any gun, musket, or other fire-arm in any Port subject to this Act, or on or from the landing-places, piers, wharfs, or quays thereof, except a gun loaded only with gunpowder for the purpose of making a signal of distress, or for such other purpose as may be allowed by the Local Government, such person shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

Guns not to be discharged in Port.

Exception.

Penalty.

XXXVII. In every Port, River, or Channel, subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, unless duly authorized by the Conservator, shall creep or sweep for anchors, cables, or other stores, lost or supposed to be lost, in such Port, River, or Channel. Every person offending against this provision shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.
Unauthorized person not to search for lost anchors or stores.

Penalty.

XXXVIII. If any anchors, wreck, stores, or other property shall be recovered by any Officer employed by the Local Government for that purpose, from the bed of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, the Local Government shall be entitled to receive a reasonable sum for salvage, having regard to the place of recovery. A registry shall be kept of all anchors, wreck, or other property so recovered, in such manner, and at such place or places as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall be open to public inspection at reasonable office hours, except on Sundays and such holidays as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall contain a description of such property, and of the times and places where the same shall have been recovered.

Salvage payable for wreck, &c.

Register to be kept.

XXXIX. If the property recovered under the last preceding Section, or by a Conservator acting under Section XXIII of this Act, is unclaimed, or if the person claiming the same refuses to pay the amount due to the Local Government in respect thereof, such property, if of a perishable nature, may be sold forthwith; and if not of a perishable nature, may be sold at any period, not less than six months after the recovery thereof, by public Auction; and on the realization of the proceeds, the amount due to the Local Government for salvage, or for the expenses incurred under Section XXIII as aforesaid, shall be deducted therefrom, and credited to the Local Government, and the balance shall be paid to the person entitled to the property recovered, or if no such person shall appear and claim the same, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to any person who may thereafter establish his right to the same.

Property recovered may in certain cases be sold.

Proceeds how to be applied.

XL. In every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, without the permission of the Conservator, shall remove or carry away any rock, stones, shingle, gravel, or soil, or any artificial protection from any part of the Bank or Shore of such Port, River, or Channel; and no person shall sink or bury in any part of such Bank or Shore, whether the same be public or private property, any mooring-post, anchor, or any other thing which is likely to injure, or to be used so as to injure such Bank or Shore, except with the permission of the said Conservator, and with the aid or under the inspection of such person or persons (if any) as he may appoint to take part in or overlook the performance of such work. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence, and to pay the expenses of repairing the injury (if any) done to such Bank or Shore.

Special Rule.
Removing stones, &c., or injuring shores of Port, prohibited.

Penalty.

XLI. The dues and fees now usually collected at the several Ports within the said Territories may, during the period of one year from the time of the passing of this Act, be collected at such Ports respectively. No Port-dues or fees shall hereafter be levied in any such Port, except under the authority of this Act or of an Act hereafter to be passed for fixing the amount thereof; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the levy, as heretofore, of light-duties under Regulation VI of 1831 of the Bombay Code and Act XIII of 1854, or of fines or duties payable under Act XXVII of 1850.

Levy of Port-dues.

XLII. The Local Government may, from time to time, vary the rate at which Port-dues and fees shall be levied in any such Port, River, or Channel, in such manner as, having regard to the receipts and charges on account of that port, it may deem expedient, by reducing or raising the dues and fees, or any of them; provided that the rates shall not in any case exceed the amount authorised to be taken by this or any subsequent Act.

Local Government may vary the Port-dues.

Proviso.

XLIII. The Local Government may also, during the period of one year after the passing of this Act, remit altogether or reduce the rate of dues and fees now usually collected on any particular description of vessels.

Local Government may also remit or reduce Port-dues on any vessels during the period of one year after the passing of this Act.

XLIV. For every Port at which Port-dues shall be levied under this or any subsequent Act, a distinct account, to be called the Account of the Port Fund of the Port to which it relates, shall be kept by such Officer as the Local Government may appoint for that purpose. This account shall show in complete detail the receipts and charges of the Port; and an abstract statement of every such account shall be published annually, as soon after the 1st of May of each year as may be practicable, in which statement the balance at the close of the year at the credit or debit of the Port shall be shown. If, for any of the purposes of this Act, an advance of money shall have been or shall be made by Government on account of any Port subject to this Act, simple interest upon that advance, or upon so much of it as remains or shall remain unrepaid, at such rate as the Governor General in Council may determine, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account thereof; all expenses, including the pay and allowances of all persons upon the establishment of the Port, the cost of buoys, beacons, lights, and all other works maintained chiefly for the benefit of vessels being in, or entering, or leaving the Port, or passing through the Rivers or Channels leading thereto, but excluding receipts and expenses on acount of Pilotage, incurred for the sake of every such Port, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account of that Port. And all money, including salvage money, proceeds of waifs, and fines, received under this Act, at or on account of every such Port, shall be credited in the Port Fund Account of that Port.

Distinct accounts of Port-dues to be kept, and an abstract thereof to be published.

XLV. The Collector of Customs at every such Port, or such other Officer as the Local Government shall appoint, shall collect the Port-dues above-mentioned. The Officer to whom any such Port-dues shall be paid shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing under his hand, describing the name of his office, the port or place at which the same shall be paid, and the name, tonnage, and other proper description of the vessel in respect of which such payment shall have been made.

Collection of Port-dues.

Voucher to be given.

XLVI. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival, within the limits of any such Port, of any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the Master of such vessel shall report such arrival to the Conservator of such Port; and if any Master of a vessel shall, without lawful excuse, fail to make such report within the time aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Master to report the arrival of vessel to Harbour Master.

Penalty.

XLVII. If any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act shall be in any such Port, without proper marks on the stem and stern posts thereof for denoting the draught of such vessel, the Conservator may, in any case in which it shall be necessary to ascertain the draught of such vessel, cause the same to be ascertained by means of the operation of hooking, and the Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such operation.

Conservator may in certain cases ascertain the draught, and charge the expense thereof to the Master.

XLVIII. In order to ascertain the tonnage of any vessel liable to pay Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the following Rules shall be observed:—

Tonnage of vessel liable to Port-dues how to be ascertained

Clause 1.—If such vessel be a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, the Conservator may require the owner or Master of such vessel, or any person having possession of the register of such vessel, to produce such register for inspection; and if any such Master or other person shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to produce such register as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees. If any such owner, Master, or other person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the Conservator as to what is the true tonnage of the vessel in respect of which such Port-dues shall be payable, it shall be lawful for the Conservator to cause such vessel to be measured, and the tonnage thereof to be ascertained; and in such case, the owner or Master of such vessel shall also be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement.

If registered.

Clause 2.—If such vessel be not a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, and the owner or Master thereof shall fail to satisfy the Conservator as to what is the true tonnage of such vessel, according to the mode of measurement prescribed by the law in force for the time being for regulating the measurement of British registered vessels, the Conservator shall cause such vessel to be measured, and the tonnage thereof, according to the mode aforesaid, to be ascertained; and in such case, the owner or Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement.

If not registered.

XLIX. If the Master of any vessel, in respect of which any Port-dues, fees, or charges shall be payable under this or any subsequent Act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same, or any part thereof, on demand, the Collector of Customs, or other person authorized to collect such Port-dues or charges, may distrain or arrest, of his own authority, such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount due shall be paid; and in case any part of the said Port-dues or charges, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, shall remain unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment so made, the Collector of Customs, or other such person as aforesaid, may cause the vessel or other thing so distrained or arrested to be sold, and with the proceeds of such sale may satisfy the Port-dues, charges, and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid, rendering the surplus (if any) to the Master of such vessel, upon demand.

On refusal to pay Port-dues, &c., the Collector may distrain and sell.

L. The Officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant a Port clearance for any vessel, shall not grant such Port clearance, until the owner, agent, or Master of that vessel, or some other person, shall have paid all Port-dues, fees, and charges to which such vessel, or the owner or Master of such vessel in respect thereof shall be liable under this or any subsequent Act.

No Port clearance to be granted until dues, &c., are paid.

LI. The Conservator or any of his Assistants may, whenever he shall suspect that any offence has been or is about to be committed in any vessel contrary to this Act, or whenever it is necessary for him so to do in the discharge of any duty imposed upon him by this Act; and the Collector of Customs or other Officer appointed to collect any Port-dues or other charges payable in respect of any vessel under this or any subsequent Act, may, whenever it is necessary so to do, for the performance of any duty imposed upon such Collector or other Officer under this Act, either alone or with any other person or persons, go on board any vessel within the limits of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act.

Conservator, &c. may go on board any vessel in discharge of his duty.

If the Master or other person in charge of such vessel shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to allow any such Conservator, or any of his Assistants, or any such Collector of Customs, or other Officer or person, to enter such vessel for the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Act, he shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for preventing entry.

LII. If any person shall wilfully obstruct or hinder any Officer in the execution of any duty imposed, or power conferred by this Act, or shall assault or ill-treat him in the discharge of such duty, or in the exercise of such power, such person shall, for every such offence, be subject to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for obstructing Officer in discharge of his duty &c.,

LIII. All acts, orders, or directions by this Act authorized to be done or given by any Conservator, may, subject to his control, be done or given by any Harbour Master or any Assistant of such Conservator or Harbour Master. And any person hereby authorized to do any act may call to his aid such assistance as may be necessary.

Powers of Assistant Conservator, of Harbour Master, and of Assistant Harbour Master.

LIV. If any vessel belonging to any of Her Majesty's subjects, or sailing under British colors, shall hoist, carry, or wear, within the limits of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any flag, jack, pendant, or colors, the use whereof on board such vessel shall have been prohibited by the Statute 17 and 18 Victoria Chapter 104, or any other Statute now or hereafter to be in force, or by any Proclamation made or to be made in pursuance of any such Statute, or by any of Her Majesty's Regulations in force for the time being, the Master of such vessel shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees; and such penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty which may be recoverable under the said Statute, or any future Statute to be made in that behalf; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Indian Navy, within the limits of such Port, River, or Channel, or for the Conservator of such Port, to enter on board any such vessel, and to seize and take away any flag, jack, pendant, or color so unlawfully hoisted, carried, or worn on board the same.

Penalty for hoisting unlawful colors in Port.

LV. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate. And in additon to the means prescribed by Act II of 1839, the provisions of which are hereby extended to all penalties imposed under this Act, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate, by Warrant under his hand, to cause the amount of any such penalty imposed upon the owner or Master of any vessel for any offence committed on board of such vessel, or in the management thereof, or otherwise in relation thereto, whereof such owner or Master shall be convicted, to be levied by distress and sale of such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture thereof, or so much thereof as shall be necessary.

Offences how punishable and penalties how to be recovered.

LVI. In case of any conviction under this Act, the convicting Magistrate may order the offender to pay the costs of such conviction, in addition to any penalty or expenses to which he may be liable. Such costs may be assessed by the Magistrate, and may be levied and recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Costs of conviction.

Damages, &c. payable under this Act, how to be ascertained and recovered.

LVII. In every case in which any person shall be liable, under the provisions of this Act, to pay any sum of money, damages, or expenses not exceeding One Thousand Rupees, the same may be recovered and levied in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and, if necessary, the amount thereof may be fixed and assessed by the Magistrate before whom the case shall be tried.

Costs of Distress.

LVIII. In any case in which any penalty, damages, or expenses shall be levied under this Act, by distress and sale, the costs of such distress and sale may be levied in addition to such penalty, damages, or expenses, and in the same manner.

Magistrate to determine the amount to be levied in case of dispute.

LIX. If any dispute shall arise concerning the amount leviable by any distress or arrestment by virtue of this Act, or the charges or costs payable under the last preceding Section, the person making such distress or using such arrestment may detain the goods distrained or arrested, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, until the amount to be levied shall have been determined by a Magistrate, who, upon application made to him for that purpose, shall have power to determine such amount, and to award such costs to be paid by either of the parties to the other of them, as he shall think reasonable; and payment of such costs, if not paid on demand, shall be enforced in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Act not to extend to vessels of war, nor to affect any private right of property, nor any Customs law or regulation.

LX. Nothing in this Act shall extend to any vessel belonging to, or in the service of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, or to any vessel of war belonging to any Foreign Prince or State; nor to deprive any person of any right of property or other private right, except as hereinbefore expressly provided; nor to affect any law or regulation relative to the Customs; nor any order or direction which shall have been lawfully made or given in pursuance of the provisions of any such law or regulation.

Indemnity to East India Company against default of Harbour Master, Pilot, &c.

LXI. The East India Company shall not be answerable for any act or default of any Master Attendant, Harbour Master, or other Conservator of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act; or of any Pilot; or of any Deputy, or Assistant of any of the Officers above-mentioned; or of any person acting under the authority or directions of any such Officer or Assistant; done within the limits of such Port, River, or Channel; nor for any damage or injury sustained by any vessel in consequence of any defect in any of the moorings, hawsers, or other things belonging to the said Company, within the said limits, which may be used by such vessel. Provided that nothing in this Section shall protect the East India Company from an action in respect of any act done by or under the express order or sanction of Government.

Proviso.

Interpretation of word "Magistrate" in this Act.

LXII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Justice of the Peace of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, or for the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, a Joint Magistrate, and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and also any Deputy or Assistant Magistrate to the extent of the powers of such Deputy or Assistant Magistrate.

Jurisdiction over offences beyond the local limits of jurisdiction.

LXIII. Whereas divers Ports and navigable Rivers may be situated partly within the jurisdiction of one Magistrate, and partly within that of another, by reason whereof doubts may arise upon questions of jurisdiction over offences which may be committed contrary to this Act; it is therefore enacted that, if any person shall be guilty of an offence against the provisions of this Act, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, such offence shall be punishable by any Magistrate having jurisdiction over any district or place adjoining such Port, River, or Channel, or adjoining either side of that part of the navigable River or Channel in which such offence shall be committed; and that such Magistrate may exercise all the powers of a Magistrate under this Act, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such offence had been committed locally within the limits of his jurisdiction, notwithstanding the offence may not have been committed locally within such limits; and in case any such Magistrate shall exercise the jurisdiction hereby vested in him, the offence shall be deemed, for all purposes, to have been committed locally within the limits of his jurisdiction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LXIV. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Construction of Act.

LXV. In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in any special provision thereof, or in the context, repugnant to such construction, the words "Local Government" shall be deemed to mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company in which the Port, River, or Channel in question is situated. The word "Vessel" shall include any thing made for the conveyance by water of human beings or of property. The word "Master," when used in relation to any vessel, shall mean and include any person having for the time being the charge, or command, or control of such vessel.

ACT No. XXIII. OF 1855.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the administration of the Estates of deceased persons charged with money by way of Mortgage.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Law, under which the real and personal assets of deceased persons subject to the English Law are administered, should be amended; It is enacted as follows :—

Mortgage debts on property descending or devised, how to be discharged.

I. After this Act shall have come into operation, if any person shall die seised of, or entitled to any estate or interest in any land or other hereditaments within the Territories in the possession of, and under the Government of the East India Company, which shall, at the time of his death, be charged with the payment of any sum or sums of money by way of mortgage, and such person shall not by his will or deed or other document have signified any contrary or other intention, the heir or devisee to whom such land or hereditaments shall descend or be devised shall not be entitled to have the mortgage debt discharged or satisfied out of the personal estate or any other real estate of such person, but the land or hereditaments so charged shall, as between the different persons claiming through or under the deceased person, be primarily liable to the payment of all mortgage-debts with which the same shall be charged, every part thereof, according to its value, bearing a proportionate part of the mortgage-debts charged on the whole thereof: Provided always,

Proviso as to the right of mortgagee to full satisfaction from the personal estate of the deceased.

that nothing herein contained shall affect or diminish any right of the mortgagee of such lands or hereditaments to obtain full payment or satisfaction of his mortgage-debt, either out of the personal estate of the person so dying as aforesaid or otherwise: Provided also that nothing herein contained

Proviso as to claims made prior to this Act.

shall affect the rights of any person claiming under, or by virtue of any will, deed, or document already made, or to be made, before this Act shall have come into operation.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 13th August 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXIV. OF 1855.

An Act to substitute penal servitude for the punishment of Transportation in respect of European and American Convicts, and to amend the Law relating to the removal of such Convicts.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by reason of the difficulty of providing a place to which Europeans or Americans can, with safety to their health, be sent for the purpose of undergoing sentences of transportation or of imprisonment for long terms, it has become expedient to substitute other punishment for that of Transportation, and to amend the law relating to the removal of European and American Convicts for the purpose of imprisonment; It is enacted as follows :—

No European or American to be sentenced to transportation.

I. After the commencement of this Act, no European or American shall be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any Court within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, to be transported.

Terms of penal servitude instead of the present terms of transportation.

II. Any person who, but for the passing of this Act, would, by any Law now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, in any part of the said territories, be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any such Court, to be transported, shall, if a European, or American, be liable to be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude for such term as hereinafter mentioned.

The terms of penal servitude to be awarded by any sentence or order, instead of the term of transportation to which any such offender would, but for the passing of this Act, be liable, shall be as follows: (that is to say)—

Instead of transportation for seven years, or for a term not exceeding seven years, penal servitude for the term of four years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding seven years and not exceeding ten years, penal servitude for any term not less than four and not exceeding six years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding ten years and not exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding eight years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding ten years.

Instead of transportation for the term of life, penal servitude for the term of life. And in every case where, at the discretion of the Court, one of any two or more of the terms of transportation hereinbefore mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like discretion to award one of the two or more terms of penal servitude hereinbefore mentioned, in relation to such terms of transportation.

Discretion of Courts as to alternative punishments not to be affected

III. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall interfere with or affect the authority or discretion of any Court in respect of any punishment which such Court may now award or pass on any offender other than transportation; but where such other punishment may be awarded at the discretion of the Court instead of transportation or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded instead of, or (as the case may be) in addition to, the punishment substituted for transportation by this Act.

Effect of pardon granted upon condition of penal servitude.

IV. If any offender sentenced by any Court within the said territories to the punishment of death shall have mercy extended to him, upon condition of his being kept in penal servitude for life, or for any term of years, all the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such offender in the same manner as if he had been lawfully sentenced under this Act to the term of penal servitude specified in the condition.

The Executive Government may direct Europeans or Americans under sentence of transportation to be kept in penal servitude.

V. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, or for the person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of any Presidency or place in which a European or American has been lawfully sentenced by any Court to be transported, to order such person to be kept in penal servitude for the shortest term of penal servitude substituted by this Act for a term of transportation of the same extent as that to which the offender was sentenced, or that portion thereof which he shall not have undergone, provided that no person shall be kept in penal servitude under the provisions of this Section after the expiration of the term of transportation to which he was sentenced.

Term of penal servitude in such case.

Persons under sentence of penal servitude where to be sent and how to be dealt with.

VI. Every person who, under this Act, shall be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, may, during the term of the sentence or order, be confined in any such prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories as the Governor General of India in Council shall, by any General Order, from time to time direct; and may, during such time, be kept to hard labour; and such person may, until he can conveniently be removed to such prison or place of confinement, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, and dealt with in all other respects in the same manner as persons sentenced by the convicting Court to imprisonment with hard labour may, for the time being, by law be dealt with. Provided that the time of such intermediate imprisonment, and the time of removal from one prison to another, shall be taken and reckoned in discharge or part discharge of the term of the sentence.

Intermediate imprisonment.

Proviso.

All Acts, &c., respecting convicts under sentence of transportation or imprisonment with hard labour made applicable for the purposes of this Act.

VII. All Acts and Regulations now in force within any part of the said territories, with respect to convicts under order or sentence of transportation, or under order or sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, shall, so far as may be consistent with the express provisions of this Act, be construed to extend and be applicable to persons under any order or sentence of penal servitude made or passed under this Act.

Removal of European or American convicts under sentence of imprisonment from one prison to another.

VIII. The person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of the Presidency or place in which any European or American convict is imprisoned, under a sentence or order of imprisonment, for a term exceeding one year, whether with or without hard labour, may, with the consent of the Governor General of India in Council, order the removal of such prisoner from the prison or place in which he is confined to any other public prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories; and such order shall be a sufficient authority for imprisoning the convict during the remainder of the term mentioned in the sentence, or any part of such term, in the Jail to which the prisoner is removed.

Governor General in Council may grant a license to be at large to any convict under sentence of penal servitude.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to grant to any convict who may hereafter be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, a license to be at large within the said territories, or in such part thereof as in such license shall be expressed, during such portion of his term of servitude, and upon such conditions in all respects as to the Governor General of India in Council shall seem fit; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council at any time to revoke or alter such license by a like order.

Holder of such license not to be imprisoned, &c.

X. So long as such license shall continue in force and unrevoked, such convict shall not be liable to imprisonment or penal servitude by reason of his sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the terms of such license.

If license revoked, the convict may be apprehended and committed to prison.

XI. In case of the revocation of any such license as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for one of the Secretaries to the Government of India, by order in writing, to signify to any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate that such license has been revoked, and to require such Justice or Magistrate to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the convict to whom such license was granted, and such Justice or Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly; and such warrant may be executed by any officer to whom it may be directed or delivered for that purpose in any part of the said territories, and shall have the same force and effect in any place within such Territories as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice or Magistrate, or other lawful authority having jurisdiction in the place where the same shall be executed; and such convict, when apprehended under such warrant, shall be brought, as soon as he conveniently may be, before the Justice or Magistrate by whom the said warrant shall have been issued, or some other Justice or Magistrate of the same place, or before a Magistrate or Justice having jurisdiction in the zillah or district in which such convict shall be apprehended, and such Justice or Magistrate shall thereupon make out his warrant, under his hand and seal, for the re-commitment of such convict to the prison or place of confinement from which he was released by virtue of the said license, and such convict shall be re-committed accordingly, and shall thereupon be liable to be kept in penal servitude for such further period as, with the time during which he may have been imprisoned under the original sentence or order, and the time during which he may have been at large under an unrevoked license, shall be equal to the period mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Penalty for breach of condition of the license.

XII. If a license be granted under Section IX. of this Act upon any condition specified therein, and the convict to whom the license is granted violate any such condition, or shall go beyond the limits specified in the license, or, knowing of the revocation of such license, shall neglect forthwith to surrender himself, or shall conceal himself, or endeavour to avoid being apprehended, he shall be liable upon conviction to be sentenced to penal servitude for a term not exceeding the full term of penal servitude mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Act not to affect the provisions of certain English Statutes.

XIII. Nothing in this Act is intended to alter or affect the provisions of the 12 and 13 Victoria Chapter 43, or any Act of Parliament passed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland since the 28th of August 1833, or which may hereafter be passed.

What to be deemed proof that a person is a European or an American.

XIV. Any sentence or order upon any person describing him as a European or American shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be conclusive of the fact that such person is a European or American within the meaning of this Act.

Construction of Act.

XV. The word "European," as used in this Act, shall be understood to include any person usually designated a European British subject. Words in the singular number or the masculine gender shall be understood to include several persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction

Commencement of Act.

XVI. This Act shall commence from and after the first day of November 1855.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of November next:—

A Bill for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, Lunatics, and other disqualified persons, in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors, Lunatics, and other disqualified persons, not brought under the superintendence of the Court of Wards: It is enacted as follows:—

Regulations repealed.

I. Regulation I. 1800; Clause 8 and the six following Clauses of Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805; Section V Regulation XVII. 1805; and so much of Sections II and III Regulation V. 1799, and of Clauses 2 and 3 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, as restrict the interference of the Civil Courts in cases of inheritance by Minors or other disqualified proprietors—are repealed. Regulation V. 1827 is declared subject to the modification hereinafter prescribed.

Persons and property of disqualified proprietors subject to jurisdiction of Civil Court.

II. Except in the case of proprietors of estates paying revenue to Government, who may be taken under the protection of the Court of Wards, the care of the persons of all Minors, Lunatics, and other persons, not being European British subjects, who may be incapable of managing their affairs, and the charge of their property, of whatsoever description it may be and whensoever acquired, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court.

General Administrator to be appointed.

III. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces respectively, to constitute the public Curator appointed under Section XIX Act No. XIX of 1841, to be General Administrator; or if no public Curator has been appointed, to appoint a General Administrator for any District or number of Districts; the General Administrator shall give such security as may be prescribed by Government for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Executors and Administrators must apply for Certificate.

IV. Every person who shall claim a right to have charge of property in trust for a Minor or other disqualified proprietor, or to have the care of the persons of Minors or other disqualified proprietors, under a Will or other Deed, or by reason of nearness of kin, or otherwise, shall apply to the Civil Court for a Certificate, and until he shall have obtained such Certificate, shall be incompetent to institute or defend any suit connected with the estate of which he claims the charge, or to give any legal discharge to the debtors of such estate. Should any such person, having charge of property of value exceeding five hundred Rupees, fail to apply for a Certificate within the period of six months from the date on which he took charge thereof; or, in the case of persons now holding such charge, from the date of this Act coming into force; the Court, upon the application of the General Administrator, or other information, shall summon such person, and if the failure be not satisfactorily accounted for, shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator, and shall compel the late Executor or Administrator, or other person in charge of the estate, to make over the property in his hands to the General Administrator, and account to that officer for all monies received and disbursed by him.

Court how to proceed on failure of parties to make application.

If no application be made, General Administrator to apply.

V. Whenever any person shall die, leaving assets of a value exceeding five hundred Rupees, and his legal heir or heirs may be disqualified, by minority, idiotism, or other cause, from taking charge of the estate, if no person shall, within two months after the death of the late proprietor, have applied to the Civil Court for a Certificate, the General Administrator shall make application. When application shall have been made, either by a person interested in the estate, or by the General Administrator, the Court shall inquire summarily into the circumstances, and if it shall appear that the deceased has left a Will, and that the Executors named by him are willing to undertake the trust, or if the next of kin or nearest male relative shall claim a right to administer to the estate, and no objection to such claimant, on the score of incompetency, bad character, or other sufficient ground, be preferred and maintained, the Court shall grant Certificate to such Executor or near relative, and the expenses of the General Administrator, if any, shall be paid out of the estate. If no title to a Certificate be established to the satisfaction of the Court by a person claiming under a Will, or by reason of nearness of kin, the Court shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator.

Inquiry to be made by Court on application.

Application for Certificate to be made in case of lunacy or idiotism.

VI. Whenever any person in possession, or entitled to the possession of property of value exceeding five hundred Rupees, shall be incapable of managing it, by reason of lunacy, idiotism, or other disqualifying natural infirmity, if no application shall have been made to the Court by the next of kin or nearest male relative, the General Administrator shall apply for Certificate. When application shall have been made by any of the aforesaid persons, the Court shall proceed to institute the inquiry prescribed in the next following Section, and if the alleged disqualification shall be established, shall grant Certificate either to the next of kin or nearest male relative, if claim be advanced on the part of such person and no sufficient objection be preferred and maintained; or if such claim be not advanced, or being advanced, be disallowed by the Court—to the General Administrator.

Court how to proceed on application.

Inquiry in case of lunacy, &c., to be made with aid of a jury.

VII. When any person shall be alleged to be disqualified on the ground of lunacy or idiotism, or, in the case of a supposed Minor, if the fact of minority be disputed, the Court shall make inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining the existence of the alleged disqualification, and such inquiry shall be made with the aid of a jury of four respectable inhabitants of the District.

Decision of the Court.

VIII. If the jury be unanimous, or if a majority concur in their finding, the finding of the jury shall be the decision of the Court. If the jury are equally divided, the Judge shall declare his own opinion, and the opinion of the Judge shall rule the decision. The decision of the Court under this Section shall be final and not open to appeal, unless the ground of appeal be a question of law.

Lunatics to be produced annually before the Civil Court.

IX. First.—Persons not born in a state of idiotism, but who may have been declared by the Civil Court disqualified as Lunatics, shall (unless confined in a Public Lunatic Asylum,) be produced annually before the Judge, or oftener if he shall think fit; and if in any case, after hearing anything that may be urged by the person in charge of the estate, the Judge shall be of opinion that the cause of disqualification is removed, he shall cancel the Certificate, and cause the estate to be delivered over to the proprietor.

Disqualified person, or any one on his behalf, may petition the Court.

Second.—Any person who may have been adjudged disqualified, and who may deem the ground of his disqualification removed, or any relative or friend on his behalf, may represent the circumstances by petition to the Civil Court; the Court shall thereupon inquire into the case, and pass such orders, with respect to the charge of the estate, as it may think proper.

General Administrator may refrain from applying for Certificate, but Court may require him to administer.

X. The General Administrator may refrain, at his discretion, from applying for a Certificate, when he may deem such a measure unnecessary or inexpedient. But it shall be competent to the Court, in all cases in which sufficient cause may be shown, to issue a Certificate to the General Administrator, and to require him, by precept, to proceed thereupon in like manner as if he had applied for a Certificate.

Notice of grant of Certificates to be published.

XI. Notice of every Certificate granted by the Civil Court to any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, or to the General Administrator, shall be published in the Calcutta or Agra Gazette, as the case may be, and in the Vernacular Gazette; and the expense of publication shall be charged to the estate.

When Certificate is granted to General Administrator, Guardian to be appointed.

XII. Whenever the Judge of a Civil Court shall grant a Certificate to the General Administrator, he shall, at the same time, appoint a Guardian to take charge of the person and maintenance of the disqualified proprietor. In making such appointment, the Judge may, at his discretion, call upon the General Administrator to nominate a fit person for the office, or may make the selection himself. If the person selected be unwilling to discharge the trust gratuitously, the Judge may fix such an allowance for the Guardian as, under the circumstances of the case, he may think suitable.

When the estate consists of landed property, Certificate may be granted to Collector, who shall appoint a Guardian.

XIII. Whenever the estate to be administered to shall consist, in whole or in part, of landed property, the Judge may, at his discretion, grant a Certificate to the Collector on his application, instead of to the General Administrator; and the Collector, on obtaining such Certificate, shall, with the sanction of the Civil Court, appoint a Guardian to take care of the person of the disqualified proprietor.

When an estate, some of the co-proprietors of which are still Minors, ceases to be subject to the Court of Wards, Civil Court may direct Collector to retain charge of shares and persons of Minors.

XIV. Whenever one or more of the proprietors of an estate, which has come under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards on account of the disqualification of all the proprietors, ceases to be disqualified, and the estate, in consequence, ceases to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, notwithstanding the continued disqualification of one or more of the co-proprietors, the Collector of the District in which the estate is situated, shall represent the fact to the Civil Court; and the Judge of the Court, unless he see sufficient reason to the contrary, shall direct the Collector to retain charge of the persons, and of the share or shares of the property of the still disqualified proprietors, during the continuance of their disqualification, or until such time as it shall be otherwise ordered by the Court. The Collector shall, in such case, appoint a Guardian for the care of the disqualified proprietors, in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section.

Provision for case of estates situated in more than one District.

If the estate be situated in more than one District, the representation to the Civil Court shall be made by the Collector who had the general management of the estate under the Court of Wards, and the orders of the Court of that District shall regulate the course to be followed by the Courts of other Districts, in which portions of the property may be situated.

Proceedings of Collector subject to control of superior Revenue Authorities.

The proceedings of the Collector in the charge of estates under this and the last preceding Sections, shall be subject to the control of the superior Revenue Authorities, in the same manner as are his proceedings in the case of landed property attached by order of the Civil Court.

XV. Whenever the Judge may deem it proper to provide for the administration and management of landed property, under the provisions of Section V Regulation V. 1799 and Clause 5 Section XVI Regulation III. 1803, it shall be lawful for him to direct the General Administrator to take charge of such property, anything contained in Regulation V. 1827 notwithstanding. Provided that, if the Collector shall make application to be placed in charge of the property, or the Judge shall, for any reason, think proper to place it under his management, the Judge may, at his discretion, issue a precept to the Collector, and the Collector shall proceed thereupon, in accordance with the provisions of Section III. of the last mentioned Regulation.

Judge may order General Administrator to take charge of certain property.

Proviso.

XVI. Every Executor and Administrator appointed under this Act, except the Collector, shall, within six months from the date of the Certificate, exhibit and deliver, in open Court, an inventory of the landed property, and of all such sums of money, goods, effects, and things, as he shall have received on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same. And every Executor and Administrator, other than the Collector and the General Administrator, shall furnish annually, within three months from the close of the era current in the District, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the amounts received and disbursed on account of the estate, and the balance in hand. If the account of any estate shall not be furnished within the period above prescribed, the General Administrator shall report to the Court, and the Court shall issue an order to the defaulter for delivery of the account within a certain specified time. The General Administrator shall audit the accounts submitted by Executors and Administrators, and shall receive a commission of one per centum on the sum credited therein. If he finds the accounts to be correct, he shall file them in Court within one month from the date of receiving them, and they shall be open to the inspection of any person who may desire to see them. If he shall see reason to question the accuracy of any accounts, he shall submit them to the Court, with a statement of his objections thereto; and the Court shall inquire summarily into the matter, and pass such orders as it may think proper.

Inventory of property to be submitted. Annual accounts of executions and administrations to be furnished, and audited by General Administrator.

XVII. The General Administrator shall keep separate accounts of each estate, and in every year, on such date as the Court may direct, shall exhibit and deliver in open Court a true Schedule, showing the gross amount of all sums of money received or paid by him on account of each estate in his charge, and the balances remaining in his hands on the day next before the day of delivering such Schedule. An Abstract of the Schedule shall be published in the Calcutta or Agra Gazette as the case may be, and in the Vernacular Gazette. The Civil Court shall, from time to time, with the sanction of the Local Government, appoint an Auditor or Auditors to examine the accounts of the General Administrator, and report to the Court whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the assets are duly invested. If the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to question the accuracy of the accounts, he or they shall report accordingly to the Court, specifying the substance of his or their objections thereto, and the Court shall proceed thereupon as prescribed in the last preceding Section. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this and the last preceding Sections shall preclude any interested party from suing for an account, either by petition as hereinafter provided, or by regular suit, against the General Administrator, or against any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, or against his or their personal representatives.

Accounts of General Administrator to be published, and Auditors appointed to examine them.

XVIII. All sums received by the General Administrator on account of any estate, in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the disqualified proprietor, or of the estate, shall be paid into the public Treasury on account of the estate, and may be invested from time to time in the public Securities. In like manner, if it shall appear, on the audit of the accounts or at any other time, that there is a considerable balance in the hands of any Executor or Administrator, other than the General Administrator, it shall be competent to the Court to direct the same to be invested in the public Securities.

General Administrator to pay proceeds of estates into Treasury. Surplus funds to be invested in public Securities.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any agent, relative, or near friend of any disqualified person as aforesaid, or for any public officer, with the sanction of the Civil Court, at any time during the term of such person's disqualification, to petition the Judge of the Court within whose jurisdiction the land or other property, or the greater part thereof, may be situate, for an account from any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian appointed under this Act, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his personal representative in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the estates then or formerly under his care or management, or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estates.

Any party interested may petition the Court for an account.

XX. On receipt of the petition, the Judge shall summon the opposite party, and inquire into the case in a summary manner, according to the rules of procedure prescribed for the Court of Small Causes by Act No. of 1855, so far as the same may be applicable.

Mode of procedure.

XXI. Having concluded the inquiry, the Judge shall pass such orders as he may think just and proper, and may enforce the same under the general rules in force for the execution of decrees. Every order passed under this Section shall be open to a summary appeal; but if not appealed from within the term limited for such appeals, the original order, or if appeal be preferred, the order passed in appeal, shall be final, and not open to revision or alteration in a regular suit.

Order to be executed as a decree of Court. To be open to summary appeal, and not liable to alteration in regular suit.

XXII. If the disqualification of a person, for whose benefit a suit shall have been instituted under this Act, cease before the final decision thereof, it shall be lawful for any such person to continue the prosecution of such suit on his own behalf.

Continuance of suit after disqualification shall have ceased.

XXIII. The Civil Court may impose a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, on any Executor or Administrator, except the Collector, who may wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver his accounts, or any property in his hands, within the prescribed time, or a time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine by attachment and sale of his property under the rules in force for the execution of decrees of Court, and may also commit the recusant to close custody until he shall consent to deliver such accounts or property.

Penalty for neglect or refusal to deliver accounts or property.

XXIV. The Civil Court, upon proof of incompetency, delinquency, or other sufficient cause established, may remove any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, not being the Collector of the District or the General Administrator, and may appoint the General Administrator or another person in his room; and may compel the person removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all monies received and disbursed by him.

Civil Court may remove Executors, &c.

XXV. No General Administrator shall be removed from office otherwise than by order of Government. If the Judge of any District shall be of opinion that a charge has been established against a General Administrator, which requires his removal from office, he shall report his proceedings to the Sudder Court, and the Sudder Court, if it concur with the Judge, shall refer the case for the orders of Government.

Removal of General Administrator.

XXVI. The Civil Court may permit any Executor, Administrator, or Guardian, not being the Collector of the District or the General Administrator, to resign his trust, and may give him a discharge therefrom on his accounting to his successor, duly appointed, for all monies received and disbursed by him, and making over the property in his hands. If the General Administrator should desire to resign his office, the Judge shall submit his resignation for the orders of Government.

Civil Court may permit resignation of Executors, &c.: resignation of General Administrator to be reported to Government.

XXVII. The General Administrator shall be entitled to a commission of five per centum upon all sums received by him—that is to say, after the audit and passing of his accounts, he shall be allowed to appropriate to himself five per centum annually upon the sum shown by the accounts to have been disbursed by him or paid into the public treasury on account of the estate; provided, however, that it shall be competent to the Local Government to allow the General Administrator a fixed salary, and to direct the amount of the commissions receivable by him to be carried to the public credit.

Remuneration of General Administrator.

XXVIII. Every Guardian appointed by the Civil Court or by the Collector under this Act, who shall have charge of Minors, shall be bound to provide for their education in a suitable manner. The general superintendence and control of the education of such Minors shall be vested in the Civil Court or in the Collector, as the case may be; and the provisions of Act No. XXVI of 1854, for making better provision for the education of Male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, shall, so far as is consistent with the provisions herein contained, be applicable to the Civil Court, or to the Collector, as the case may be, in respect to such Minors, and to every such Guardian.

Guardians of Minors to provide for their education. Act XXVI of 1854 declared applicable.

XXIX. The right to the custody of the persons of Minors, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is, by Section VII Act No. XXVI of 1854, vested in the Guardian appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards. The same right shall extend to Guardians appointed under this Act; and it is hereby declared that the right so conferred by Act No. XXVI of 1854 and by this Act may, and shall, be enforced by the Magistrate on the application of a duly appointed Guardian or his authorized agent.

Guardians to have the custody of their Wards. Provision to this effect in Act XXVI. 1854 to be enforced by Magistrate.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Zillah Judge to refer to any of the subordinate Courts of the District having general jurisdiction, any investigation or inquiry which the Judge or the Civil Court is required or authorized to hold under this Act; and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, all orders and decisions passed by a Judge, or by any subordinate Court, under this Act, shall be open to appeal under the rules in force for appeals, in miscellaneous cases, from the orders of the Judge and the subordinate Courts.

Judge may refer cases to Subordinate Courts. Provisions for appeal.

XXXI. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the day of Commencement of Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 1st September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 1st September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of November next:—

A Bill to explain and amend Regulation X of 1793 and Regulation LII of 1803.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards extends to the property or shares in property of every description, belonging to a disqualified proprietor of an entire estate paying revenue immediately to Government, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed; and whereas it is also expedient that the process prescribed in Section V Regulation X. 1793, and Section IX Regulation LII. 1803 of the Bengal Code, relative to inquiries into the alleged disqualification of proprietors, should be amended and simplified: It is declared and enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

1. Clauses 2, 3, 5, and 6 Section V Regulation X. 1793, and Clause 2 and the four following Clauses, Section IX Regulation LII. 1803, are repealed.

Parts of Regulations repealed.

II. The jurisdiction of the Court of Wards and the provisions contained in Regulation X. 1793 and Regulation LII. 1803, as extended by Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section XXXVI

Jurisdiction of Court of Wards declared to extend to all property of disqualified proprietors.

Regulation XII. 1805, and Section II Regulation VI. 1822, of the Bengal Code, are hereby declared to extend to every description of property, whether moveable or immoveable, belonging to a Ward of the said Court; and the provisions of Section XXV Regulation VII. 1799, and Section XLI Regulation LII. 1803, as extended by Section XXIX Regulation VIII. 1805, Section XXXVI Regulation XII. 1805, and Section II Regulation VI. 1822, shall be applicable to all such immoveable property. Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of joint undivided estates, or portions of such estates, of which any such Ward may be a co-proprietor, in respect of the laws for the recovery of the public revenue and all other demands on the part of Government, recoverable by the same process as arrears of revenue.

Causes of disqualification how to be inquired into.

III. Whenever a Collector shall report the proprietor of an entire estate paying revenue immediately to Government to be disqualified on the ground of minority, and the proprietor or any person on his behalf shall deny that he is under age, and whenever the proprietor of such an estate shall be deemed disqualified on the ground of lunacy, idiotism, or other disqualifying infirmity, the proprietor or other person in his behalf in the one case, and the Collector in the other case, shall represent the circumstances to the Civil Court of the District in which the estate or the greater part thereof may be situated, and the Court shall proceed to make inquiry and pass orders thereon in the manner prescribed in Sections VII and VIII Act No. of 1855; and if the Court adjudge the proprietor to be disqualified, the Collector, on the part of the Court of Wards, shall at once take charge of the person and estate of such proprietor.

Section IX Act No. of 1855 applicable to lunatics under Court of Wards.

IV. The provisions of Section IX Act No. of 1855 shall be applicable to persons adjudged disqualified on the ground of lunacy under this Act.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 8th September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 8th September 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 12th of November next :—

A Bill to abolish the levy of Customs Duty on the Import of Cotton into the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove all restrictions to the importation of Cotton into the North-Western Provinces in the Bengal Presidency; It is enacted as follows :—

Portion of Act repealed.

I. So much of Section II Act XIV. 1843 as prescribes the levy of duties of Customs on the import of Cotton, uncleaned or cleaned, into the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal, is hereby repealed from the day of 1855.

Repeal of so much of Schedule B. Act XIV. 1836 as allows a drawback.

II. So much of Schedule B. Act XIV. 1836 as allows a drawback of the land-frontier duty paid upon Cotton-wool, is hereby repealed from the day of 1856.

Opium Notification.

WITH reference to the Advertisement issued from this Office, under date 6th December 1854, it is hereby notified, that 85 Chests of Behar Opium, of the Sale held on the 10th of August, out of 250 Chests, which were reserved on account of the French Government, not having been cleared, will be re-sold at the Exchange Hall, on Monday, the 10th September 1855, immediately after the conclusion of the Sale of 4,440 Chests advertized for that day.

2. The Conditions of Re-sale will be the same as those of the Sale of the 4,440 Chests referred to.

By Order of the Board of Revenue,

H. V. BAYLEY,

Offg. Junior Secretary.

Fort William,
The 28th August 1855.

Opium Notification.

WITH reference to the Notice issued from this Office, under date the 7th July last, it is hereby notified, that a portion of the 2,613 Chests of the Behar Opium, Provision of 1853-54, returned to the Factory, has been set aside for Abkarree purposes, and that, as it is doubtful whether the balance, which is estimated to give an out-turn of 460 Chests of re-caked and re-packed Opium, will be returned to Calcutta in time for Sale in the current year, the 2,810 Chests of Behar Opium required to complete the quantity of 3,050 Chests advertized for Sale in next December will be supplied from that part of the Provision of 1854-55 which was prepared early in the year. This latter Opium will be open to Public Examination before Sale and will be specified as Opium of 1854-55 when advertized to be sold.

2. Notice of the Sale of next year, at which the 460 Chests of the returned Opium of 1853-54 will be put up, will be given in due course.

By Order of the Board of Revenue,

H. V. BAYLEY,

Offg. Junior Secretary.

Calcutta Collectorate Notice.

THE settlement of the Ground Rent of the Town of Calcutta, under the provisions of Act XXIII. of 1850, having been completed, it is hereby notified, 1st.—That owners of Holdings should lose no time in applying to the Collector for Pottahs.

2nd.—That no fee or gratuity of any kind is leviable or demandable for the preparation or delivery of Pottahs, after settlement.

3rd.—That a petition on plain and not stampt paper, to be presented in person or by Agent, and if by Agent, he must be empowered by a Mooktearnamah written upon a stampt paper of the value of 8 annas, is all that is necessary.

4th.—That on presentation of the petition, a Notice will be published on the Holding and another in the Police Office.

5th.—That on the expiration of a month, after the date of Notice, should there be no claimants, and should it appear that the applicant's name is recorded as owner in the Settlement Register, a Pottah will be immediately granted.

6th.—That in the event of the applicant's name not being found in the Settlement Register, he will be required to connect his Title with that of the party whose name is recorded in the Register, and to exhibit his own Title Deeds, which will be returned to him on the very day that they are exhibited, and a note thereof will be kept in a book, when a Pottah will be granted.

7th.—That in cases when two or more persons apply for Pottah of the same Holding, the party in possession will be entitled to the Pottah, and in cases where the possession of either party appears to be doubtful, or it cannot be satisfactorily ascertained, no Pottah will be issued, the parties being at liberty to contest their rights in the Courts.

8th.—That in case where a Transfer Pottah is applied for, that is, when a Pottah is to be cancelled and a new Pottah granted to a purchaser or descendant of a deceased Holder, a fee of Sicca Rupees 4-0-0 or Company's Rupees 4-4-3 will be taken from the applicant, under the Revenue Board's letter, No. 24, of the 27th June 1851.

Marine Court.

AT a Marine Court, assembled on Wednesday, the 30th day of August, One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-five, under Act No. XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Mate Pilot Griffith George Todd was tried on the following Charges:—

CHARGE.

Mr. Mate Pilot Griffith George Todd, placed under arrest by order of the Superintendent of Marine on the following Charge:—

For breach of duty in the following instances:

First Instance.—Negligence or ignorance in the performance of his duty whilst in pilotage charge of the inward-bound Ship Tubal Cain, whereby that vessel was run aground upon a known obstruction, near the South-eastern entrance of Thornhill's Channel, on the 15th instant, at 3-30 P. M.

Second Instance.—For neglect of duty in not using his best exertions to get the Ship afloat, and abandoning her unnecessarily whilst she continued in a sound and staunch condition.

(Signed) JAS. SUTHERLAND,
Officiating Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM;
Marine Superintendent's Office,
The 23rd August 1855.

FINDING.

The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced on the defence, is of opinion that the defendant, Mr. Mate Pilot G. G. Todd, is Not Guilty of the First Instance of the Charge, and is Guilty of the Second Instance of the Charge.

SENTENCE.

The Court having found Mr. Mate Pilot G. G. Todd Not Guilty of the First Instance of the Charge, and Guilty of the Second Instance of the Charge, do adjudge that Mr. Griffith George Todd, Mate Pilot, do lose four steps in Rank as Mate Pilot, and that his name do stand in the list above that of Mr. Edward H. T. Bull and below that of Mr. Douglas Sandeman.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 29th September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 8th September 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 29th September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXV OF 1855.

An Act to empower the Session Judge of Coimbatore to hold Sessions at Ootacamund on the Neilgherry Hills.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide that persons charged with offences committed on the Neilgherry Hills, for which they are amenable to the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Coimbatore, shall be tried at Ootacamund ; It is enacted as follows :—

Session Judge of Coimbatore empowered to hold Sessions at Ootacamund on the establishment of a subordinate Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation VIII of 1827 of the Madras Code.

I. When the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall establish at Ootacamund on the Neilgherry Hills a subordinate Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation VIII of 1827 of the Code of Fort St. George, it shall be lawful for the Session Judge of Coimbatore to hold Sessions at Ootacamund for the trial of persons committed by that Court for offences subject to his jurisdiction.

Principal Sudder Ameen to give notice of commitment to Session Judge.

II. When the Principal Sudder Ameen of such Court shall commit for trial before the Court of Session for the Zillah of Coimbatore, a prisoner charged with a crime or misdemeanor subject to the jurisdiction of that Court, he shall give immediate notice of the commitment to the Session Judge, and the Session Judge shall, within two months from the date of the commitment, proceed to hold a Court at Ootacamund for the trial of such prisoner ; and if any other prisoners shall have been committed in the meantime, he shall continue the Session of the Court until all such prisoners shall have been tried.

Principal Sudder Ameen vested with certain Criminal powers.

III. It shall be lawful for the Principal Sudder Ameen of the said Court to exercise all the powers of a Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation II of 1827 ; and also, by appointment of the Government of Fort St. George, all the powers of a Joint Magistrate.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 22nd September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 15th September 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 26th of December next :—

A Bill to amend Act No. XI of 1849 and Act No. XIX of 1852.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the office of Commissioner for the superintendence of the Abkaree Revenue, heretofore existing under Act No. XXV of 1840, has been abolished, and it is expedient to make provision for the exercise of the powers and duties vested by Act No. XI of 1849 in the Commissioner of Abkaree ; and whereas it is also expedient to declare the powers of Abkaree Officers to make arrests in certain cases: It is enacted as follows:—

Powers and duties of Commissioner of Abkaree vested in Commissioner of Revenue.

I The Commissioner of Revenue of the Division within which the Town of Calcutta may be situated, shall possess the powers and perform the duties vested by Act No. XI of 1849 in the Commissioner of Abkaree.

Abkaree Officers empowered to make arrests in certain cases.

II. Whenever an Abkaree Officer shall, under Section XIX. Act XI of 1849, or Section XIX. Act XIX of 1852, seize any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, as liable to confiscation, he may also arrest the person in whose possession such liquors or drugs may be found; and all the provisions of the aforesaid Acts relative to arrests, shall be applicable to arrests made under this Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 29th September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 29th September 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 3rd of January next:—

A Bill to remove doubts respecting the liability of real estate within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, to the payment of debts of deceased persons; and to enable executors and administrators to sell and dispose of the same.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove doubts which have arisen, whether estates of deceased persons in immoveable property situate within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, are liable, as assets in the hands of executors and administrators, to the payment of the debts of such deceased persons; and to authorize the sale of real estates by executors or administrators; and to confirm sales of such estates heretofore made by executors or administrators, or under writs of execution in actions against them; It is enacted as follows:—

Any estate in immoveable property to be deemed assets in the hands of executors and dealt with as a chattel real.

I. Whenever any person shall die seised of or entitled to any estate in immoveable property situate within the Settlement aforesaid, such estate shall be deemed assets in the hands of his executors or administrators for the payment of any debt of, or demand against, such deceased person in the ordinary course of administration, and may be dealt with in the same manner as a chattel real.

Such estate may be seized in any suit against a person as executor.

II. In any suit or action now pending, or which shall be brought against any person as executor or administrator of such deceased person, such estate may be seized, sold, or sequestered, or possession thereof may be delivered, under any writ or process, in like manner as it could have been in the life-time of such deceased person.

Every beneficial interest in immoveable property to vest in executor as a chattel real.

III. Every beneficial interest in immoveable property situate within the said Settlement, which shall be transmissible as part of the estate of any person deceased, shall vest in his executor or administrator as a chattel real; and such executor or administrator, or the person beneficially entitled to the same after such executor or administrator shall have assented to the vesting of such interest in him, may sell, dispose of, and convey such estate in as full and effectual a manner, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were a chattel real.

Executor, &c. may dispose of it as a chattel real.

Confirmation of sales, &c., heretofore made.

IV. All sales and conveyances of any such beneficial interest heretofore made and executed by the executor or administrator of any deceased person, and all sales and conveyances of any estate of any deceased person in immoveable property situate within the said Settlement, heretofore made under any writ or process of any Court in any suit or action brought against any person as executor or administrator of such deceased person, are hereby confirmed, and shall be deemed and held to be as good and valid, and of the same effect, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been made and executed by such deceased person in his life-time.

Decrees, &c. heretofore made, not to be invalidated.

V. Nothing in this Act shall invalidate any decree or judgment heretofore made or passed, or any sale, conveyance, or alienation of any interest in immoveable property executed before the passing of this Act.

Interpretation.

VI. In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "Court" shall mean the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; words importing the singular number shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Legislative Council.

The 29th September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 8th September 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 29th September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXV OF 1855.

An Act to empower the Session Judge of Coimbatore to hold Sessions at Ootacamund on the Neilgherry Hills.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide that persons charged with offences committed on the Neilgherry Hills, for which they are amenable to the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Coimbatore, shall be tried at Ootacamund ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. When the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall establish at Ootacamund on the Neilgherry Hills a subordinate Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation VIII of 1827 of the Code of Fort St. George, it shall be lawful for the Session Judge of Coimbatore to hold Sessions at Ootacamund for the trial of persons committed by that Court for offences subject to his jurisdiction.

Session Judge of Coimbatore empowered to hold Sessions at Ootacamund on the establishment of a subordinate Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation VIII of 1827 of the Madras Code.

II. When the Principal Sudder Ameen of such Court shall commit for trial before the Court of Session for the Zillah of Coimbatore, a prisoner charged with a crime or misdemeanor subject to the jurisdiction of that Court, he shall give immediate notice of the commitment to the Session Judge, and the Session Judge shall, within two months from the date of the commitment, proceed to hold a Court at Ootacamund for the trial of such prisoner ; and if any other prisoners shall have been committed in the meantime, he shall continue the Session of the Court until all such prisoners shall have been tried.

Principal Sudder Ameen to give notice of commitment to Session Judge.

III. It shall be lawful for the Principal Sudder Ameen of the said Court to exercise all the powers of a Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation II of 1827 ; and also, by appointment of the Government of Fort St. George, all the powers of a Joint Magistrate.

Principal Sudder Ameen vested with certain Criminal powers.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 29th September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 29th September 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 3rd of January next :—

A Bill to remove doubts respecting the liability of real estate within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, to the payment of debts of deceased persons ; and to enable executors and administrators to sell and dispose of the same.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove doubts which have arisen, whether estates of deceased persons in immoveable property situate within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, are liable, as assets in the hands of executors and administrators, to the payment of the debts of such deceased persons ; and to authorize the sale of real estates by executors or administrators ; and to confirm sales of such estates heretofore made by executors or administrators, or under writs of execution in actions against them; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

Any estate in immoveable property to be deemed assets in the hands of executors and dealt with as a chattel real.

I. Whenever any person shall die seised of or entitled to any estate in immoveable property situate within the Settlement aforesaid, such estate shall be deemed assets in the hands of his executors or administrators for the payment of any debt of, or demand against, such deceased person in the ordinary course of administration, and may be dealt with in the same manner as a chattel real.

Such estate may be seized in any suit against a person as executor.

II. In any suit or action now pending, or which shall be brought against any person as executor or administrator of such deceased person, such estate may be seized, sold, or sequestered, or possession thereof may be delivered, under any writ or process, in like manner as it could have been in the life-time of such deceased person.

Every beneficial interest in immoveable property to vest in executor as a chattel real.

III. Every beneficial interest in immoveable property situate within th said Settlement, which shall be transmissible as part of the estate of any person deceased, shall vest in his executor or administrator as a chattel real; and such executor or administrator, or the person beneficially entitled to the same after such executor or administrator shall have assented to the vesting of such interest in him, may sell, dispose of, and convey such estate in as full and effectual a manner, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were a chattel real.

Executor, &c. may dispose of it as a chattel real

Confirmation of sales &c., heretofore made.

IV. All sales and conveyances of any such beneficial interest heretofore made and executed by the executor or administrator of any deceased person, and all sales and conveyances of any estate of any deceased person in immoveable property situate within the said Settlement, heretofore made under any writ or process of any Court in any suit or action brought against any person as executor or administrator of such deceased person, are hereby confirmed, and shall be deemed and held to be as good and valid, and of the same effect, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been made and executed by such deceased person in his life-time.

Decrees, &c. heretofore made, not to be invalidated

V. Nothing in this Act shall invalidate any decree or judgment heretofore made or passed, or any sale, conveyance, or alienation of any interest in immoveable property executed before the passing of this Act.

Interpretation.

VI In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "Court" shall mean the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; words importing the singular number shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India.

Ootacamund, 17th September 1855.

The Most Noble the Governor General of India is pleased to make the following appointment .—

Lieutenant F. W. Lambert, 56th Native Infantry, (doing duty with the Sylhet Light Infantry Battalion) to be Adjutant of the 2nd Assam Light Infantry, vice Lieutenant Toulmin, deceased.

Ootacamund, 21st September 1855.

The Most Noble the Governor General of India is pleased to notify for general information, that the Hon'ble the Court of Directors have, in reply to a reference made to them by his Lordship, transmitted in their Military letter No. 100, dated the 8th of August 1855, the following instructions, relative to the new system of promotion which was brought into operation by the Hon'ble Court's letter No. 25, dated the 7th of February 1855, published in General Orders by the Government of India No. 336, of the 23rd of March 1855 :—

Promotion of Lieutenant-Colonels.

I. The service of three years as Lieutenant-Colonel by which Officers of Artillery, Engineers, Cavalry, and Infantry, whether with their Regiments, or on the Staff, or on detached Military Employment, in situations which by the Regulations in force at the time can be held by Lieutenant-Colonels, become entitled to be promoted to the rank of Colonel, is required to be service in the Regimental rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

The Leaves of Absence in India granted to Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels are not to be deducted from the three years qualifying them for promotion to be Colonels.

The following are the Offices on the Staff or other detached Military Employment in which service as Lieutenant-Colonel shall be held equivalent to actual Regimental Commands as Lieutenant-Colonel, in qualifying Officers to be promoted to Colonel, viz. :

Adjutant General of the Army.
Quarter-master General of the Army.
Commandant of Subsidiary or Field Forces, Districts or Garrisons, including Chief Commands of Irregular Forces.

Chief Commands in the Armies of Native Allied Powers.

Town and Fort Major.
Deputy Adjutant General of the Army.
Deputy Quarter-master General of the Army.
Commandant of Sappers and Miners.

Such offices filled by Lieutenant-Colonels of Artillery and Engineers as belong to those particular Arms of the Service.

Tenure of Office.

II. The vacation of all Offices shall take place after they have been held for five years. It will be in the discretion of the respective Governments of the three Presidencies to re-appoint for a second or even a third tour of five years, when the Government may consider that the re-appointment is required for the good of the Service.

This rule is inapplicable to General Officers and Brigadiers, whose tour of command is limited by existing Regulations to one tour of five years.

Present occupants of Staff Appointments will not be affected by this rule, until the expiration of five years from the 23rd of March 1855, when the rule limiting the tenure of Staff Employment was published in General Orders; unless, in consequence of promotion, they are required to vacate the appointments sooner under the Regulations of the Service as already in force.

Brigadiers and Staff Officers filling appointments, which under existing Regulations cannot be held with the rank of Major General, shall, as a general rule, vacate their Commands and Appointments on promotion to that rank.

Officers holding such Commands and Appointments, who have already been promoted to complete the permanent establishment of General Officers, are to vacate their Commands and Appointments under the Regulations heretofore in force. But in consideration of the effect of the late promotions on them, they will be permitted to continue in their respective situations for a period of six months from the 14th of September 1855, the date of the receipt of the Honorable Court's Despatch; provided that, in the case of Brigadiers, their tour of Command shall not by this indulgence be extended beyond the limit of five years.

The several Governments shall have the power of retaining, on special grounds, to be separately reported to the Hon'ble Court, Major Generals for the following Offices, in the three Presidencies, viz. :

Secretary to Government in the Military Department.

Adjutant General of the Army.
Quarter-master General of the Army.
Military Auditor General.
Commissary General.

Rank of Officers in the different Presidencies.

III. The adjustment of rank among the Lieutenant-Colonels of the three Presidencies heretofore made under the instructions of the Hon'ble Court's letter No. 9, dated the 27th of July 1836, published in General Orders by the Government of India No 226, of the 14th of November 1836, will henceforward be discontinued The General List of Lieutenant-Colonels of the three Presidencies as now existing, will remain unaltered; and by it the Government of India will be guided in making promotions to the rank of Colonel as directed in the Hon'ble Court's Despatch No 34, dated 21st of February 1855, promulgated in General Orders No. 410, of the 4th of April 1855. But henceforward promotions of Lieutenant-Colonels to be Colonels, whether to supply casualties in ordinary course, or under the provisions of the new system of promotion will be made in the three Presidencies without reference to the relative rank of the Lieutenant-Colonels in the Armies of Fort St George and Bombay with that of the Lieutenant Colonels of the Bengal Army.

FORT WILLIAM,
The 29th September 1855.

Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for Constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be ¼ per cent.

HOURS OF BUSINESS.

From and after Wednesday, the 1st August, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., except on Saturday, when the Bank will be closed at 1 P. M.

London and Eastern Banking Corporation.

REFERRING to the Government Notification No. 5, dated Fort William, Financial Department, 24th January 1855, giving notice of the intention of Government to withdraw the authority hitherto granted to the Government Agent at Fort William, and to the Accountants General and the Sub-Treasurers at Fort Saint George and Bombay, to act as Agents on behalf of Proprietors of Government Securities, or Shares in the Capital Stock of the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay respectively.

THE LONDON AND EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION offers to receive charge and undertake the safe custody of any Government Securities and Certificates of Shares in the Bank of Bengal, and other local stock, which the Proprietors may wish to deposit with the Bank; and will receive the interest on such Government Securities, and the dividend on such Bank-share certificates, and other local stock, as it falls due, and either remit the amount of such Interest and Dividend to England in Bills of the Bank, or pay the amount as Proprietors may desire.

The London and Eastern Banking Corporation will also receive remittances for investment in Government Securities, Bank of Bengal Shares and other stock, and will negotiate the sale of such Securities and stock, when required to do so.

One quarter per cent. commission will be charged on the sale or purchase of Government Securities and Bank stock, &c., and on realizing Interest and Dividends. But when the proceeds of Government Paper or other stock, or the Interest or Dividends on the same, are to be remitted through the Bank, no commission will be charged.

Legislative Council.

The 29th September 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 8th September 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 29th September 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXV OF 1855.

An Act to empower the Session Judge of Coimbatore to hold Sessions at Ootacamund on the Neilgherry Hills.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide that persons charged with offences committed on the Neilgherry Hills, for which they are amenable to the jurisdiction of the Session Judge of Coimbatore, shall be tried at Ootacamund; It is enacted as follows:—

Session Judge of Coimbatore empowered to hold Sessions at Ootacamund on the establishment of a subordinate Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation VIII of 1827 of the Madras Code.

I When the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall establish at Ootacamund on the Neilgherry Hills a subordinate Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation VIII of 1827 of the Code of Fort St. George, it shall be lawful for the Session Judge of Coimbatore to hold Sessions at Ootacamund for the trial of persons committed by that Court for offences subject to his jurisdiction.

Principal Sudder Ameen to give notice of commitment to Session Judge.

II. When the Principal Sudder Ameen of such Court shall commit for trial before the Court of Session for the Zillah of Coimbatore, a prisoner charged with a crime or misdemeanor subject to the jurisdiction of that Court, he shall give immediate notice of the commitment to the Session Judge, and the Session Judge shall, within two months from the date of the commitment, proceed to hold a Court at Ootacamund for the trial of such prisoner; and if any other prisoners shall have been committed in the meantime, he shall continue the Session of the Court until all such prisoners shall have been tried.

Principal Sudder Ameen vested with certain Criminal powers.

III. It shall be lawful for the Principal Sudder Ameen of the said Court to exercise all the powers of a Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation II of 1827; and also, by appointment of the Government of Fort St. George, all the powers of a Joint Magistrate.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 29th September 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 29th September 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 3rd of January next:—

A Bill to remove doubts respecting the liability of real estate within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, to the payment of debts of deceased persons; and to enable executors and administrators to sell and dispose of the same.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove doubts which have arisen, whether estates of deceased persons in immoveable property situate within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, are liable, as assets in the hands of executors and administrators, to the payment of the debts of such deceased persons; and to authorize the sale of real estates by executors or administrators; and to confirm sales of such estates heretofore made by executors or administrators, or under writs of execution in actions against them; It is enacted as follows :—

Any estate in immoveable property to be deemed assets in the hands of executors and dealt with as a chattel real.

I. Whenever any person shall die seised of or entitled to any estate in immoveable property situate within the Settlement aforesaid, such estate shall be deemed assets in the hands of his executors or administrators for the payment of any debt of, or demand against, such deceased person in the ordinary course of administration, and may be dealt with in the same manner as a chattel real.

Such estate may be seized in any suit against a person as executor.

II. In any suit or action now pending, or which shall be brought against any person as executor or administrator of such deceased person, such estate may be seized, sold, or sequestered, or possession thereof may be delivered, under any writ or process, in like manner as it could have been in the life-time of such deceased person.

Every beneficial interest in immoveable property to vest in executor as a chattel real.

Executor, &c. may dispose of it as a chattel real.

III. Every beneficial interest in immoveable property situate within the said Settlement, which shall be transmissible as part of the estate of any person deceased, shall vest in his executor or administrator as a chattel real; and such executor or administrator, or the person beneficially entitled to the same after such executor or administrator shall have assented to the vesting of such interest in him, may sell, dispose of, and convey such estate in as full and effectual a manner, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were a chattel real.

Confirmation of sales, &c., heretofore made.

IV. All sales and conveyances of any such beneficial interest heretofore made and executed by the executor or administrator of any deceased person, and all sales and conveyances of any estate of any deceased person in immoveable property situate within the said Settlement, heretofore made under any writ or process of any Court in any suit or action brought against any person as executor or administrator of such deceased person, are hereby confirmed, and shall be deemed and held to be as good and valid, and of the same effect, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been made and executed by such deceased person in his life-time.

Decrees, &c. heretofore made, not to be invalidated.

V. Nothing in this Act shall invalidate any decree or judgment heretofore made or passed, or any sale, conveyance, or alienation of any interest in immoveable property executed before the passing of this Act.

Interpretation.

VI. In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "Court" shall mean the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; words importing the singular number shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 6th October 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 6th October 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 10th of December next :—

A Bill to amend the Law respecting the employment of Ameens by the Civil Courts in the Presidency of Fort William.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the law by which the Civil Courts are authorized to employ Ameens upon local investigations is defective, and requires amendment; and whereas, in consequence of the extended jurisdiction which has been given to Moonsiffs and the change which has been made in the constitution of the office, it is no longer expedient that Moonsiffs should be employed in the attachment and sale of personal property, nor, except on rare and special occasions, in any of the duties enumerated in Sections L, LI, and LIII Regulation XXIII. 1814: It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. Section XVII Regulation IV. 1793; Section XVIII Regulation III. 1803; and Clauses 2 and 3 of Section LI, and Section LII Regulation XXIII. 1814, are repealed.

Civil Court Ameens to be appointed.

II. In each District such number of persons as may be necessary shall be appointed, and shall be designated Civil Court Ameens. The Civil Court Ameens shall be appointed by the Judges with the sanction of the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and shall be remunerated by a fixed monthly allowance.

Declaration to be made by Civil Court Ameens.

III. Before entering upon the duties of their office, the Civil Court Ameens shall subscribe a declaration in the following form :—

I, A. B., appointed to the office of Civil Court Ameen, solemnly declare that, in the performance of the duties of my office, I will act according to the best of my abilities and judgment, without partiality, favor, or affection; and that I will not directly or indirectly receive, or knowingly allow any other person to receive, any money, effects, or property, except the allowances which may be made to me by Government, on account of any duty which I may have to execute.

Employment of Civil Court Ameens.

IV. The Civil Court Ameens may be employed by the Judge, and (with the sanction of the Judge) by any subordinate judicial officer, in any of the duties enumerated in Sections L, LI, and LIII of Regulation XXIII. 1814, and in the sale of moveable property, and of houses, gardens, and other immoveable property of the kind described in Section III Regulation VII. 1825. Clauses 2 and 3 of Section L Regulation XXIII. 1814 shall be applicable to the proceedings of Civil Court Ameens in inquiries which may be held by them of the nature specified in Clause 1 of that Section, and in the prosecution of such inquiries the Ameens shall be empowered to take evidence on oath or affirmation.

Expense of Civil Court Ameens how to be charged.

V. Whenever a Civil Court Ameen may be employed on a local inquiry, or any other duty connected with a pending suit, or the execution of a decree, except the sale of property, the Court shall estimate the time which the duty may be expected to occupy, and shall charge for the expense of the Ameen such fixed rate per diem as may be determined by the Sudder Court. The amount shall be deposited in Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the Ameen is deputed, and shall be added to the costs of suit.

When employed to sell property, deduction to be made from proceeds.

VI. When a Civil Court Ameen shall be employed to sell property, a deduction at the rate of one anna in the rupee shall be made from the proceeds of the sale. Provided that, if no sale takes place by reason either of the claim being satisfied or for any other cause, the expense of the Ameen shall be charged according to the time he may be employed at the rate prescribed in the preceding Section. All sums deposited or collected under this and the last preceding Section shall be credited to Government.

Proviso.

Civil Court Ameens may be attached to Moonsiffships.

VII. The Judge, with the sanction of the Sudder Court, may attach a Civil Court Ameen to two or more Moonsiffships, or one or more Ameens to a single Moonsiff ship, according as the state of business may require.

Clerk of the Council.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 6th October 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 6th October 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 10th of December next :—

A Bill to amend the Law respecting the employment of Ameens by the Civil Courts in the Presidency of Fort William.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the law by which the Civil Courts are authorized to employ Ameens upon local investigations is defective, and requires amendment; and whereas, in consequence of the extended jurisdiction which has been given to Moonsiffs and the change which has been made in the constitution of the office, it is no longer expedient that Moonsiffs should be employed in the attachment and sale of personal property, nor, except on rare and special occasions, in any of the duties enumerated in Sections L, LI, and LIII Regulation XXIII. 1814: It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations repealed.

I. Section XVII Regulation IV. 1793; Section XVIII Regulation III. 1803; and Clauses 2 and 3 of Section LI, and Section LII Regulation XXIII. 1814, are repealed.

Civil Court Ameens to be appointed.

II. In each District such number of persons as may be necessary shall be appointed, and shall be designated Civil Court Ameens. The Civil Court Ameens shall be appointed by the Judges with the sanction of the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and shall be remunerated by a fixed monthly allowance.

Declaration to be made by Civil Court Ameens.

III. Before entering upon the duties of their office, the Civil Court Ameens shall subscribe a declaration in the following form :—

I, A. B., appointed to the office of Civil Court Ameen, solemnly declare that, in the performance of the duties of my office, I will act according to the best of my abilities and judgment, without partiality, favor, or affection; and that I will not directly or indirectly receive, or knowingly allow any other person to receive, any money, effects, or property, except the allowances which may be made to me by Government, on account of any duty which I may have to execute.

Employment of Civil Court Ameens.

IV. The Civil Court Ameens may be employed by the Judge, and (with the sanction of the Judge) by any subordinate judicial officer, in any of the duties enumerated in Sections L, LI, and LIII of Regulation XXIII. 1814, and in the sale of moveable property, and of houses, gardens, and other immoveable property of the kind described in Section III Regulation VII. 1825. Clauses 2 and 3 of Section L Regulation XXIII 1814 shall be applicable to the proceedings of Civil Court Ameens in inquiries which may be held by them of the nature specified in Clause 1 of that Section, and in the prosecution of such inquiries the Ameens shall be empowered to take evidence on oath or affirmation.

Expense of Civil Court Ameens how to be charged.

V. Whenever a Civil Court Ameen may be employed on a local inquiry, or any other duty connected with a pending suit, or the execution of a decree, except the sale of property, the Court shall estimate the time which the duty may be expected to occupy, and shall charge for the expense of the Ameen such fixed rate per diem as may be determined by the Sudder Court. The amount shall be deposited in Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the Ameen is deputed, and shall be added to the costs of suit.

When employed to sell property, deduction to be made from proceeds.

VI. When a Civil Court Ameen shall be employed to sell property, a deduction at the rate of one anna in the rupee shall be made from the proceeds of the sale. Provided that, if no sale takes place by reason either of the claim being satisfied or for any other cause, the expense of the Ameen shall be charged according to the time he may be employed at the rate prescribed in the preceding Section. All sums deposited or collected under this and the last preceding Section shall be credited to Government.

Proviso.

Civil Court Ameens may be attached to Moonsiffships.

VII. The Judge, with the sanction of the Sudder Court, may attach a Civil Court Ameen to two or more Moonsiffships, or one or more Ameens to a single Moonsiffship, according as the state of business may require.

Clerk of the Council.

No. 564.

Foreign Department,

Ootacamund, the 24th September 1855.

Notification.—The practice, under which Officers holding appointments directly under the Supreme Government are entitled to obtain furlough on private affairs, or on Medical certificate, or otherwise, from the Governments of Bombay and Madras, without any reference to the object contemplated by them, when applying to the Supreme Government for preparatory leave, having been found to be productive of considerable inconvenience, the Most Noble the Governor General is pleased to direct, that in future all Officers in the position described above, to whatever Presidency they may belong, shall, in making application for preparatory leave, declare from what port it is their intention to embark, and whether they desire to obtain a furlough on private affairs, or on Medical certificate, or with a view of ultimate retirement from the Service of Government. A copy of such application will be communicated in due course to the local Government, in order to provide against any other furlough being granted than that contemplated.

2. In cases in which Medical certificates may be produced, setting forth the urgent necessity of immediate embarkation, the local Government shall be at liberty to use its discretion in granting permission for such embarkation. But the term for which leave is taken, and the conditions on which it is taken, must be understood to rest ultimately with the Government of India, and shall not depend on the local Government.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

 The book extends to 264 full sized octavo pages.

We have received a copy of Captain Richardson's Essay (or what was originally an Essay, though it is somewhat large now, to retain its original designation) on Flowers and Flower-Gardens. D. L. R is so well known, and so justly esteemed as an author, that his name is the best recommendation of his works to public notice, and that quite as much at home as in India. He is not, as so many are who affect talent in this benighted land, a lion among asses, but a lion among lions. He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward. The subject is in itself one of the most attractive possible; and it is treated with an elegance of style, simplex munditiis, that enhances these natural attractions. The most acceptable gifts of Nature will hereafter be doubly acceptable as they are associated with the ennobling thoughts that this Essay connects with them. No drawing-room in India should be without this volume, and no drawing-room in England will be, should an edition of it be printed there.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 13th October 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 10th September 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 13th October 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No XXVI OF 1855.

An Act to facilitate the payment of small deposits in Government Savings' Banks to the representatives of deceased depositors.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the payment of small sums belonging to the estates of deceased depositors in the Savings' Banks established by Government within any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to the representatives of such depositors : It is enacted as follows :—

Secretary of Government Savings' Bank, in certain cases, to pay without probate, &c., money belonging to the estate of a deceased depositor.

I. If a depositor in any Government Savings' Bank shall die leaving therein a sum of money not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate or effects, or a certificate granted under Act No. XX of 1841, or under Section IV of Act No. X of 1851, shall not be produced to the Secretary of such Bank within the period of two months from the time of the death of the said depositor, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of such Bank to pay the same to any person or persons who shall appear to him to be entitled to receive the same or to administer the effects of the deceased ; and such payment shall be a full indemnity and discharge from all further liability in respect of the money so paid ; but nothing herein contained shall preclude any executor or administrator or representative of the deceased from recovering from the person or persons receiving the same the amount remaining in his or their hands after deducting the amount of all debts or other demands lawfully paid or discharged by him in due course of administration ; and any creditor or claimant against the estate of the deceased shall be at liberty to recover his debt or claim out of the money so paid to such person or persons and remaining in his or their hands unadministered, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such person or persons had obtained letters of administration to the estate of the deceased.

Payment to be a discharge.

Saving of right of executor, &c.

And of creditor.

Security for due administration.

II. The Secretary of any such Bank may take such security as he shall think necessary from any person or persons to whom he shall pay any money under the preceding Section, for the due administration and distribution of the money so paid, and may assign the same to any person or persons interested in the due administration and distribution thereof, which person or persons may sue on the same in his or their own names.

Power to administer oath, &c.

III. For the purpose of ascertaining the right of the person or persons claiming to be entitled as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of any such Bank to administer an oath or affirmation ; and every person who, having been sworn or having taken a solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, if convicted, shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

Penalty for false testimony.

IV. From and after the passing of this Act, no Administrator General of a Presidency shall grant a certificate under Section XLIII of Act No. VIII of 1855 in respect of any sum of money deposited in a Government Savings' Bank.

Administrator General not to grant certificate in respect of money deposited.

V. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to the payment of any money deposited in a Government Savings' Bank belonging to the estate of any European Officer or Soldier dying in Her Majesty's Service in India, or of any European Officer or Soldier dying in the Service of the East India Company, or to the estate and effects of any Officer, Seaman, or other person dying in the Marine Service of the said Company called the Indian Navy, or to the estate and effects of any person who, at the time of his death, was a deserter from any of the said Services.

Act not to apply to money belonging to the estates of European Soldiers, Sailors, &c.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 19th September 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 13th October 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXVII OF 1855.

An Act to enable the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay to transact certain business in respect of Government Securities and Shares in the said Banks.

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the several Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay to transact the kinds of business hereinafter mentioned : It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. In addition to the kinds of business in which the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the Bank of Bombay may now by law be respectively engaged, it shall be lawful for any of the said Banks to transact all or any of the following kinds of business, either with or without receiving commission or payment for the transaction thereof, that is to say :

Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay empowered to transact certain business in respect of Government Securities and Shares in the said Banks.

First.—To take charge of any Government Securities or Shares in any of the said Banks.

Second.—To receive the interest or dividends on any such Securities or Shares.

Third.—To invest any money deposited in any of the said Banks in the purchase of any such Securities or Shares.

Fourth.—To sell or transfer any such Securities or Shares deposited with them, or to receive any principal money that may become payable thereon.

Fifth.—To re-invest the principal, interest, or dividends so received, or the proceeds arising from such sale in Government Securities or Shares in any of the said Banks, or to hold or pay such principal, interest, dividends, or proceeds, or, according to the instruction of their constituents and at their risk, to remit the same by public or private Bills, whether payable in India or not, and to do all acts necessary or proper for the purpose of making such remittances. Provided that, if any such remittance be made by a Note or Bill of any of the said three Banks, the same must be payable in India on demand.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th October 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 19th September 1855 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 13th October 1855), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXVIII OF 1855.

An Act for the repeal of the Usury Laws.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the laws now in force relating to Usury : It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. Section XXX of the Act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better management of the affairs of the East India Company as well in India as in Europe," shall not apply in any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the said Company to any bond, contract, or assurance whatsoever, which shall be made or entered into within the said territories after the passing of this Act ; and the several parts of Regulations mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed, and all laws in force in any part of the said territories relating to Usury, are hereby repealed.

Laws repealed.

II. In any suit in which interest is recoverable, the amount shall be adjudged or decreed by the Court at the rate (if any) agreed upon by the parties ; and if no rate shall have been agreed upon, at such rate as the Court shall deem reasonable.

What rate of interest shall be decreed by the Court in any suit.

III. Whenever a Court shall direct that a judgment or decree shall bear interest, or shall award interest upon a judgment or decree, it may order the interest to be calculated at the rate allowed in the judgment or decree upon the principal sum adjudged, or at such other rate as the Court shall think fit.

Rate of interest upon a judgment or decree.

IV. A mortgage or other contract for the loan of money, by which it is agreed that the use or usufruct of any property shall be allowed in lieu of interest, shall be binding upon the parties.

Contract for the usufruct of property, in lieu of interest, to be binding.

V. Whenever, under the Regulations of the Bengal Code, a deposit may be made of the principal sum and interest due upon any mortgage or conditional sale of land hereafter to be entered into, the amount of interest to be deposited shall be at the rate stipulated in the contract, or, if no rate has been stipulated and interest be payable under the terms of the contract, at the rate of twelve per centum per annum. Provided that, in the latter case, the amount deposited shall be subject to the decision of the Court as to the rate at which interest shall be calculated.

Proviso.

VI. In any case in which an adjustment of accounts may become necessary between the lender and the borrower of money upon any mortgage, conditional sale of landed property, or other contract whatsoever, which may be entered into after the passing of this Act, interest shall be calculated at the rate stipulated therein; or, if no rate of interest shall have been stipulated and interest be payable under the terms of the contract, at such rate as the Court shall deem reasonable.

Rate of interest on future adjustments of accounts.

VII. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall prejudice or affect the rights or remedies of any person, or diminish or alter the liabilities of any person, in respect of any act done, or contract entered into, previously to the passing of this Act.

Transactions previous to this Act not to be affected.

VIII. This Act shall commence and take effect from the 1st day of January 1856.

Commencement of Act.

Legislative Council.

The 6th October 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 6th October 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 10th of December next:—

A Bill to amend the Law respecting the employment of Ameens by the Civil Courts in the Presidency of Fort William.

WHEREAS the law by which the Civil Courts are authorized to employ Ameens upon local investigations is defective, and requires amendment; and whereas, in consequence of the extended jurisdiction which has been given to Moonsiffs and the change which has been made in the constitution of the office, it is no longer expedient that Moonsiffs should be employed in the attachment and sale of personal property, nor, except on rare and special occasions, in any of the duties enumerated in Sections L, LI, and LIII Regulation XXIII. 1814: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Section XVII Regulation IV. 1793; Section XVIII Regulation III. 1803; and Clauses 2 and 3 of Section LI, and Section LII Regulation XXIII. 1814, are repealed.

Regulations repealed.

II. In each District such number of persons as may be necessary shall be appointed, and shall be designated Civil Court Ameens. The Civil Court Ameens shall be appointed by the Judges with the sanction of the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and shall be remunerated by a fixed monthly allowance.

Civil Court Ameens to be appointed.

III. Before entering upon the duties of their office, the Civil Court Ameens shall subscribe a declaration in the following form:—

Declaration to be made by Civil Court Ameens.

I, A. B., appointed to the office of Civil Court Ameen, solemnly declare that, in the performance of the duties of my office, I will act according to the best of my abilities and judgment, without partiality, favor, or affection; and that I will not directly or indirectly receive, or knowingly allow any other person to receive, any money, effects, or property, except the allowances which may be made to me by Government, on account of any duty which I may have to execute.

IV. The Civil Court Ameens may be employed by the Judge, and (with the sanction of the Judge) by any subordinate judicial officer, in any of the duties enumerated in Sections L, LI, and LIII of Regulation XXIII. 1814, and in the sale of moveable property, and of houses, gardens, and other immoveable property of the kind described in Section III Regulation VII. 1825. Clauses 2 and 3 of Section L Regulation XXIII. 1814 shall be applicable to the proceedings of Civil Court Ameens in inquiries which may be held by them of the nature specified in Clause 1 of that Section, and in the prosecution of such inquiries the Ameens shall be empowered to take evidence on oath or affirmation.

Employment of Civil Court Ameens.

V. Whenever a Civil Court Ameen may be employed on a local inquiry, or any other duty connected with a pending suit, or the execution of a decree, except the sale of property, the Court shall estimate the time which the duty may be expected to occupy, and shall charge for the expense of the Ameen such fixed rate per diem as may be determined by the Sudder Court. The amount shall be deposited in Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the Ameen is deputed, and shall be added to the costs of suit.

Expense of Civil Court Ameens how to be charged.

When employed to sell property, deduction to be made from proceeds.

VI. When a Civil Court Ameen shall be employed to sell property, a deduction at the rate of one anna in the rupee shall be made from the proceeds of the sale. Provided that, if no sale takes place by reason either of the claim being satisfied or for any other cause, the expense of the Ameen shall be charged according to the time he may be employed at the rate prescribed in the preceding Section. All sums deposited or collected under this and the last preceding Section shall be credited to Government.

Proviso.

Civil Court Ameens may be attached to Moonsiffships.

VII. The Judge, with the sanction of the Sudder Court, may attach a Civil Court Ameen to two or more Moonsiffships, or one or more Ameens to a single Moonsiff ship, according as the state of business may require.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th October 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th October 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of January next :—

A Bill for the Conservancy and Improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several Stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the Conservancy and Improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several Stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; and to invest the Municipal Commissioners for each of the said Towns and Stations with the powers hereinafter mentioned: It is enacted as follows :—

Acts, &c., repealed.

I. The several Acts, and Rules Ordinances and Regulations, mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or any part of any other Act, or Rule Ordinance and Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Interpretation.

II The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, (that is to say)—

The expression "Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company in which the Town or Station is situated.

The expressions "the Municipal Commissioners" and "the Commissioners" shall mean the persons, however designated, for the time being constituted by law to administer the funds to be applied for the purposes of this Act in the Town or Station for which they are so constituted.

chase, and hold lands and other property, whether moveable or immoveable, as trustees for the purposes of this Act.

Commissioners to appoint officers.

IV. The Commissioners may from time to time appoint all such officers as they shall think necessary and proper to assist in the execution of this Act; and may from time to time remove any of such officers and appoint others in their place; and may, out of the monies to be applied for the purposes of this Act, pay such salaries and allowances to the said officers respectively as the Commissioners shall think reasonable, subject to the approval of the local Government.

Property vested in Commissioners

V. All property, moveable and immoveable, purchased or otherwise acquired before the passing of this Act by the Commissioners or other persons, however designated, heretofore lawfully administering the funds applicable to the Conservancy and Improvement of the said Towns and Stations respectively, and now vested in them or in any persons in trust for them for any such purposes, shall after the passing of this Act, be vested in the Commissioners for the said Towns and Stations respectively as trustees for the purposes of this Act.

Streets and Roads.

Streets and roads vested in the Commissioners.

VI. All public streets and roads, (not being the property of the East India Company and kept under the control of the local Government) existing at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall afterwards be made, and the pavements, stones, and other materials thereof, and also all erections, materials, implements, and other things provided for such streets and roads, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

Power to make and improve streets and roads.

VII. The Commissioners, with the consent of the local Government, may lay out, make, build, and construct new streets, roads, bridges, and tunnels; and may turn, divert, discontinue, or stop up any public street or road; and may widen, open, enlarge, or otherwise improve any such street or road; making due compensation to the owners and occupiers of any lands, houses, or buildings which may be required for any such purposes.

Power to agree for purchase of land for improving streets or roads.

VIII. The Commissioners may agree with the owners of any lands for the absolute purchase thereof for the purpose of widening, enlarging, or otherwise improving any of the public streets or roads

Maintenance and repair of streets and roads.

IX. The Commissioners shall, so far as the funds at their disposal will permit, from time to time cause the public streets and roads to be maintained and repaired; and from time to time may cause the same to be paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, sewered, or otherwise improved, and the ground or soil to be raised, lowered, or altered as they may think fit; and they may also make and keep in repair any footways for the use of passengers in any such street, and also from time to time place such fences and posts on the sides of such footways or otherwise as may be needed for the protection of foot passengers.

Footways.

Cleansing streets.

X. The Commissioners shall cause the streets, including the footways thereof, from time to time to be properly swept and cleansed, and the dust, dirt, ashes, rubbish, and filth of every sort found thereon, to be collected and removed; and shall cause all dust, dirt, ashes, rubbish, filth, and night-soil to be carried away from the houses of the inhabitants at convenient hours.

Dirt, &c. to be collected and removed from streets.

To be removed from houses at convenient hours.

Dust-boxes, &c. in streets.

XI. The Commissioners, if they think fit so to do, may cause any number of moveable or fixed dust-boxes or other convenient receptacles, wherein dust, dirt, ashes, and rubbish may be temporarily deposited until removed and carried away, to be provided and placed in proper and convenient situations in or near such streets as they shall judge necessary; and may require the occupiers of houses in such streets to cause all such matter as aforesaid to be deposited daily or otherwise periodically in the said receptacles: and every person who, after such receptacles have been provided and after such requisition as above mentioned, shall deposit, or cause or permit to be deposited, any such matter in any such street, except in such receptacles, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees.

Depositing dirt on streets, &c.

XII. Whoever shall deposit or cause to be deposited any dust, dirt, dung, ashes, garden or stable refuse, or filth of any kind, or any animal matter, or any broken glass or earthenware or other rubbish, in any street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghaut, or landing place, or on any part of the sea-shore whether above or below high-water mark, except in such places and in such manner and at such hours as shall be fixed by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees.

Allowing sewerage to flow on streets.

XIII. Whoever shall cause or allow the water of any sink, sewer, or drain, or any other offensive liquid matter belonging to him or being on his land, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Removal of night-soil.

XIV. The Commissioners from time to time may fix the hours within which only it shall be lawful to remove any night-soil or other such offensive matter; and when the Commissioners have fixed such hours and given public notice thereof, whoever removes along any street any such offensive matter at any time, except within the hours so fixed, and also whoever at any time, whether such hours have been fixed by the Commissioners or not, uses for any such purpose any cart, carriage, or other receptacle or vessel not having a covering proper for preventing the escape of the contents thereof or of the stench therefrom, or who slops or spills any such offensive matter in the removal thereof, or who does not carefully sweep and clean every place in which any such offensive matter has been slopped or spilled, or who places or sets down in any public place, any vessel containing such offensive matter, or who drives or takes any such cart, carriage, receptacle, or vessel as aforesaid through any street or by any route other than such as shall from time to time be appointed for that purpose by the Commissioners by public notice, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees; and in default of the apprehension of the actual offender, the driver or person having the care of any cart or carriage employed for any such purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be the offender.

Places of deposit for filth.

XV. The Commissioners from time to time may provide places convenient for the deposit of the night-soil, dung, and other filth, and the dust, dirt, ashes, and rubbish, collected and removed under the authority of this Act; and for keeping all cattle, carts, implements, and other things required for the above or any of the purposes of this Act; and for any of such purposes the Commissioners may purchase or take on lease any lands or buildings by them considered necessary, or they may cause any new building to be made upon any land to be purchased or hired by them.

All rubbish, &c. collected, to belong to the Commissioners.

XVI. All dirt, dust, ashes, rubbish, sewage, soil, dung, and filth, collected from the streets, houses, privies, sewers, and cess-pools, shall be the property of the Commissioners, who shall have power to sell or dispose of the same as they may think proper; and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be applied for the purposes of this Act.

Watering streets.

XVII. The Commissioners, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, and so far as they may deem requisite for the public convenience, shall cause the public streets to be watered; and for that purpose may construct reservoirs and may place pipes, conduits, and pumps in any of the streets, and provide any other necessary works and engines, and remove and alter the same, when and as they may think proper.

Construction of works for the purpose.

Lighting streets.

XVIII. The Commissioners, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, shall provide lamps, lamp-posts, and such other means as they may deem necessary for lighting such of the public streets as they shall consider to require lighting; and shall cause the said lamps to be kept in fit order, and shall employ a sufficient number of persons to cleanse, prepare, and light the same; and shall also from time to time increase or otherwise alter the number and situation of the said lamps as to them shall appear necessary.

Penalty for destroying lamps, &c

XIX. Whoever wantonly or wilfully destroys, injures, defaces, or disturbs any of the said lamp-posts or lamps, or extinguishes any light therein, or abstracts or takes away any oil or other matter or thing therein, or any part thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Commissioners may contract for lighting.

XX. The Commissioners, with the consent of the local Government, may contract, for any period not exceeding years at any one time, with the owners of any gas works, or with any other person, for the supply of gas or oil or other means of lighting the public streets.

Future obstructions in streets or roads.

XXI. Whoever builds any wall, or erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment, in any public street or road, or in or over any open drain, sewer, or aqueduct along the side of any such street or road, after the passing of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees;

Power to remove.

and the Commissioners shall have full power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided. Nothing herein-

Temporary obstructions on occasions of festivals, &c.

contained shall prevent the Commissioners, with the concurrence of the Commissioner of Police, from allowing any temporary erections in any public street or road on occasions of festivals and ceremonies.

Taking up pavements.

XXII. Whoever displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, flags, or other materials, or in the fences or posts of any public street, without the consent in writing of the Commissioners, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and also to a further sum, not exceeding five Rupees, for every square foot of pavement, flags, or other materials of such street (exceeding one square foot) so displaced, taken up, or altered.

Private persons laying out new streets.

XXIII. Every person who intends to make or lay out any new street, shall give notice in writing thereof to the Commissioners, showing the intended level and width of such street; and the level and width of every such street shall be fixed or approved by the Commissioners: and whoever lays out, makes, or builds upon any such street otherwise than in accordance with the level and width so fixed or approved, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees; and the Commissioners may, if they think fit, cause any such street laid out or made at a level or width otherwise than in accordance with the level and width so fixed or approved as aforesaid, or any building erected in any such street otherwise than in accordance with such level and width, to be altered; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be re-paid to them by the offender and be recoverable as hereinafter provided. If no such level or width be fixed, and no approval or disapproval of the level or width proposed be signified by the Commissioners within one month, the intended street may be laid out and made upon the level and of the width specified in the notice.

Paving, &c., of private streets.

XXIV. If any street (not being a public street), or any part thereof, be not levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, by notice in writing to the respective owners or occupiers of the premises fronting, adjoining, or abutting upon, such parts thereof as may need to be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered, require them to level, metal, pave, flag, channel, and sewer the same within a time to be specified in such notice; and upon non-compliance, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, execute the works mentioned or referred to therein; and the expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be paid by the owners in default according to the frontage of their respective premises, and in such proportion as shall be settled by the Commissioners, or, in case of dispute, as shall be settled by two Magistrates; and such expense shall be recoverable as hereinafter directed. Provided always that, after such street shall have been so levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered on the requisition of the Commissioners or by the Commissioners as aforesaid at the expense of the owners, such owners shall have a right to require that the street shall be declared a public street to be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the funds at their disposal for the purposes of this Act.

Proviso.

XXV. If any street (not being a public street) be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, if they think fit, by notice in writing put up in any part of such street, declare the same to be a public street; and thereupon the same shall become a public street, and be from time to time repaired by them out of the funds at their disposal. Provided that no street shall become a public street as last aforesaid, if, within one month after such notice in writing, the owner of such street shall, by notice in writing to the Commissioners, object thereto.

Certain streets to be deemed public and repaired by the Commissioners.

Proviso.

XXVI. The Commissioners may, upon such terms as they think fit, allow any house or building to be set forward for improving the line of any public street in which such house or building is situated,

Houses may be set forward for improving line of streets.

XXVII. When any house or building, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house or building on either side thereof, has been taken down in order to be re-built or altered, the Commissioners may require the same to be set back to or towards the line of the street or the line of the adjoining houses or buildings, in such manner as the Commissioners direct for the improvement of such street. Provided always, that the Commissioners shall make full compensation to the owner of any such house or building for any damage he may thereby sustain; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Houses projecting beyond line of street when taken down to be set back.

Proviso.

XXVIII. The Commissioners may, from time to time, cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, or place at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every street, the name by which such street is to be known; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name, or puts up any name different from that put up by order of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Names of Streets.

Houses.

XXIX. The owner of any house or building in any street shall, if required so to do by the Commissioners, fix at his own expense, in a conspicuous place (not more than twelve feet above the level of the street) on the outer side of such house or building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street, such number as the Commissioners may direct; and shall renew such number as often as it becomes obliterated or defaced: and every such owner who fails, within one week after notice for that purpose from the Commissioners, so to fix or to renew such number, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees.

Numbers of houses.

XXX. All doors, gates, and bars, put up after the passing of this Act, which open upon any public street, shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards, except when the same are hung in such manner as, in the judgment of the Commissioners, to cause no obstruction in any such street; and if (except as aforesaid) any door, gate, or bar be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any such street, the owner of the premises to which the same is attached shall, within eight days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, cause the same to be altered, so as not to open outwards; and in case he neglects so to do, the Commissioners may make such alteration, and the expense thereof shall be paid by such owners and shall be recoverable in manner hereinafter provided.

Doors not to open outwards.

Exception.

XXXI. If any door, gate, or bar was, before the passing of this Act, hung so as to open outwards upon any public street, the Commissioners may alter the same so that no part thereof, when open, shall project over any such street so as to cause an obstruction.

Doors opening outwards to be altered.

XXXII. The owner of every house or building in, adjoining, or near to any public street shall, within eight days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, put up and keep in good condition, proper troughs and pipes for catching and carrying the water from the roof and other parts of such house or building, and for discharging the same in such manner that it shall not fall upon the persons passing along the street, or flow over the footpath; and in default of compliance with such notice within the period aforesaid, such owner shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for every day that he shall so make default.

Troughs and pipes to be affixed to house.

XXXIII. The Commissioners may give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction which, after the passing of this Act, shall be erected or placed against or in front of such house or building, if the same overhangs, or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, or is an obstruction to the safe and convenient passage along any public street, or obstructs or projects or encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain, or sewer in such street; and such owner or occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners; and in default thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees; and the Commissioners in such case may remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable in manner

Future projections from houses to be removed.

Proviso.

hereinafter provided. Provided that, when the expense shall have been paid by the occupier, except in the case in which such projections, encroachments, or obstructions were made or put up by him, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the expense of removing or altering the same from the rent payable by him to the owner of the house or building. Provided always, that the roofs or eaves of houses or buildings, sun-shades, weather-frames, and the like, at a height not less than twelve feet above the surface of any street, may be projected to the extent of three feet over the same.

Sun-shades, &c.

XXXIV. The Commissioners may give permission in writing to the owners or occupiers of houses or buildings in public streets, the width of which is not less than twenty-five feet, to put up verandahs, balconies, sun-shades, weather-frames, and the like, to project from any upper-story thereof over the street to an extent not exceeding four feet from the foundation, and in streets of greater width, for special reasons, to allow such projections to be extended to five feet.

Commissioners may allow certain projections from houses.

XXXV. If any such projection, encroachment, or obstruction was erected or placed against or in front of any house or building, in any public street, before the passing of this Act, the Commissioners may cause the same to be removed or altered as they think fit; provided that they give notice of such intended removal or alteration to the occupier of the house or building against or in front of which such projection encroachment, or obstruction shall be, thirty days before such alteration or removal is begun; and if such projection, encroachment or obstruction shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damages by such removal or alteration; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Removal of existing projections from houses.

Notice of removal.

Compensation when to be made.

XXXVI. The external roofs and walls of houses and buildings erected in any street after the passing of this Act, shall not be made of grass, leaves, mats, or other such inflammable materials; and it shall not be lawful for the owner of any house or building in any street now having an external roof or wall made of any such material, and which is contiguous to or adjoining to any other building, to suffer such roof or wall to remain for a longer time than two years after the passing of this Act, unless with the consent in writing of the Commissioners; and whoever makes any external roof or wall of such materials, or suffers any roof or wall made of such materials, to continue contrary to the provisions herein contained, and who shall not remove or alter the same within one month after notice given to him for that purpose by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for every day that such roof or wall shall continue.

Roofs and outer walls of houses not to be made of combustible materials.

XXXVII. If, in any street, any house, building, or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, be deemed by the Commissioners to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house for building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or the occupiers thereof, or to passengers, they shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers; and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner if he be known and resident within the limits of their jurisdiction, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or other thing, as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure the same within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Commissioners shall cause all or so much of such house, building, wall, or other thing, as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured; and all the expenses incurred by the Commissioners shall be paid by the owner of the premises and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Houses in a ruinous or dangerous state.

XXXVIII. If any such house, building, wall, or other thing, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Commissioners may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred in respect of such house, building, wall, or other thing; and the Commissioners shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house, building, wall, or other thing on demand: nevertheless the Commissioners, although they sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale as by this Act are given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

Sale of materials of ruinous houses.

XXXIX. If any building, by reason of abandonment or of disputed ownership or other cause, shall remain untenanted and thereby become a receptacle for thieves and vagabonds, or be complained of by any two or more of the neighbours as a nuisance, the Commissioners, after due enquiry, may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner or to the person claiming to be the owner, if he be known and resident within the limits of their jurisdiction, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the premises, requiring the persons concerned therein, whoever they may be, to secure the same in such manner as that strangers may not have access thereto; and if such notice shall not be complied with within seven days, the Commissioners shall cause the necessary work to be executed; and all expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the premises, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Power to shut up and secure deserted houses.

XL. Whoever, being the occupier of a house in any street, keeps, or allows to be kept, for more than 24 hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any dirt, dung, bones,

Penalty on occupier of a house not removing filth.

ashes, night-soil, filth, or any noxious or offensive matter, in or upon the roof of such house, or in any out-house, yard, or ground attached to and occupied with such house, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom and to cleanse and purify the same, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Filthy houses, &c.

XLI. Whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, building, or lands, in or near any street, whether tenantable or otherwise, shall suffer the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, and to a further penalty, not exceeding five Rupees, for every day during which he shall so make default.

Hedges and Trees.

Power to trim hedges and trees bordering roads.

XLII. The Commissioners shall give notice to the owner or occupier of any ground to trim or prune the hedges thereof bordering any public road, street, or foot-path, so that they may not exceed the height of six feet from the ground; and to cut and trim all trees overhanging any public road, street, or foot-path so as to obstruct the passage or to cause damage thereto; and in the event of such notice not being complied within one week from the date thereof, the Commissioners may cause the said hedges and trees to be cut and trimmed in the manner required; and the expense incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof shall be re-paid to them by the owners, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Swine, Sheep, &c.

Keeping swine, &c. in or near any street.

XLIII. Whoever shall keep any pig-stye to the front of any street, not being shut out therefrom by a sufficient wall or fence, or who shall keep any swine in or near any street, so as to be a nuisance to the neighbourhood; or who shall, without the permission of the Commissioners, keep more than twenty sheep, goats, or horned cattle in or near any street, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Sewers and Drains.

Sewers, Drains, &c. vested in the Commissioners.

XLIV. All public sewers and drains, and all sewers, drains, tunnels, and culverts in, alongside, and under the streets and roads existing at the time of the passing of this Act, or afterwards made, and whether made at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all works, materials, and things appertaining thereto, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

Commissioners to make public sewers.

XLV. The Commissioners, so far as the funds at their disposal will permit, shall from time to time cause to be made such main and other sewers as they may judge necessary for the effectual draining of the Town or Station under their authority; and if needful, they may carry any such sewers through, across, or under any street or any place laid out as or intended for a street, or any cellar or vault which may be under any of the streets, and (after reasonable notice in writing in that behalf) into, through, or under any inclosed or other lands whatsoever, doing as little damage as may be, and making full compensation, for any damage done; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Commissioners to repair and alter and discontinue sewers.

XLVI. The Commissioners shall maintain, and from time to time repair, and (as they see fit) enlarge, alter, arch-over, or otherwise improve, all or any of the sewers and drains vested in them by this Act; and may discontinue, close up, or destroy such of them as they may deem to have become useless or unnecessary. Provided always, that the discontinuance, closing up, or destruction of any sewer or drain shall be so done as not to create a nuisance; and if, by reason thereof or of any such alteration as hereinbefore mentioned, any person is deprived of the lawful use of any sewer or drain, the Commissioners shall, with due diligence, provide some other sewer or drain as effectual for his use as the one of which he is so deprived.

Proviso.

Cleansing and emptying sewers.

XLVII. The Commissioners shall cause the sewers and drains vested in them by this Act to be so constructed, maintained, and kept, as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health, and to be properly cleared, cleansed, and emptied; and for the purpose of flushing, cleansing, and emptying the same, they may construct and place, either above or under-ground, such reservoirs, sluices, engines, and other works as may be necessary; and they may also cause all or any of such sewers and drains to communicate with and be emptied into the sea or any public river (as the case may admit) or other fit place; or they may cause the refuse from such sewers and drains to be conveyed by a proper channel to the most convenient site for its deposit, and may sell the same for any agricultural or other purposes as may be deemed most expedient, but so that the same shall not become a nuisance.

Beds of streams receiving sewerage to be cleared.

XLVIII. When the contents of any sewer or drain, or any other flow of filth or refuse, are discharged into any river or stream, in the bed or channel of which the quantity of water at any season of the year is so much diminished by natural or artificial causes as to be insufficient to keep such channel clean or clear, the Commissioners shall make such alteration in the bed of such river or stream as may prevent such sewer and drain-water from spreading over the surface of such bed, or from accumulating and stagnating in parts thereof to the injury of health or the annoyance of the surrounding population.

Penalty for making unauthorized drains into public sewers.

XLIX. Whoever, without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained, shall make or cause to be made any drain into any of the sewers or drains vested in them by this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees; and the Commissioners may cause such branch drain to be demolished, altered, re-made, or otherwise dealt with, as they think fit; and all the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the person making such branch drain, and shall be recoverable by the Commissioners as hereinafter provided.

Building over sewers, &c. not to be without consent of Commissioners.

L. No building shall be newly erected over any sewer or drain vested in the Commissioners by this Act, and no vault, arch, or cellar, shall be newly constructed under any street without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained; and all vaults, arches, and cellars made with such consent, shall be constructed substantially and so as not to interfere or communicate with any sewers or drains belonging to the Commissioners; and if any building, vault, arch, or cellar be erected or constructed contrary to the provisions herein contained, the Commissioners may cause the same to be altered, pulled down, or otherwise dealt with as they may think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person offending and be recoverable by the Commissioners as hereinafter provided.

Commissioners empowered to make drains from houses in any street, which are not properly drained.

LI. If any house or building, in any street, be at any time not drained to the satisfaction of the Commissioners by a sufficient drain or pipe communicating with some sewer, or with the sea, or some public river or other place at which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers, and if there be such means of drainage within one hundred feet of any part of such house or building, the Commissioners may construct or lay from such house or building a covered drain or pipe of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall as they think necessary for the drainage of such house or building; and the expenses incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof, if not forthwith paid by the owner, shall be recoverable in the manner hereinafter directed. Provided that the cost of executing such work shall not, without the consent of the owner, exceed the amount of three months' rent of the house or building.

Level of houses hereafter built in streets.

LII. No house or building shall be hereafter built in any street upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of such house or building being led into some public sewer either then existing or projected by the Commissioners, or into the sea, or some public river or other place into which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers.

Houses hereafter built in streets to have drains constructed under the orders of the Commissioners.

LIII. If any house or building, newly erected or re-built in any street after the passing of this Act, have such means of drainage as in the last preceding Section mentioned, existing within one hundred feet thereof, the Commissioners shall cause the owner to make a drain leading thereunto from the site of such house or building, of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall as they think fit.

Notice of new buildings in streets to be given to the Commissioners.

LIV. Before beginning, in any street, to build any new house or to re-build any house which has been taken down, the person intending to build or re-build such house shall give to the Commissioners notice thereof in writing, and shall accompany such notice with a plan showing the level at which the foundation of such house is proposed to be laid by reference to some level ascertained under the direction of the Commissioners.

Commissioners to signify disapproval within fourteen days.

LV. Within fourteen days after receiving such notice, the Commissioners may signify their disapproval of the level at which it is proposed to lay the foundation of any such house, and in case of such disapproval may, within the said fourteen days, fix the level at which the same is to be laid.

Houses built without notice, or contrary to provisions of this Act, may be altered by Commissioners.

LVI. If such building be begun or made without sending such notice and plan, or at any level different from that fixed by the Commissioners within the said fourteen days, or in any other respect contrary to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may, if necessary, cause such building to be altered or demolished as the case may require; and the expense thereby incurred shall be repaid to them by the person failing to comply with the provisions aforesaid, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

If Commissioners fail to approve, &c. within fourteen days, parties may proceed without.

LVII. If the Commissioners fail to signify in writing their approval or disapproval of the level shown on such plan as aforesaid within fourteen days after receiving such notice and plan as aforesaid, the person giving such notice may, notwithstanding any thing hereinbefore contained, proceed to build or re-build the house therein referred to according to the level shown on such plan, provided that such building or re-building be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sewers in streets to be covered with traps, &c.

LVIII. All sewers and drains in streets, whether public or private, shall be provided by the Commissioners or other persons to whom they severally belong, with proper traps or other coverings or means of ventilation so as to prevent stench. If the owner of any private sewer or drain shall, for ten days after notice given to him by the Commissioners, neglect or delay to provide proper traps or coverings or means of ventilation as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith provide and apply the same, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such sewer or drain, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Throwing rubbish into sewers.

LIX. Whoever throws or puts, or permits his servants to throw or put, any earth, dirt, ashes, garden or stable refuse, or any broken glass or earthen-ware, or other rubbish, into any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners, or into any drain communicating therewith, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Common necessaries.

LX. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, provide and maintain in proper and convenient situations, so as not to create a nuisance, common necessaries and urinals, and shall cause the same to be kept in proper order and to be daily cleansed.

Licensing of public necessaries.

LXI. The Commissioners may license, for any period not exceeding one year, such necessaries for public accommodation as they from time to time think proper; and whoever keeps any public necessary without such license, or having a license for such place, suffers the same to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means for cleansing the same, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and in the latter case the license may be cancelled by the Magistrate before whom the person is convicted.

Branch drains, privies, &c. to be under control of Commissioners, and to be kept in good order by owners.

LXII. All branch drains, as well within as without the lands or buildings to which they belong, and all privies and cess-pools in or near the streets, shall be under the survey and control of the Commissioners, and shall be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the costs and charges of the owners of the lands and buildings to which the same belong or for the use of which they are constructed or continued; and if the owner of any land or buildings to which any such drain, privy, or cess-pool belongs, neglect, during fourteen days after notice in writing for that purpose, to alter, repair, and put the same into good order in the manner required by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such drain, privy, or cess-pool to be altered, repaired, and put in good order; and the expense incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof shall be re-paid to them by the owners, by whom the same ought to have been done, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

If owners neglect, Commissioners may cause the same to be done and charge the owners with the expense.

Neglecting to enclose private privy.

LXIII. The owner or occupier of any house or building having a privy erected on his premises, shall have such privy shut out by a sufficient wall or fence from the view of persons passing by.

As to the inspection of drains, privies, and cess-pools.

LXIV. The Commissioners, or any officer appointed by them for the purpose, may inspect any such drain, privy, or cess-pool, and for that purpose at all reasonable times in the day time, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the occupier of the premises to which such drain, privy, or cess-pool is attached, may enter upon any lands and buildings with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where he thinks fit, doing as little damage as may be; and if such drain, privy, or cess-pool be found to be in proper order and condition, he shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be; and the expenses of opening, closing, and making good such drain, privy, or cess-pool shall, in that case, be defrayed by the Commissioners.

Penalty for persons making or altering drains, &c. contrary to the orders of the Commissioners.

LXV. If any such drain, privy, or cess-pool be, on inspection, found to have been constructed, after the passing of this Act, contrary to the directions and regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act; or if any person, without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, re-builds, or unstops, any drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up or not to be made, every person so doing shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and the Commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such drain, privy, or cess-pool as they think fit; and the expense thereof shall be paid by the person by whom such drain, privy, or cess-pool was improperly constructed, re-built, or unstopped, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Owners and Occupiers.

Service of notice on owners and occupiers of buildings and lands.

LXVI. Where any notice is required by this Act to be given to the owner or occupier of any building or land, such notice, addressed to the owner or occupier as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such building or land, or left with some adult male member or servant of his family if residing in his dwelling-house; or if there be no occupier, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such building or land, and it shall not be necessary in any such notice to name the occupier or the owner. Provided always that, when the owner and his residence are known to the Commissioners, it shall be their duty, if such owner be residing within the Town or Station under their authority, to cause every notice, required to be given to the owner of any building or land, to be served on such owner, or left with some adult male member or servant of his family residing as aforesaid, and if the owner be not resident within the Town or Station, they shall send every such notice by the post addressed to his residence.

Commissioners, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expenses.

LXVII. Whenever, under the provisions of this Act, any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house or lands, and default is made in the execution of such works, the Commissioners may cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereby incurred shall be re-paid to them by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Occupier, in default of owner, may execute works and deduct expenses from his rent.

LXVIII. Whenever default is made by the owner of any buildings or lands in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such buildings or lands may, with the approval of the Commissioners, cause such work to be executed; and the expense thereof shall be re-paid to him by the owner, and the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

Recovery of expenses from owner.

LXIX. If the owner of any buildings or lands made liable by this Act for the re-payment to the Commissioners of any expenses incurred by them, do not repay all such expenses, the Commissioners may recover the same from such owner in the manner hereinafter provided, or by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Power to levy charges on occupier, who may deduct the same from his rent.

LXX. The Commissioners may, by way of additional remedy, whether any such action or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then or at any time thereafter occupies any such buildings or lands under such owner; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier, on demand, the same may be levied by distress of the goods and chattels of such occupier; and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as is so paid by or recovered from him in respect of any such expenses.

Occupier not to be liable for more than the amount of rent due.

LXXI. No occupier of any buildings or land shall be liable to pay more money, in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof, than the amount of rent due from him for the premises in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which, at any time after such demand and notice not to pay the same to his landlord, have accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for that purpose by the Commissioners, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burden of proof, that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand or which has since accrued, shall lie upon such occupier; provided further that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any such owner or occupier respecting the payment of the expenses of any such works as aforesaid.

Proceedings in case of tenants opposing the execution of this Act.

LXXII. If the occupier of any buildings or lands prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect, in respect of such buildings or lands, any of the provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any Magistrate, upon proof thereof, may make an order in writing, requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such buildings or lands as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act; and if, after the expiration of ten days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, such occupier shall, for every day during which he so continues to refuse, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal, shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

Tanks and Water supply.

Tanks, &c. vested in the Commissioners.

LXXIII. All public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works, existing at the time of the passing of this Act, or afterwards made, and whether at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise; and all bridges, buildings, engines, works, materials, and things connected therewith or appertaining thereto; and also any adjacent land (not being private property) appertaining to any public tank, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

Construction and maintenance of works for supply of water.

LXXIV. The Commissioners shall cause all existing public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works used for the supply of water to the inhabitants or for the other purposes mentioned in this Act, to be continued, maintained, and supplied with water; or they shall substitute other such works and shall cause them to be maintained and supplied with water; and the Commissioners from time to time, with the consent of the local Government, may construct aqueducts for bringing water into the Towns or Stations under their authority, and may provide any number of new tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, and other such water-works for the purposes aforesaid.

Provision for supply of water in cases of fire.

LXXV. The Commissioners shall, so far as the funds at their disposal will permit, cause all necessary works, machinery, and assistance for securing an efficient supply of water in cases of fire, to be provided and maintained.

Power to Commissioners to contract for supply of water and to grant leases for that purpose.

LXXVI. The Commissioners may, with the consent of the local Government, contract with any person for supplying the Town or Station under their authority, or any part thereof, with water; and may also, with the like consent, grant to any person, so contracting, a lease, for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, of any water-works, machinery, streams, waters, lands, easements, rights, privileges, and advantages belonging to or acquired by, or which may belong to or be acquired by or be vested in the Commissioners under any of the powers or authorities in this or any other Act contained, so as to enable such person so contracting the more effectually and efficiently to procure and supply water in pursuance of any such contract; and every such lease so to be granted by the Commissioners may be made subject to such conditions and stipulations as to the supplying water for the purposes of this Act, or any of them, as may be agreed upon between the respective parties thereto.

Fouling water by Bathing. Washing. Throwing rubbish, &c. Allowing drains, &c. to flow.

LXXVII. Whoever shall, except as permitted by the Commissioners under Section LXXX, bathe in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, or aqueduct belonging to the Commissioners; or shall wash or cause to be washed therein any horse, dog, or other animal, or any wool, cloth, or wearing apparel, or any utensils for cooking or other purposes, or leather, or the skin of any animal, or other foul or offensive thing; or shall throw, put, or cast, or cause to enter therein, any animal or any gravel, stone, dust, or rubbish, or any dirt, filth, or other noisome or offensive matter or thing; or shall cause or suffer to run, drain, or be brought thereinto the water of any sink, sewer, drain, engine, or boiler, or any other unwholesome or offensive liquid matter or thing belonging to him or flowing from any house or building or from any ground occupied by him; or shall do any thing whatsoever whereby any such water shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted—shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Water fouled by offensive trades.

LXXVIII. Whoever, being the proprietor of any gas-works, or being engaged or employed in the manufacture or supply of gas, or being the occupier or proprietor of any place where an offensive trade or manufacture is carried on, shall wilfully do any act connected with his said business, whereby the water in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, aqueduct, or other water-works belonging to the Commissioners, is fouled or corrupted, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand Rupees, and to a further penalty, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, for every day whilst the offence is continued after twenty-four hours' notice in writing from the Commissioners in this behalf; and the Commissioners may, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing, lay open and examine any pipes, conduits, and works belonging to such person; and if, upon such examination, it appears that the water has been fouled or corrupted by any thing proceeding from or contained in the pipes, conduits, or works examined, the expenses of such examination shall be paid by the person to whom such pipes, conduits, or works belong, or under whose management or control they may be, and be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided; but if it appear that the water has not been so fouled or corrupted, then such expenses, and all reasonable damages occasioned by the examination, shall be paid by the Commissioners.

Injuring water-works or diverting or wasting water.

LXXIX. Whoever wilfully or carelessly injures any water-works belonging to the Commissioners, or unlawfully draws off, diverts, or takes water from any such water-works or from any waters or streams belonging to the Commissioners by which such water-works are supplied, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Commissioners may set apart bathing places, &c.

LXXX. The Commissioners may, at their discretion, set apart any public ghaut, or place, or any part of the sea-shore or of the strand of any river (not being private property), for the purpose of being used as a bathing place; and may also provide or set apart a sufficient number of convenient tanks or runs of water for the inhabitants to bathe in; and may also set apart tanks or reservoirs or runs of water for washing animals or clothes, or for any other purpose connected with the health, cleanliness, and comfort of the inhabitants.

Bye-laws to regulate

LXXXI. The Commissioners may, in the manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws—

The use of water.

For regulating all or any matters and things whatsoever connected with the water to be supplied by them, and the use of such water for any of the purposes mentioned in this Act—

Bathing places.

And for regulating the time and place of bathing for persons of each sex in the places provided or appointed by them for the purpose of bathing, in such manner as shall appear to the Commissioners necessary, making due allowance for the habits and customs of the country.

Power to fill up unwholesome tanks on private premises.

LXXXII. When any private tank or low marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water being within any private enclosure, appears to the Commissioners to be injurious to health, or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require, by notice in writing, the owner of the said premises to cleanse or fill up such tank or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during seven days from the service thereof, the Commissioners, their officers, and workmen, may enter into the said premises and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as they shall think fit; and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to drain off and cleanse stagnant pools in open places.

LXXXIII. The Commissioners are hereby empowered, from time to time as they shall see fit, to drain off into any sewers, and cleanse and fill up or otherwise abate, any stagnant pool, ditch, tank, pond, or other receptacle of water (the same not being within any private enclosure) which shall appear to them to be useless or unnecessary, or likely to prove injurious to the health of the inhabitants, whether the same be the private property of any person or otherwise; and the Commissioners, their officers, and workmen, may do all necessary acts for effecting any of the purposes aforesaid.

Provisions relating to the execution of Works.

Commissioners in executing works to provide roads, &c. where existing ones injured.

LXXXIV. The Commissioners, in executing any works directed or authorized by this Act to be made, shall provide and make, at their own expense, a sufficient number of convenient ways, wells, water-courses, drains, and channels in the place of such as may be interrupted, injured, or rendered useless by reason of the execution of such works; and in case of any difference arising between the Commissioners and the persons affected thereby, such difference shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Commissioners breaking up street to restore the same with all convenient speed.

LXXXV. When the pavement or soil of any street, or when any sewer or drain, shall be opened or broken up by the Commissioners, their officers, or servants, they shall, with all convenient speed, complete the work on account of which the same shall have been broken up, and fill in the ground and make good the pavement and soil and the sewer or drain so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall, in the mean-time, cause the place where such pavement or soil shall be so opened or broken up, to be fenced and guarded.

Situation of gas and water-pipes to be altered at the expense of the Commissioners.

LXXXVI. For the purposes of this Act, if the Commissioners deem it necessary to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any water-pipe or gas-pipe, or other water-works or gas-works laid in any of the streets, they may from time to time, by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, to cause forthwith, as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position in such manner as the Commissioners direct; provided that such alteration be not such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the expenses attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and full compensation for every damage done thereby, shall be paid by the Commissioners, as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons. And if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

LXXXVII. If the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of such notice, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered, in such manner as the Commissioners require, the Commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they think fit; provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

If Companies neglect to make alterations, the Commissioners may cause the same to be done.

Precautions during repairs.

LXXXVIII. Every person intending to build or take down any building, or to alter or repair the outward part of any building where any street or footway will be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work, shall, before beginning the same and having first obtained a license in writing from the Commissioners so to do, cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up, in order to separate the building where such works are being carried on from the street, and shall continue such hoard or fence standing and in good condition, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall, in all cases in which it is necessary, in order to prevent accidents, cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night; and every such person who, without license first duly obtained as aforesaid, erects or sets up any hoards, scaffolding, or fence whatsoever, or who, being duly licensed, fails to put up such fence or hoard, or to continue the same standing and in good condition as aforesaid during the time aforesaid, or who does not while the said hoard or fence is standing, keep the same sufficiently lighted during the night, or who does not remove the same when directed by the Commissioners, within a reasonable time afterwards, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day while such default is continued.

Hoards to be set up during repairs.

LXXXIX. The Commissioners shall, during the construction or repair of any of the streets, sewers, or drains vested in them, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining houses, and shall cause such bars, chains, or posts to be fixed across or in any of the streets or roads to prevent the passage of carriages, carts, or other vehicles, cattle, or horses, while such works are carried on, as to them shall seem proper; and the Commissioners shall cause any sewer or drain or other works in streets, during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be lighted and guarded during the night so as to prevent accidents; and whoever takes down, alters, or removes any of the said bars, chains, or posts, or extinguishes any light, without the authority or consent of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Bars to be erected across streets during repairs, and lights placed at nights.

XC. When any building materials, rubbish, or other things are laid, or any hole made, in any of the streets, whether the same be done by order of the Commissioners or not, the person causing such materials or other things to be so laid or such hole to be made, shall, at his own expense, cause a sufficient light to be fixed in a proper place upon or near the same, and continue such light during every night while such materials or hole remain; and such person shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or other things, and such hole, to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed, until such materials or other things are removed, or the hole filled up or otherwise made secure; and every such person who fails so to light, fence, or enclose, such materials or other things, or such hole, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day while such default is continued.

Penalty for not lighting deposits of building materials or excavations.

XCI. In no case shall any such building materials or other things, or such hole, be allowed to remain for an unnecessary time, under a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, to be paid by the person who causes such materials or other things to be laid or such hole to be made, and a further penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day during which the offence is continued after the conviction for such offence; and in any such case the proof that the time has not exceeded the necessary time, shall be upon the person so causing such materials or other things to be laid, or causing such hole to be made.

Penalty for continuing deposits of building materials or excavations an unreasonable time.

XCII. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place, near any street or road be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers, the Commissioners shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed so as to prevent danger thereupon; and the expenses of such repair, protection, or enclosure shall be re-paid to the Commissioners by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Dangerous places near streets to be repaired or enclosed.

Slaughter-Houses and Markets.

XCIII. Within the parts of any of the said Towns and Stations which shall be specially prescribed by the local Government for the purpose, every place used as a slaughter-house shall, within three months after the passing of this Act, be registered by the owner or occupier at the office of the Commissioners, in a book to be kept by them for that purpose; and whoever, after the expiration of that time and after one week's notice from the Commissioners, uses or permits to be used within the limits so prescribed, any slaughter-house without its being registered, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the first day during which such place shall be so used without having been registered.

Slaughter-houses within certain limits to be registered.

XCIV. No place shall be used as a slaughter-house within the prescribed limits which was not in such use at the time of the passing of this Act, and has not so continued ever since, unless and until a license in writing for the use thereof as a slaughter-house has been obtained from the Commissioners, who are hereby empowered, at their discretion, from time to time to grant such licenses; and whoever,

No slaughter-houses to be newly set up without license.

without such license, uses as a slaughter-house any place within such limits not used as such at the time of the passing of this Act and so continued to be used ever since, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the conviction for such offence upon which the said offence is continued.

Commissioners to provide places for slaughter-houses, &c.

XCV. The Commissioners may from time to time, if they shall think fit, with the consent of the local Government, provide places for the purpose of being used as slaughter-houses, and they shall make bye-laws for and with respect to the management and charges for the use of such places.

Markets, slaughter-houses, &c. to be properly drained.

XCVI. Every owner, occupier, or farmer of any public market or bazar, or of any slaughter-house within the prescribed limits, shall cause such drains to be made therein as shall be considered sufficient by the Commissioners, and (if required so to do by the Commissioners) shall cause all the floors and drains to be paved with stone or burnt brick, and shall also cause a supply of water to be provided sufficient for keeping such market, bazar, or slaughter-house in a clean and wholesome state; and in default thereof for four weeks after notice in writing given to him by the Commissioners that such market, bazar, or slaughter-house is defective in any of the said particulars, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the first day during which such default shall be continued.

Commissioners may make bye-laws for the inspection, &c. of slaughter-houses.

XCVII. The Commissioners may, in manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws for the inspection of all public markets and bazars, and of all slaughter-houses within the prescribed limits, and for the management and conduct of the business therein, and for keeping the same in a cleanly and proper state, and for removing filth at least once in every twenty-four hours.

Keeping unwholesome food in market, or in shops, &c.

XCVIII. No animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable, which is unfit for the food of man, shall be kept in any market, bazar, shop, building, stall, or place kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, or fish, or vegetable; and whoever shall keep in any market, bazar, shop, building, stall, or place as aforesaid, or shall expose or allow to be exposed for sale in any other place or way, any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable which is unfit for the food of man, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Sale of unwholesome food or drink.

XCIX. Whoever sells, or offers or exposes for sale, within any of the said Towns and Stations, as food or drink for man, any article which has been rendered or has become noxious or unfit for such use, knowing, or having reason to believe the same to be noxious or unfit for such use, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three hundred Rupees, and such article shall be forfeited and disposed of as the Magistrate shall direct; and it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, on the application of the Commissioners or any of their officers setting forth that he has just cause to believe that any such article is in the possession of any person for the purpose of being sold or offered or exposed for sale as aforesaid, to grant a warrant to enter upon the premises of such person and to search for and seize such article, and if it appear to the Magistrate, upon the evidence of a competent person, that the same is noxious or unfit for such use, he shall order such article to be forfeited and disposed of in such way as to him shall seem proper.

Power to Commissioners to enter and inspect slaughter-houses, shops, &c. and to seize unwholesome articles exposed for sale.

C. The Commissioners, or any person appointed by them for that purpose, may at all reasonable times, with or without assistants, enter into and inspect any market, bazar, building, shop, stall, or place kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or as a slaughter house, and may examine any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables which may be therein; and in case any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables appear to be intended for the food of man and to be unfit for such food, may seize the same; and if it appear to any Magistrate, upon the evidence of a competent person, that such animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables is unfit for the food of man, he shall order the same to be destroyed or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or used for such food; and the owner thereof, or the person in whose custody the same is found, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Suspension or revocation of license, &c.

CI. The Magistrate, before whom any person is convicted of an offence contrary to the provisions of this Act relating to slaughter-houses, or of the non-observance of any of the bye-laws relating thereto made by virtue of this Act, in addition to the penalty imposed on such person under the authority of this Act, may suspend, for any period not exceeding two months, the license granted to such person under this Act; or in case such person be the owner or proprietor of any registered slaughter-house, may forbid, for any period not exceeding two months, the slaughtering of cattle therein; and the Magistrate, upon the conviction of any person for a second or other subsequent like offence, may, in addition to the penalty imposed under the authority of this Act, declare the license granted under this Act revoked, or if such person be the owner or occupier of any registered slaughter-house, may forbid absolutely the slaughtering of cattle therein; and whenever the license of any such person is revoked as aforesaid, or whenever the slaughtering of cattle in any registered slaughter-house is absolutely forbidden as aforesaid, the Commissioners may refuse to grant any license whatever to the person whose license has been so revoked, or on account of whose default the slaughtering of cattle in any registered slaughter-house has been forbidden.

Penalty for using slaughter houses, &c. during suspension or revocation of license, &c.

CII. Whoever, during the period for which any such license is suspended or after the same is revoked as aforesaid, slaughters cattle in the slaughter-house to which such license relates, or otherwise uses such slaughter-house, or allows the same to be used as a slaughter-house; and whoever, during the period that the slaughtering of cattle in any such registered slaughter-house is forbidden as aforesaid, or after such slaughtering has been absolutely forbidden therein, slaughters any cattle in any such registered slaughter-house, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day on which any such offence is committed after the conviction for the first offence.

Offensive or dangerous Trades.

Offensive or dangerous trades existing within certain limits to be registered.

CIII. Within the parts of any of the said Towns and Stations which shall be specially prescribed by the local Government for the purpose, the owner or occupier of every place used at the time of the passing of this Act for any of the following purposes, namely, for melting tallow, or for boiling offal or blood, or as a soap house, dyeing house, tannery, brick or lime, or chunam kiln, sago manufactory, or other manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise, or as a yard or depôt for hay, straw, wood, or coal, shall, within three months after this Act comes into operation, register the same at the office of the Commissioners in a book to be kept by them for that purpose ; and whoever, after the expiration of the said three months and after one week's notice from the Commissioners, uses any such place without the same being registered, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and to a further penalty of fifty Rupees for each day during which the offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing such trades without license.

CIV. No place shall be newly used within the prescribed limits for any of the purpose mentioned in the last preceding Section, except under a license from the Commissioners, who are hereby empowered, at their discretion, from time to time to grant such licenses ; and whoever, without a license, uses any such place for such purpose, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees, and a further penalty of fifty Rupees for each day during which the offence is continued.

Commissioners to make rules for licensing, registering, &c. such business places.

CV. The Commissioners may, in the manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws for the inspection of every place within the prescribed limits used for any of the purposes mentioned in Section CIII and for the management and conduct of such business, whether the same be newly established or not, in such manner as they may think necessary and proper, in order to prevent or diminish the noxious or injurious or offensive effect thereof.

Burial and Burning Places.

Burial and burning grounds to be registered.

CVI. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, cause a survey and measurement to be made of every burial ground and every place used as such, and every burning ground existing at the time of the passing of this Act ; and every such place shall, within three months after this Act shall come into operation, be registered by the owner or the person having the control thereof, at the office of the Commissioners in a book to be kept by them for that purpose ; and whoever, after the expiration of the said time, knowingly buries or burns, or causes, procures, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse in any ground other than in any such registered burial or burning ground, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

No vault or burial place henceforth to be constructed without leave of Commissioners.

CVII. No vault or grave shall be made within the walls of, or underneath any church or chapel or other place of public worship built after the passing of this Act ; and no burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be opened, made, or formed after the passing of this Act, without a license describing the extent and boundaries thereof first obtained from the Commissioners, who are hereby empowered, at their discretion, from time to time, to grant such licenses ; and whoever shall bury or burn, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in any vault, grave, or burial or burning ground opened, made, or formed without such license, or contrary to the terms thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Commissioners to issue certificates prohibiting improper burial places.

CVIII. If upon enquiry made, the Commissioners, with the sanction of the local Government, shall certify, in manner hereinafter provided, that any burial ground or place of burial, or any place used for the burning of corpses, is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, or otherwise a nuisance, or that any church or other place of public worship is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting the same, by reason of the state of the vaults or graves within the walls of or underneath the same or in any church-yard or burial ground adjacent thereto, and shall also certify that a fitting place for interment or burning (as the case may be) exists within a convenient distance, it shall not be lawful, after a time (not less than two months) to be named in such certificate, to bury or burn, or permit or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpses in, upon, within, or under the ground, church, or place of worship to which the certificate relates, except in so far as may be allowed by such certificate ; and whoever, after due publication of such certificate as hereinafter provided, buries or burns, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse contrary to this enactment, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Proviso.

Provided always, that every such certificate shall be published in the Government Gazette (if any) and in one or more of the public newspapers, and that a translation thereof in the native languages chiefly in use in the Town or Station to which it relates, shall, in the case of a burial or burning ground, be affixed, conspicuously on some part of the said ground.

Commissioners may, in certain cases, permit interment in churches, &c.

CIX. Notwithstanding any such certificate as in the preceding Section mentioned, where by usage or otherwise there is, at the time of the passing of this Act, any right of interment in or under any church or chapel or in any vault of such church or chapel or of any church-yard, burial ground, or place of burial affected by such certificate, or where any exclusive right of interment or any exclusive right to ground for the purpose of interment has been purchased or acquired before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if, on application made to them, they are satisfied that the exercise of such right or the use of such ground will not be injurious to health, to grant a license for such exercise or use during such time and subject to such conditions and restrictions as they may think fit.

Commissioners to make bye-laws for regulation of burial and burning grounds.

CX. The Commissioners may, in manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws for the inspection and regulation of burial and burning grounds, and may thereby prescribe rules as to the depth and formation of graves and places of interment; the time and mode of removing bodies, whether for interment, or for the purpose of being burned or thrown into a river; and (in the latter case) as to the ghauts or places to which bodies shall be carried; and generally as to all matters connected with the good order of burial and burning grounds.

Powers of entry upon land.

Power to enter upon lands, &c. for the purposes of this Act.

CXI. The Commissioners shall, for the purposes of this Act, have power, by themselves or their officers, to enter at all reasonable hours in the day time into and upon any buildings or lands, as well for the purpose of making any survey or inspection as for the purpose of executing any work authorized by this Act to be executed by them, without being liable to any legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever on account of such entry or of any thing done in any part of such buildings or lands in pursuance of this Act.

Proviso.

Provided that, except when herein otherwise provided, the Commissioners or their officers shall not enter upon any buildings or lands which may be occupied at the time, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving the said occupier 24 hours' notice of his or their intention to do so.

Power to Commissioners to enter on lands adjacent to works, &c.

CXII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or their officers or servants, to enter upon the lands of any person adjoining to, or being within the distance of one hundred yards of any works by this Act authorized to be made, for the purpose of depositing upon such lands, any soil, gravel, sand, lime, brick, stone, or other materials, or for any other purposes connected with the formation of the said works, without making any previous payment, tender, or deposit, doing as little damage as may be in the exercise of the several powers hereby granted to them, and making compensation for such temporary occupation or temporary damage of the said lands to the owners and occupiers thereof, from time to time, and as often as any such temporary occupation shall be taken or any such temporary damage done, and making compensation to the owners also for the permanent injury (if any) to such lands; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Proviso.

Provided that, before the Commissioners make any such temporary use as aforesaid of the lands adjoining or lying near to the said works, they shall give fourteen days' notice of such their intention to the owners and occupiers of such lands, and shall set apart, by sufficient fences, so much of the lands as shall be required to be used as aforesaid, from the other lands adjoining thereto.

Penalty for obstructing Commissioners in their duty.

CXIII. Whoever at any time obstructs or molests the Commissioners or any of their officers or workmen or any person employed by them or with whom they may have contracted under the provisions of this Act, in the performance and execution of their or his duty or of any thing which they are respectively empowered or required to do by virtue or in consequence of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, or, in the discretion of the Magistrate before whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Power to Commissioners when constructing drains and aqueducts without the jurisdiction of Supreme Court.

CXIV. For the purpose of constructing aqueducts for bringing water into any of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay from any place without the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature, or for the purpose of making sewers or drains to communicate with or empty themselves into any public sewer, lake, stream, canal, or water-course without the said limits, it shall be lawful, whenever a plan for any such aqueduct, sewer, or drain shall have been approved by the local Government, for the Commissioners and their officers, with such assistants as they may require, to exercise, in the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain throughout the line of country through which the said aqueduct, sewer, or drain is to run, all the powers which, by this Act, it is lawful for them to exercise within the said local limits and which may be necessary for the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, without being subject to any action or molestation whatever for so doing; and it shall also be lawful for any Magistrate of any district through which the said aqueduct, sewer, or drain is to run, in furtherance of the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, to do such acts within the limits of his own district as it is, by this Act, lawful for a Magistrate of any of the said Towns to do, in furtherance of any work to be executed by the Commissioners within the said local limits.

Bye-laws.

Commissioners empowered to make bye-laws.

CXV. The Commissioners may, from time to time, make such bye-laws as they think fit for the several purposes for which bye-laws are hereinbefore authorized to be made by them, and may prescribe such reasonable penalties as they think fit, not exceeding twenty Rupees, for each breach of such bye-laws, and may from time to time repeal, alter, or amend any such bye-laws; provided such bye-laws be not repugnant to law or to the provisions of this Act. Such bye-laws shall be reduced into writing and signed by two of the Commissioners, and shall be confirmed and published as hereinafter provided.

Bye-laws to be confirmed.

CXVI. No bye-law, or alteration of a bye-law, shall have effect until the same is confirmed by the local Government.

Notice of confirmation.

CXVII. No bye-law, or alteration of a bye-law, shall be confirmed until the same has been published in the Government Gazette

(if any) or in one of the public newspapers for one month, during which period a copy of such proposed bye-law shall be kept at the office of the Commissioners, and all persons may, at reasonable times, inspect such copy without fee or reward.

Publication of bye-laws

CXVIII. Such bye-laws, when confirmed, shall be published in the Government Gazette (if any) and in one or more of the public newspapers, and a copy thereof in English and in the vernacular languages chiefly in use, shall be painted or placed on boards, which shall be hung up or affixed in some conspicuous part of the office of the Commissioners and also on some conspicuous part of the works or locality to which the same relate.

Bye-laws to be judicially noticed.

CXIX. All Courts and Magistrates shall take judicial notice of such bye-laws when the same shall have been confirmed and published as aforesaid.

Publication of penalties.

CXX. The Commissioners shall publish short particulars of the several offences for which any penalty is imposed by this Act, or by any bye-law made under this Act, and of the amount of every such penalty; and shall cause such particulars to be painted or placed on boards which shall be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous part of the office of the Commissioners, and also on some conspicuous part of the works or locality to which the same relate.

Penalty on pulling down notice.

CXXI. Whoever destroys, pulls down, injures, or defaces any board put up or affixed for the purpose of publishing any bye-law or penalty under this Act, or any notification placed thereon, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Contracts.

Power to Commissioners to make contracts.

CXXII. The Commissioners may enter into contracts with any persons for the execution of any works directed or authorized by this Act to be done by the Commissioners, or for any other things necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Legal Proceedings.

Commissioners may direct prosecutions
Costs to be paid out of rates.

CXXIII. The Commissioners may direct any prosecution for any public nuisance whatsoever, created, permitted, or suffered, and may order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this Act, and may order the expenses of such prosecution or other proceedings to be paid out of the monies to be applied for the purposes of this Act.

Act not to affect nuisances at common law.

CXXIV. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person which is, or, but for this Act, would be deemed to be a nuisance at common law; nor to exempt any person guilty of a nuisance at common law, from prosecution or action in respect thereof. Provided that, if any person, convicted of an offence under this Act, shall have paid the whole amount adjudged to be paid under such conviction, and the costs thereof, in every such case he shall be released from all further or other criminal proceedings for the same offence.

Proviso.

No writ or process to be issued against Commissioners or their officers until after one month's notice of cause of action, &c.

CXXV. No writ or process shall be issued out against or served upon the Commissioners or any of their officers, or any person whomsoever acting under the direction of the Commissioners, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered or left at the office of the Commissioners or at the place of abode of such person, explicitly stating the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the intended plaintiff, and of his attorney or agent in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action, the plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action except such as is stated in the notice so delivered; and unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant; and every such action shall be commenced within three months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards; and if any person to whom any such notice of action is given shall, before action brought, tender sufficient amends to the complainant, such complainant shall not recover in any such action when brought; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action, by leave of the Court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

Power to make compensation out of funds.

CXXVI. The Commissioners shall make full compensation, out of the monies to be applied for the purposes of this Act, to all persons sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the Commissioners, their officers, or servants, under and by virtue of this Act.

Compensation for Lands.

Mode of ascertaining compensation for land, &c.

CXXVII. When there is any hindrance to the acquisition by purchase of any land or building required for the purposes of this Act, the local Government, upon the representation of the Commissioners and after such inquiry as may be thought proper, may declare that the land or building is needed for a public purpose, and may order proceedings for obtaining possession of the same for Government, and for determining the compensation to be paid to the parties interested, according to the laws now or hereafter to be in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes. And the local Government may vest such land or building in the Commissioners on their paying the compensation awarded.

Power to sell Lands.

Power to sell lands.

CXXVIII. The Commissioners, with the consent of the local Government, may sell and dispose of any lands vested in them by virtue of this Act or acquired by them for the purposes thereof, either together or in parcels as they may find most convenient and advantageous; and the money to arise from such sale, shall be applied to such of the purposes of this Act as the Commissioners shall think fit; and for carrying such sale into effect, the Commissioners may execute a conveyance of the lands sold and disposed of to the purchaser, and such conveyance shall be under the common seal of the Commissioners.

Power to sell old roads.

CXXIX. Whenever any street or road hereby vested in the Commissioners shall be discontinued and stopped up under the provisions of Section VII of this Act, the Commissioners may sell the land or such part thereof as shall not be required for the purposes of this Act.

Determination of damages, expenses, &c. by two Magistrates.

Damages how to be determined.

CXXX. In all cases where any damages, costs, or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount of the same, in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined by two Magistrates, and in the Town of Bombay by the Court of Petty Sessions; and if the amount so ascertained, be not paid by the party liable to pay the same, within seven days after demand, the amount may be recovered by distress, and the Magistrates by whom the same shall have been ordered to be paid, or either of them, or the said Court of Petty Sessions, on application, shall issue a warrant accordingly.

To be levied by distress.

Method of proceeding before Magistrates in questions of damages, &c.

CXXXI. In any case referred to the determination of two Magistrates under this Act, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, upon the application of either party, to summon the other party to appear before any two Magistrates, and in the Town of Bombay before the Court of Petty Sessions, at a time and place to be named in such summons; and upon the appearance of such parties, or, in the absence of any of them, upon proof of due service of the summons, it shall be lawful for such Magistrates or such Court to hear and determine such question, and for that purpose to examine such parties or any of them and their witnesses on oath; and the cost of every such enquiry shall be in the discretion of such Magistrates or such Court, and they shall determine the amount thereof. Provided that, in the event of a difference of opinion between such Magistrates, the case shall be referred to the determination of a third Magistrate, or (if there be no such Magistrate) any Justice of the Peace to be selected by them.

Proviso.

Penalties.

Penalties to be summarily recovered before a Magistrate.

CXXXII. Every fine or penalty imposed under or by virtue of this Act, or any bye-law made in pursuance thereof, may be recovered by summary proceeding before a Magistrate in the manner following. On complaint being made to any Magistrate, he shall issue a summons requiring the party complained against to appear before himself or any other Magistrate at a time and place to be named in such summons; and every such summons shall be served on the party offending, either in person or by leaving the same at his usual place of abode with some adult male member or servant of his family; and upon the appearance of the party complained against, or, in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate to proceed to the hearing of the complaint; and that although no information in writing or in print shall have been exhibited before him; and upon proof of the offence, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to convict the offender, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty or fine incurred, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such Magistrate shall think fit.

Penalties to be levied by distress.

CXXXIII. If, forthwith upon any such adjudication, the amount of the fine or penalty and costs be not paid, the same shall be levied by distress under the warrant of such Magistrate.

Imprisonment in default of distress.

CXXXIV. It shall be lawful for any such Magistrate to order any offender so convicted as aforesaid, to be detained and kept in safe custody until return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless the offender give sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, for his appearance before him on the day appointed for such return, such day not being more than eight days from the time of taking such security; but if, before issuing such warrant of distress, it shall appear to the Magistrate, by the admission of the offender or otherwise, that no sufficient distress can be had within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate whereon to levy such fine or penalty and costs, he may, if he think fit, refrain from issuing such warrant of distress; and in such case, or if such warrant shall have been issued, and upon the return thereof such insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the Magistrate, he shall, by warrant, commit the offender to jail, there to remain without bail for any term not exceeding two months, unless such fine or penalty and costs be sooner paid and satisfied.

Penalties and expenses.

Distress how to be levied.

CXXXV. Where, in this Act, any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same; and the over-plus arising from the sale of such goods and chattels, after satisfying such sum of money and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned, on demand, to the party whose goods shall have been distrained.

Commissioners may sue in competent Court instead or on failure of distress.

CXXXVI. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of any compensation, expenses, charges, or damages awarded under the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Distress not unlawful for—

CXXXVII. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such defect or irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Want of form.

How penalties are to be applied.

CXXXVIII. The Magistrate by whom any such fine or penalty is imposed, may award not more than one-half thereof or any less sum to the informer, and shall order the remainder, or if he make no award to the informer, the whole of such fine or penalty to be paid to the Commissioners, to be by them applied to the purposes of this Act.

Penalties to be sued for within three months.

CXXXIX. No person shall be liable to the payment of any fine or penalty imposed by virtue of this Act, for any offence made cognizable before a Magistrate, unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made before a Magistrate within three months next after the commission of such offence.

Damage to be made good in addition to penalty.

CXL. If through any act, neglect, or default, on account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by this Act, any damage to the property of the Commissioners shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage, as well as to pay such penalty; and the amount of such damage shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the Magistrate by whom the party incurring such penalty shall have been convicted; and on non-payment of such damage on demand, the same shall be levied by distress, and such Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly.

Penalty on witnesses making default.

CXLI. It shall be lawful for any Magistrate to summon any person to appear before him as a witness in any matter in which he shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, at a time and place mentioned in such summons, and to administer to him an oath to testify the truth in such matter; and if any person so summoned shall, without reasonable excuse, refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, or if any person appearing shall refuse to be examined upon oath or to give evidence before such Magistrate, every such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month.

Transient offenders.

CXLII. It shall be lawful for any officer of the Commissioners or of the Police, and for all persons called by him to his assistance, to seize and detain any person who shall have committed any offence against the provisions of this Act, and whose name or residence shall be unknown to such officer, and convey him with all convenient despatch before a Magistrate without any warrant or other authority than this Act; and such Magistrate shall proceed with all convenient despatch to the hearing and determining of the complaint against such offender.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

CXLIII. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Magistrate shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th October 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th October 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of January next:—

A Bill for regulating the Police of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the Police, and the administration of justice in the Police Courts, of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several Stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca: It is enacted as follows:—

Acts &c., repealed

I. The several Acts, and Rules Ordinances and Regulations, mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or any part of any other Act, or Rule Ordinance and Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation; and Sections II, III, IV, and V of Act XXII of 1837, and Sections XXII, XXXI, XXXII, XXXIII, XXXV, and XXXVII of Act XIX of 1852, shall be read as if the words "the Commissioner of Police" were substituted therein, for the words "the Superintendent of Police."

Interpretation.

II. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, (that is to say)—

The expression "Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, in which the Town or Station is situated.

The word "Magistrate" shall mean any Magistrate of Police acting for the place where the matter, requiring the cognizance of a Magistrate, arises.

The word "Town" shall include all places within the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

The word "Station" shall mean any one of the Stations of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and the dependencies thereof.

The word "property" shall include any chattel money, or valuable security.

The term "Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature" shall include the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, or any Court or Courts of Judicature hereafter to be constituted in the said Settlement to or in which the powers of the said Court may be transferred or vested.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number; and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

The word "person" shall include a corporation.

The word "month" shall mean calendar month.

The word "oath" shall include any affirmation or declaration lawfully substituted for an oath.

The word "cattle" shall include horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats, and swine.

Appointment and removal of Commissioner of Police.

III. The administration of the Police in any of the said Towns or Stations may, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, be vested in an Officer to be styled the Commissioner of Police for such Town or Station, who shall be appointed by the Local Government, and may be removed by the same authority.

Appointment of Deputies to the Commissioner of Police.

IV. The Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, may from time to time appoint one or more Deputies to the Commissioner of Police, who shall be competent to perform any of the duties assigned to that Officer under his orders.

Commissioner of Police shall not ordinarily be a Magistrate.

V. The Commissioner of Police shall not ordinarily be a Magistrate of Police under this Act, but with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may be appointed to that office, when the Local Government, for special reasons, may deem it expedient.

Commissioner of Police to be a Justice of the Peace, but to act only in certain cases.

VI. The Commissioner of Police shall be a Justice of the Peace, but unless he is vested with the jurisdiction of a Magistrate of Police, he shall act as a Justice only so far as may be necessary for the preservation of the peace, the prevention of crimes, and the detection, apprehension, and detention of offenders, in order to their being brought before a Magistrate of Police; and so far as may be necessary for the performance of the duties assigned to the Commissioner by this Act. The Deputies to the Commissioner of Police may be appointed Justices of the Peace, subject to the above restriction.

Constitution of Police Force.

VII. For each of the said Towns and Stations, there shall be a Police Force, which shall consist of such number of Officers and men, and shall be otherwise constituted in such manner, as shall be, from time to time, ordered by the Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council.

VIII. The Police Force shall be under the exclusive direction and control of the Commissioner of Police, who may, from time to time, subject to the approbation of the Local Government, frame such orders and regulations as he shall deem expedient, relative to the general government of the Force, the places of residence, the classification, rank, distribution, and particular services of the several members thereof; their inspection; the description of arms, accoutrements, and other necessaries to be furnished to them; and all such other orders and regulations relative to the said Police Force as the said Commissioner shall, from time to time, deem expedient for preventing neglect or abuse, and for rendering such force efficient in the discharge of all its duties.

Commissioner to frame rules for the general government of the Police Force—to be approved by Government.

IX. The appointment of the members of the Police Force shall rest with the Commissioner of Police, and he may, at any time, suspend or dismiss from his employment any member of the Force, whom he shall think remiss or negligent in the discharge of his duty, or otherwise unfit for the same.

Power to Commissioner to appoint, suspend, or dismiss any of the Police Force.

X. For lesser breaches of discipline, or other misconduct not requiring the suspension or dismissal of the offender, the members of the Police Force may be fined by the Commissioner, in any sum not exceeding one-half of the offender's monthly pay.

Power of Commissioner to fine members of the Police Force.

XI. For neglect or violation of duty in his office, and for any breach of the orders and regulations framed as aforesaid, every member of the Police, besides being suspended or dismissed from his employment at the discretion of the Commissioner, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees (which may be deducted from any salary then due to such offender), or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding three calendar months.

Additional penalties for members of the Police Force for neglect of duty, &c.

XII. Every member of the Police Force shall receive, on his enrolment, a certificate, under the signature of the Commissioner of Police, by virtue of which he shall be vested with the powers, functions, and privileges of a Constable. Such certificate shall cease to have effect whenever the person named in it is suspended or dismissed, or otherwise removed from employment in the Force.

Members of Police Force to receive certificates vesting them with the powers of a Constable.

XIII. No member of the Police Force shall be at liberty to resign his office, or to withdraw himself from the duties thereof, unless expressly allowed so to do in writing by the Commissioner, or unless he shall have given to the Commissioner one month's notice of his intention; and every member of the said Force, who shall so resign or withdraw himself without such leave or notice, shall be liable, on the order of the Commissioner, to forfeit all arrears of pay then due to him, or on the sentence of a Magistrate to pay a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding two months.

Members of the Police Force cannot resign without leave, or one month's notice.

XIV. Every member of the Police Force who shall be dismissed from, or shall cease to hold and exercise his office, and who shall not forthwith deliver over all the clothing, accoutrements, and appointments, and other necessaries which may have been supplied to him for the execution of his duty, to the Commissioner, or to such person and at such time and place as shall be directed by the said Commissioner, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding one month. And it shall be lawful for the Commissioner, or for any Magistrate, to issue his warrant to search for and seize all the clothing, accoutrements, appointments, and other necessaries which shall not be so delivered over, wherever the same may be found.

Penalty for dismissed members of Police Force not delivering clothing, accoutrements, &c.

XV. There shall be deducted from the pay of every member of the Police Force under the rank of Darogah, a sum, after such yearly rate as the Local Government shall direct, not being a greater rate than half an anna in the Rupee, which sum so deducted, and also the monies accruing from stoppages from members of the Police Force during sickness, and fines imposed on members thereof for misconduct, and from fines imposed by Magistrates upon drunken persons, or for assaults upon Police Officers, and from the proceeds of the sale of all unclaimed, stolen, or lost property in the hands of the Police, and all moneys arising from the sale of worn or cast-off clothing, or other articles supplied for the use of the Police, shall from time to time be invested in such manner and in such securities as the Local Government may, in writing, direct, by and in the name of the Commissioner of Police for the time being, and the interest and dividends thereof, or so much of the same as shall not be required for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, shall be likewise invested as aforesaid, and accumulate so as to form a fund, to be called "The Police Superannuation Fund," and shall be applied from time to time to payment of such superannuation or retiring allowances or gratuities as may be ordered by the Local Government, at any time, to any of the members of the Police Force as hereinafter provided.

Police Superannuation Fund.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Local Government to order that any member of the Police Force under the rank of Darogah, who is incapacitated from further employment by old age, protracted ill-health, loss of sight, or other bodily or mental infirmity, may be superannuated, and receive thereupon, out of the Police Superannuation Fund, a yearly pension, subject to the following conditions, and not exceeding the following proportions, that is to say:—

Pensions to members of the Police Force under the rank of Darogah.

First.—If the period during which the individual shall have been actually employed in the Police Force, be more than twenty years, but less than thirty years, the amount of the pension shall not exceed one-third of the monthly salary or authorized official allowances of such individual, calculated on an average of five years previously to the date of the application for such pension.

Secondly.—If the period of actual service be thirty years or upwards, the amount of the pension shall not exceed one-half of the salary or authorized allowances of the individual, calculated in the manner above stated. Provided also, that if any Officer of the Police Force shall be disabled by any wound or injury received in the actual execution of the duty of his office, it shall be lawful to grant to him any monthly allowance, not more than the half of his pay; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle any member of the Police absolutely to any superannuation allowance, or to prevent him from being dismissed without superannuation allowance.

Commissioner of Police may appoint special Constables when necessary.

XVII. The Commissioner of Police may, of his own authority, appoint special Constables to assist the Police Force on any temporary emergency.

Appointment, maintenance, and discontinuance of additional Constables on the application of private individuals.

XVIII. The Commissioner of Police may also, if he shall think fit, on the application of any person showing the necessity of it, appoint any additional number of Constables to keep the peace at any place within his jurisdiction, at the charge of the person applying, but subject to the orders of the said Commissioner, and for such time as he shall think fit; and every such Constable shall have all the powers, privileges, and duties of the Constables belonging to the Police Force. Provided that the person, upon whose application such appointment shall have been made, may, upon giving one month's notice in writing to the Commissioner of Police, require that the Constables so appointed at his expense shall be discontinued, and thereupon the said Commissioner shall discontinue such additional Constables, and all moneys received by the Commissioner for the payment of any such additional Constables shall be accounted for by him.

Proviso.

Apprehension of fugitive offenders escaping out of the limits of the Towns.

XIX. In the case of any person charged with felony or any offence against the peace committed within any of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, escaping out of the limits thereof, it shall be lawful for any Police Officer of such Town, provided with a warrant under the hand and signature of the Commissioner of Police, to pursue such offender, and to arrest him wherever he may be found within the Presidency to which such Town belongs.

Appointment of Police Magistrates, &c.

XX. The Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may constitute, within the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, and within the said Settlement, so many Police Districts as to such Government shall seem fit, and define the extent thereof; and from time to time alter the number and extent of such Police Districts, and establish a Police Court for each of such Districts; and from time to time appoint a sufficient number of fit persons to sit as Magistrates in such Police Courts, for the trial of persons charged with offences under this Act. Every such Magistrate of Police shall also be appointed a Justice of the Peace.

Police Officers to be in attendance at the Police Courts.

XXI. The Commissioner of Police shall take care that a sufficient number of Officers belonging to the Police Force shall be in attendance upon every Magistrate sitting at any Police Court, for the purpose of executing all such orders and process as may be directed to them.

Warrants, &c., to be served by Police Officer.

XXII. All summonses and warrants issued on any criminal proceeding, or by any Magistrate of Police, shall be served and executed by an Officer of the Police Force and by none other.

Execution of warrants, &c.

XXIII. When any warrant shall be directed or delivered to any such Officer, unless it be necessary for the due execution thereof that such warrant be executed without delay, such Police Officer shall deliver the same to the Superintendent, or Deputy Superintendent, or other superior Officer in charge of the Division to which he belongs, who shall appoint, by endorsement thereon, one or more Police Officers to execute the same; and every Police Officer whose name shall be so endorsed thereon, shall have the same powers, privileges, and protections as if the same had been originally directed to him by name.

Trial and punishment of offences.

XXIV. Clause 1.—Whoever is charged with committing any of the offences mentioned in this Act within any of the said Towns or Stations, or within the limits of any of the Ports of the said Towns or Stations, or of any navigable river or channel leading thereto, as such limits shall be defined under the provisions of Act No. XXII of 1855, may be tried summarily by any Magistrate for such Town or Station, and on conviction, on his own confession, or on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, may be sentenced by such Magistrate to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for the offence; or if the offence is cognizable by Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, may, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be committed for trial before such Court. Such Magistrate shall in no case pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding six months, or of fine for an amount exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Punishment of juvenile offenders.

Clause 2.—Provided that, whenever any person is convicted before a Magistrate of any offence summarily punishable under this Act with imprisonment, the Magistrate may, if the person so convicted appears to him to be of such tender years as to require punishment rather in the way of school discipline, than of ordinary criminal justice, sentence him to corporal punishment with a light rattan or cane not exceeding ten stripes instead of imprisonment.

Stealing or receiving stolen property not exceeding the value of fifty Rupees.

XXV. Whoever steals any property, or fraudulently receives any stolen property knowing the same to be stolen, the value of which property, in the opinion of the Magistrate, does not exceed fifty Rupees, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, or, if a male, to corporal punishment not exceeding thirty stripes of a rattan.

Embezzlement, &c.

XXVI. Whoever embezzles, fraudulently misapplies in breach of trust, or obtains by false pretences, any property, the value of which, in the opinion of the Magistrate, does not exceed fifty Rupees, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months.

Summary conviction of accessaries to the commission of certain felonies.

XXVII. Whoever instigates or aids the commission of any of the offences mentioned in the last two preceding Sections, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding six months.

Wrongful appropriation of property found.

XXVIII. Whoever, finding any property not in the possession of any person, takes it into his own possession, and (with intent to despoil the owner) fraudulently disposes of it, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months.

In Bombay certain offenders may be committed for trial before the Court of Petty Sessions.

XXIX. Provided that, in the Town of Bombay, any Police Magistrate may commit for trial before the Court of Petty Sessions any person charged before him with any of the offences mentioned in Sections XXV, XXVI, XXVII, and XXVIII of this Act; and the said Court may, on conviction, sentence the offender to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding 12 months, and in cases falling under Section XXV, if a male, to corporal punishment not exceeding 30 stripes of a rattan.

Restoration of stolen property.

XXX. Upon a conviction for any of the offences mentioned in Sections XXV, XXVI, and XXVIII of this Act, the Magistrate, and in Bombay the Court of Petty Sessions in cases committed to that Court, may order the restitution of the property forming the subject of the charge, if forthcoming, to the owner; and in case of its not being restored pursuant to such order, may impose on any person refusing or neglecting to restore the same, a fine not exceeding the value of the said property, which the Magistrate or Court may order to be paid to the owner or his representative.

Compensation to persons who have suffered by theft, &c.

XXXI. Upon a conviction for any of the said offences, the Magistrate, and in Bombay the Court of Petty Sessions in cases committed to that Court, may impose upon the offender, in addition to the punishment for the offence, a fine not exceeding the loss appearing to be caused to the several persons who have suffered thereby, and may pay or distribute the proceeds of the said fine, or any part thereof, to or for the benefit of the said several persons.

Fraudulent possession of stolen property.

XXXII. Clause 1.—Whoever has in his possession, or conveys in any manner, any thing which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or unlawfully obtained, shall, if he fail to account satisfactorily how he came by the same, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Clause 2.—If any person, charged with having or conveying any thing stolen or unlawfully obtained, shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent, or servant, to convey the same for some other person, the Magistrate shall cause every such other person, and also, if necessary, every former or pretended purchaser or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed, to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it appear to such Magistrate that any person so brought before him had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months. Every such person shall be deemed to have had possession of such thing at the time and place when and where the same shall have been found or seized; and the possession of a carrier, agent, or servant, shall be deemed to be the possession of the person who employed such carrier, agent, or servant to keep or convey the same.

Disposal of stolen property in custody of Police.

XXXIII. If any property charged to be stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall be in the custody of any Police Officer by virtue of any warrant of a Magistrate, or in prosecution of any charge of felony or misdemeanor in regard to the obtaining thereof, and the person charged with stealing or so obtaining possession thereof, shall not be found, or shall have been summarily dealt with or discharged, or shall have been tried and acquitted, or if such person shall have been tried and found guilty, but the property so in custody shall not have been included in the indictment upon which he shall have been found guilty, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate to make an order for the delivery of such property to the party who shall appear to be the rightful owner thereof; or in case the owner cannot be ascertained, then to make such order with respect to the property as to the Magistrate shall seem meet. Provided always, that no such order shall be any bar to the right of any person to sue the party to whom the property shall be delivered, and to recover such property from him by action at law, so that the action be commenced within two calendar months next after such order shall have been made.

Cases of assault, forcible entry, or other injury, not being felony.

XXXIV. Whoever commits any assault, forcible entry, or other injury, accompanied with force, not being felony, against the person or property of any person whatsoever, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding four months. And if the penalty adjudged be a fine, the Magistrate may award the whole or any part thereof to the party aggrieved by way of satisfaction for such injury.

Assaulting Policeman in execution of duty.

XXXV. Whoever assaults or resists, or aids or incites any person to assault or resist, any Police Officer in the execution of his duty, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

Penalty for escaping from a place of legal confinement.

XXXVI. Whoever escapes, or attempts to escape, out of any place of legal confinement, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months; and such imprisonment shall commence and take effect from and after the expiration of any sentence of imprisonment under which such person may be confined at the time of committing the offence aforesaid.

XXXVII. Whoever, without satisfactory excuse, wilfully trespasses in or on any dwelling-house or premises, not thereby causing any actual damage, or on any ground belonging to Government, or appropriated to public purposes, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Penalty for trespassing in or on any dwelling-house, or premises, or public grounds.

XXXVIII. Whoever, without lawful excuse, intentionally causes disturbance to any assembly or procession lawfully engaged in the performance of religious worship or religious ceremonies, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, or to both.

Disturbing an assembly engaged in religious worship.

XXXIX. Whoever wilfully trespasses on the premises of any person, or on any place used or set apart for the performance of any religious ceremony, with intent to disturb any person in the performance of any religious rite or ceremony, or to offend the religious feelings of any person, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Trespassing with intent to disturb any person in the performance of, or to insult any religious ceremony, &c.

XL. Whoever, without lawful excuse, wilfully trespasses on any spot for the time being appropriated to the cooking or preparation of food, or touches any food or utensil, so as to defile the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Trespassing upon any spot temporarily appropriated for the purpose of cooking.

XLI. Whoever, being a Police Officer, or being employed in any Police Office, asks for or takes any bribe or unauthorized reward, in consideration of his doing, or omitting to do, any act in his official capacity; and whoever gives or offers any such bribe or reward to any such person on such consideration as aforesaid, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding four months.

Police Officers taking bribes.

XLII. If any person, having sufficient means, neglects or refuses to maintain his wife, or his legitimate or illegitimate child or children, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate, upon due proof thereof, to order such person to make a monthly allowance for the maintenance of his wife and children, or any of them, at such rate, not exceeding twenty Rupees, as to the Magistrate shall seem reasonable; and if such person shall not duly comply with the said order, the Magistrate may, by warrant, direct the amount due to be levied by distress and sale of his property; and if sufficient property be not forthcoming, may order him to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month.

Magistrate may make order of maintenance for wives and children.

XLIII. Whoever unlawfully takes away, or detains against her will, any woman; or unlawfully takes or entices away, or detains, any female child under the age of thirteen years, out of the possession, custody, or protection, and against the will of the husband, parent, guardian, or other person, who has the lawful charge or government of such child—for the purpose of living in adultery or concubinage with such woman or child, or for the purpose of prostitution, or of deflowering her, or disposing of her in marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, or to fine, or to both.

Taking or enticing away women or female children under the age of 13 years.

XLIV. Upon complaint made to a Magistrate on oath of the abduction or unlawful detention of a woman or child within the meaning of the last preceding Section, for any of the purposes aforesaid, such Magistrate may make an order for the immediate restoration of such woman to her liberty, or of such female child to her husband, parent, guardian, or such other person as aforesaid, as the case may be, and may compel compliance with such order, using force if necessary.

Magistrate may compel immediate restoration of such woman or child.

XLV. Any person who shall be found between sun-set and sun-rise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to commit any felonious act; any reputed thief, who shall be found between sun-set and sun-rise, on board any vessel or boat, or lying or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, and not giving a satisfactory account of himself; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, having his face blackened, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any felony; any person who shall be found between sun-set and sun-rise, in any dwelling-house or other building whatsoever, without being able satisfactorily to account for his presence therein; and any person having in his possession, without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on such person), any implement of house-breaking—may be taken into custody by any Police Officer without a warrant, and shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months.

Apprehension and punishment of reputed thieves, &c.

XLVI. Whoever, not being a soldier or sailor in the service of the Queen or the East India Company, or a Police Officer, goes armed with any sword, spear, gun, or other offensive weapon, in any street, thoroughfare, or public place, unless by leave of the Commissioner of Police, shall be liable to be disarmed by any Police Officer; and the weapon so seized shall be forfeited to the Government, unless the Commissioner of Police shall think fit to restore it, or permit its redemption on payment of a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Penalty for carrying arms without authority.

XLVII. Whoever, not being amenable to the Articles of War, takes, or attempts to take, into Fort William at Calcutta, or Fort St. George, or into the Barracks or buildings occupied by the troops composing the garrison of Bombay, or into any Military Barracks within any of the said Towns or Stations, or on board or alongside of any Vessel of War belonging to Her Majesty or the East India Company in the Ports of the said Towns or Stations, any spirits or spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, or preparations of any kind, without the license in writing of the Commanding Officer (unless such articles belong to some person above the rank of Non-Commissioned Officer), shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months, with or without Penalty for taking spirits or liquors into Fort, &c.

hard labour; and such liquors, drugs, or preparations, and the vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited.

Penalty for taking spirits, &c., into Jail.

XLVIII. Whoever takes or throws, or attempts to take or throw, into any Jail or House of Correction, any spirits or spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs or preparations, without the consent of the person in charge thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding two months

Penalty for keeping Taverns and places of public entertainment without a license from the Commissioner of Police.

XLIX. Whoever, in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, has or keeps any Hotel, Tavern, Punch-House, Ale-House, Arrack or Toddy Shop; Eating-House, Coffee-House, Boarding-House, Lodging-House, or other place of public resort and entertainment, wherein spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs or preparations of any kind, are sold or consumed (whether the same be kept or retailed therein or procured elsewhere), without a license from the Commissioner of Police, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day that such unlicensed house or place of public resort and entertainment is kept open.

Licenses by Commissioner of Police for keeping taverns and places of public entertainment.

L. The Commissioner of Police shall, from time to time, grant licenses to the keepers of such houses or places of public resort and entertainment in the said Towns, and upon such conditions, to be inserted in every such license, as he, with the sanction of the Local Government, from time to time, shall order, for securing the good behaviour of the keepers of the said houses or places of public resort and entertainment, and the prevention of drunkenness and disorder among the persons frequenting or using the same; and the said licenses may be granted by the said Commissioner for any term not exceeding one year; provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioner to grant a license to open or establish, or keep open, any house of public entertainment in which any spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs or preparations, may be sold or consumed, to any person who has not taken out a license for the retail sale of such articles under the Abkaree or Excise Laws for the time being in force; and any such license granted by the Commissioner shall become void whenever the license necessary under the Abkaree or Excise Laws shall terminate or be recalled. And every holder of such license may be required by the Commissioner to fix in a conspicuous part of the house or place specified in the license, a board on which shall be legibly painted, in the English and Vernacular languages, the name of the holder, and the articles he is licensed to deal in. Provided that Act V of 1842, authorizing the levy of a fee, tax, or duty on licenses to retail spirituous liquors in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, shall be applicable to licenses granted under this Section. For every license granted under this Section in the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, there shall be paid a fee of one Rupee.

Proviso.

Penalty for breach of license.

LI. Whoever, being the keeper of any such house or place of public resort and entertainment in the said Towns, wilfully offends against any condition of his license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and also, in the discretion of the Magistrate, to forfeit his license.

Disorderly conduct in houses of public entertainment.

LII. Whoever, being the keeper of any such house or place of public resort and entertainment in the said Towns, or of any house or shop within the said Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, licensed under Act No. XIV of 1851, knowingly permits drunkenness or other disorderly behaviour in such house or place, or knowingly suffers any gaming whatsoever therein, or who knowingly permits prostitutes, or persons of notoriously bad character, to meet or remain therein, or who wilfully harbours or conceals any soldier, seaman, or apprentice, knowing, or having reason to believe, such soldier, seaman, or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and shall also be liable to forfeit his license.

Brothels

LIII. On the complaint of three or more householders that a house in their immediate neighbourhood is used as a common brothel, or lodging-house for prostitutes or disorderly persons of any description, to the annoyance of the respectable inhabitants of the vicinity, a Magistrate may summon the owner or tenant of the house to answer the complaint, and on being satisfied that the house is so used, and is therefore a source of annoyance and offence to the neighbours, may order the owner or tenant to discontinue such use of it, and if he shall fail to comply with such order within five days, may impose upon him a fine, to the extent of twenty-five Rupees, for every day thereafter that the house shall be so used.

Penalty for owning, or keeping, or being employed in a gaming house, &c.

LIV. Whoever, being the owner or occupier, or having the use of any house, room, or place, opens, keeps, or uses the same for the purpose of gaming being carried on therein, and whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house or room, knowingly and wilfully permits the same to be opened, kept, or used by any other person for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever has the care or management of, or in any manner assists in conducting the business of any house, room, or place opened, kept, or used for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever advances or furnishes money for the purpose of gaming with persons frequenting such house, room, or place—shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty for being found playing in a gaming-house.

LV. Whoever is found in any such house, room, or place, playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, or is found there present for the purpose of gaming, whether playing for any money, wager, stake, or otherwise, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months; and any person found in any common gaming-house during any gaming or playing therein, shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved, to have been there for the purpose of gaming.

Commissioner of Police or Magistrate may grant warrants to Police Officers to enter a gaming house for the purpose of search and seizure.

LVI. The Commissioner of Police, or any Magistrate, upon information laid before him on oath that there is reason to suspect any house, room, or place to be used as a common gaming-house, may, by his warrant, give authority to any Police Officer to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room, or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein, whether or not then actually gaming, and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all moneys, and securities for money, and articles of value, reasonably suspected to have been used or intended to be used for the purpose of gaming, which are found therein, and to search all parts of the house, room, or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and to search also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all instruments of gaming, and money, and securities for money, and other articles of value as aforesaid, which are found upon such search.

Police Officers on view of offence, may enter gaming-houses without warrant.

LVII. If any Police Officer shall see any persons engaged in playing at cards, dice, or other game, in any common gaming-house, it shall be lawful for such Police Officer, without a warrant, to enter such gaming-house, and to apprehend all persons whom he shall find therein in the act or for the purpose of gaming, and to seize and take possession of all moneys, and securities for money, and other articles of value as aforesaid, and instruments of gaming, found therein, or upon the persons of those so taken into custody. Provided that such Police Officer shall not use force or violence for the purpose of gaining admittance into such gaming-house.

Proviso.

Cards and other instruments of gaming found in certain houses, to be primâ facie proof that such houses are gaming-houses.

LVIII. When any cards, dice, gaming-table, or cloth, board, or other instruments of gaming, are found in any house, room, or place, of which information has been given on oath to a Magistrate, that it is suspected of being used as a common gaming-house, or about the person of any of those who are found therein, it shall be evidence, until the contrary is made to appear, that such house, room, or place is used as a common gaming-house, and that the persons found therein were there present for the purpose of gaming, although no play was actually seen by the Police Officer, or any of his assistants.

On conviction, instruments of gaming to be destroyed, &c.

LIX. On conviction of any person for keeping any such common gaming-house, or being present therein for the purpose of gaming, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Magistrate, who may also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all moneys seized therein, to be forfeited, or, in his discretion, may order any part thereof to be returned to the persons appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

Proof of playing for stakes unnecessary.

LX. It shall not be necessary, in order to convict any person of keeping a common gaming-house, or of being concerned in the management of any common gaming-house, to prove that any person found playing at any game was playing for any money, wager, or stake.

Witnesses indemnified.

LXI. Any person who shall have been concerned in gaming contrary to this Act, and who shall be examined as a witness before a Magistrate on the trial of any person or persons for a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, and who, upon such examination, shall make true and faithful discovery, to the best of his or her knowledge, of all things as to which he or she shall be so examined, and who shall thereupon receive from the said Magistrate a certificate in writing to that effect, shall be freed from all prosecutions under this Act for any thing done before that time in respect of such gaming.

Act not to apply to certain games.

LXII. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Act contained shall be held to apply to any game of mere skill played at licensed Hotels, Taverns, or Eating-houses, or places of public resort.

Penalty for cheating at games.

LXIII. Whoever, by any fraud, or unlawful device, or ill-practice in playing at or with cards, dice, or other game, or in bearing a part in the stakes, wagers, or adventures, or in betting on the sides or hands of them that do play, or in wagering on the event of any game, sport, pastime, or exercise, wins from any other person, for himself or any other or others, any sum of money or valuable thing, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining such money or valuable thing from such other person by a false pretence, with intent to cheat or defraud such person of the same, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to punishment accordingly.

Portion of fine may be paid to informer.

LXIV. The Magistrate may direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth, of any fine which shall be levied under Sections LIV and LV of this Act, or any part of the moneys or proceeds of articles seized under Section LIX and ordered to be forfeited, to be paid to an informer.

Penalty for gambling in the streets.

LXV. A Police Officer may apprehend without warrant any person found gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming in any public street, place, or thoroughfare, or publicly fighting cocks, or present as a spectator of such cock-fighting; and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month, and such instruments of gaming and money shall be forfeited.

Brokers, &c., to be licensed by Commissioner of Police.

LXVI. No person shall exercise or carry on the trade or business of a broker or dealer in second-hand property, or of a pawn-broker, without a license from the Commissioner of Police prescribing such terms and conditions as he, with the sanction of the Local Government, from time to time shall order, which license the Commissioner of Police may grant or refuse at his discretion, and for which, if granted, the applicant shall pay a fee of one Rupee. Such license shall continue in force for one year, and no longer, unless sooner revoked or suspended by a Magistrate, on conviction of the holder thereof of a violation of any of the conditions of the license, or of the provisions of this Act.

Penalty for unlicensed brokers.

LXVII. Whoever shall exercise or carry on the trade or business of a broker or dealer in second-hand property, or of a pawn-broker, without such a license as aforesaid, or shall contravene the terms of the license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Taking pledge from children under the age of fourteen.

LXVIII. Every licensed broker or pawn-broker who takes from any child, apparently under the age of fourteen years, any article whatsoever as a pawn, pledge, or security for any sum of money lent or advanced to such child, or who shall buy from such child any article whatsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Brokers and pawnbrokers to keep books.

LXIX. Every licensed broker or pawn-broker as aforesaid shall enter in a book to be kept by him, which book he shall at all times produce on demand to the Commissioner of Police, or to any Police Officer acting under written authority from him, a proper and distinctive description of each article purchased or received by him, the name and place of abode of the person from whom he has purchased or received the same, and the date and hour of the day of each such transaction, and the sum paid or agreed to be paid for or advanced upon such articles; and if any such broker or pawn-broker shall fail to make proper entries in such book, or shall refuse to produce such book, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Penalty on failing to make proper entries.

Brokers to retain articles for 7 days after having received them.

LXX. All articles purchased or received by such broker, shall be kept by him in his shop or place of business, for the full period of seven days from and after the date on which it shall appear from his books that such articles have been purchased or received; and every broker who shall sell, or otherwise dispose of, or remove from his premises as aforesaid, any such articles, before the expiry of such period of seven days, or shall fail at any time in the course of that period to produce such articles to the Commissioner of Police, or to any Police Officer acting under written authority from him, when required so to do, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Penalty for neglect.

Brokers and pawnbrokers to report stolen goods under a penalty for neglect.

LXXI. If any goods or articles, regarding which written or printed information shall be given by any Police Officer to any such broker or pawn-broker, as having been stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently obtained, shall then be or thereafter come into the possession of such broker or pawn-broker, such broker or pawn-broker shall, without unnecessary delay, give information to the Commissioner of Police or at the Police Office, that certain goods or articles, answering the description of the said goods or articles, were offered to him, or are in his possession, and shall also state the name and address given by the party by whom the same were offered, or from whom the same were received, under a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each and every such neglect or offence; provided always, that in the case of wearing apparel or other articles which it may be difficult for such broker or pawn-broker to trace out and identify, no fine shall be exigible in respect of not reporting such articles, unless it shall appear to the Magistrate that such articles had been knowingly concealed by such broker, or pawn-broker.

If stolen articles be altered or defaced by broker, after information of the theft, he shall be deemed a receiver of stolen goods.

LXXII. If any broker or pawn-broker shall, after receiving information of the theft or the embezzling, or the fraudulent disposal of any metals, goods, or articles of whatsoever description, melt, alter, deface, or put away the same, or shall cause the same to be melted, altered, defaced, or put away, without having previously received the permission of the Commissioner of Police, and if it shall be found that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of by the person from whom such broker received the same, or by any other person, then and in such case it shall be held that such broker or pawn-broker knew that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of, and such broker or pawnbroker shall be proceeded against according to law as a receiver of stolen goods, or as being a party to the fraud, and punished accordingly; and no other evidence of his guilt shall be necessary than evidence of such melting, altering, defacing, or putting away, after receiving information as aforesaid.

Manufacture or possession of Gunpowder.

LXXIII. Whoever manufactures Gunpowder or Gun-cotton, or, without a license from the Commissioner of Police, has in his possession, in any house, shop, ware-house, or other building, at any one time, a greater quantity of Gunpowder or Gun-cotton than ten pounds, shall be liable to forfeit such Gunpowder or Gun-cotton so manufactured or possessed, together with the vessel or receptacle in which it may be contained, and also to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Licenses by Commissioner of Police for sale and deposit of Gunpowder, &c.

LXXIV. The Commissioner of Police may grant to any person a license for the sale or keeping in deposit of any quantity of Gunpowder not exceeding fifty pounds, or any quantity of Gun-cotton not exceeding twenty pounds, on such conditions, and for such term, not exceeding one year, as shall be specified in the license; and any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of such conditions, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to forfeit his license, and all Gunpowder or Gun-cotton so kept in deposit contrary thereto, and the vessels containing it, and also to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Licenses for conveying and removing Gunpowder.

LXXV. The Commissioner of Police may grant to any person a license for the transit and carrying of Gunpowder from one place to another, in such manner and in such quantity as he may deem advisable; and any person not being duly licensed in that behalf, who carries or conveys Gunpowder from one place to another, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Commissioner of Police may issue warrants to search for Gunpowder, &c.

LXXVI. The Commissioner of Police, on credible information laid before him on oath that Gunpowder or Gun-cotton, or mixed materials for making the same, are suspected to be stored, kept, or possessed by any person contrary to the provisions of this Act, may issue his warrant authorizing a Police Officer to search in the day-time any house, shop, magazine, or other building or place in which he has reasonable ground to suspect any Gunpowder or Gun-cotton to be manufactured, sold, or kept, or any boat, carriage, cart, or other vehicle in which any Gunpowder or Gun-cotton, or materials for manufacturing the same, may be suspected to be carried, or any person suspected of carrying the same contrary to the provisions of this Act; and all Gunpowder, Gun-cotton, or materials for manufacturing the same, found on such search, shall, together with the vessels or receptacles in which they may be stored, be immediately seized and kept, pending the judgment of a Magistrate.

Act not to apply to Government powder, &c.

LXXVII. None of the four last preceding Sections shall extend to any Government magazine, or store, or building for the making or deposit of Gunpowder or Gun-cotton under the authority or for the use of the Government, or to any Gunpowder or Gun-cotton belonging to Her Majesty or the East India Company.

Sale of poisonous substances by license of Commissioner of Police.

LXXVIII. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell by retail, or to keep for sale by retail, any poisonous substances, without a license from the Commissioner of Police, who may grant or refuse such a license at his discretion, and for which, if granted, the applicant shall pay a fee of one Rupee.

License.

When such a license is granted, it shall specify the poisonous substances allowed to be sold and kept for sale by retail. Every such license may be revoked by the Commissioner of Police whenever he thinks fit.

Penalty.

Whoever sells, or keeps for sale by retail, any poisonous substances without such a license; or (having a license) any poisonous substances other than those specified in such license; or sells any poisonous substances therein specified to any person unknown to him, unless the sale be made in the presence of a witness who is known to both the seller and purchaser; and without giving clear notice to the purchaser of the quality of the article; or without making a full entry of the sale, specifying the name, sex, address, and occupation of the purchaser, and the purpose for which the purchase is said to be made, in some shop-book ready at all times to be produced to the Commissioner of Police, or any Magistrate, or Coroner, who may call for the same—shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months.

Penalty for using false weights and measures.

LXXIX. Whoever, dealing in any articles by retail, has in or about his shop or premises, or otherwise in his possession, without lawful or satisfactory excuse, any false instrument for weighing, or any false weight, or false measure of length or capacity, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one month; and every such false instrument, weight, or measure shall be forfeited and destroyed.

The regulation of public processions, &c., and of carriages and persons at places of public resort.

LXXX. The Commissioner of Police, from time to time as occasion may require, may make rules for the conduct of all assemblies and processions in the public roads, streets, or thoroughfares, prescribing the routes by which, and the times at which, such processions may pass; and for keeping order in the public roads, streets, thoroughfares, ghauts, and landing places, and all other places of public resort, and preventing obstructions thereof on the occasion of such assemblies and processions; and in the neighbourhood of places of worship during the time of public worship; and in any case when the roads, streets, or thoroughfares, ghauts, or landing-places, may be thronged, or may be liable to be obstructed; and may give licenses for the use of music in the streets on the occasion of native festivals and ceremonies; and every person opposing or not obeying the orders so issued by the Commissioner of Police, or violating the conditions of such license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Passenger boats to be registered.

LXXXI. No boat shall ply for passengers in the Port of Calcutta, or in any of the Ports of the said Settlement, unless duly registered at the Police Office. The following particulars shall be entered in the Register:—

First.—Number of the boat.

Second.—The name and residence of the owner, and of the manjee.

Third.—Number of crew.

Fourth.—Number of persons the boat is permitted to carry.

The registration shall be in force for one year only; and every change of the owner or manjee within that time shall be therein noted. A fee of one Rupee shall be paid on registration.

The owner of every such registered boat shall cause to be painted on a conspicuous part of it, the registered number thereof, the number of the crew, and the number of passengers permitted to be carried.

The owner of a boat plying for passengers without having duly registered it, or carrying more passengers, or with a less crew, than is stated in the Register, or not having the prescribed particulars painted on the boat, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees; and if it shall appear to the Magistrate convicting him, that the boat is in an unsafe state, he shall certify the same to the Commissioner, who shall order the registration to be cancelled.

Penalty for the following offences in public streets, &c.

LXXXII. Whoever, in any street, road, thoroughfare, or place of public resort, commits any of the following offences, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

1. Whoever drives or rides any animal, or drives any vehicle, in a manner so rash or negligent as to indicate a want of due regard for the safety of others.

Furious or negligent driving.

2. Whoever drives any vehicle of any description, other than a bullock cart for the conveyance of goods, at any time between three-quarters of an hour after sun-set, and one hour before sun-rise, without having a lighted lamp affixed to each side of such vehicle, except when, in the opinion of the Magistrate, there may be sufficient moon-light to render la nps unnecessary.

Lamps to Vehicles.

3. Whoever exposes for show, hire, or sale, any horse or other animal, or any carriage, or cleans, dresses, exercises, trains, or breaks any horse or other animal, or cleans any carriage or other conveyance, or makes or repairs any part of any cart or carriage, except in cases of accident where repair on the spot is necessary.

For exposing for show or training horses, or for cleaning or repairing conveyances.

4. Whoever negligently lets loose any horse, or suffers to be at large any ferocious dog without a muzzle, or sets on or urges any dog or other animal to attack, worry, or put in fear any person, horse, or other animal.

For letting loose horses, ferocious dogs, &c.

5. Whoever, by negligence or ill-usage in driving cattle, causes any mischief to be done by such cattle, or in any wise misbehaves himself in the driving, management, or care of such cattle, so as to cause mischief or obstruction.

For misbehaviour in driving cattle.

6. Whoever cruelly beats, abuses, or tortures any animal.

For ill-treating animals.

7. Whoever, being in charge of a cart, carriage, or horse, leaves it at such a distance as not to have the same under due control.

For leaving cart, &c., without control.

8. Whoever causes any cart, carriage, or truck, with or without horses or cattle, to remain or stand longer than may be necessary for loading or unloading, or taking up or setting down passengers, except at places lawfully appointed for the purpose; or by means of any cart, carriage, or truck, or any horse or other animal, wilfully obstructs any public crossing, or wilfully causes any obstruction in any thoroughfare.

For obstructing road or thoroughfare by carriage, &c.

9. Whoever leads or rides any horse or other animal, or draws or drives any cart, carriage, or truck upon any foot-way, or fastens any horse or animal so that it can stand across or upon any foot-way.

For obstructing footway.

10. Whoever sets out, or exposes, in or upon any stall, booth, show-board, cask, or basket, or otherwise, any meat, fish, vegetable, fruit, groceries, or any other thing whatsoever, whether for sale or otherwise.

For exposing articles for sale in public street, &c.

11. Whoever beats a drum or tom-tom, or blows a horn or trumpet, or beats or sounds any brass or other metal instrument or utensil, between the hours of ten at night and four in the morning, so as to disturb the repose of the inhabitants; or at any time or place so as to endanger the safety of passengers by terrifying horses or cattle. This provision shall not apply when the Commissioner of Police has granted a license for the use of music in the streets on occasions of festivals and ceremonies.

For beating drums, tom-tom, &c

12. Whoever sets fire to, or burns, any straw or other matter, or lights any bon-fire, or wantonly discharges any fire-arm or air-gun, or lets off or throws any fire-work in or near any public street, road, or thoroughfare.

For lighting fires, and discharging guns, fire-works, &c., in the public streets.

13. Whoever, without the consent of the Commissioner of Police, puts up any post or other thing on the side of any public street, for the purpose of affixing thereon lamps to illuminate the street.

For putting up illuminations in public streets.

14. Whoever, without the consent of the owner or occupier, affixes any bill or notice, or any paper against or upon any building, wall, or fence, or writes upon, defaces, or marks any such building, wall, or fence with chalk, or paint, or in any way whatsoever.

For affixing bills or otherwise defacing houses, &c.

15. Whoever obstructs or incommodes a person bathing at any place set apart as a bathing place, by wilful intrusion, or by using such place as a landing place, or by anchoring or otherwise fastening or keeping boats, or by washing horses, cattle, or dogs, at or near such place, or in any other way.

For obstructing or incommoding persons at bathing places.

16. Whoever uses any indecent, threatening, abusive, or insulting words, or behaves in a threatening or insulting manner, with the intent to provoke a breach of the peace, or whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

For using improper language.

LXXXIII. Whoever is found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself in any street or public thoroughfare; or, while drunk, is guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour in any street or thoroughfare; and whoever is guilty of any violent or indecent behaviour in any Police Office, Station, or Section House, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for drunkenness, or riotous or indecent behaviour, in public.

LXXXIV. Whoever wilfully and indecently exposes his person, or commits a nuisance, by easing himself in or by the side of or near to any public street or thoroughfare or place, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, or in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for fourteen days.

Penalty for committing a nuisance in streets.

LXXXV. Whoever, in any public road, street, thoroughfare, or place, begs or applies for alms, or exposes or exhibits any sores, wounds, bodily ailment, or deformity, with the object of exciting charity, or of obtaining alms; or whoever seeks for, or obtains alms, by means of any false statements or pretences, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month.

Beggars.

LXXXVI. Any Police Officer may arrest, without a warrant, any person committing, in his view, any felony or any offence against this Act.

Police Officer may arrest without warrant on view of offence.

LXXXVII. Any Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, any person who is charged with committing an aggravated assault, in every case in which he shall have good reason to believe that such assault has been committed, although not in his view, and that, by reason of the recent commission of the offence, a warrant could not have been obtained for the apprehension of the offender.

Persons charged with recent assault may be apprehended by Police without warrant, though assault not committed in view of Police.

LXXXVIII. Whoever is found committing an offence on or with respect to any property belonging to another person, may be apprehended by such person, or by his servant, or by any person authorized by him, and may be detained until he can be delivered into the custody of a Police Officer.

Apprehension of offenders by private individuals.

LXXXIX. Every person taken into custody without a warrant by a Police Officer shall be taken to the Station House, in order that such person may be detained until he can be brought before a Magistrate, or until he shall enter into recognizances, with or without sureties, for his appearance before a Magistrate.

Persons arrested without warrant may be detained in Station House, or enlarged on bail, until appearance before Magistrate.

XC. Whenever any person is brought to a Station House charged with any offence against this Act, other than a felony, or whenever a person charged with a felony is in the custody of any Police Officer without a warrant, it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of such Station House, or any superior Officer of Police, if he shall deem it prudent, and in the case of felony, if he shall deem it probable that the person is falsely accused, to enlarge such person on his own recognizance, with or without sureties, conditioned as hereinafter mentioned.

Power to take recognizances at the Station Houses upon certain charges.

XCI. Every recognizance so taken shall be without fee or reward, and shall be conditioned for the appearance of the person thereby bound before a Magistrate at his next sitting; and the time and place of appearance, and the sum thereby acknowledged (not exceeding one thousand Rupees) shall be specified in the said recognizance, or in the condition thereof; and the officer taking the recognizance shall enter into a book to be kept for the purpose, the name, residence, and occupation of the party, and his surety or sureties (if any) entering into such recognizance, together with the condition thereof, and the sum thereby acknowleged, and shall return every such recognizance to the Magistrate present at the time and place when and where the party is bound to appear.

Condition of recognizance.

XCII. If information shall be given on oath to the Commissioner of Police, or to a Magistrate, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any thing stolen or unlawfully obtained is concealed or lodged in any dwelling-house, building, or other place, or any ship or vessel, the Commissioner or the Magistrate, by special warrant under his hand directed to any Police Officer, may cause such dwelling-house, building, or other place, or ship or vessel, to be entered and searched at any time of the day or by night, if power for that purpose be given by such warrant; and the said Commissioner or Magistrate, if it shall appear to him necessary, may empower such Police Officer, with such assistance as may be found necessary, (such Officer having previously made known his authority), to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise; and if, upon search thereupon made, such thing shall be found, then to convey the same before a Magistrate, or to guard the same on the spot, until the offenders are taken before a Magistrate, or otherwise dispose thereof in some place of safety; and moreover to take into custody, and carry before the said Magistrate, every person found in such house or place, or ship or vessel, who shall appear to have been privy to the deposit of any such thing, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to have been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

On suspicion of goods being stolen or unlawfully obtained, Commissioner of Police or Magistrate may grant search warrant.

XCIII. If information shall be given to any Officer of Police not below the rank of Inspector, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any stolen property is concealed or lodged in any dwelling-house or other place, and he shall have good grounds for believing that, by reason of the delay in obtaining a search warrant, the property is likely to be removed, the said Officer, in virtue of his office, may search for specific articles alleged to have been stolen in the houses and places specified; provided always, that a list of the articles stolen or missing be delivered or taken down in writing, with a declaration stating that the robbery has been committed, and that the informant has good ground to believe that the property is deposited in such house or place; and provided further, that the person who lost the goods, or his representative, accompany the Officer in the search.

Power to search houses for stolen property without a warrant in certain cases.

XCIV. Upon any information or complaint, which need not be upon oath, laid or made before any Magistrate, of any matter which such Magistrate is authorized to hear and determine summarily, he may summon the person charged, and if such person shall not appear according to the tenor of the summons, the Magistrate, upon proof of the service of the summons, may proceed in all cases which are not of a criminal nature, if no sufficient cause shall be shown for the non-appearance of the person charged, to hear and determine the case in his absence; and in all criminal cases shall, if he think fit, upon oath or affirmation being made before him, substantiating the matter of such information or complaint to his satisfaction, issue his warrant for apprehending and bringing the person charged before him or some other Magistrate, in order that the said information or complaint may be heard and determined. Provided always, that the prosecution for any offence not of a criminal nature punishable upon summary conviction by virtue of this Act, shall be commenced within three months after the commission of the offence, and not otherwise.

Magistrate may proceed by summons, and if party does not appear, may issue warrant.

How summons may be served.

XCV. Every such summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the person charged, or in his absence to some adult male member or servant of his family, residing or being in his dwelling, or by affixing it to some conspicuous part of his usual place of abode.

Magistrate may issue warrant without summons.

XCVI. A Magistrate may, without issuing any summons, forthwith issue his warrant for the apprehension of any person charged with any offence cognizable before him, whenever good grounds for so doing shall be stated on oath before him.

Magistrate may enforce attendance of witnesses.

XCVII. Any Magistrate may summon any witness to appear and give evidence, and to bring with him any document that may be required, upon the matter of any offence cognizable by the Magistrate, with which any person is charged before him, at a time and place appointed; and by warrant under his hand and seal may require any person to be brought before him who neglects or refuses to attend at the time and place appointed in such summons, proof upon oath being first given of personal service of the summons; and such Magistrate may commit to prison any such person who refuses to give evidence, or to produce a document, for any time not exceeding fourteen days, or until such person shall sooner submit himself to be examined or produce the document.

Power to Magistrates to order prisoners to be brought up to the Police Office.

XCVIII. When any Magistrate is desirous of examining any prisoner confined in a Jail or House of Correction as a witness or defendant with respect to any charge, case, or proceeding pending before him, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to issue an order addressed to the Keeper or Governor of the said Jail or House of Correction, requiring him to bring such prisoner in proper custody, at a time to be therein named, to the Police Office, for examination; and the Keeper or Governor of the said Jail or House of Correction, on the receipt of such order, shall act in accordance therewith, and shall provide for the safe custody of the prisoner during his absence from prison for the purpose aforesaid.

Perjury.

XCIX. Whoever wilfully gives false evidence on oath in any judicial proceeding before a Magistrate, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and may be committed by the Magistrate for trial before Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature.

Power to Magistrates to adjourn the hearing of cases and commit defendant or suffer him to go at large, or discharge him upon his own recognizance.

C. Before or during the hearing of any information or complaint, the Magistrate may, from time to time, adjourn the hearing of the same to a certain time and place to be then appointed and stated in the presence and hearing of the party or parties, or their respective attorneys or agents then present, and in the meantime the said Magistrate may suffer the defendant to go at large, or may detain him in custody, or may discharge him upon his entering into a recognizance, with or without surety or sureties, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing or further hearing shall be adjourned; and if, at the time or place to which such hearing or further hearing shall be so adjourned, either or both of the parties shall not appear personally or by his or their counsel or attorneys respectively, before the said Magistrate, or such other Magistrate as shall then be there, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate then there present to proceed, in cases which are not of a criminal nature, to such hearing or further hearing, as if such party or parties were present; and in all cases where the prosecutor or complainant shall not appear, the said Magistrate may dismiss such information or complaint with or without costs as to such Magistrate shall seem fit.

Power to award costs on hearing of charges.

CI. It shall be lawful for any Magistrate who shall hear and determine any information or complaint, whether or not a warrant or summons shall have been issued in consequence of such information or complaint, to award such costs as to him shall seem meet, to be paid to or by either of the parties to the said charge or complaint.

Amends may be awarded for frivolous charges.

CII. In every case in which any person shall be given in charge to a Police Officer, or in which any information or complaint of any offence shall be laid or made before any Magistrate and shall not be further prosecuted, or in which, if further prosecuted, it shall appear to the Magistrate by whom the case shall be heard that there was no sufficient ground for making the charge, the Magistrate shall have power to award such amends, not exceeding fifty Rupees, to be paid by the informer or complainant to the party informed of complained against, for his loss of time and expenses in the matter, as to the Magistrate shall seem meet.

Limitation of action

CIII. All actions and prosecutions against any person which may be lawfully brought for any thing done, or intended to be done, under the provisions of this Act, shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of shall have been committed, and not otherwise; and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the defendant one month at least before the commencement of the action; and in any such action the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court after such action brought, by or on behalf of the defendant; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue any such action after issue joined, or if, upon demurrer or otherwise, judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover his full costs as between attorney and client, and have the like remedy for the same as any defendant hath by law in other cases; and though a verdict shall be given for the plaintiff in any such action, such plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant, unless the Judge before whom the trial shall be shall certify his approbation of the action, and of the verdict obtained thereupon.

Notice of action.

Tender of amends.

Costs.

Compromise.

CIV. It shall be lawful for any person to compromise any of the offences specified in this Act, not being felonies, after complaint thereof has been made; provided that the offence is of such a nature as the injured party might have sued and recovered damages for in an action at law.

Magistrate may commit on non-payment of fine.

CV. In every case of summary conviction under this Act, where the sum which shall be ordered to be paid as a fine, or as costs or amends, shall not be paid either immediately after the conviction or within such period as the Magistrate shall, at the time of the conviction, appoint, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, according to the discretion of the Magistrate, for any term not exceeding two months where the amount to be paid shall not exceed fifty Rupees, and for any term not exceeding four months where the amount shall not exceed one hundred Rupees, and for any term not exceeding six months in any other case—the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount with costs; or the Magistrate may levy the amount to be paid, according to the provisions of Section I Act II. 1839.

Scale of imprisonment.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

CVI. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Magistrate, or in Bombay of the Court of Petty Sessions, shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment, shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Moveable property of persons dying intestate under two hundred Rupees in value, may be taken charge of by Police and made over to party claiming to be entitled thereto.

CVII. Whenever any person dies intestate within any of the said Towns or Stations leaving moveable property therein under two hundred Rupees in value, which property is, in the absence of any person entitled thereto, taken charge of by the Police for the purpose of safe custody, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Police to order the said property to be delivered, without letters of administration taken out, to any person claiming to be entitled to the whole or any part thereof; provided he shall be satisfied of the title of the claimant, and of the value of the property, by the oath or affirmation of the claimant, or by such other evidence as he may require.

Commissioner of Police may take security for due administration and distribution of such property.

CVIII. The Commissioner of Police may, at his discretion, before making any order under the preceding Section, take such security as he may think proper for the due administration and distribution of such property. And nothing hereinbefore contained shall affect the right of any person to recover the whole or any part of the same from the person to whom it may have been delivered pursuant to such order.

Saving of right of other persons claiming.

Stray animals to be impounded.

CIX. It shall be lawful for all persons, and it is hereby declared to be the special duty of all Police Officers, to seize all cattle or other animals found straying upon the roads, streets, or thoroughfares, or trespassing on any of the grounds or property of the inhabitants, and to confine such animals in any public pound, which shall for such purpose be, from time to time, appointed by the Commissioner of Police; and if such animals shall not be respectively redeemed by the owners of the same within ten days after being so pounded, by paying to the person to be appointed by the said Commissioner to have charge of such pound, the fee of eight annas for every goat, sheep, or hog, and one Rupee for every other animal, together with the expenses of feeding the same while impounded according to a daily rate to be settled by the said Commisioner, such animal so impounded shall be publicly sold, and the produce of such sale, after paying the said fee, and also the expenses of feeding, shall be paid to the owners of such animal, or in default of their claiming such produce for the space of fifteen days after such sale, shall be retained by the said Commissioner, and credited to the Police Superannuation Fund.

Stray dogs to be killed at certain appointed periods.

CX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Police, by order in writing to be affixed at the principal Police Stations and also to be published in some public newspaper, to appoint from time to time certain periods within which any dogs found straying in the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of the owners of such dogs, may be destroyed.

Foreign Deserters.

CXI. Any Magistrate, upon an application being made to him by the Consul of any Foreign power to which the Foreign Deserters' Act (1852) has, by an order of Her Majesty in Council, been, or shall hereafter be, declared to be applicable, and upon complaint on oath of the desertion of any seaman from any ship of such Foreign power, may issue his warrant for the apprehension of any such Deserter, and upon due proof of the desertion, may order him to be conveyed on board the vessel to which he belongs, or, at the instance of the Consul, to be detained in custody till the vessel is ready to sail, on deposit being first made of such sum as the Magistrate shall deem necessary for the subsistence of the Deserter during such detention; provided that the detention of such Deserter shall not be continued beyond twelve weeks.

W MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th October 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th October 1855, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of January next:—

A Bill to amend Act XII of 1851 (for securing the Land Revenue of Madras).

Preamble.

WHEREAS in the Preamble to Act XII of 1851 it is declared to be expedient that the land revenue accruing due to the East India Company within the Town of Madras should be ascertained and collected in as summary a manner as in other parts of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and it is enacted in Section IX of the said Act that the claim of the East India Company for land revenue or rent has priority over all claims upon the land; and whereas in other parts of the said Territories the land itself is the security for the revenue assessed thereon, and is liable to be sold for the discharge of arrears, and there is no sufficient reason for exempting lands situate within the Town of Madras from the same liability: It is enacted as follows:—

Collector empowered to sell lands for arrears of revenue or rent, if the same be not recoverable by distress

I. If any owner of assessed land, or any person holding land subject to a rent payable to the East India Company within the limits of the Town of Madras, shall, upon the written demand of the Collector of Madras, refuse or neglect to pay any sum at which the land is assessed, or with which it is charged as rent, and if the said Collector shall not be able to levy the same by distress and sale of any goods and chattels of the owner or lessee, or of any goods and chattels found upon the land, under the provisions of Section VII of Act XII of 1851, it shall be lawful for the Collector to cause the land to be sold for the arrear of revenue or rent which has accrued due thereon.

Publication of sale.

II. One month at least previously to the sale of any land for an arrear of revenue or rent under the preceding Section, publication shall be made of the intended sale, by a notice in the English and Tamil languages, in the form hereunto annexed marked A, or to the same effect, affixed upon some conspicuous part of the premises; and by an advertisement in the English and Tamil languages to the same effect, and of the same date, in the Government Gazette, and in two of the principal English and Native Newspapers, which advertisement shall be published in three consecutive issues of such Gazette and newspapers.

Collector to sell the land by public auction, if an arrear remain unpaid at the time of sale.

III. At the time and place appointed for such sale by such notice and advertisement, if the arrear be not previously paid, the Collector shall put up the land to public auction, and it shall be sold to the highest bidder.

Deposit and payment of purchase money.

IV. The person who shall be declared the purchaser at such sale shall forth with deposit with the Collector one-half of the purchase-money, or else shall forfeit his bid, and the land shall be put up to sale de novo; and if the purchaser shall make such deposit, but shall fail to complete the payment of the purchase-money within one week, he shall forfeit such deposit, and the land shall be put up to sale again in like manner as hereinbefore provided.

Certificate of title to be given to purchaser.

V. Immediately upon a sale becoming final and conclusive, the Collector shall give the purchaser a certificate of title to the following effect:—"I certify that A B has purchased at public auction under Act No. that piece of (describe as described in the notice and advertisement) and that his purchase is to have effect from the (enter the day of sale);" and the said certificate shall be deemed in any Court of Justice sufficient evidence of the title to the land sold being vested in the person named from the date specified.

Sale not to be stayed, unless the amount of the Collector's claim and of all expenses incurred is tendered

VI. If the claim of the Collector for arrears of revenue or rent on any land advertized for sale for arrears is disputed, the sale shall not be stayed, unless the amount claimed, and also all the expenses incurred in publishing such notices as aforesaid, be lodged with or tendered to the said Collector; and if the amount claimed by the Collector as arrears of revenue or rent be tendered to him, he shall not be bound to receive the same, unless the amount of expenses incurred in respect of such notices be also tendered along therewith

Proceeds of sale how to be applied.

VII. From and out of the proceeds of the sale of any land sold under the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Collector to deduct the arrears of revenue or rent as aforesaid, which shall or may be due and owing to the East India Company in respect of such land, and also the amount of all expenses incurred in respect of such notices as aforesaid, and to hand over the balance to the reputed owner, or, in case of any dispute, to the Sub-Treasurer of Fort St. George, with the privity of the Accountant General; and the said Sub-Treasurer shall hold the same in deposit until some party interested in the said land shall obtain the order of a competent Court (which order it shall be lawful for such Court, if it shall see fit, to make upon the summary petition or claim of the applicant) for the payment of the same, and interest, if any, to him. All sums held in deposit as aforesaid, exceeding in amount the sum of Rupees five hundred, shall be invested in Government Securities.

Interpretation.

VIII. The words "Collector of Madras" in this Act shall mean the Officer who may at any time be charged with the superintendence and collection of the public revenue within the Town of Madras, although such Officer may not be officially designated "Collector of Madras."

Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for Constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be ¼ per cent.

HOURS OF BUSINESS.

From and after Wednesday, the 1st August, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., except on Saturday, when the Bank will be closed at 1 P. M.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER GARDENS.

BY D. L RICHARDSON.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

* * The book extends to 264 full sized octavo pages.

We have received a copy of Captain Richardson's Essay (or what was originally an Essay, though it is somewhat large now, to retain its original designation) on Flowers and Flower-Gardens. D. L. R. is so well known, and so justly esteemed as an author, that his name is the best recommendation of his works to public notice, and that quite as much at home as in India. He is not, as so many are who affect talent in this benighted land, a lion among asses, but a lion among lions. He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward. The subject is in itself one of the most attractive possible; and it is treated with an elegance of style, simplex munditiis, that enhances these natural attractions. The most acceptable gifts of Nature will hereafter be doubly acceptable as they are associated with the ennobling thoughts that this Essay connects with them. No drawing-room in India should be without this volume, and no drawing-room in England will be, should an edition of it be printed there.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

THE Public is hereby cautioned against receiving, or negotiating, the Government Promissory Note, No. 15952 of 50612, of 1841-42, for Company's Rupees (2,000) Two Thousand, the same having been stolen from my house, in the city of Lucknow, in March 1854, prior to its transfer to the Four per Cent. Loan of 1854-55.

The Note bears the name of Nanickchund Mahajun, and an endorsement in my favor in his own hand-writing.

OVERLAND MAIL.

THE Overland Mail, viâ Marseilles and Southampton, and the intermediate Ports, (Madras, Ceylon, Aden, Penang, Singapore, and Hong-Kong,) per P. and O. Co.'s Steamer Bombay, will be closed at this Office on Monday, the 22nd instant.

Letters for the United Kingdom, directed viâ Marseilles, cannot be pre-paid in this Country. Pre-payment of Steam Postage on Letters viâ Southampton is optional.

Steam Postage on all Letters for Foreign Europe viâ Marseilles or viâ Trieste, and for the United Kingdom viâ Trieste, as well as for places in the Mediterranean and in Egypt, must be pre-paid, but Letters for Foreign Europe viâ Southampton cannot be pre-paid.

Letters for the United Kingdom, directed viâ Trieste, if posted unpaid, (or insufficiently paid by Stamps,) will be forwarded to London viâ Marseilles. Those for Foreign Europe will be sent to London viâ Southampton, bearing the full amount of Postage due thereon, and Letters for places in Egypt and the Mediterranean will be detained and treated as Unclaimed Letters.

No money will be received in payment of Postage on Letters, which must be paid by Stamps.

Letters for Madras, Ceylon, Bombay, Aden, Malacca, Penang, Singapore, and Hong-Kong, despatched by the P. and O. Co.'s Contract Steamer, are chargeable with Steam Postage, the pre-payment being optional.

Letters for the Mauritius, Australian Colonies, China (except Hong-Kong, Manilla, Batavia, Java, Bourbon,) or any place not a British Possession, must be pre-paid by Steam Postage.

With regard to Newspapers and Prices Current the following abstract of Rules relating to British Postage, chargeable under a Treasury Warrant of 30th June 1855, is published for general information :—

Newspapers or Prices Current posted in India for Great Britain are not subject in India to any charge for British Postage, but Newspapers, &c., posted in India, addressed to any British Colony or Possession, or any Foreign Port, or any Port in India, are, if sent by Her Majesty's Mail Steamers, or viâ Southampton through England, liable to a Steam Postage charge of One Penny (Nine Pie,) which must be pre-paid in cash. Newspapers, &c., sent through Great Britain viâ Marseilles, are liable to a Postage charge of Four Pence, and if addressed to British North America viâ the United States, a charge of One Penny must be levied on account of the United States in addition to all other Postage.

Newspapers, &c. brought to India by Her Majesty's Packets from a Foreign Port, without having passed through Great Britain, are chargeable with British Postage of One Penny (Nine Pie) on delivery.

Only one paper can be sent in one cover.

ACT No XXVI OF 1855.

An Act to facilitate the payment of small deposits in Government Savings' Banks to the representatives of deceased depositors.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the payment of small sums belonging to the estates of deceased depositors in the Savings' Banks established by Government within any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to the representatives of such depositors : It is enacted as follows :—

Secretary of Government Savings' Bank, in certain cases, to pay without probate, &c., money belonging to the estate of a deceased depositor.

I. If a depositor in any Government Savings' Bank shall die leaving therein a sum of money not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate or effects, or a certificate granted under Act No. XX of 1841, or under Section IV of Act No. X of 1851, shall not be produced to the Secretary of such Bank within the period of two months from the time of the death of the said depositor, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of such Bank to pay the same to any person or persons who shall appear to him to be entitled to receive the same or to administer the effects of the deceased ; and such payment shall be a full indemnity and discharge from all further liability in respect of the money so paid ; but nothing herein contained shall preclude any executor or administrator or representative of the deceased from recovering from the person or persons receiving the same the amount remaining in his or their hands after deducting the amount of all debts or other demands lawfully paid or discharged by him in due course of administration ; and any creditor or claimant against the estate of the deceased shall be at liberty to recover his debt or claim out of the money so paid to such person or persons and remaining in his or their hands unadministered, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such person or persons had obtained letters of administration to the estate of the deceased.

Payment to be a discharge.

Saving of right of executor, &c.

And of creditor.

Security for due administration.

II. The Secretary of any such Bank may take such security as he shall think necessary from any person or persons to whom he shall pay any money under the preceding Section, for the due administration and distribution of the money so paid, and may assign the same to any person or persons interested in the due administration and distribution thereof, which person or persons may sue on the same in his or their own names.

Power to administer oath, &c.

III. For the purpose of ascertaining the right of the person or persons claiming to be entitled as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of any such Bank to administer an oath or affirmation ; and every person who, having been sworn or having taken a solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, if convicted, shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

Penalty for false testimony.

IV. From and after the passing of this Act, no Administrator General of a Presidency shall grant a certificate under Section XLIII of Act No. VIII of 1855 in respect of any sum of money deposited in a Government Savings' Bank.

Administrator General not to grant certificate in respect of money deposited.

V. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to the payment of any money deposited in a Government Savings' Bank belonging to the estate of any European Officer or Soldier dying in Her Majesty's Service in India, or of any European Officer or Soldier dying in the Service of the East India Company, or to the estate and effects of any Officer, Seaman, or other person dying in the Marine Service of the said Company called the Indian Navy, or to the estate and effects of any person who, at the time of his death, was a deserter from any of the said Services.

The word "Owner" shall mean the person for the time being receiving the rent of the lands or premises in connexion with which the word is used, whether on his own account or as agent or trustee for any other person, or who would so receive the same if such lands or premises were let to a tenant.

General Provisions.

Commissioners to be trustees.

III. The Municipal Commissioners shall be trustees for and on behalf of the local Government and of the inhabitants of the Town or Station for which they are constituted Commissioners, and shall sue and be sued by the name of "The Municipal Commissioners" for the Town of , or Station of (as the case may be), and shall have a common seal, and shall have power to take, purchase, and hold lands and other property, whether moveable or immoveable, as trustees for the purposes of this Act.

How to sue and be sued.

Empowered to hold lands, &c.

Commissioners to appoint officers.

IV. The Commissioners may from time to time appoint all such officers as they shall think necessary and proper to assist in the execution of this Act; and may from time to time remove any of such officers and appoint others in their place; and may, out of the monies to be applied for the purposes of this Act, pay such salaries and allowances to the said officers respectively as the Commissioners shall think reasonable, subject to the approval of the local Government.

Property vested in Commissioners.

V. All property, moveable and immoveable, purchased or otherwise acquired before the passing of this Act by the Commissioners or other persons, however designated, heretofore lawfully administering the funds applicable to the Conservancy and Improvement of the said Towns and Stations respectively, and now vested in them or in any persons in trust for them for any such purposes, shall after the passing of this Act, be vested in the Commissioners for the said Towns and Stations respectively as trustees for the purposes of this Act.

Streets and Roads.

Streets and roads vested in the Commissioners.

VI. All public streets and roads, (not being the property of the East India Company and kept under the control of the local Government) existing at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall afterwards be made, and the pavements, stones, and other materials thereof, and also all erections, materials, implements, and other things provided for such streets and roads, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

Power to make and improve streets and roads.

VII. The Commissioners, with the consent of the local Government, may lay out, make, build, and construct new streets, roads, bridges, and tunnels; and may turn, divert, discontinue, or stop up any public street or road; and may widen, open, enlarge, or otherwise improve any such street or road; making due compensation to the owners and occupiers of any lands, houses, or buildings which may be required for any such purposes.

Power to agree for purchase of land for improving streets or roads.

VIII. The Commissioners may agree with the owners of any lands for the absolute purchase thereof for the purpose of widening, enlarging, or otherwise improving any of the public streets or roads.

Maintenance and repair of streets and roads.

IX. The Commissioners shall, so far as the funds at their disposal will permit, from time to time cause the public streets and roads to be maintained and repaired; and from time to time may cause the same to be paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, sewered, or otherwise improved, and the ground or soil to be raised, lowered, or altered as they may think fit; and they may also make and keep in repair any footways for the use of passengers in any such street, and also from time to time place such fences and posts on the sides of such footways or otherwise as may be needed for the protection of foot passengers.

Footways.

Cleansing streets.

X. The Commissioners shall cause the streets, including the footways thereof, from time to time to be properly swept and cleansed; and the dust, dirt, ashes, rubbish, and filth of every sort found thereon, to be collected and removed; and shall cause all dust, dirt, ashes, rubbish, filth, and night-soil to be carried away from the houses of the inhabitants at convenient hours.

Dirt, &c. to be collected and removed from streets.

To be removed from houses at convenient hours.

Dust-boxes, &c. in streets.

XI. The Commissioners, if they think fit so to do, may cause any number of moveable or fixed dust-boxes or other convenient receptacles, wherein dust, dirt, ashes, and rubbish may be temporarily deposited until removed and carried away, to be provided and placed in proper and convenient situations in or near such streets as they shall judge necessary; and may require the occupiers of houses in such streets to cause all such matter as aforesaid to be deposited daily or otherwise periodically in the said receptacles: and every person who, after such receptacles have been provided and after such requisition as above mentioned, shall deposit, or cause or permit to be deposited, any such matter in any such street, except in such receptacles, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees.

Depositing dirt on streets, &c.

XII. Whoever shall deposit or cause to be deposited any dust, dirt, dung, ashes, garden or stable refuse, or filth of any kind, or any animal matter, or any broken glass or earthenware or other rubbish, in any street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghaut, or landing place, or on any part of the sea-shore whether above or below high-water mark, except in such places and in such manner and at such hours as shall be fixed by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees.

Allowing sewerage to flow on streets.

XIII. Whoever shall cause or allow the water of any sink, sewer, or drain, or any other offensive liquid matter belonging to him or being on his land, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Removal of night-soil.

XIV. The Commissioners from time to time may fix the hours within which only it shall be lawful to remove any night-soil or other such offensive matter; and when the Commissioners have fixed such hours and given public notice thereof, whoever removes along any street any such offensive matter at any time, except within the hours so fixed, and also whoever at any time, whether such hours have been fixed by the Commissioners or not, uses for any such purpose any cart, carriage, or other receptacle or vessel not having a covering proper for preventing the escape of the contents thereof or of the stench therefrom, or who slops or spills any such offensive matter in the removal thereof, or who does not carefully sweep and clean every place in which any such offensive matter has been slopped or spilled, or who places or sets down in any public place, any vessel containing such offensive matter, or who drives or takes any such cart, carriage, receptacle, or vessel as aforesaid through any street or by any route other than such as shall from time to time be appointed for that purpose by the Commissioners by public notice, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees; and in default of the apprehension of the actual offender, the driver or person having the care of any cart or carriage employed for any such purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be the offender.

Places of deposit for filth.

XV. The Commissioners from time to time may provide places convenient for the deposit of the night-soil, dung, and other filth, and the dust, dirt, ashes, and rubbish, collected and removed under the authority of this Act; and for keeping all cattle, carts, implements, and other things required for the above or any of the purposes of this Act; and for any of such purposes the Commissioners may purchase or take on lease any lands or buildings by them considered necessary, or they may cause any new building to be made upon any land to be purchased or hired by them.

All rubbish, &c. collected, to belong to the Commissioners

XVI. All dirt, dust, ashes, rubbish, sewage, soil, dung, and filth, collected from the streets, houses, privies, sewers, and cess-pools, shall be the property of the Commissioners, who shall have power to sell or dispose of the same as they may think proper; and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be applied for the purposes of this Act.

Watering streets.

XVII. The Commissioners, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, and so far as they may deem requisite for the public convenience, shall cause the public streets to be watered; and for that purpose may construct reservoirs and may place pipes, conduits, and pumps in any of the streets, and provide any other necessary works and engines, and remove and alter the same, when and as they may think proper.

Construction of works for the purpose.

Lighting streets.

XVIII. The Commissioners, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, shall provide lamps, lamp-posts, and such other means as they may deem necessary for lighting such of the public streets as they shall consider to require lighting; and shall cause the said lamps to be kept in fit order, and shall employ a sufficient number of persons to cleanse, prepare, and light the same; and shall also from time to time increase or otherwise alter the number and situation of the said lamps as to them shall appear necessary.

Penalty for destroying lamps, &c

XIX. Whoever wantonly or wilfully destroys, injures, defaces, or disturbs any of the said lamp-posts or lamps, or extinguishes any light therein, or abstracts or takes away any oil or other matter or thing therein, or any part thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees

Commissioners may contract for lighting.

XX. The Commissioners, with the consent of the local Government, may contract, for any period not exceeding years at any one time, with the owners of any gas works, or with any other person, for the supply of gas or oil or other means of lighting the public streets.

Future obstructions in streets or roads.

XXI. Whoever builds any wall, or erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment, in any public street or road, or in or over any open drain, sewer, or aqueduct along the side of any such street or road, after the passing of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees;

Power to remove.

and the Commissioners shall have full power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided. Nothing hereincontained shall prevent the Temporary obstructions on occasions of festivals, &c.

Commissioners, with the concurrence of the Commissioner of Police, from allowing any temporary erections in any public street or road on occasions of festivals and ceremonies.

Taking up pavements.

XXII. Whoever displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, flags, or other materials, or in the fences or posts of any public street, without the consent in writing of the Commissioners, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and also to a further sum, not exceeding five Rupees, for every square foot of pavement, flags, or other materials of such street (exceeding one square foot) so displaced, taken up, or altered.

Private persons laying out new streets.

XXIII. Every person who intends to make or lay out any new street, shall give notice in writing thereof to the Commissioners, showing the intended level and width of such street; and the level and width of every such street shall be fixed or approved by the Commissioners: and whoever lays out, makes, or builds upon any such street otherwise than in accordance with the level and width so fixed or approved, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees; and the Commissioners may, if they think fit, cause any such street laid out or made at a level or width otherwise than in accordance with the level and width so fixed or approved as aforesaid, or any building erected in any such street otherwise than in accordance with such level and width, to be altered; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be re-paid to them by the offender and be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Proviso.

If no such level or width be fixed, and no approval or disapproval of the level or width proposed be signified by the Commissioners within one month, the intended street may be laid out and made upon the level and of the width specified in the notice.

Paving, &c., of private streets.

XXIV. If any street (not being a public street), or any part thereof, be not levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, by notice in writing to the respective owners or occupiers of the premises fronting, adjoining, or abutting upon, such parts thereof as may need to be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered, require them to level, metal, pave, flag, channel, and sewer the same within a time to be specified in such notice; and upon non-compliance, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, execute the works mentioned or referred to therein; and the expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be paid by the owners in default according to the frontage of their respective premises, and in such proportion as shall be settled by the Commissioners, or, in case of dispute, as shall be settled by two Magistrates; and such expense shall be recoverable as hereinafter directed. Provided always that, after such street shall have been so levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered on the requisition of the Commissioners or by the Commissioners as aforesaid at the expense of the owners, such owners shall have a right to require that the street shall be declared a public street to be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the funds at their disposal for the purposes of this Act.

Proviso.

Certain streets to be deemed public and repaired by the Commissioners.

XXV. If any street (not being a public street) be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, if they think fit, by notice in writing put up in any part of such street, declare the same to be a public street; and thereupon the same shall become a public street, and be from time to time repaired by them out of the funds at their disposal. Provided that no street shall become a public street as last aforesaid, if, within one month after such notice in writing, the owner of such street shall, by notice in writing to the Commissioners, object thereto.

Proviso.

Houses may be set forward for improving line of streets.

XXVI. The Commissioners may, upon such terms as they think fit, allow any house or building to be set forward for improving the line of any public street in which such house or building is situated.

Houses projecting beyond line of street when taken down to be set back.

XXVII. When any house or building, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house or building on either side thereof, has been taken down in order to be re-built or altered, the Commissioners may require the same to be set back to or towards the line of the street or the line of the adjoining houses or buildings, in such manner as the Commissioners direct for the improvement of such street. Provided always, that the Commissioners shall make full compensation to the owner of any such house or building for any damage he may thereby sustain; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Proviso.

Names of Streets

XXVIII. The Commissioners may, from time to time, cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, or place at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every street, the name by which such street is to be known; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name, or puts up any name different from that put up by order of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Houses.

Numbers of houses.

XXIX. The owner of any house or building in any street shall, if required so to do by the Commissioners, fix at his own expense, in a conspicuous place (not more than twelve feet above the level of the street) on the outer side of such house or building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street, such number as the Commissioners may direct; and shall renew such number as often as it becomes obliterated or defaced: and every such owner who fails, within one week after notice for that purpose from the Commissioners, so to fix or to renew such number, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees.

Doors not to open outwards.

XXX. All doors, gates, and bars, put up after the passing of this Act, which open upon any public street, shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards, except when the same are hung in such manner as, in the judgment of the Commissioners, to cause no obstruction in any such street; and if (except as aforesaid) any door, gate, or bar be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any such street, the owner of the premises to which the same is attached shall, within eight days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, cause the same to be altered, so as not to open outwards; and in case he neglects so to do, the Commissioners may make such alteration, and the expense thereof shall be paid by such owners and shall be recoverable in manner hereinafter provided.

Exception

Doors opening outwards to be altered.

XXXI. If any door, gate, or bar was, before the passing of this Act, hung so as to open outwards upon any public street, the Commissioners may alter the same so that no part thereof, when open, shall project over any such street so as to cause an obstruction.

Troughs and pipes to be affixed to house.

XXXII. The owner of every house or building in, adjoining, or near to any public street shall, within eight days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, put up and keep in good condition, proper troughs and pipes for catching and carrying the water from the roof and other parts of such house or building, and for discharging the same in such manner that it shall not fall upon the persons passing along the street, or flow over the footpath; and in default of compliance with such notice within the period aforesaid, such owner shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for every day that he shall so make default.

Future projections from houses to be removed.

XXXIII. The Commissioners may give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction which, after the passing of this Act, shall be erected or placed against or in front of such house or building, if the same overhangs, or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, or is an obstruction to the safe and convenient passage along any public street, or obstructs or projects or encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain, or sewer in such street; and such owner or occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners; and in default thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees; and the Commissioners in such case may remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable in manner hereinafter provided.

Proviso.

Provided that, when the expense shall have been paid by the occupier, except in the case in which such projections, encroachments, or obstructions were made or put up by him, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the expense of removing or altering the same from the rent payable by him to the owner of the house or building. Provided always, that the roofs or eaves of houses or buildings, sun-shades, weather-frames, and the like, at a height not less than twelve feet above the surface of any street, may be projected to the extent of three feet over the same.

Sun-shades, &c.

Commissioners may allow certain projections from houses.

XXXIV. The Commissioners may give permission in writing to the owners or occupiers of houses or buildings in public streets, the width of which is not less than twenty-five feet, to put up verandahs, balconies, sun-shades, weather-frames, and the like, to project from any upper-story thereof over the street to an extent not exceeding four feet from the foundation, and in streets of greater width, for special reasons, to allow such projections to be extended to five feet.

Removal of existing projections from houses.

XXXV. If any such projection, encroachment, or obstruction was erected or placed against or in front of any house or building, in any public street, before the passing of this Act, the Commissioners may cause the same to be removed or altered as they think fit; provided that they give notice of such intended removal or alteration to the occupier of the house or building against or in front of which such projection encroachment, or obstruction shall be, thirty days before such alteration or removal is begun; and if such projection, encroachment or obstruction shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damages by such removal or alteration; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Notice of removal.

Compensation when to be made.

Roofs and outer walls of houses not to be made of combustible materials.

XXXVI. The external roofs and walls of houses and buildings erected in any street after the passing of this Act, shall not be made of grass, leaves, mats, or other such inflammable materials; and it shall not be lawful for the owner of any house or building in any street now having an external roof or wall made of any such material, and which is contiguous to or adjoining to any other building, to suffer such roof or wall to remain for a longer time than two years after the passing of this Act, unless with the consent in writing of the Commissioners; and whoever makes any external roof or wall of such materials, or suffers any roof or wall made of such materials, to continue contrary to the provisions herein contained, and who shall not remove or alter the same within one month after notice given to him for that purpose by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for every day that such roof or wall shall continue.

Houses in a ruinous or dangerous state.

XXXVII. If, in any street, any house, building, or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, be deemed by the Commissioners to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house or building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or the occupiers thereof, or to passengers, they shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers; and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner if he be known and resident within the limits of their jurisdiction, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or other thing, as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure the same within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Commissioners shall cause all or so much of such house, building, wall, or other thing, as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured; and all the expenses incurred by the Commissioners shall be paid by the owner of the premises and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Sale of materials of ruinous houses.

XXXVIII. If any such house, building, wall, or other thing, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Commissioners may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred in respect of such house, building, wall, or other thing; and the Commissioners shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house, building, wall, or other thing on demand: nevertheless the Commissioners, although they sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale as by this Act are given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

XXXIX. If any building, by reason of abandonment or of disputed ownership or other cause, shall remain untenanted and thereby become a receptacle for thieves and vagabonds, or be complained of by any two or more of the neighbours as a nuisance, the Commissioners, after due enquiry, may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner or to the person claiming to be the owner, if he be known and resident within the limits of their jurisdiction, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the premises, requiring the persons concerned therein, whoever they may be, to secure the same in such manner as that strangers may not have access thereto; and if such notice shall not be complied with within seven days, the Commissioners shall cause the necessary work to be executed; and all expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the premises, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Power to shut up and secure deserted houses.

XL. Whoever, being the occupier of a house in any street, keeps, or allows to be kept, for more than 24 hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any dirt, dung, bones, ashes, night-soil, filth, or any noxious or offensive matter, in or upon the roof of such house, or in any out-house, yard, or ground attached to and occupied with such house, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom and to cleanse and purify the same, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Penalty on occupier of a house not removing filth.

XLI. Whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, building, or lands, in or near any street, whether tenantable or otherwise, shall suffer the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, and to a further penalty, not exceeding five Rupees, for every day during which he shall so make default.

Filthy houses, &c.

Hedges and Trees.

XLII. The Commissioners shall give notice to the owner or occupier of any ground to trim or prune the hedges thereof bordering any public road, street, or foot-path, so that they may not exceed the height of six feet from the ground; and to cut and trim all trees overhanging any public road, street, or foot-path so as to obstruct the passage or to cause damage thereto; and in the event of such notice not being complied within one week from the date thereof, the Commissioners may cause the said hedges and trees to be cut and trimmed in the manner required; and the expense incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof shall be re-paid to them by the owners, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to trim hedges and trees bordering roads

Swine, Sheep, &c.

XLIII. Whoever shall keep any pig-stye to the front of any street, not being shut out therefrom by a sufficient wall or fence, or who shall keep any swine in or near any street, so as to be a nuisance to the neighbourhood; or who shall, without the permission of the Commissioners, keep more than twenty sheep, goats, or horned cattle in or near any street, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Keeping swine, &c. in or near any street.

Sewers and Drains.

XLIV. All public sewers and drains, and all sewers, drains, tunnels, and culverts in, alongside, and under the streets and roads existing at the time of the passing of this Act, or afterwards made, and whether made at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all works, materials, and things appertaining thereto, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

Sewers, Drains, &c. vested in the Commissioners

XLV. The Commissioners, so far as the funds at their disposal will permit, shall from time to time cause to be made such main and other sewers as they may judge necessary for the effectual draining of the Town or Station under their authority; and if needful, they may carry any such sewers through, across, or under any street or any place laid out as or intended for a street, or any cellar or vault which may be under any of the streets, and (after reasonable notice in writing in that behalf) into, through, or under any inclosed or other lands whatsoever, doing as little damage as may be, and making full compensation, for any damage done; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates

Commissioners to make public sewers.

XLVI. The Commissioners shall maintain, and from time to time repair, and (as they see fit) enlarge, alter, arch-over, or otherwise improve, all or any of the sewers and drains vested in them by this Act; and may discontinue, close up, or destroy such of them as they may deem to have become useless or unnecessary. Provided always, that the discontinuance, closing up, or destruction of any sewer or drain shall be so done as not to create a nuisance; and if, by reason thereof or of any such alteration as hereinbefore mentioned, any person is deprived of the lawful use of any sewer or drain, the Commissioners shall, with due diligence, provide some other sewer or drain as effectual for his use as the one of which he is so deprived.

Commissioners to repair and alter and discontinue sewers.

Proviso.

XLVII. The Commissioners shall cause the sewers and drains vested in them by this Act to be so constructed, maintained, and kept, as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health, and to be properly cleared, cleansed, and emptied; and for the purpose of flushing, cleansing, and emptying the same, they may construct and place, either above or under-ground, such reservoirs, sluices, engines, and other works as may be necessary; and they may also cause all or any of such sewers and drains to communicate with and be emptied into the sea or any public river (as the case may admit) or other fit place; or they may cause the refuse from such sewers and drains to be conveyed by a proper channel to the most convenient site for its deposit, and may sell the same for any agricultural or other purposes as may be deemed most expedient, but so that the same shall not become a nuisance.

Cleansing and emptying sewers.

XLVIII. When the contents of any sewer or drain, or any other flow of filth or refuse, are discharged into any river or stream, in the bed or channel of which the quantity of water at any season of the year is so much diminished by natural or artificial causes as to be insufficient to keep such channel clean or clear, the Commissioners shall make such alteration in the bed of such river or stream as may prevent such sewer and drain-water from spreading over the surface of such bed, or from accumulating and stagnating in parts thereof to the injury of health or the annoyance of the surrounding population.

Beds of streams receiving sewerage to be cleared.

Penalty for making unauthorized drains into public sewers.

XLIX. Whoever, without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained, shall make or cause to be made any drain into any of the sewers or drains vested in them by this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees; and the Commissioners may cause such branch drain to be demolished, altered, re-made, or otherwise dealt with, as they think fit; and all the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the person making such branch drain, and shall be recoverable by the Commissioners as hereinafter provided.

Building over sewers, &c. not to be without consent of Commissioners.

L. No building shall be newly erected over any sewer or drain vested in the Commissioners by this Act, and no vault, arch, or cellar, shall be newly constructed under any street without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained; and all vaults, arches, and cellars made with such consent, shall be constructed substantially and so as not to interfere or communicate with any sewers or drains belonging to the Commissioners; and if any building, vault, arch, or cellar be erected or constructed contrary to the provisions herein contained, the Commissioners may cause the same to be altered, pulled down, or otherwise dealt with as they may think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person offending and be recoverable by the Commissioners as hereinafter provided.

Commissioners empowered to make drains from houses in any street, which are not properly drained.

LI. If any house or building, in any street, be at any time not drained to the satisfaction of the Commissioners by a sufficient drain or pipe communicating with some sewer, or with the sea, or some public river or other place at which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers, and if there be such means of drainage within one hundred feet of any part of such house or building, the Commissioners may construct or lay from such house or building a covered drain or pipe of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall as they think necessary for the drainage of such house or building; and the expenses incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof, if not forthwith paid by the owner, shall be recoverable in the manner hereinafter directed. Provided that the cost of executing such work shall not, without the consent of the owner, exceed the amount of three months' rent of the house or building.

Level of houses hereafter built in streets.

LII. No house or building shall be hereafter built in any street upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of such house or building being led into some public sewer either then existing or projected by the Commissioners, or into the sea, or some public river or other place into which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers.

Houses hereafter built in streets to have drains constructed under the orders of the Commissioners.

LIII. If any house or building, newly erected or re-built in any street after the passing of this Act, have such means of drainage as in the last preceding Section mentioned, existing within one hundred feet thereof, the Commissioners shall cause the owner to make a drain leading thereunto from the site of such house or building, of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall as they think fit.

Notice of new buildings in streets to be given to the Commissioners.

LIV. Before beginning, in any street, to build any new house or to re-build any house which has been taken down, the person intending to build or re-build such house shall give to the Commissioners notice thereof in writing, and shall accompany such notice with a plan showing the level at which the foundation of such house is proposed to be laid by reference to some level ascertained under the direction of the Commissioners.

Commissioners to signify disapproval within fourteen days.

LV. Within fourteen days after receiving such notice, the Commissioners may signify their disapproval of the level at which it is proposed to lay the foundation of any such house, and in case of such disapproval may, within the said fourteen days, fix the level at which the same is to be laid.

Houses built without notice, or contrary to provisions of this Act, may be altered by Commissioners.

LVI. If such building be begun or made without sending such notice and plan, or at any level different from that fixed by the Commissioners within the said fourteen days, or in any other respect contrary to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may, if necessary, cause such building to be altered or demolished as the case may require; and the expense thereby incurred shall be repaid to them by the person failing to comply with the provisions aforesaid, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

If Commissioners fail to approve, &c. within fourteen days, parties may proceed without.

LVII. If the Commissioners fail to signify in writing their approval or disapproval of the level shown on such plan as aforesaid within fourteen days after receiving such notice and plan as aforesaid, the person giving such notice may, notwithstanding any thing hereinbefore contained, proceed to build or re-build the house therein referred to according to the level shown on such plan, provided that such building or re-building be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sewers in streets to be covered with traps, &c.

LVIII. All sewers and drains in streets, whether public or private, shall be provided by the Commissioners or other persons to whom they severally belong, with proper traps or other coverings or means of ventilation so as to prevent stench. If the owner of any private sewer or drain shall, for ten days after notice given to him by the Commissioners, neglect or delay to provide proper traps or coverings or means of ventilation as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith provide and apply the same, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such sewer or drain, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

LIX. Whoever throws or puts, or permits his servants to throw or put, any earth, dirt, ashes, garden or stable refuse, or any broken glass or earthen-ware, or other rubbish, into any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners, or into any drain communicating therewith, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Throwing rubbish into sewers.

LX. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, provide and maintain in proper and convenient situations, so as not to create a nuisance, common necessaries and urinals, and shall cause the same to be kept in proper order and to be daily cleansed.

Common necessaries.

LXI. The Commissioners may license, for any period not exceeding one year, such necessaries for public accommodation as they from time to time think proper; and whoever keeps any public necessary without such license, or having a license for such place, suffers the same to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means for cleansing the same, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and in the latter case the license may be cancelled by the Magistrate before whom the person is convicted.

Licensing of public necessaries.

LXII. All branch drains, as well within as without the lands or buildings to which they belong, and all privies and cess-pools in or near the streets, shall be under the survey and control of the Commissioners, and shall be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the costs and charges of the owners of the lands and buildings to which the same belong or for the use of which they are constructed or continued; and if the owner of any land or buildings to which any such drain, privy, or cess-pool belongs, neglect, during fourteen days after notice in writing for that purpose, to alter, repair, and put the same into good order in the manner required by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such drain, privy, or cess-pool to be altered, repaired, and put in good order; and the expense incurred by the Commissioners in respect thereof shall be re-paid to them by the owners, by whom the same ought to have been done, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Branch drains, privies, &c. to be under control of Commissioners, and to be kept in good order by owners.

If owners neglect, Commissioners may cause the same to be done and charge the owners with the expense.

LXIII. The owner or occupier of any house or building having a privy erected on his premises, shall have such privy shut out by a sufficient wall or fence from the view of persons passing by.

Neglecting to enclose private privy.

LXIV. The Commissioners, or any officer appointed by them for the purpose, may inspect any such drain, privy, or cess-pool, and for that purpose at all reasonable times in the day time, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the occupier of the premises to which such drain, privy, or cess-pool is attached, may enter upon any lands and buildings with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where he thinks fit, doing as little damage as may be; and if such drain, privy, or cess-pool be found to be in proper order and condition, he shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be; and the expenses of opening, closing, and making good such drain, privy, or cess-pool shall, in that case, be defrayed by the Commissioners.

As to the inspection of drains, privies, and cess-pools.

LXV. If any such drain, privy, or cess-pool be, on inspection, found to have been constructed, after the passing of this Act, contrary to the directions and regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act; or if any person, without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, re-builds, or unstops, any drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up or not to be made, every person so doing shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and the Commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such drain, privy, or cess-pool as they think fit; and the expense thereof shall be paid by the person by whom such drain, privy, or cess-pool was improperly constructed, re-built, or unstopped, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Penalty for persons making or altering drains, &c. contrary to the orders of the Commissioners.

Owners and Occupiers.

LXVI. Where any notice is required by this Act to be given to the owner or occupier of any building or land, such notice, addressed to the owner or occupier as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such building or land, or left with some adult male member or servant of his family if residing in his dwelling-house; or if there be no occupier, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such building or land, and it shall not be necessary in any such notice to name the occupier or the owner. Provided always that, when the owner and his residence are known to the Commissioners, it shall be their duty, if such owner be residing within the Town or Station under their authority, to cause every notice, required to be given to the owner of any building or land, to be served on such owner, or left with some adult male member or servant of his family residing as aforesaid, and if the owner be not resident within the Town or Station, they shall send every such notice by the post addressed to his residence.

Service of notice on owners and occupiers of buildings and lands.

LXVII. Whenever, under the provisions of this Act, any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house or lands, and default is made in the execution of such works, the Commissioners may cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereby incurred shall be re-paid to them by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Commissioners, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expenses.

LXVIII. Whenever default is made by the owner of any buildings or lands in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such buildings or lands may, with the approval of the Commissioners, cause such work to be executed; and the expense thereof shall be re-paid to him by the owner, and the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

Occupier, in default of owner, may execute works and deduct expenses from his rent.

Recovery of expenses from owner.

LXIX. If the owner of any buildings or lands made liable by this Act for the re-payment to the Commissioners of any expenses incurred by them, do not repay all such expenses, the Commissioners may recover the same from such owner in the manner hereinafter provided, or by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Power to levy charges on occupier, who may deduct the same from his rent.

LXX. The Commissioners may, by way of additional remedy, whether any such action or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then or at any time thereafter occupies any such buildings or lands under such owner; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier, on demand, the same may be levied by distress of the goods and chattels of such occupier; and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as is so paid by or recovered from him in respect of any such expenses.

Occupier not to be liable for more than the amount of rent due.

LXXI. No occupier of any buildings or land shall be liable to pay more money, in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof, than the amount of rent due from him for the premises in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which, at any time after such demand and notice not to pay the same to his landlord, have accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for that purpose by the Commissioners, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burden of proof, that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand or which has since accrued, shall lie upon such occupier; provided further that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any such owner or occupier respecting the payment of the expenses of any such works as aforesaid.

Proceedings in case of tenants opposing the execution of this Act.

LXXII. If the occupier of any buildings or lands prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect, in respect of such buildings or lands, any of the provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any Magistrate, upon proof thereof, may make an order in writing, requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such buildings or lands as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act; and if, after the expiration of ten days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, such occupier shall, for every day during which he so continues to refuse, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal, shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

Tanks and Water supply.

Tanks, &c vested in the Commissioners.

LXXIII. All public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works, existing at the time of the passing of this Act, or afterwards made, and whether at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise; and all bridges, buildings, engines, works, materials, and things connected therewith or appertaining thereto; and also any adjacent land (not being private property) appertaining to any public tank, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

Construction and maintenance of works for supply of water.

LXXIV. The Commissioners shall cause all existing public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works used for the supply of water to the inhabitants or for the other purposes mentioned in this Act, to be continued, maintained, and supplied with water; or they shall substitute other such works and shall cause them to be maintained and supplied with water; and the Commissioners from time to time, with the consent of the local Government, may construct aqueducts for bringing water into the Towns or Stations under their authority, and may provide any number of new tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, and other such water-works for the purposes aforesaid.

Provision for supply of water in cases of fire.

LXXV. The Commissioners shall, so far as the funds at their disposal will permit, cause all necessary works, machinery, and assistance for securing an efficient supply of water in cases of fire, to be provided and maintained.

Power to Commissioners to contract for supply of water and to grant leases for that purpose.

LXXVI. The Commissioners may, with the consent of the local Government, contract with any person for supplying the Town or Station under their authority, or any part thereof, with water; and may also, with the like consent, grant to any person, so contracting, a lease, for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, of any water-works, machinery, streams, waters, lands, easements, rights, privileges, and advantages belonging to or acquired by, or which may belong to or be acquired by or be vested in the Commissioners under any of the powers or authorities in this or any other Act contained, so as to enable such person so contracting the more effectually and efficiently to procure and supply water in pursuance of any such contract; and every such lease so to be granted by the Commissioners may be made subject to such conditions and stipulations as to the supplying water for the purposes of this Act, or any of them, as may be agreed upon between the respective parties thereto.

Fouling water by Bathing.

Washing.

LXXVII. Whoever shall, except as permitted by the Commissioners under Section LXXX, bathe in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, or aqueduct belonging to the Commissioners; or shall wash or cause to be washed therein any horse, dog, or other animal, or any wool, cloth, or wearing apparel, or any utensils for cooking or other purposes, or leather, or the skin of any animal, or other foul or offensive thing; or shall throw, put, or cast, or cause to enter therein, any animal or any gravel, stone, dust, or rubbish, or any dirt, filth, or other noisome or offensive matter or thing; or shall cause or suffer to run, drain, or be brought thereinto the water of any sink, sewer, drain, engine, or boiler, or any other unwholesome or offensive liquid matter or thing belonging to him or flowing from any house or building or from any ground occupied by him; or shall do any thing whatsoever whereby any such water shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted—shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Throwing rubbish, &c.

Allowing drains, &c. to flow.

LXXVIII. Whoever, being the proprietor of any gas-works, or being engaged or employed in the manufacture or supply of gas, or being the occupier or proprietor of any place where an offensive trade or manufacture is carried on, shall wilfully do any act connected with his said business, whereby the water in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, aqueduct, or other water-works belonging to the Commissioners, is fouled or corrupted, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand Rupees, and to a further penalty, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, for every day whilst the offence is continued after twenty-four hours' notice in writing from the Commissioners in this behalf; and the Commissioners may, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing, lay open and examine any pipes, conduits, and works belonging to such person; and if, upon such examination, it appears that the water has been fouled or corrupted by any thing proceeding from or contained in the pipes, conduits, or works examined, the expenses of such examination shall be paid by the person to whom such pipes, conduits, or works belong, or under whose management or control they may be, and be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided; but if it appear that the water has not been so fouled or corrupted, then such expenses, and all reasonable damages occasioned by the examination, shall be paid by the Commissioners.

Water fouled by offensive trades.

LXXIX. Whoever wilfully or carelessly injures any water-works belonging to the Commissioners, or unlawfully draws off, diverts, or takes water from any such water-works or from any waters or streams belonging to the Commissioners by which such water-works are supplied, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Injuring water-works or diverting or wasting water.

LXXX. The Commissioners may, at their discretion, set apart any public ghaut, or place, or any part of the sea-shore or of the strand of any river (not being private property), for the purpose of being used as a bathing place; and may also provide or set apart a sufficient number of convenient tanks or runs of water for the inhabitants to bathe in; and may also set apart tanks or reservoirs or runs of water for washing animals or clothes, or for any other purpose connected with the health, cleanliness, and comfort of the inhabitants.

Commissioners may set apart bathing places, &c.

LXXXI. The Commissioners may, in the manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws—

Bye-laws to regulate

For regulating all or any matters and things whatsoever connected with the water to be supplied by them, and the use of such water for any of the purposes mentioned in this Act—

The use of water.

And for regulating the time and place of bathing for persons of each sex in the places provided or appointed by them for the purpose of bathing, in such manner as shall appear to the Commissioners necessary, making due allowance for the habits and customs of the country.

Bathing places.

LXXXII. When any private tank or low marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water being within any private enclosure, appears to the Commissioners to be injurious to health, or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require, by notice in writing, the owner of the said premises to cleanse or fill up such tank or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during seven days from the service thereof, the Commissioners, their officers, and workmen, may enter into the said premises and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as they shall think fit; and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to fill up unwholesome tanks on private premises.

LXXXIII. The Commissioners are hereby empowered, from time to time as they shall see fit, to drain off into any sewers, and cleanse and fill up or otherwise abate, any stagnant pool, ditch, tank, pond, or other receptacle of water (the same not being within any private enclosure) which shall appear to them to be useless or unnecessary, or likely to prove injurious to the health of the inhabitants, whether the same be the private property of any person or otherwise; and the Commissioners, their officers, and workmen, may do all necessary acts for effecting any of the purposes aforesaid.

Power to drain off and cleanse stagnant pools in open places.

Provisions relating to the execution of Works.

LXXXIV. The Commissioners, in executing any works directed or authorized by this Act to be made, shall provide and make, at their own expense, a sufficient number of convenient ways, wells, water-courses, drains, and channels in the place of such as may be interrupted, injured, or rendered useless by reason of the execution of such works; and in case of any difference arising between the Commissioners and the persons affected thereby, such difference shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Commissioners in executing works to provide roads, &c. where existing ones injured.

LXXXV. When the pavement or soil of any street, or when any sewer or drain, shall be opened or broken up by the Commissioners, their officers, or servants, they shall, with all convenient speed, complete the work on account of which the same shall have been broken up, and fill in the ground and make good the pavement and soil and the sewer or drain so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall Commissioners breaking up street to restore the same with all convenient speed.

in the mean-time, cause the place where such pavement or soil shall be so opened or broken up, to be fenced and guarded.

Situation of gas and water-pipes to be altered at the expense of the Commissioners.

LXXXVI. For the purposes of this Act, if the Commissioners deem it necessary to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any water-pipe or gas-pipe, or other water-works or gas-works laid in any of the streets, they may from time to time, by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, to cause forthwith, as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position in such manner as the Commissioners direct; provided that such alteration be not such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the expenses attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and full compensation for every damage done thereby, shall be paid by the Commissioners, as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons. And if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

If Companies neglect to make alterations, the Commissioners may cause the same to be done.

LXXXVII. If the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of such notice, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered, in such manner as the Commissioners require, the Commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they think fit; provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

Precautions during repairs.

Hoards to be set up during repairs.

LXXXVIII. Every person intending to build or take down any building, or to alter or repair the outward part of any building where any street or footway will be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work, shall, before beginning the same and having first obtained a license in writing from the Commissioners so to do, cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up, in order to separate the building where such works are being carried on from the street, and shall continue such hoard or fence standing and in good condition, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall, in all cases in which it is necessary, in order to prevent accidents, cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night; and every such person who, without license first duly obtained as aforesaid, erects or sets up any hoards, scaffolding, or fence whatsoever, or who, being duly licensed, fails to put up such fence or hoard, or to continue the same standing and in good condition as aforesaid during the time aforesaid, or who does not, while the said hoard or fence is standing, keep the same sufficiently lighted during the night, or who does not remove the same when directed by the Commissioners, within a reasonable time afterwards, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day while such default is continued.

Bars to be erected across streets during repairs, and lights placed at nights.

LXXXIX. The Commissioners shall, during the construction or repair of any of the streets, sewers, or drains vested in them, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining houses, and shall cause such bars, chains, or posts to be fixed across or in any of the streets or roads to prevent the passage of carriages, carts, or other vehicles, cattle, or horses, while such works are carried on, as to them shall seem proper; and the Commissioners shall cause any sewer or drain or other works in streets, during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be lighted and guarded during the night so as to prevent accidents; and whoever takes down, alters, or removes any of the said bars, chains, or posts, or extinguishes any light, without the authority or consent of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Penalty for not lighting deposits of building materials or excavations.

XC. When any building materials, rubbish, or other things are laid, or any hole made, in any of the streets, whether the same be done by order of the Commissioners or not, the person causing such materials or other things to be so laid or such hole to be made, shall, at his own expense, cause a sufficient light to be fixed in a proper place upon or near the same, and continue such light during every night while such materials or hole remain; and such person shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or other things, and such hole, to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed, until such materials or other things are removed, or the hole filled up or otherwise made secure; and every such person who fails so to light, fence, or enclose, such materials or other things, or such hole, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day while such default is continued.

Penalty for continuing deposits of building materials or excavations an unreasonable time.

XCI. In no case shall any such building materials or other things, or such hole, be allowed to remain for an unnecessary time, under a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, to be paid by the person who causes such materials or other things to be laid or such hole to be made, and a further penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day during which the offence is continued after the conviction for such offence; and in any such case the proof that the time has not exceeded the necessary time, shall be upon the person so causing such materials or other things to be laid, or causing such hole to be made.

Dangerous places near streets to be repaired or enclosed.

XCII. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place, near any street or road be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers, the Commissioners shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed so as to prevent danger thereupon; and the expenses of such repair, protection, or enclosure shall be re-paid to the Commissioners by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Slaughter-Houses and Markets.

Slaughter-houses within certain limits to be registered.

XCIII. Within the parts of any of the said Towns and Stations which shall be specially prescribed by the local Government for the purpose, every place used as a slaughter-house shall, within three months after the passing of this Act, be registered by the owner or occupier at the office of the Commissioners, in a book to be kept by them for that purpose; and whoever, after the expiration of that time and after one week's notice from the Commissioners, uses or permits to be used within the limits so prescribed, any slaughter-house without its being registered, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the first day during which such place shall be so used without having been registered.

No slaughter-houses to be newly set up without license.

XCIV. No place shall be used as a slaughter-house within the prescribed limits which was not in such use at the time of the passing of this Act, and has not so continued ever since, unless and until a license in writing for the use thereof as a slaughter-house has been obtained from the Commissioners, who are hereby empowered, at their discretion, from time to time to grant such licenses; and whoever, without such license, uses as a slaughter-house any place within such limits not used as such at the time of the passing of this Act and so continued to be used ever since, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the conviction for such offence upon which the said offence is continued.

Commissioners to provide places for slaughter-houses, &c.

XCV. The Commissioners may from time to time, if they shall think fit, with the consent of the local Government, provide places for the purpose of being used as slaughter-houses, and they shall make bye-laws for and with respect to the management and charges for the use of such places.

Markets, slaughter-houses, &c. to be properly drained.

XCVI. Every owner, occupier, or farmer of any public market or bazar, or of any slaughter-house within the prescribed limits, shall cause such drains to be made therein as shall be considered sufficient by the Commissioners, and (if required so to do by the Commissioners) shall cause all the floors and drains to be paved with stone or burnt brick, and shall also cause a supply of water to be provided sufficient for keeping such market, bazar, or slaughter-house in a clean and wholesome state; and in default thereof for four weeks after notice in writing given to him by the Commissioners that such market, bazar, or slaughter-house is defective in any of the said particulars, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the first day during which such default shall be continued.

Commissioners may make bye-laws for the inspection, &c. of slaughter-houses.

XCVII. The Commissioners may, in manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws for the inspection of all public markets and bazars, and of all slaughter-houses within the prescribed limits, and for the management and conduct of the business therein, and for keeping the same in a cleanly and proper state, and for removing filth at least once in every twenty-four hours.

Keeping unwholesome food in market, or in shops, &c.

XCVIII. No animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable, which is unfit for the food of man, shall be kept in any market, bazar, shop, building, stall, or place kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, or fish, or vegetable; and whoever shall keep in any market, bazar, shop, building, stall, or place as aforesaid, or shall expose or allow to be exposed for sale in any other place or way, any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable which is unfit for the food of man, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Sale of unwholesome food or drink.

XCIX. Whoever sells, or offers or exposes for sale, within any of the said Towns and Stations, as food or drink for man, any article which has been rendered or has become noxious or unfit for such use, knowing, or having reason to believe the same to be noxious or unfit for such use, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three hundred Rupees, and such article shall be forfeited and disposed of as the Magistrate shall direct; and it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, on the application of the Commissioners or any of their officers setting forth that he has just cause to believe that any such article is in the possession of any person for the purpose of being sold or offered or exposed for sale as aforesaid, to grant a warrant to enter upon the premises of such person and to search for and seize such article, and if it appear to the Magistrate, upon the evidence of a competent person, that the same is noxious or unfit for such use, he shall order such article to be forfeited and disposed of in such way as to him shall seem proper.

Power to Commissioners to enter and inspect slaughter-houses, shops, &c. and to seize unwholesome articles exposed for sale.

C. The Commissioners, or any person appointed by them for that purpose, may at all reasonable times, with or without assistants, enter into and inspect any market, bazar, building, shop, stall, or place kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or as a slaughter-house, and may examine any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables which may be therein; and in case any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables appear to be intended for the food of man and to be unfit for such food, may seize the same; and if it appear to any Magistrate, upon the evidence of a competent person, that such animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables is unfit for the food of man, he shall order the same to be destroyed or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or used for such food; and the owner thereof, or the person in whose custody the same is found, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Suspension or revocation of license, &c.

CI. The Magistrate, before whom any person is convicted of an offence contrary to the provisions of this Act relating to slaughter-houses, or of the non-observance of any of the bye-laws relating thereto made by virtue of this Act, in addition to the penalty imposed on such person under the authority of this Act, may suspend, for any period not exceeding two months, the license granted to such person under this Act; or in case such person be the owner or proprietor of any registered slaughter-house, may forbid, for any period not exceeding two months, the slaughtering of cattle therein; and the Magistrate, upon the conviction of any person for a second or other subsequent like offence, may, in addition to the penalty imposed under the authority of this Act, declare the license granted under this Act revoked, or if such person be the owner or occupier of any registered slaughter-house, may forbid absolutely the slaughtering of cattle therein; and whenever the license of any such person is revoked as aforesaid, or whenever the slaughtering of cattle in any registered slaughter-house is absolutely forbidden as aforesaid, the Commissioners may refuse to grant any license whatever to the person whose license has been so revoked, or on account of whose default the slaughtering of cattle in any registered slaughter-house has been forbidden.

Penalty for using slaughter houses, &c. during suspension or revocation of license, &c.

CII. Whoever, during the period for which any such license is suspended or after the same is revoked as aforesaid, slaughters cattle in the slaughter-house to which such license relates, or otherwise uses such slaughter-house, or allows the same to be used as a slaughter-house; and whoever, during the period that the slaughtering of cattle in any such registered slaughter-house is forbidden as aforesaid, or after such slaughtering has been absolutely forbidden therein, slaughters any cattle in any such registered slaughter-house, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a penalty, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day on which any such offence is committed after the conviction for the first offence.

Offensive or dangerous Trades.

Offensive or dangerous trades existing within certain limits to be registered.

CIII. Within the parts of any of the said Towns and Stations which shall be specially prescribed by the local Government for the purpose, the owner or occupier of every place used at the time of the passing of this Act for any of the following purposes, namely, for melting tallow, or for boiling offal or blood, or as a soap house, dyeing house, tannery, brick or lime or chunam kiln, sago-manufactory, or other manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise, or as a yard or depôt for hay, straw, wood, or coal, shall, within three months after this Act comes into operation, register the same at the office of the Commissioners in a book to be kept by them for that purpose; and whoever, after the expiration of the said three months and after one week's notice from the Commissioners, uses any such place without the same being registered, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and to a further penalty of fifty Rupees for each day during which the offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing such trades without license

CIV. No place shall be newly used within the prescribed limits for any of the purpose mentioned in the last preceding Section, except under a license from the Commissioners, who are hereby empowered, at their discretion, from time to time to grant such licenses; and whoever, without a license, uses any such place for such purpose, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees, and a further penalty of fifty Rupees for each day during which the offence is continued.

Commissioners to make rules for licensing, registering, &c. such business places.

CV. The Commissioners may, in the manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws for the inspection of every place within the prescribed limits used for any of the purposes mentioned in Section CIII and for the management and conduct of such business, whether the same be newly established or not, in such manner as they may think necessary and proper, in order to prevent or diminish the noxious or injurious or offensive effect thereof.

Burial and Burning Places.

Burial and burning grounds to be registered

CVI. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, cause a survey and measurement to be made of every burial ground and every place used as such, and every burning ground existing at the time of the passing of this Act; and every such place shall, within three months after this Act shall come into operation, be registered by the owner or the person having the control thereof, at the office of the Commissioners in a book to be kept by them for that purpose; and whoever, after the expiration of the said time, knowingly buries or burns, or causes, procures, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse in any ground other than in any such registered burial or burning ground, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees

No vault or burial place henceforth to be constructed without leave of Commissioners.

CVII. No vault or grave shall be made within the walls of, or underneath any church or chapel or other place of public worship built after the passing of this Act; and no burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be opened, made, or formed after the passing of this Act, without a license describing the extent and boundaries thereof first obtained from the Commissioners, who are hereby empowered, at their discretion, from time to time, to grant such licenses; and whoever shall bury or burn, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in any vault, grave, or burial or burning ground opened, made, or formed without such license, or contrary to the terms thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Commissioners to issue certificates prohibiting improper burial places.

CVIII. If upon enquiry made, the Commissioners, with the sanction of the local Government, shall certify, in manner hereinafter provided, that any burial ground or place of burial, or any place used for the burning of corpses, is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, or otherwise a nuisance, or that any church or other place of public worship is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting the same, by reason of the state of the vaults or graves within the walls of or underneath the same or in any church-yard or burial ground adjacent thereto, and shall also certify that a fitting place for interment or burning (as the case may be) exists within a convenient distance, it shall not be lawful, after a time (not less than two months) to be named in such certificate, to bury or burn, or permit or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpses in, upon, within, or under the ground, church, or place of worship to which the certificate relates, except in so far as may be allowed by such certificate; and whoever, after due publication of such certificate as hereinafter provided, buries or burns, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse contrary to this enactment, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Proviso. Provided always, that every such certificate shall be published in the Government Gazette (if any) and in one or more of the public newspapers, and that a translation thereof in the native languages chiefly in use in the Town or Station to which it relates, shall, in the case of a burial or burning ground, be affixed conspicuously on some part of the said ground.

Commissioners may, in certain cases, permit interment in churches, &c. CIX. Notwithstanding any such certificate as in the preceding Section mentioned, where by usage or otherwise there is, at the time of the passing of this Act, any right of interment in or under any church or chapel or in any vault of such church or chapel or of any church-yard, burial ground, or place of burial affected by such certificate, or where any exclusive right of interment or any exclusive right to ground for the purpose of interment has been purchased or acquired before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if, on application made to them, they are satisfied that the exercise of such right or the use of such ground will not be injurious to health, to grant a license for such exercise or use during such time and subject to such conditions and restrictions as they may think fit.

Commissioners to make bye-laws for regulation of burial and burning grounds. CX. The Commissioners may, in manner hereinafter provided, make bye-laws for the inspection and regulation of burial and burning grounds, and may thereby prescribe rules as to the depth and formation of graves and places of interment; the time and mode of removing bodies, whether for interment, or for the purpose of being burned or thrown into a river; and (in the latter case) as to the ghauts or places to which bodies shall be carried; and generally as to all matters connected with the good order of burial and burning grounds.

Powers of entry upon land.

Power to enter upon lands, &c. for the purposes of this Act. CXI. The Commissioners shall, for the purposes of this Act, have power, by themselves or their officers, to enter at all reasonable hours in the day time into and upon any buildings or lands, as well for the purpose of making any survey or inspection as for the purpose of executing any work authorized by this Act to be executed by them, without being liable to any legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever on account of such entry or of any thing done in any part of such buildings or lands in pursuance of this Act.

Proviso Provided that, except when herein otherwise provided, the Commissioners or their officers shall not enter upon any buildings or lands which may be occupied at the time, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving the said occupier 24 hours' notice of his or their intention to do so.

Power to Commissioners to enter on lands adjacent to works, &c. CXII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or their officers or servants, to enter upon the lands of any person adjoining to, or being within the distance of one hundred yards of any works by this Act authorized to be made, for the purpose of depositing upon such lands, any soil, gravel, sand, lime, brick, stone, or other materials, or for any other purposes connected with the formation of the said works, without making any previous payment, tender, or deposit, doing as little damage as may be in the exercise of the several powers hereby granted to them, and making compensation for such temporary occupation or temporary damage of the said lands to the owners and occupiers thereof, from time to time, and as often as any such temporary occupation shall be taken or any such temporary damage done, and making compensation to the owners also for the permanent injury (if any) to such lands; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled by two Magistrates.

Proviso. Provided that, before the Commissioners make any such temporary use as aforesaid of the lands adjoining or lying near to the said works, they shall give fourteen days' notice of such their intention to the owners and occupiers of such lands, and shall set apart, by sufficient fences, so much of the lands as shall be required to be used as aforesaid, from the other lands adjoining thereto.

Penalty for obstructing Commissioners in their duty. CXIII. Whoever at any time obstructs or molests the Commissioners or any of their officers or workmen or any person employed by them or with whom they may have contracted under the provisions of this Act, in the performance and execution of their or his duty or of any thing which they are respectively empowered or required to do by virtue or in consequence of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees, or, in the discretion of the Magistrate before whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Power to Commissioners when constructing drains and aqueducts without the jurisdiction of Supreme Court. CXIV. For the purpose of constructing aqueducts for bringing water into any of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay from any place without the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature, or for the purpose of making sewers or drains to communicate with or empty themselves into any public sewer, lake, stream, canal, or water-course without the said limits, it shall be lawful, whenever a plan for any such aqueduct, sewer, or drain shall have been approved by the local Government, for the Commissioners and their officers, with such assistants as they may require, to exercise, in the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain throughout the line of country through which the said aqueduct, sewer, or drain is to run, all the powers which, by this Act, it is lawful for them to exercise within the said local limits and which may be necessary for the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, without being subject to any action or molestation whatever for so doing; and it shall also be lawful for any Magistrate of any district through which the said aqueduct, sewer, or drain is to run, in furtherance of the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, to do such acts within the limits of his own district as it is, by this Act, lawful for a Magistrate of any of the said Towns to do, in furtherance of any work to be executed by the Commissioners within the said local limits.

Bye-laws.

Commissioners empowered to make bye-laws.

CXV. The Commissioners may, from time to time, make such bye-laws as they think fit for the several purposes for which bye-laws are hereinbefore authorized to be made by them, and may prescribe such reasonable penalties as they think fit, not exceeding twenty Rupees, for each breach of such bye-laws, and may from time to time repeal, alter, or amend any such bye-laws; provided such bye-laws be not repugnant to law or to the provisions of this Act. Such bye-laws shall be reduced into writing and signed by two of the Commissioners, and shall be confirmed and published as hereinafter provided.

Bye-laws to be confirmed.

CXVI. No bye-law, or alteration of a bye-law, shall have effect until the same is confirmed by the local Government.

Notice of confirmation.
